FIREMANIC CONTEST TO HIGHLIGHT DELMAR FIRE DEPT.'S CARNIVAL WEEKEND

June 10 and 11 will see crowds swarming to the second week-end of the annual Delmar Fire Department Carnival in the parking lot of the Town Hall. Festivities will begin at 7 P.M. on Friday, and on Saturday the parade leading to the Field Day activities will start at 1:30.

Eighteen fire departments from surrounding areas will participate in the parade and in the 6 contests at the Firemanic Competition at 3 P.M. All contests will be against the clock, and thus against other companies — and this generates an enormous amount of excitement! The newest methods and apparatus will be used in the speed and efficiency contests.

The carnival will resume Saturday night at 7 and as on Friday, something new — Bingo! — will be featured.

THE SPOTLIGHT

(BY THE WAY)

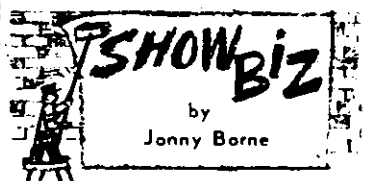

Coming along just before the above drive will be those happy days of EXAMS . . . Monday June 13 for the Senior High brains. The Junior High follow the next week . . . Oh Joy! Good luck whoever needs some.

Sue Price had a big Beat-Nik party last week. Of course this was held at Sue's pad on Orchard St., Slingerlands. Blast-off in N's ville.

The Seniors' Tea was this past Monday at The Girls Academy with calling from 3 to 5 o'clock. Thanks to several of the seniors, Sue Gatgens of Lyons Ave., Delmar and Cathy Parry of Albany, this was a very special affair. The school graduation was on June 7 from the school, with James E. Allen, Jr., president of The University of the State of New York as guest speaker.

The group of 25 people who were indeed fortunate to attend the Pocono Conference of Faith at Work over Memorial Day weekend look forward to sharing the inspiration they received.

By the way, congratulations to the Tri-Village Directory Association and to all who worked on the new edition. . . . It's terrific! Thanks for all the information therein.

This week's SPOTLIGHT ORCHID goes to each and every member of the Bethlehem Chamber of Commerce. The members of this fine organization have done so much to aid and improve the Tri-Village area! And now to Show Biz. . . . The new Cinemiracle process used in "The Windjammer" gives the viewer more realism and excitement that has ever been shown in any form of movie progress in the past. As you leave the theatre, you'll probably wonder, what next? Some scenes of this picture will actually make you grab the arms of your seats. Don't miss this one, now playing at the New Hellman Theatre. . . Director Billy Wilder has turned out another side-splitting comedy again. This one it titled "The Apartment" and stars Jack Lemmon, Shirley MacLaine and Fred MacMurray. Jack turns out to be the laugh-stealer again, as he did in "Some Like It Hot". . . . Teddy Rooney, Mickey's 10 year old son, goes into Universal International's "Seven Ways from Sundown". . . . John Wayne, who just completed the glorious defense of "The Alamo", will soon take off on the wildlife of Africa when he goes there to shoot the working-titled "Tanganyika". . . . Greer Garson, on the "Sunrise at Campobello" set at Warner's, says she is considering Noel Coward's comedy, "South Sea Bubble", for Broadway. . . . Strange but True—Jeffrey Hunter, seen locally in "Sergeant Rutledge", is actually a descendant of President Zachary Taylor. . . . Television star Nanette Fabray has her first dramatic role in "Go Naked in the World". . . . Best L.P. Album of the week is on the Capitol label. It's "All Aglow Again" with Peggy Lee. Peggy is great again singing some of her best hits that she has made over the past years. Some of the tunes are; "Manana", "My Man", "Whee, Baby", "Fever" and many more. Whether you're a Peggy Lee fan or not, you'll enjoy this disc. . . . Dear C.W.; There were three actors who played "Martin Kane" on television, not two. The actors were; William Gargan, Lloyd Nolan and Lee Tracy. Thank you for your card. . . . Write any questions you want answered to Jonny Borne, in care of The Spotlight.

NEW DAY CAMP
OPENING IN AREA

Something different has appeared this year in the wake of the fragrant apple and pear blossoms at Will-Roy Orchards. Blended among the fruit trees and the stately oaks are the new buildings of Tall Timber Day Camp, ready for boys and girls four to 14 years old.

Director Kenneth George says that the new camp will emphasize values most closely akin to true camping; an appreciation of our natural resources and an ability to enjoy and use them. To this end, the camp's 25 acres of pleasant woodland will be used for the teaching of fascinating wood lore and nature activities under the direction of Robert Andrews who has had years of experience in scouting and camp activities.

A major effort will be made in the swimming instruction area, supervised by Clarence Lephart, BCHS swimming coach and former assistant director of the Albany County Red Cross Summer "Learn to Swim" program. The camp's aim is to teach thoroughly and to improve all swimming skills. The 500-ft. waterfront contains two instruction cribs surrounded by a dock for supervision and safety, 200 feet of sand beach and 300 feet of sun deck.

Nestled in the woods is a large recreation hall containing an indoor stage, and nearby, buildings housing dressing rooms and modern lavatory and shower facilities. To the left of the assembly green are four acres of play field; baseball and softball diamonds bordered by tempting apple trees. To the right is the gaily-colored camp office; a building which also houses the infirmary and three arts and crafts rooms. Hidden from view are trails and campsites where campers will pitch their pup tents, cook out and camp overnight once in every camping period, if they wish.

To The Spotlight:

I watched the Memorial Day parade from a point in front of St. Stephen's church and was shocked to see people standing with their arms folded across their chests, chatting away, while the American flag was passing by . . . Time Union's picture of the reviewing stand showed a group of young people in front of the reviewing stand just standing, even smiling, while the colors passed — NOT ONE HAND OVER THE HEART! A picture of the parade in Albany showed six American flags passing by and watching them, with hats still on their heads, were several men and a great number of men and women and children, and I couldn't find one hand across the chest, placed over the heart.

THE SPOTLIGHT

It is not a sign of weakness to show your feeling and respect for Old Glory, because what that flag represents is YOU—America and the thrill and pride that flag and its meaning brings to the heart and mind is shown by placing the right hand over the heart.

Perhaps as a naturalized citizen I am a little more conscious of this act, but several people I spoke with felt the same indignation at the lack of respect.

Remember the reason for the Memorial Day Parade. Do we need another war to bring home our pride and wake us up?

BLANCHARD POST SELECTS TWO BCHS JUNIORS FOR BOYS' STATE

DOUGLAS JOHNSON

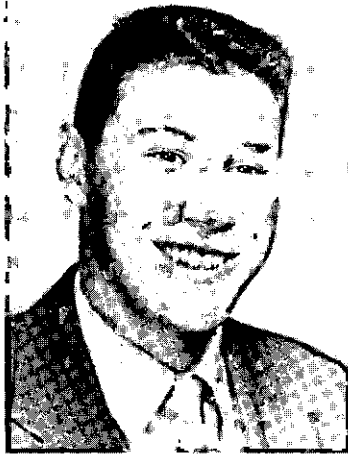

The Nathaniel Adams Blanchard Post #1040, American Legion, Delmar, has selected two boys, both juniors at BCHS, to attend Boys' State this year. They are Douglas Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theron A. Johnson, 127 Mosher Rd. Delmar, and William C. Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnston Jr., 73 Darroch Rd. Delmar. Mr. C. E. Waldron was chairman of the selection committee for the Post.

Boys' State will be held from June 26th to July 2nd at Colgate University, Hamilton, N.Y. It is a citizenship training program for youths, sponsored by The American Legion, Department of New York, and has been described as a laboratory of practical political science.

The program inspires a deep sense of responsibility and obligation by educating young men in the principles of democracy, and by teaching them the duties, privileges and rights of American citizenship. Boys' State is a pure democracy in that all "citizens" may vote and are eligible to hold office. As nearly as possible, its government is patterned after the city, county and state governments of the State of New York.

Leadership, character, scholarship and service are the necessary qualifications a boy must possess in order to be admitted to Boys' State.

William C. Johnston has participated in a wide variety of school and community activities. He has been secretary of The Key Club for two years, was elected to the Student Council for 1961 and placed on the 1961 Oriole Year Book staff. He is on the Varsity Bowling Team, is Junior Class Officers' Club Representative, and a member of the Audio-Visual Club. He was president of his class in his sophomore year. Johnston is a past officer of the Delmar Methodist Church Youth Fellowship, secretary-treasurer of Post 75, Explorer Scouts, and a New York State Water Boating Safety instructor.

Douglas Johnson, a native of Minnesota, has taken an extremely active interest in many activities during his residence in Delmar. He is a member of the Varsity Basketball Team, president of The Key Club, a member of the Band, and Class Officer Representative. He was a member of the Canteen Council for three years. At present he is chairman of the Delmar Methodist Church Youth Fellowship, and a Knickerbocker Newspaper boy.
