OPEN HOUSE TO MARK COMPLETION OF SLINGERLANDS CHURCH PROGRAM

The pastor and the officials of the Community Methodist Church in Slingerlands announce the completion of their building and renovation program which has been in process since last May. The sanctuary and existing Fellowship Hall have been completely renovated as has been the parsonage. An Educational Wing has been built, adding 17 classrooms and a new kitchen. Also included in the structure is a chapel for smaller devotional groups.

The congregation and Rev. James R. Rhodes, pastor, wish to invite the people of the community to Open House on Friday evening, Feb. 5, from 7-10 P.M. Visitors are asked to enter the new wing from the parking lot. From there they will be conducted on tours of the new building by members of the Youth Fellowship. Boy Scout Troop 72, under direction of Scoutmaster William Pelzer, will direct traffic.

During the evening organ music will be played in the sanctuary by Miss Jeanette McNab, church organist, and Mr. Leonard Carlson. Refreshments will be served under the sponsorship of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, Miss Ruth Miner, president.

The fourth annual "Canteen" variety show, of the Bethlehem Central Youth Council will be presented on Saturday, Feb. 6, at 8 P.M. in the Senior High auditorium. "Sh-Boom," says our correspondent, "will put all previous efforts in the shade!"

Jill Berry has shaped an enormous amount of talent into 20 big acts, we are told, with teacher Richard Feldman polishing the choreography and Alan Diefanbach and his men doing a wonderful job backstage.

"The Six Beats" — Al Parker, Heyward Williams, Bill Pauley, Maryann Beechor, Dot tie Reymond and Polly Hale — will supply some good band music. Price Chennault, Walt Tool, Doug Moak and Dick York will offer vocal entertainment. "The Starlighters" will be there. Tony Spinoso, Carol Dorman and Ruth Rector will be soloists. Jenny McNab will play the organ. Marylin Killion and Polly Hale will play a piano duet. Don Camp, Jr., alias "Honey Bun" will provoke some laughs, as will Rich Flanigan with his monologue on airplanes.

The faculty will be represented by Driver Education teacher Robert Berberich who will strive to teach Nancy Houck to drive. Ten beautiful girls will sing "Nothing Like a Dame," Linda Logan and Nancy Paige will make like Parisian chorus girls and Gail Du Hamel will render a modern dance.

Tickets, says Donna Taylor, ticket sales chairman, are $1 for adults, 75¢ for students with Canteen cards and 35¢ for grade school children. They may be purchased from any Youth Council member or at the door.

The chairman of the committee is Arthur Starman and anyone who wishes to check on solicitors can call Mr. Starman at the Carroll Pharmacy — HE 9-4253. Information will be given as soon as possible. If solicitors are legitimate they won't mind waiting, or coming back, until they are checked.

The Chamber has found that a bureau like this is necessary, since fraudulent solicitors have been increasing in numbers the last few years, and, of course, they are strangers in most cases.

Some of the rackets listed last year include the "Furnace Repair Racket," the "Telephone Service Credit Scheme," "Misleading Doll Offers," Mail Order Promoters, "Space Age Swindle," "Puzzle Contest Abuses," "Subsidy Publishing," "Mortgage and Auto Club Schemes," "Photo Register Schemes," "Home Improvement Schemes," and all kinds of other fake solicitations.

VILLAGE CORPS WINS FRIENDS AND INFLUENCES CONTRIBUTIONS

On Jan. 17, the Village Fire Fifers scored a real triumph on TV. Participating in W-TEN's Cerebral Palsy Telethon, our local fife and drum corps won a lively ovation from the station's staff and other performers.

Then, as the corps finished its scheduled stint and left the blazing lights of the studio floor, they were approached by stage and TV star Hans Conreid, who called out excitedly, "Where did you ever learn this wonderful music?"

Mr. Conreid is a real, dyed-in-the-wool devotee of martial music. Delightedly arranging for the corps to reappear before the camera an hour later, he spent most of the waiting time in a learned discussion of this "ancient art" with the corpsmen, to the chagrin of autograph seekers and the distraction of the studio staff who signalled frantically to him that scores of telephone calls were waiting.

Introducing the group for its second appearance, Mr. Conreid said that "the people of Albany can be proud of this corps which is bringing to life an almost forgotten art form from America's rich heritage . . ."

After playing new selections from its enormous repertoire, the corps was halted before it could make its second exit and "Sky King" of TV fame used

To The Spotlight:

Have you heard of anyone in our vicinity who was able to obtain some good snapshots of trees, bushes, grass, etc. at the time of the recent sleet storm? Very early on a recent Saturday morning, the countryside was like a fairy land; when I returned from work, a South wind was blowing and the extraordinary beauty had vanished.

My daughter lives in Florida and would give a couple of eye-teeth to see some snaps of that most unusual occurrence. If you know of anyone who might be willing to loan some negatives so duplicates might be made, I would be grateful.

Thank you in advance for any help you might be able to give.

purify. As for our family, this is birthday month, like four of us, along with many others — Lincoln, Washington, Susie, Joe's, many happy returns by the way.

With exams over we noticed several ski trips planned this past weekend . . . Senior high students took off early Saturday morning for Big Bromley outside Manchester, Vermont for an all day outing. St. Thomas Church sponsored the group and tickets were managed by Kirby Hannan of Rowland Ave., and Peter Halloran of Wellington Rd., Delmar. Last year there were two buses filled and the day was terrific . . . Some of our family took off for Stowe. High hopes for a few days on the slopes, but mainly to relax after the exams. Anything to look around and plan ahead for the long weekend coming up in February . . . Tom Harding of Jordan Blvd. went along too and Dick Boutelle of Lyons Ave. Good safe skiers, we hope.

This past week Grace Shultes of Slingerlands filled us in on the Sunday Mixed Duplicate group meeting every other week in the evening. This is a most enthusiastic crowd, carrying on from last year. Last Sunday's winners North-South were The George Alford of Delmar and the John Blendells of Elsmere. Then for East-West, Betty and Jack Morgan of Delmar, and the William Linnans of Elsmere tied with Fran and Phil Murray for second honors. February seventh is the next tournament evening to plan for . . .

Every Tuesday at noon, the Women of Normanside Country Club meet and play bridge. This last week was a special guest day and should have been most successful. The weather was lovely and there were seven and a half tables. North-South winners for 1st were: Esther Brown and Mary Snyder. Second Emily Geddes and Grace Shultes, third place, Dot Moe and Trudie Heyl. Whilst East-West firsts were Audrey Van Raden and Joan Rudd. Second to Mrs. Fitzgerald and Mrs. Fennimore. Third place Barb Jones and Barb Papke. Next member-guest Feb. 23rd.

While you're at the Delaware Plaza you might check the Elsmirian and note the realistic seascapes and landscapes done by Louis Pelke, member of the Albany Artists. These are very worthwhile and much of this has been arranged by one of our outstanding local residents . . . We do thank her and also the cooperative spirit of the owners of the restaurant . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Cross (Chuck and Elayne) of 1680 New Scotland Road in Slingerlands are happy to announce the arrival of their first child on Jan. 3. Christina, who was born on Dec. 30, 1959, was just four days old when she joined the Cross family.

May we join the neighborhood around Partridge and Wilshire Rds., in welcoming both Elaine and Al Fredrickson to Delmar, along with their youngsters who attend Hamagrael School. They've moved from New Haven, Conn., however, claim the mid-New York State section their home base. By the way, they've bought the Herman Feldhausen home — the Feldhausens have just moved into their new home in Garden City. Hope they're settled at long last!

Another Glaucoma Detection Clinic is being scheduled on Feb. 5 for residents of Albany County over 40. Reservations may be made through Arbor Hill Health Center by calling between 1 and 3 P.M.

No fee is charged and the groups sponsoring are members of the Eastern New York EENT Society who will be assisted by the Albany Lions Club and members of The Delta Gamma Sorority. Local members include Mrs. F. E. Almstead of Elsmere, Mrs. Wesley Knighton, Mrs. David McConaughy, and Yours Truly, of Delmar. Co-operating in this detection effort are the Albany County Medical Society, Albany County and New York State health departments. The number of appointments each time indicates the extreme importance of the clinic. We are also able to detect and direct persons into proper medical channels, private or clinic, for treatment.

Very important plans are being made for the first annual Churchmen's Dinner of the Capital Area Council of Churches on Feb. 9 at Trinity Methodist Church. The principal speaker for the evening will be Dr. Edwin T. Dahlberg, president of the National Council of Churches.

Gren Rand of Elsmere, council vice-president, will be toastmaster and Albany's Mayor Erastus Corning 2nd will also speak. The dinner meeting will include a parting tribute to the Rev. Richard N. Hughes, executive director of the council, who leaves March first to assume a similar post in Rochester.

(Thinking of the Richard Hughes family of Wellington Rd. . . they've added a new daughter to their all-girl group . . . last week or so . . .)

Saw Spencer Ryan of Elsmere Ave., a freshman from Bucknell home between semesters. Spence broke Bill Dorr's mark in the 50-yard freestyle and was the anchor man on the 400-yard freestyle relay team — set a new record of 3.41.5 also is undefeated this year, having won three sprints and a member of two winning relay quarters. In other words, Wow! We know what a great swimmer he was at BCHS but look at him now. Great.

Hope that Betsy and Dave Rees of Elsmere got to the big city last weekend, in spite of the big snow of Thursday and the last minute details of leaving (continued on next page)
