Myrtle Losacco . . . energetic set painter, Lydia Murray . . . ticket window man, Aaron Feder. And I over-zealously inverted Tom Watthews' "W" so he came out "Matthews." (He says, kindly, that he's used to it.)

Would you be really good fellows and print this belated correction?

Hopeful

(name submitted)

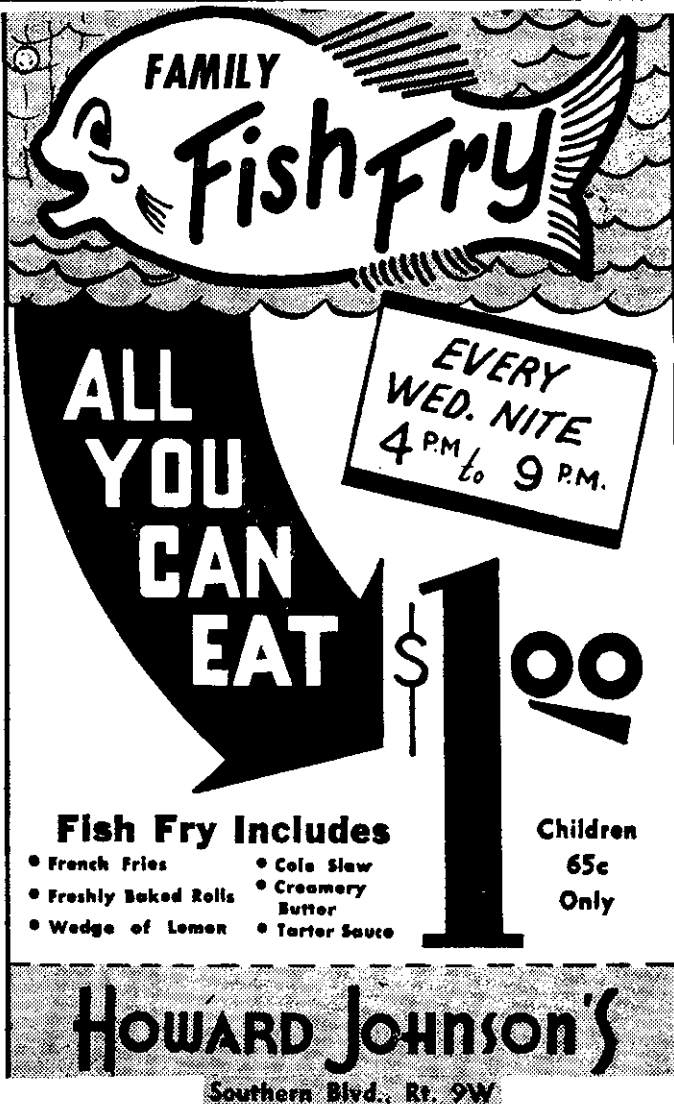

[You caught us at the right moment, friend. Normally we wouldn't think of printing your letter because your problem, you must admit, is one of rather limited interest.

But we just finished looking over our Nov. 3 issue and we feel like a wife whose husband says, "Yeah, your new dress looks okay but your stockings are crooked and your slip shows." We made up that issue so carefully and were so relieved when it got to the printer only a few hours late . . . and then darned if some gremlin doesn't flip over the photo on Page One so that CARE reads ERAC, and some poltergeist spells "schedule" "scedule" and some fiend makes an appalling typographic error inside (that no one's noticed . . . yet) . . . and so on.

To top it all, no sooner had we resigned ourselves to coming out on Friday, a day late, this week, because our printer is closed on Election Day, when we were chilled to realize that Friday is what we prehistoric folk still call Armistice Day and the Post Office is closed!

So we don't mind printing your little tale of carelessness — and you can thank your lucky stars if you haven't still left out one or two names — because we know just how you feel. — Editor.]

MAIN-CARE makes sure you get your money's worth!

Free Burner Efficiency Test guards against oil waste . . . cuts fuel bills.

The instruments shown above are used by our servicemen to test the efficiency of oil-burners belonging to MAIN-CARE customers. Experts in their field, these are the men who make sure that MAIN-CARE families get all the heat possible from the fuel they burn. You see, an oil-burner is similar to any other piece of mechanical or electrical equipment. Just because it runs is no indication that it is operating properly and efficiently. An improper adjustment of the carburetor of your automobile will result in poor mileage from the gasoline consumed. By the same token, a faulty adjustment of your oil-burner, not discernible by the usual inspection methods, will result in increased fuel consumption . . . less heat.

Specially trained MAIN-CARE servicemen carefully test and adjust the oil-burners of our customers after every cleaning, more often if necessary. And this extra MAIN-CARE service is performed free of charge. MAIN-CARE families know that their heating system is at the peak of operating effectiveness and that they're getting all the heat they're paying for. Why don't you take advantage of extra MAIN-CARE service, too? It just makes good sense to be sure you get your money's worth.

SCHOOL NURSES AID COMMUNITY CHRISTMAS

A mainstay in the work of the White Christmas Committee of the Bethlehem Community Christmas Festival is the corps of school nurses of the Bethlehem Central School District. These ladies, with their respective school assignments, are Mrs. Elvira Peterson, Elsmere and Hamagrael grade schools; Mrs. Ruth Arnold, Delmar and Glenmont grade schools; Miss Carolyn Rooney, Slingerlands and Clarksville grade schools; Miss Julia Hughes, Bethlehem Central Junior High School; and Mrs. Alice Lincoln, Bethlehem Central Senior High School.

The school nurses work as a group and individually with Mrs. Madge Flavin of the White Christmas Committee by suggesting families of the Town of Bethlehem and the school district who are deserving of assistance. While special attention is given at Christmas time, this assistance goes on the year around in the form of medical and dental services, eyeglasses, clothing, food and toys. Clothing is furnished through the Clothes Closet in the basement of the Delmar Public Library. The school nurses also recommend families to be the recipients of sunshine baskets. Organizations wishing to provide baskets of food, fruit, etc. work through Mrs. Flavin's committee as a clearing house.

While not in the Bethlehem Central School District but still in the Town of Bethlehem, Mrs. Carolyn Tulloch, school nurse at South Bethlehem, cooperates in a similar manner for that portion of the town.

WELCOME WAGON

LUTHERAN LADIES TO HEAR DR. RHOAD

Several years ago he was exchange preacher in the Renfield United Free Church in Glasgow, Scotland.

He will speak on his travels through the Holy Land and will show slides. All women in the Tri-Village area are cordially invited to attend. The meeting will be held at 8 P.M. in the Bethlehem Lutheran Church.

Did you know that spider webs are useful? The Black Widow spider has been put to work by the Texas State Highway Department — operation: thin, strong webs with threads that are used in fine instruments. Man cannot make a thread like it. We've learned this from our eight-year old's Weekly Reader . . . Quite a marvelous news-story-paper, and also right in keeping with this week as National Education Week in our schools. Perhaps you have been taking part . . . This is most interesting and certainly worth the parents' time. We were able to meet with parents of our children and visit the classrooms. All in all we liked going back-to-school and can really appreciate things in a different light . . . How did you readers feel about this opportunity? Let us hear from some of you, by the way.

On Nov. 28, Joanne Kimmey (Mrs. Warren) of Slingerlands, will appear at the Woman's Club of Albany in a program of "Dramatic Reading." Joanne is one of a team of four Slingerland Players, who started "The Quarto Playhouse Troupe." Their purpose is to present a program of repertory entertainment based on dramatized readings of best sellers from the turn of the century to the present time. The three other members of the "Quarto" are Mrs. C. T. Taylor, Mrs. Albert Wilber, and Mrs. J. Garth Johnson. Cheers, gals, and much success!

Mrs. Charles Redmond of Delmar gave us the Newcomers Bridge Group winners: Mmes.

Joseph Fitzgerald, Richard Phelan, John McFeeters, Henry Kiernan, Dean Arnold and John Ryan. The two hostesses for the day were: Mrs. Ben Weinberg and Mrs. J. J. Van Nortwick. The group will meet again next week but a day early due to the big affair at St. Stephen's — their annual Church Fair, so see you there.

Also congratulations are in line to Mr. Robert D. Stone of Delmar, recently appointed to a new position as deputy commissioner of the new State Office of General Services. And to our good friend, John Flaudreau of Elsmere!

Well, the Bethlehem Senior Class play is heading into the home stretch — rehearsing like mad, and what a big job for the splendid group in charge of this production. Remember, Nov. 18 and 19 — for — Bells Are Ringing! Director, Mr. Henderson, teacher of Public Speaking at BC; Mr. Feldman, English at BJC; Mr. Adler, (wife is English teacher at BC) and Judy Martin, student director.

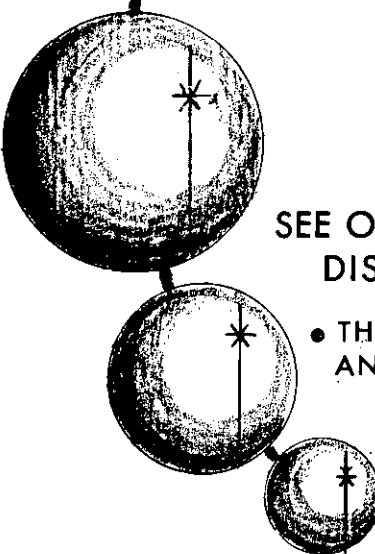

Off to Mexico after Election Day are Mr. and Mrs. Davis of Hawthorne Ave., Delmar. What a time to have a late fall trip!

We want to welcome the Stanley Vails to Delmar. They were former residents in Helderale and have decided to move in closer to the Village. Nice to have you too. By the way, they bought the Warren Wilson's home on Darroch Rd. (The Wilsons just moved to Boston area this past week.)

Nov. 12 is the date of next "Open House" for high school group at The First Methodist Church of Delmar. Time is 8-11 P.M.

Understand that Sue Gatgens is enjoying her Freshman year at Endicott Jr. College at Beverly Farms, Mass. Sue graduated from Albany Academy for Girls in June and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gatgens of Delmar. Guess Bonnie Storm, daughter of the Perry Storms of Delmar, is quite enthusiastic about Michigan State too. She's a freshman

It was a girl for Dottie and Harold Kelp of Delmar! Their first and most special too, born last week, Nov. 2. What a blessing. We'll be down for a call, after a while, please.

Guess Parry Nichols will drop Aileen off at their daughter's whilst he goes off on a hunting trip for a few weeks. Good to see Aileen out and about after her accident of the summer.

News from the Gov't — Department of Agriculture, plenty of turkeys for all! By the way, look for labels with the shield-shaped U.S. Grade A marked on your turkey. That's a Gov't. grader which has been judged to be full-fleshed and meaty, also keeps the bird juicy and tender while roasting. Amounts of turkey graded over the past four years have more than doubled. Good protection for public consumption . . . We're off to New Jersey, see you soon tho'.

SENIOR

AND JUNIOR HIGHS

The most welcome event of this weekend takes place Friday — Veterans' Day Vacation.

Nov. 15 is the night of the Cider and Doughnut Party. This annual event is presented especially for our football team, our cross-country team, and of course, our song-leaders and cheerleaders. It's a reward for these kids who have helped to make our fall interscholastic teams the strong ones they are. This year Tom Cahill, the Plebe football coach at West Point, will be the guest speaker.

We urge you all to purchase your tickets to the Senior play, "Bells Are Ringing." Next Friday and Saturday nights are the big nights.

On Oct. 22 our debate club went to Albany State where they witnessed a debate and discussed the topic for this year's debate "Resolved — That the U.N. Should Be Significantly Strengthened." On Oct. 28 Mr. Atkinson took a boys' team to

This club will be glad to furnish a team for any organization desiring a debate on the U.N. Anyone wishing to arrange such a discussion, please contact Diane Stroble at HE 9-4812. (We, here, hope some of you will take advantage of this as we have seen this club in action and it is really tops!)

Congrats also to our Freshman football team for their victory over Cardinal McCloskey Wed. the 2nd.

Sincerest wishes for a speedy recovery to Bob Mullens. Everyone is very sorry about your accident and misses you, Bob. We'll all be glad to see you on your feet again real soon. (Bob had a wicked fall from a hayride wagon, and is hospitalized.)

The following is a real advertisement — yes, this is still the Jr. High column — would anyone (boy, preferably) like a girl pen-pal? Well, we are slightly overstocked (by almost 125) on lovely females from 11 years to 20. If any of you would like one — name your favorite section of the U.S.

— please contact us.

Student Council is busily trying to get its budget approved by the students, reports Susan Loudis, S.A. secretary.
