He noted the need for greater emphasis upon the basic principles of science in elementary schools and the development of these principles in breadth and depth from grade to grade. He stressed mathematics in science and a wide range of experiences with real things rather than approaching science through verbal definitions and experiences alien to the child's environment. He advised parents to provide children with basic experiences in science through cooking, planting of a small garden, or house plants, caring for a pet, sharing of hobbies, and travel, with a goal in science or mathematics to be achieved.

SOMETHING WORTH SEEING

by PEGGY O'BRIEN

Portraits are Gladys Bastian's first love and those shown in the Delmar Public Library this month give an inkling as to why they are.

Alexander Eliot said, "Like painting, man himself is a subtle merging of mind and matter. The portraitist's task is to express both at the same time." Mrs. Bastian's portraits are not merely pictures to please the sitter and his family but they are works of art in themselves and project a personality to a viewer who may not know the subject.

After 6 years of painting, Mrs. Bastian is having her first one-man show. Her portraits predominate in the exhibit but her landscapes and still lifes show she varies her approach. She says that for her these are a way of relaxing after the more tense and taxing attempt to grasp the full quality of a person.

Mrs. Bastian began her painting with Clover Mikol of Delmar and, as she says, she "caught the bug," so that what started out as a hobby has become far more than that to her now. She has worked with Rudy Helmo and Betty Lancaster, both of Albany and has traveled to the Cape two years to work with Jerry Farnsworth who is nationally known. In addition to these she had the good fortune to be a close neighbor of the late Edouard Buyck who gave her encouragement, criticism and enthusiasm. She painted with him a number of times and found his craftsmanship, his wonderful knowledge of color and composition of tremendous value.

Mrs. Bastian sold the very first portrait she ever did and has continued to sell many of her paintings since then. She has exhibited in the Albany Artists Group and won first prize at the Sesquicentennial Show last year.

"Your children — they're alive" was a comment found in the Library registry. So indeed, are the others and in particular Emmet Kelley. She has captured his wonderfully expressive face with its make-up, its sadness and its humor. Mrs. Bastian's late husband was a circus enthusiast and this portrait gives evidence that she too joined in his love of circus life and people.

Gladys Bastian lives on McCormack Road in Slingerlands with her son Joey and daughter Christine, two full-sized collies and a grey Angora cat who knows she is beautiful. A palette ready for work and a number of canvases in various stages of completion in a north-lighted studio room on her second floor shows indeed that painting is no longer just a hobby for Gladys Bastian.

FINAL REPORT ON WHITE CHRISTMAS, '59

Total receipts of the 1959 Bethlehem Community Christmas Festival amounted to $1,686.62, it was reported by Thurlow W. McWhinnie, treasurer, at the 18th annual meeting held on February 28. Of this amount, $1,199.07 was from offerings at the three performances of the festival and $487.55 from donations by organizations and individuals.

Reports by officers and committee chairmen were made at a dinner meeting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Roy Gillett, Slingerlands. Mrs. Sydney L. Smith, general chairman, presided.

The White Christmas Committee, under the chairmanship of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Flavin, reported that at Christmas time 51 families including 80 adults and 155 children were assisted. Gifts to these deserving families in the Bethlehem School District included food, clothing, money, toys, dolls, fruit and candy. Those on the Sunshine List received 67 plants, 23 baskets of fruit, 5 boxes of candy and 12 cards.

Although the receipts from the festival were $319.61 less than the previous year, the committee voted to continue the overseas aid to children by appropriating $100 each to CARE and the American Friends Service Committee. The world outreach aspect has been a feature of the White Christmas Committee's work from its inception.

Throughout the coming year, assistance will be given to deserving persons in the form of medical and dental care, eye examinations, eyeglasses, etc.

Participating groups working in cooperation with the White Christmas Committee included the Senior Citizens, BCHS Students Association, Key Club, Delmar Day Unit of Albany County Extension Service, Young Adults, Fourth Grade Department of Delmar Methodist Church, Glenmont Brownies, Troop 113 and Slingerlands Girl Scouts, Tarts and Darts, Happy Hands and Jolly Homemakers of the 4-H Club, and numerous individuals.

MUSIC GROUP OF THE PROGRESS CLUB WILL HEAR ROLAND TRUITT

Mrs. John M. Ganey, chairman of the Music Group of the Delmar Progress Club, will present Roland Truitt, Supervisor of Music in the Bethlehem Central School System, at the next Group meeting, Monday, March 21, at 2:00 P.M. at the home of Mrs. Everett C. Long, Helderale, Slingerlands.

Mr. Truitt will talk about "Music in Education," and will be assisted by "The Starlighters," a group of young singers, and also Miss Barbara Gypson, piano soloist.

Mr. Truitt, well known musician in this area, is choir director of Trinity Methodist Church of Albany, and holds degrees from Wesleyan School of Music and the Eastman School in Rochester. After studying Theory of Music at Julliard, he studied privately in New York City, was a member of Fred Waring's Choral Workshop, and recently worked with the Trapp Family Singers.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

We have received several letters on the subject of a recent change in Girl Scout membership.

"Please print this in your next edition," says one of them, "or are you afraid to discuss issues more important than mowing grass on Sundays?"

We are not going to print any of these letters, although they're fairly temperate expressions of opinion. It's not a question of being afraid or not being afraid; it's a matter of taste and judgment.

A little paper like this can easily get out of its depth. We have an obligation to our readers to print all the local news that comes our way and we enjoy playing gadfly in mild local controversies, but it is not our duty, as it is that of the big metropolitan dailies, to get involved in issues like this one. We would hate to wield the slightest disruptive influence.

And by the way, while you're generally welcome to use us as a target range, we'd like to see your pistol permits, please. Not one of those letters was signed.

"BABERSHOPPERS" TO AWARD SCHOLARSHIP IN MUSIC

The Albany "Barbershoppers" are going to award a $100 scholarship to an Albany area high school senior who is interested in making vocal or instrumental music a career. The Albany Chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America has appointed a scholarship committee with Henry F. Sullivan, their director, as chairman. This committee will select a group of prominent judges to hold auditions in early April.

THE SPOTLIGHT

The scholarship will be awarded at the annual chapter show, "Melodies of Yesteryear," to be held in the Albany High School Auditorium the evening of April 29. The scholarship will be the "Thomas E. Carney Scholarship" in memory of the founder and first president of the chapter who died a year ago.

Applications are available from local supervisors of music.

POST OFFICE ANNOUNCES
EXAMS: SAYS THERE WILL BE LOCAL OPENINGS

There will be openings in Delmar, says a bulletin announcing an examination for the positions of U.S. Post Office Substitute Clerk and Substitute Carrier in 9 upstate New York counties.

Substitute clerks and carriers receive $2 per hour starting pay, plus annual pay increases, vacation and sick leave privileges, liberal retirement and other benefits.

No experience is required, but a written test will be given in Albany (as well as in the other counties listed). Applications, which may be secured from any first or second-class post office in the area, will be accepted until further notice, but anyone wishing early consideration should file immediately.

Although not every one of the 67 post offices involved has vacancies now, the list will be used to fill vacancies as they occur. Eligible persons who are local to the post office where a vacancy exists will be certified first; those in the same county, second, and persons residing outside the county will be certified last.

'Tis that great day for the Irish once again! St. Patrick's Day . . . So get out the Shamrocks, harps, and tall hats . . . Remember the Leprechauns are those "little people" so common in old Irish stories. Supposedly a Leprechaun would give you a bag of gold for just the asking. Anybody have such luck this year? [See Page One, Abbie — Editor]

Congratulations are in order to two Shell Oil men of Delmar. H. R. Hebenstreit of Westchester Dr., Delmar, has recently been promoted to division real estate manager for the Albany area. Mr. Hebenstreit succeeds T. L. Clements formerly of Dawson Rd., Delmar, who has been named real estate manager in the Chicago division.

We've heard from Margaret Flierl, news reporter for the Nimble Thimble, one of the 4-H clubs in the area. This past week has been National 4-H Club week, you know, and this particular 4-H Club had a window display at Steefel's to help celebrate. They displayed huck toweling which the girls did for Christmas presents for their mothers. Patty Clark, Joan Wrsenski, and Nancy Casper had skirts for the Clover Hop dance. Judy Basch, Margaret Flierl, and Nancy Alford had regular styled skirts. The club project "Pie Time" which we had mentioned some time ago proved to the girls that good pies take practice and that you can't always succeed on the first try . . . Heigh-ho, my dears, some of us still are learning!

Mark down an important date for the next scheduled luncheon and bridge for Albany Area Panhellenic members . . . March 30, Wednesday at noon and the place is the University Club. Chairman of the party — Mrs. Mary Beyer of Murray Ave.,

Delmar. While reservations may be given to Mrs. Raymond Wilson or Ruth Stanley of Rowland Ave., Delmar by March 26, please! Also you'd better bring your own playing cards; plenty of good food will be provided.

Have one announcement of an engagement this week — Mr. and Mrs. Lester Empie of Voorheesville have announced their daughter's engagement to Leland S. Wright. Shirley Jean is with the Executive Department Division of the New York State Police, Leland served with the U.S. Army overseas, and is in business with his father, Robert Wright of Slingerlands. They are planning a May wedding.

Welcome home to Mary Bou-telle of Wilshire Rd., Delmar. Glad your stay at Albany Hospital was but a brief one . . .

Encouraged by many Spot-light readers who also read other papers, we'd like to include this article from the Albany Times-Union of March 4th, the lead item in the famous DEAR AB-BY column: "Grow Up and Go Home."

The following item was sent to me by a reader. I would like to credit the author but I do not know who he is? Do you?

"We hear teen-agers complain, 'What can we do? Where can we go?'"

"The answer is: Go home! Hang the storm windows, paint the wood-work. Rake the leaves, mow the lawn, shovel the walk. Wash the car, scrub some floors. Help the minister, rabbi or priest, the Red Cross, the Salvation Army. Visit the sick, the poor. Study your lessons. And when you're through, if you're not too tired read a book.

Your parents do not owe you entertainment. Your city doesn't owe you a recreation center. The world doesn't owe you a living. You owe it your time and energy and your talent so that no one will be at war or in poverty or sick or lonely again.

"You're supposed to be mature enough to accept some of the responsibilities your parents have carried for years. They have nursed, protected, excused and tolerated you. They have denied themselves comforts so that you could have luxuries. This they have done gladly for you are their greatest treasure. In heaven's name, grow up and go home!"

Further comment, we are sure is unnecessary!

In spite of the snow underfoot and many drifts, Normanside Country Club women turned out in large numbers for the Thursday luncheon-bridge. The newly decorated dining room provided a soft background for the early spring touches in milady's millinery. During the luncheon members and guests participated in an auction of hats, all donated by the women of the club. The president of the Women's group, Mrs. Wilhelm Moe of Normanside Drive, Elsmere served on the committee and greeted the guests. Mrs. Clayton Smith had arranged for the tables and prizes for the day. Which we might add were most appreciated by the players. Thanks also to Mrs. Bea Wiggins of Unionville, Eunice Geis of Elsmere and Peggy Blaisdell of Albany who assisted us in the modeling of hats. The real sensation of the show was an imported straw hat from the Virgin Islands, made in tiers and gay colors. Proved quite an item and now proudly owned by Mrs. S. V. Kubinski of Selkirk. Just what Blanche wanted for the golf course . . . Mrs. John Sullivan and Gen Linnan won two of the lovely door prizes. Oh yes, there were around a hundred guests. Next month will be the last of these monthly bridge luncheons, and come May the great will turn to golf and the green out-of-doors.

Spring is really around the corner . . . Hooray! Would loved to have previewed the Flower Show in New York last week. According to viewers it was breathtaking. Well there is always next year . . .

Doris Day and British singer Frankie Vaughan have formed a music publishing firm called Davon Music . . . Hal Wallis has cast Dean Martin opposite Shirley MacLaine in his Paramount release "All in a Night's Work" to be directed by Joseph Anthony. This will go before the cameras in the first part of April . . . Here's a special scoop for those of you who still like good music, and are still fans of the late Glenn Miller orchestra. I have just found out that Universal-International studios is going to re-release "The Glenn Miller Story," which starred James Stewart and June Allyson. This picture was one of the best musical biographies that was ever made. As soon as I know which local theatre will play it, I will let you know the date . . . Rossano Brazzi will star in "The Ferrari Story" in Italy for producer-director Robert Aldrich . . . Bob Wright, the TV salesman for a well known brand of cigarettes, will make his film bow as a college president in "Tall Story" . . . "Fever in the Blood," a novel by William Pearson about political chicanery, is among the top 10 best-sellers and Warners is looking for two stars to portray the two governor candidates . . . Baccaloni, the Metropolitan Opera star, will appear with Maurice Chevalier and Charles Boyer in the film version of "Fanny" . . . Best L.P. Album of the week is on the R.C.A. Victor label. It's "Arthur Murray's Music For Dancing." If you like music for dancing, this disc has it. The Arthur Murray Orchestra under the direction of Ray Carter plays waltzes, fox-trots, cha chas, mambos, sambas and more, with a slick beat . . . Dear N. B.: Never be too bashful to write. I do not think that Elvis Presley's popularity will be affected in any way with "Payola." Now that Elvis is a civilian again, he will be twice as popular. He is already set for a television special and a new movie. Thank you for your letter . . . Write any questions you want answered to Jonny Borne in care of The Spotlight.
