SPEAKING OF LETTERS

By the time this issue appears, the voters will have decided the fate of the proposed revised addition to the high school.

Did you feel that we were too "pro" or too "con" in our selection of letters-to-The-Spotlight on this subject? (We have been labeled both.) Actually, we printed all or part of every single letter that came in prior to the final deadline on Thursday afternoon, Jan. 14. Two interesting letters; one on each side of the fence; arrived too late, on Saturday.

Several people have written us (speaking of deadlines) aggrieved notes which ask: "Why do you never use my news items?" The answer, dear readers, is always the same: "Because they came in too late." No other reason, ever. We like and appreciate receiving all news items.

Yes, it is a temptation to rewrite a story in the past tense and print it next time out, but that's dangerous. What if Mrs. X's little boy swallowed the lid of the peanut butter jar and she couldn't preside over the meeting? What if Doctor Y. were called to Boston and couldn't give his speech? And what if it snowed so enthusiastically that nobody showed up and there wasn't any meeting at all!

JANET SCOONS TO WED

Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Scoons of Delmar have announced the engagement of their daughter, Janet Eleanor, to Edmund S. Ardizzone Jr., also of Delmar. Miss Scoons is a graduate of Voorheesville Central High School and Albany Business College and is a dental assistant to Dr. Robert H. Koechley of Albany. Mr. Ardizzone, also a graduate of Voorheesville High School, is employed by the Royal Typewriter Company of Delmar.

GOT AN OLD ROWBOAT FOR TRI-VILLAGE SMALL FRY?

WINS REAL SPORTSCAR IN VET'S GARAGE OPENING DAY DRAWING

Seven-and-a-half-year old R. Clayton Albright Jr. was the happy winner of the 2½ horsepower miniature sportscar which was first prize in the drawing sponsored by Vet's Garage to celebrate their opening last week on Delaware Ave. in Delmar. Bertram Kohinke, supervisor of the Town of Bethlehem, drew Clayton's name on Sunday night, Jan. 17. The car is red and white, will seat 2 people, and can actually travel 21 m.p.h. Clayton, a resident of Corning Hill, Glenmont, is the envy of the neighborhood, and the happiest boy in our area, as you can see by the picture above.

Wait, Mothers! Don't throw out those toys. Here's first aid for that after-Christmas housecleaning.

The Tri-Village Nursery School located in the Bethlehem Center School, is looking for contributions to keep its pint-sized membership even busier these snow-bound days.

Here are some of the items that will be most welcome:

Mirrors: framed — which can be hung in the "housekeeping corners" of the classrooms so that boys as well as girls can appreciate the results of their dressing up.

Doll carriages or strollers.

Rowboat: a flat-bottomed boat that has outlived its usefulness at sea — to be used by young mariners on the playground. The oars would also be useful.

Also needed are wooden jigsaw puzzles (no missing parts please) to add variety to the present collection and what are known in nursery school circles as Block Accessory Toys; boats, cars, trucks, airplanes, any and all transportation.

Mrs. Kent Miller (HE 9-3946) and Mrs. Kenneth Frasure (HE 9-4387), co-chairmen of the school, will see that all contributions are picked up by members of their transportation committee.

LITTLE LEAGUE PARENTS TO HOLD ANNUAL DINNER-DANCE ON FEB. 13

The Tri-Village Little League will hold its annual dinner-dance at the Center Inn, Glenmont, on Feb. 13 at 7 P.M. Ceremonies will include the installation of officers for the League and its Ladies' Auxiliary. Parents and friends of the League are cordially invited to join with officials, managers and coaches in this event. Tickets are available from Ed Sargent (HE 9-1994), Will Green (HE 9-4103), or Fred Dearstyne (HE 9-3945).

To The Spotlight:

This is an open letter to the Parents of Teen-age Boys in "The Spotlight" Area.

Do you have a teen-age "punk" in your family?

Recently a number of women in this area have received phone calls made by "punks" threatening indecent acts during the night of the call.

Parents can, and should know what opportunities their boys have to make such calls and should question them until they are either found guilty and punished, or cleared of such despicable behavior.

Name submitted.

To The Spotlight:

I would like to say "well done" to the persons responsible for the idea of plowing our sidewalks.

For the 22 years I have lived in Slingerlands I have felt that having to walk in the road in winter was a dangerous situation.

Many of our Slingerlands children walk to school on the most dangerous streets — New Scotland Road, Kenwood Ave. and Union Ave. Walking in winter is good for them, providing they don't have to walk in the road.

It is also good to know the walks are plowed so very early. The boys delivering the morning papers appreciate this. On Jan. 13 the walks on Kenwood and New Scotland were plowed at 6:30 A.M. when these boys were on their routes.

I sincerely hope the mothers of children walking will insist they use the sidewalks now that they are accessible. Let's hope this sidewalk plowing will be a regular procedure each winter, as is the road plowing.

The highway crews — as always — are to be commended

Why New York State should not adopt the 10% Federal Telephone tax

IT IS AN UNFAIR TAX — PAID BY THE TELEPHONE USER — YOUR TELEPHONE IS THE ONLY HOUSEHOLD UTILITY SO TAXED!

On your monthly telephone bill you'll notice an item: "U.S. Tax." This refers to a Federal excise tax of 10%. It is a luxury sales tax on an essential service—the same sort of tax that applies on jewelry and furs.

Congress voted last year to drop the excise tax on local telephone service this coming June. It decided that the tax was unfair and discriminatory.

This would mean a 10% cut in the local telephone bills of all customers in the State.

But New York State now proposes to pick up the same tax and make it available to local communities!

A tax unfair for citizens of the country as a whole source of revenue other than the money you pay us. Continuation of the 10% luxury-type tax in New York after June 30 would only aggravate the existing discrimination against you, for it is a direct tax on you.

Tax Would Hurt Business Climate, Be Bad for Telephone Service

If — as the State proposes — a 10% luxury tax were to be imposed in New York while it is lifted in other states, businesses here would find it harder to compete with businesses elsewhere.

To the telephone business this type of discrimina-

Telephone User Overtaxed

We are in favor of better schools. We know they must be paid for and expect to do our fair part. The telephone company already is New York State's biggest source of revenue for schools and other purposes, because we are the State's biggest taxpayer.

- If you are a telephone user in New York you already carry far more than your fair share of the tax load.
- Thirty cents out of every telephone dollar you spend goes for taxes.
- State and local taxes on telephone service in New York are 4 to 5 times heavier than taxes on almost anything else you buy.
- State and local taxes on telephones in New York are 69% higher than the average for other states. They are the highest telephone taxes of any state but one.
- The burden falls on you, the user, for we have no

tory taxation means one thing — that our ability to provide the kind of service you and the people of New York State want and deserve will be seriously impaired in the long run. It is the very sort of discrimination that has brought the railroads to their present unhappy state.

This tax would be bad for you, the customer, bad for the business climate of the State and bad for the future of telephone service. Telephone users should not be singled out to carry this unfair load.

AN EMERGENCY TAX — BUT THE EMERGENCY IS OVER!

The excise tax was passed as an emergency measure during wartime. One reason for it was to restrict civilian use of the telephone and to save materials in the interest of defense. This very act acknowledged the telephone to be an essential service. To tax it as a luxury is unfair and discriminatory.

Kass of Slingerlands had the misfortune to ski into a tree or collide with another skier . . . Result broken skis and banged-up face. Hope all is well by now tho' . . . what with the two bus loads, sixty-eight teenagers, and a dozen egg salad sandwiches supplied by Harvey Martini, Jr. (who later consumed all 12), 'twas a lovely day. Nobody put root beer in a thermos this trip either. Polly Red Top or no! It is a mess . . .

It surely has been our pleasure to visit with Carol Hessler Foster up from Larchmont. She and her wee son Doug have been houseguests of Kay and John Leonard on Adams Pl., Delmar.

Gave Wendy Hutchinson's lovely mother, Yvonne a lift last week and naturally we talked daughters. Wendy was then thrilled about the up-and-coming Junior Miss formal contest, etc., etc. This is her senior year at BCHS and she's thinking of Potsdam Teachers College for next year . . .

We're anxiously awaiting the Community Ambassador to-be, too!

Engagement: Virginia Faith Domey of Revere, Massachusetts, to Robert Edward Barton of Delmar. Virginia is a graduate of Bob Jones Academy, Greenville, S. C. and is a senior at Gordon College, Wenham, Mass. Mr. Barton graduated from Albany Academy and Yale University. They are planning an August wedding.

"Can you bake a cherry pie?" goes the little tune. And Jane Prusik of Elm St., Selkirk, and a BCHS senior can do the trick. So much so that we'd like to congratulate her for taking honors in the 4-H Baking County Contest at the Sheraton-Ten Eyck Hotel in Albany recently. Jane takes no chances and has already begun a home-run business, but plans to go on with more schooling to become more professional. Now she will compete in many state-wide contests. Happy days Lady Prusik . . . and by the way . . . Studying for exams, students?

the mother role in "The Return to Peyton Place." She succeeds Lana Turner, who played in the original "Peyton Place" . . . Best L.P. Album of the week is on the R.C.A. Victor label. It's "Saratoga" with Howard Keel and Carol Lawrence. This sound track of the new Broadway show by Harold Arlen and Johnny Mercer. Mr. Keel and Miss Lawrence belt out songs like: "You Are No One," "I'll Be Respectable," "Why Fight This," and the climactic song "The Railroad Fight." There are many more new tunes. This is a terrific album for you sound-track fans . . . Dear S.N.: You lose your argument. J. Carroll Naish may play an Italian character most of the time, but he is very Irish. "You are old, Father William,"
Said Youth, with a smile.
"And yet you're exceedingly spry.
Few men of your age
Run a 4-minute mile;
And at your age,
I do wonder why!"
"Corned Beef gives me vigor,"
The old man replied.
"I enjoy it at luncheon

At breakfast and dinner;
Just boiled, never fried. . .
And it's made a new man
