ADVERTISING PROCEDURE MERCHANDISE FOR SALE

Every week the SPOTLIGHT publishes Merchandise For Sale ads FREE of any charge unless the advertiser gets results. These are called PERCENTAGE ADS and here's how it works: Call us and tell us what you want to sell or advertise. Our ad writers will make up your ad. You don't pay anything then and you don't get a bill. And, in all fairness to us, you won't advertise this same article or articles anywhere else. The ad costs you nothing unless you get results. All established businesses excluded.

The minute you have had results from your ad, call us promptly, then send a check immediately so we won't have any unnecessary bookkeeping and billing.

The amount of your check is based on the following schedule: Up to $101 on each article or transaction, you send us 10% of the advertised price; from $102 to $501, you send us 5% of the advertised price; over $502, you send us 2% of the advertised price.

CLOSING

PERCENTAGE ADS must be in on Wednesday preceding the week of publication.

CLASSIFIED ADS

50¢ per line with a $1.00 minimum.

DISPLAY ADS

$2.00 per column inch per insertion; $3.00 per column inch Front or Back Covers.

CLOSING DATE FOR CLASSIFIED AND DISPLAY ADS

Friday before the following Thursday publication.

(All rates subject to revision)

SEND ALL CHECKS TO: Spotlight, 87 Rowland Avenue, Delmar, New York.

THE BRINS & HAMMONDS:
BRIN'S DEPARTMENT STORES

Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Brin

25 years ago, Mrs. Brin opened a small "specialty shop" in the living room of her home on Delaware Avenue near Second Avenue in Albany. It was the sort of shop so many women toy with the idea of running, little dainty things, a tinkle bell on the door to herald a customer's arrival that put an end to whatever household chore was in the doing. From this innocent beginning mushroomed a real "little department store." Like Topsy, it "just grewed," except that growing is inevitably a bit painful and more than a bit of work.

First, when the walls were bulging with stock, the entire flat where the Brin family lived became store and the family moved upstairs. Mr. Brin gave up his own business and pitched in. Then the back yard was taken in, and eventually the building next door. The whole family was pressed into service,

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hammond

Ruth, the daughter, Larry, the son, and 16 years ago, as you all know, Bob, the son-in-law. There was no living upstairs, the family soon found, for it meant constantly running downstairs at all hours to accommodate the growing demands, and in self defense (one must live!) the family moved out and adjusted themselves to the happy fact that they had a business which had become Big Business.

Now the walls are again bulging and there is no place to push out, so they are opening a branch store on New Scotland Avenue across from St. Peter's Hospital.

There are some amusing facts and unusual sidelights connected with the store . . . For one thing, their following seems to run the gamut of society. Being an unpretentious store with so many low priced items, it's interesting to realize that there is, for example, the little old lady who lives downtown walk my feet off!" Quite often too, when the Playhouse needed something by way of costuming or props, Ellen would dash in and breathing a sigh of exhausted triumph, exclaim, "I KNEW I could find it here!"

Then there's Morris, who now runs the hard goods department. During the dramatic, heart breaking years of the war, a relative of the Brins chanced to find Morris' name in a newspaper list of D.P.'s. He was in a concentration camp in Italy. After some correspondence it was determined he was a distant cousin. Many years ago when Morris was an infant, the Brin family visited his in Poland. Eleven of the thirteen in Morris' family were annihilated with the advent of Hitler. The Brins, with the help of the proper agencies, managed to bring Morris over and so you now have Morris Mirochnick.

Another interesting sidelight: The Brins have never had an employee quit to take another job in all their 25 years in business.

Bob and Ruth Hammond live on Elsmere Avenue with their two children, Denis and Marla. In addition to being a housewife and mother, Ruth does the advertising for both stores and is fill-in clerk when the store is short of sales personnel.
