IMPRESSIVE WATER COLOR SHOW AT LIBRARY

Mrs. Virginia Grubb, Tri-Village artist, is holding a one-man show in the Community Room of the Delmar Public Library. Her water colors include landscapes, still lifes and portraits. Mrs. Grubb has exhibited in group shows at Munson Williams Proctor Institute in Utica, Syracuse Museum, Onondaga Historical Society at Westport, Connecticut and the Grand Central Gallery in New York. She has had a one-man show at the Albany Institute of History and Art where, at the current Albany Artists' Group show, she has received honorable mention.

The water color show will continue through the middle of December.

NERVY TRIO PULLS DAYLIGHT HEIST

Just at our deadline time, we learned that Town & Tweed has been victimized by a brazen group of shoplifters. According to Town & Tweed salespeople it was one man and two women who made off with valuable jewelry, dresses and figurines.

The police have a good description of at least one of the suspects and we hope that all of them will have been apprehended by the time this appears in print.

BETHLEHEM CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO SPONSOR MEN'S COMMUNITY DINNER

PICTURED WITH THE DELICATE, 19-PIECE NATIVITY SCENE she created is Mrs. Harold Merritt of Elsmere. Mrs. Merritt was moved to this original expression of loving tenderness by a January sermon by Pierce Hayes, a member of the World Missions Board of the Methodist Church.

The finely detailed sculpture is bisqued and stained. The Wise Men are touched with gold. Each piece is rubbed and polished with a damp silk sponge; stained, rubbed and stained again. The set is protected by a fixative which assures a permanent finish.

Any proceeds from this project will go toward the support of a medical student at the Ludhiana Christian Medical College and Hospital of Northern India.

Incidentally, Mrs. Merritt has been awarded state ribbons and county honors for her artistry in producing this beautiful Creche.

FIRE INSURANCE RATING ORGANIZATION ADVISES NEW PUMPER FOR DELMAR

Recently the New York Fire Insurance Rating Organization made a survey of the equipment of the Delmar Fire Department. It concluded by recommending the purchase of a new pumper and equipment.

The Fire Commissioners have taken the matter under advisement and already have visited a number of fire departments in the State as well as the factory of a manufacturer of fire equipment. A piece of modern equipment has been brought to Delmar for inspection.

The Delmar Fire Department has made an enviable reputation in the Delmar Fire District and with the recently installed radio communication system should be in a position to maintain its high standard of commu-

The first men's Community Dinner for Bethlehem will be held at the Aurania Club on Dec. 1, at 7:00 P.M. All men who either work or live in the Town of Bethlehem and are interested in the development of the community are invited to attend. The dinner will be sponsored by the Bethlehem Chamber of Commerce and the Kiwanis, Lions and Rotary Clubs are participating in the organization and planning of the dinner and the selling of tickets.

At the dinner awards will be made to the Chamber of Commerce members who have been rendering service to the community for 25 years or more.

This community dinner resulted from interest which had been expressed by many men who were interested in community affairs but had never had an opportunity to meet and exchange views with other residents and civil, service and fraternal organizations.

The tickets are $4.95 a person and can be obtained from service club members or from The National Commercial Bank and Trust Company in Delmar, Hilchie's Terminal Hardware, Scotty Prothero (HE 9-9927), Harold Smith (HE 9-4700), Bill Waldbillig (HE 9-2598), or by calling HE 4-7753 or HE 6-7691.

Newcomers to Delmar are the W. Robert Holmes family who have lived for the past decade in the Orient. Dr. Holmes taught history since 1947 in Jaffna College, in northern Ceylon where the people are Tamil by race and language and Hindu by religion. He now teaches history at the Albany College of Pharmacy, and sociology at the Junior College of Albany.

Mrs. Holmes, the former Frances Crawford, comes from Schenectady. Both of their children were educated in a residential school in south India, about 250 miles from Ceylon. Their son, Robert C., is a sophomore in Wheaton College and their daughter is in the eighth grade at Bethlehem Central.

BY THE WAY

by Abbie Utz

Into the limelight comes Thanksgiving Day. This is truly a grateful celebration and was first set aside as a national holiday by Abraham Lincoln. Going back much farther though, we recall the Pilgrims and their first Thanksgiving in America. Their gratitude despite the great odds and difficulties point to their strong faith and religious conviction in a new land . . . all our precious heritage!

Speaking of the holiday, we thought it was wonderful that so many of the college students came home to visit their parents over this long weekend. Bonnie Storm, Lucy Clough, Norm Eckel of Taylor University in Indiana home to visit his parents the Fred Eckels of Marlboro Rd., Delmar. Bill Dorr, son of the Henry Dorrs of Lyons Ave., Delmar will be home from Bucknell University.

Through the kindness of Ruth and Bob Taylor we have caught up with the Wayne Tylers now of Naperville, Illinois. They sound busy and making new friends too. Wayne commutes to Chicago (a 40 min. trip) and doesn't mind it, since the trains are comfortable and service is good. Kay has been doing things over inside the new house and hasn't seen much of the big city. While their son Dick is adjusting to his senior year in high school. Has even been asked to swim in the pool at North Central College — no high school pool and remember Dick from BCHS team . . . North Central has a swimmer, Don Blick, on the Olympic team this past year who was quite outstanding . . . Should be good practice for Dick too. We miss them all as they were a part of our community . . .

Random notes of neighbors . . . It's good to hear that Dottie Isbister of Mosher Rd. is recuperating just fine now at home and has both her parents visiting her, just to lend a hand.

• Also just up the street on Mosher there's a new baby girl — born to Jean and Charles Hurwitz. The neighbors had a shower for Jean just recently.

Thrilled too are Marg and Dale Petersen of Winne Rd., Delmar over their first son's arrival. So are his two young sisters, Debbie and Gail.

Congratulations to Sue Clary, daughter of Marjorie and Carl Clary of Adams St., Delmar, on your engagement.

By the way, Charles Turner, Jr. of Forest Rd., Delmar is wondering if any parents from last year's senior class would like to pool their movies of the Graduation Ceremony. Charles had some good parts, but unfortunately met up with the late hour and darkness spoiled some of his films. Why not combine your movies and see what a super reel develops? See Mr. T.

Noticed that Ralph Hoag is "Caller" at the Normanside Thanksgiving Turkey Square Dance. He's tops! By the way he and Carol are soon to be moving and will go to Connecticut to live. Carol just recently was winner of groceries through a casserole dish contest held by the Knickerbocker News. We'll miss them too.

Understand that Barbara Bower of Elsmere Ave. is vacationing in the Virgin Islands. (Oh joy)

You know that Frank and Gladys Beer have moved to Burlington, Vermont.

Well now that the frost has settled on the pumpkin you can rely on those unique dried garden flower arrangements by Anita Bridge and Rosie Vanderwood. They've more new ideas for door decors, gifts and the holidays. Just fascinating to browse their supply barn and learn about the variety they stock, grow and dry. (Mrs. Rockefeller was delighted with hers.)

Newcomers Bridge Group had the following winners: Mmes. Charles Reinhart, John Crimmings, Joseph Fitzgerald, Robert Foland and Walter Moran. (Thanks to Eileen Kiernan, co-chairman.)

Also learned that Norman-side Country Club members are playing mixed Duplicate every other Sunday evening following the buffet supper. Also the women are playing Duplicate on Tuesdays. Then the second Thursday of each month the women have a Luncheon-Bridge and will have a special guest on Nov. 29 in the evening with a mixed Duplicate guest party.

Sorry to miss seeing Mrs. Wallace Chesley of Hartford, Conn. area. Alice was over last week to visit and stayed with Mrs. Robert Markert of Delmar Pl. Then Mrs. Andrew Brown of Relyea Rd., Voorheesville entertained friends in her honor. Wally Chesley was up over last

duction were guests of Sue Yaple, Elsmere Ave., after the last curtain on Saturday night. What a gang! . . . Quite a show too. Now we'll get back to going to school.

Patty Clark, News Reporter for the Nimble Thimble 4-H Club of Delmar sends us word that the girls are making sock dolls for Albany Hospital. It is also hoped that there will be a doll for each child entering the hospital. Linda Williams gave a demonstration on making the dolls. This will be their contribution in community service projects. The girls attended the Annual Achievement Night, Nov. 10th. The program gave awards for the 4-H participation in club work, and exhibits at the Altamont Fair. And secretly they've started their Christmas presents for their families.

Last week we were able to support the Community Ambassador program under president Frank T. Lane. Serving with him are Tom Gunn as VP.; secretary, Joanne Baldwin and treasurer, Ralph Smith. This is arranged by the Experiment in International Living and Key Club from Senior High School canvassed last Saturday, Nov. 19. All local help is voluntary. A volunteer citizens committee plus community service organization, the State Education Department, and the non-profit corporation known as the Experiment in International Living, Bethlehem, U.S.A. has sent ambassadors to Greece, Mexico, Holland, Austria and Germany.

To bring Spotlight readers news regarding the six finalists from this year's junior class at BCHS we understand that 17 students were interviewed by a citizens committee recently in connection with The American Field Service of New York. The following are now waiting for the decision: Barb McConnell, Ann Methews, John Lyons, Alecia Kunz, William Kraeckeler, and Kay Johnson. These applicants won't know for many months, but one among the six will be sent as the student on "Americans Abroad Summer Program" by Bethlehem Senior High and the sales of the Magazine Campaign. Miss Helen Hobbie is advisor to The Student Council, in charge of this program in the school. Congratulations to all who participated.

Heard the quartet from Rotary is terrific. Also the entertainment from Ladies Nite last week . . . Have a wonderful Thanksgiving now.

A new Brownie Girl Scout Troop, #47, has been formed in Delmar. On Monday, Nov. 7 the girls were invested by Leader Mrs. James L. McGraw, and Assistant Leader Mrs. Gordon

FOR PIN MONEY!

ALL THE ELECTRICITY you use to dry a week's wash in your electric dryer costs less than a package of clothes pins.

The cost of many things you buy has more than doubled in the last 20 years. But not electricity. Electricity is still one of the smallest items in your family budget. And as you use more electricity, your average cost per kilowatt hour goes down.

Yes, electric rates have changed very little over the years. That's why Niagara Mohawk electricity is still the biggest bargain you can buy!

SENIOR AND JUNIOR HIGHS

First on the agenda this week are congratulations to the Senior Class for the marvelous job they did with Bells Are Ringing. This show was a difficult one to do but all those concerned did a first rate job.

Congratulations, also, to Mr. Henderson for a superb job of directing and, of course, to Mr. Feldman who, with his professional touch, made the dance numbers as good as they were.

We, here, feel that Bells Are Ringing will long be talked about and long echoed through the halls of B.C.

We want to welcome home all the college "kids" for Thanksgiving vacation and especially the freshmen who are probably seeing home for the first time in over two months.

A reminder to drive safely over the weekend . . . and if you have a choice, "depart" because of indigestion, not because of collision.

On Friday the 25th, the Alumni Basketball games will be played. These are always a lot of fun, so let's have a good turnout.

There's not much more going on this weekend, so we'll see you next week.

Ron Denham

Congratulations to Diane Benedict for winning the coveted award given for solving Mrs. Pock's crossword puzzle. The puzzle was, seriously, extremely difficult and Diane must have worked very hard to solve it correctly.

Carolyn (Lindy) Alexander has been elected chairman of the Library Assistants and will represent them on the Service Council.

S.A. cards will be sold as soon as they are printed.

More on the Canteen Dance: It will be called "The Wishbone Snap" and will cost 35¢ stag and 50¢ per couple. John Mason will be the disc jockey, and slacks and bermudas are permissible. By the way, the dance is on Dec. 3.

Dramatics Club's officers have been elected. They are: Dana Berry and Don York, presidents; Donna Yeomans and Fred Lynch, vice-presidents; Jan McCormack and Mary Norton, secretaries; Sue Wrigley and Jill Roth, treasurers.

Speaking of the Dramatics Club, here's a little more on the upcoming play. Admission will be free. The leading roles will be played by Lee Beauregard and Dana Berry. We'll have more on this before the play is presented.

Sorry our column was so skimpy last week, while THEY had such a long one. We didn't realize it was so short and were very surprised when we saw it in print.
