JOTTINGS
by
Joni

A firm stand against the pending Bond Issue is taken by John Clyne, member of the B.C. Board of Education, in his following letter:

Dear Joni:

With unemployment at the highest rate in over 28 years, and with all taxes going up, the Board of Education of the Bethlehem School District continues its reputation as the "Big Spenders" by proposing an unnecessary Bond Issue of $1,336,000, plus an interest cost of $513,760, for a total of $1,851,760.

Currently the Bethlehem Central School District has the highest cost per-pupil in the entire area. With an annual decreasing number of pupils, the current School District budget is $9,900,000, the highest in history. The proposal is to spend $1,851,760 more.

The rationale for the Bond Issue is the fact that there are some roofs to be repaired, and possibly a new boiler in one of the schools. The listed cost of these repairs in the proposed Bond Issue is $426,023 (and that is admittedly padded by 18-1/2%) so the real cost of the proposed needed items is $361,010. The balance of the items in the Bond Issue are "add-ons," nice to have if you can get them.

Not mentioned in the Bond proposal (but added on the taxpayer) is $149,000 for architects charges, and $513,760 for interest, a total of $662,760 extra charges for $361,010 of needed work.

$361,010 of need work for a total cost to the taxpayer of $1,851,760. This exorbitant cost certainly qualifies for the charge "Big Spenders."

Bethlehem Central School District taxpayers are urged to vote "No" on the Bond issue referendum in March, and to send the issue back to the School Board for revision in light of current economic conditions.

John H. Clyne
Member,
Bethlehem Central
Board of Education

The point which cannot be stressed enough is the unmentioned $662,760 of extra charges, when the original cost of the work needed is nearly HALF of this sum! Think about it before YOU vote!

A very important meeting will take place tonight. Ravena-Coeymans-Selkirk bus drivers have invited parents to attend a session on school bus safety at 7:30 P.M. at the Junior High School.

After the class, parents will have an opportunity to meet the drivers and discuss discipline and safety on school buses.

Property Tax Deadline

Bethlehem property owners are reminded that Tuesday, February 18 is the final day for payment of the 1975 property tax bills without incurring a late payment charge — this year's special extension expires and the 1% collection fee commences on Wednesday, February 19. However, all mail received on the morning of February 19 will be honored without the fee.

Owners wishing to defer payment until February 28 may do so, but will be assessed a 1% late payment charge. Payments made during March incur a 1-1/2% additional penalty. Kenneth P. Hahn, Receiver of Taxes & Assessments, advises that taxes unpaid as of April 1st will be transferred to the Albany County Treasurer for late collection.

Kaplowitz Appointed Leader

Inflation hasn't changed the price of ashes.

But it has changed the price of your home. For example, if you bought a $20,000 home in 1968—today it's worth about $27,000. Don't be left with a costly pile of ashes. See me about a State Farm Homeowners Policy that will cover your home for all it's worth ... and keep it that way with automatic Inflation Coverage.

All who remember the Players' rousing production of "Oklahoma" will fully enjoy "Carousel": the lyrics range from the romantic "If I Loved You," the inspirational "You'll Never Walk Alone," the spirited "June is Busting Out All Over" to the poignant soliloquy, "My Boy Bill." The entire musical is, in a real sense, a testament to the belief that insists that a human being has the inherent right to a second chance; even when the second chance leads to the same end.

Tickets to "Carousel" are $4 each and may be purchased at the Clothes Horse, Mullen's and Grover's. Buy your tickets early, as "Carousel" promises to be even a bigger & more successful production than "Oklahoma."

HELP GIVE HEALTH

This Cambodian baby may be crying, but he's a lucky youngster all the same. He's lucky because he is being treated by a doctor.

Until recently, there were only 400 trained physicians to care for the needs of the seven million inhabitants of the southeast Asia
country.

But something new has happened. While Catholic Relief Services (CRS) was establishing its extensive relief and resettlement
program in Cambodia, it became acutely aware of the health needs of more than a million civilian war victims. It was an almost impossible challenge,

but CRS has made a beginning. It has put together medical teams of doctor and nurse volunteers from many countries to treat the patient refugees who think nothing of waiting in line
all day to be examined.

This baby — and many like him — can be helped by contributing to the American Catholic Overseas Aid Appeal at any Catholic Church or send to ACOA, 1011 First Avenue,

BC BOND ISSUE PROJECT — BCHS student Ken Apperle is shown in the welding area of the High School automotive shop, where a worn-out and undersized fan provides inadequate ventilation. Funds are included in the Board of Education's bond issue proposal for immediate correction of this safety hazard. (Photo by L. Spelich)

SCENE FROM THE PAST — This is the way the boys' gymnasium at Bethlehem Central High School looked in November, 1973, when all the floor boards had to be ripped up and re-laid or replaced. The severe damage was caused by the combination of a heavy rainfall and an electrical storm — loss of power meant the generator for the sump pump wasn't working, which allowed flooding water to seep into the gym interior. The bond issue now being proposed by the Board of Education includes money to pay for an auxiliary generator which would prevent re-occurrence of such building damage.
