A WEEKLY NEWSMAGAZINE - - - A DAILY HABIT

IT'LL BE MURDER!

IF, WHEN YOU WIN THE TREASURE HUNT $1,000.00 PRIZE, YOU DISCOVER YOU'RE NOT A PAID SPOTLIGHT SUBSCRIBER!

Number 3. Here, cleanliness is the watchword and everyone is better for it! Unscramble the sign and you'll feel just dandy!

Number 4. Don't weep! Don't sob! And pardon the pun on the brand name of the principal product. Get it?

Entries for Pictures 3 and 4 MUST be made before store closing on Saturday, October 4. Winners of the merchandise prizes given by the two merchants represented here will be announced in the October 16 issue of the Spotlight.

Your $1,000.00 first prize in the Spotlight Treasure Hunt could very well shrink to $100.00, if you aren't a paid up subscriber! There are just 3 steps, all in the same direction, that you take to compete for the weekly merchandise prizes and for the Grand Cash Prize:

1. Make sure you are a paid up subscriber to the Spotlight. There's a convenient blank on Page 2 of this issue.
2. Identify the place of business represented in the pictures published each week.
3. Go to the merchant represented in each picture and ask him for an entry blank. Write a slogan of 10 words or less on the blank and fill it in.

You have now made yourself eligible for the weekly merchandise prizes . . . and if you get all picture identifications correct, you stand a wonderful chance of winning the $1,000.00 in cash! Easy? You bet! So, let's go.

TRI-VILLAGE "DAY OF INSPIRATION" AT DELMAR METHODIST CHURCH, 9:30-2:30 TODAY

A Day of Inspiration for all churchwomen of the Tri-Village area will be presented on September 25th at the Delmar Methodist Church from 9:30 a. m. - 2:30 p. m. The day will open with a worship service by the Reverend Arthur P. White, followed by a time to get acquainted. Dr. Carlyle Adams, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Rensselaer, recently returned from the Middle East, will "Meet The Churchwomen" with their barrage of questions about that troubled land. Mrs. George F. Cox will be the moderator. A film, "Exiles in the Holy Land," will vividly show the plight of the Arab refugees.

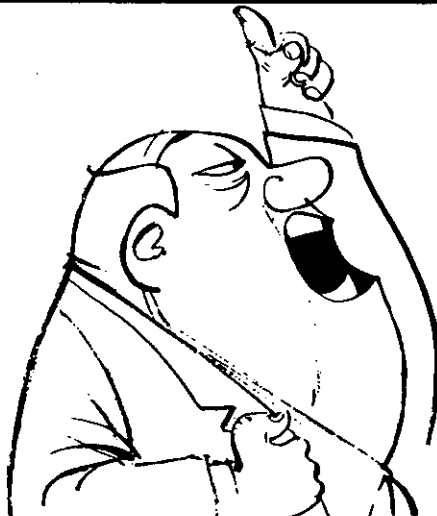

During the luncheon period, Mrs. Olof Lundberg will interview an Algerian girl, an exchange student attending Bethlehem Central High School.

In the afternoon, Mrs. Daniel Bennett will conduct a forum on "North American Concerns." Taking part in the forum will be a woman from each of the participating churches. Dramatic illustrations of some of the problems will be directed by Mrs. Sydney Smith.

Mrs. Sanford Smith, president of the Council, extends a cordial invitation to all churchwomen to attend, and asks that each woman bring her own sandwiches; dessert and coffee will be provided by the host church, and children will be cared for in the nursery.

OUR PICTURES ARE NOW BEING "UNSCRAMBLED" IN GIANT TREASURE HUNT

Page 1 this week carries the second group of two pictures in the Treasure Hunt. On Page 2 we have repeated last week's. You have until Saturday at store closing time to get your entries in for Pictures 1 & 2. Entries for Pictures 3 & 4 are due on Saturday, October 4.

A list of some of the participating merchants will be found on page 5.

Be sure to read the Rules again and make sure you follow them.

Treasure Hunt RULES

(These rules must be followed to the letter to be eligible for either the weekly merchandise prizes or the Grand Cash Award.)

1. The Spotlight will publish a series of pictures over a ten-week period. The pictures will be scrambled so that identification of these merchants places of business will be more difficult to identify.
2. Each contestant must identify the pictures; go to the merchant's store and fill out an official entry blank which the merchant will supply.
3. Space has been provided on the entry blank for the contestant to write in a slogan for that merchant's store. Slogans will be limited to 10 words or less.
4. Slogans will be judged on their originality and their aptness for the store for which they were written. The judges' decision will be final. In case of ties, duplicate awards will be made.
5. Prizes for winning slogans will be awarded weekly starting with Spotlight issue of October 9, 1958.

6. Any reader of the Spotlight is eligible to compete for the weekly merchandise prizes. However, an adult must accompany any youngster who enters; and adult MUST fill in the official entry blank; entries of minors will NOT be accepted by the merchants.

HOW TO BECOME ELIGIBLE FOR GRAND CASH AWARD

1. In order to be eligible for the Grand Cash Award of $1,000.00, the contestant MUST be a Paid Subscriber of the Spotlight. Non-subscribers may enter; they will have an equal opportunity to win BUT IF a non-subscriber wins, the Grand Cash Award will amount to only $100.00.
2. In order to be eligible for the Grand Prize, you must have had all pictures identified correctly. This does NOT mean that you necessarily must win a weekly prize.
3. At the end of the 10 weeks the judges will select the Grand Prize winner from among those contestants whose picture identifications were ALL correct.
4. The judges' decision will be final.

Any added information a contestant or Participating Merchant may need can be obtained by calling this number: POplar 8-2143.

THOSE ACTIVE FIFERS!

With the Hudson-Champlain celebration in the Sheraton-Ten Eyck Hotel, dinner guests were entertained with an "ancient time" Fife and Drum Corps, attired in authentic colonial dress and playing home-made snare drums, and hailing from Delmar.

Mr. Robert McLean, leader of the Village Fire Fifers, a group affiliated with the Delmar Fire Department, is an art director of an Albany television station. He interested the Delmar firemen in the corps early in 1957, with, we like to feel, the support of "Spotlight."

The McLeans took on the job as a "labor of love," with the result that Mr. McLean not only plays the drum but makes them as well. Mrs. McLean is an apt fifer and their own 5 year old daughter is the mascot twirler. And what a darling she is!

Since our own Memorial Day parade, the corps have been home only one week-end. A future personal appearance will be at Fort William Henry on September 28. The other members are: Bob Barned, Ray Hauley, and Bill Kemp all at BCHS; fifer Dave Weinstock attends Trade school; Bob Mulligan, sergeant fifer and State College student; bass drummer, John Noll is an apprentice type-setter; and Bob Webb of Albany is the Drum Major.

The McLeans believe their number to be lucky and the nucleus of one of the top fife and drum units in the Empire State.

School Notes

Hamagrael School certainly has a wonderful organization. Already all the Grade Mothers have met, gone over plans for the coming year (both for class rooms and for PTA meetings. Ginny Eells, of Winne Road, chairman of Grade Mothers, presided at the meeting, in the Teacher's Room. Fourteen mothers enjoyed a good discussion and exchanged ideas for the new school year. Let us all rally round and come out for each and every event and for P. T. A., of course.

Maybe the other schools are just as well organized but so far none has told me about them. Love to hear from you.

Alton U. Farnsworth, supervising principal of Guilderland Schools, has announced enrollment in the district for the Fall term. There are 2,249 children in the elementary schools and 1,088 in the Jr-Sr. High school for a total of 3,532. Westmere Elementary again the largest enrollment - 915. There are double sessions at Westmere and at Guilderland Elementary, which has an enrollment of 622, an increase of 246 over last year.

performances, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, November 19 through 22, in the cafeteria of the Bethlehem Central Junior High School. Theatre goers will be delighted to learn that this play will be given arena-style and that it will be directed by Dr. Paul Bruce Pettit who is so well-known for his excellent arena productions at Albany State College for Teachers.

The second production of the season, a special bonus program for season ticket holders, will be given one night only, on Saturday, January 24, at the Bethlehem Central Senior High School. The evening will feature THE TELEPHONE, an Opera Buffa in one act by Gian Carlo Menotti, America's foremost composer of opera; an especially prepared reader's theatre adaptation of Edith Wharton's novel Ethan Frome; and a one act comedy to be announced. The players are proud to announce that the principal role in THE TELEPHONE will be sung by Doris Clark, whose beautiful soprano voice has thrilled countless music lovers in the area.

Death of a Salesman, the Pulitzer Prize winning drama by Arthur Miller, which will be presented at Bethlehem Central Senior High School on Friday and Saturday evenings, April 3 and 4, will complete the season's program. Ruth Wilber, whose direction has inspired so many of the Players' successful productions, will direct this last play. Season tickets for the Slingerlands Community Players productions, which will be available only during Community Theatre Week, will entitle holders to attend all three productions for $2.50. Tickets to individual performances, which will not be offered until after season tickets are sold, will be $1.25. Season tickets will be sold at the Delmar Pharmacy at the Four Corners, at the Delmar Public Library, and by each member of the Slingerlands Community Players. Tickets may also be ordered by telephoning 9-3975 or 9-2360.

Everyone who is interested in theatre work is urged to attend the try-outs for Years Ago, which will be held in the Players Rooms on Monday and Tuesday, September 29 and 30, at 8:00 p.m. The Players Rooms are located above Norton's Food Store on New Scotland Avenue, next to the Slingerlands Fire Hall. Particularly needed are girls between the ages of fifteen and nineteen and young men between the ages of eighteen and twenty-four. Persons interested in other aspects of play production, such as set design, properties, make-up, costumes and lighting, are also encouraged to attend.

NURSERY SCHOOL TO OPEN 13th SEASON ON MONDAY

September 29 marks the opening of the 13th year of the Tri-Village Nursery School. . . and the largest enrollment to date! This cooperative organization will be serving 60 3 and 4 year olds this year as a result of a double session.

This is no glorified baby sitting service! It's eyes are on the child, not on the mother. The aims of the school are to increase the independence of the child, to give them objective, supervised play (for play is the business of the boys and girls of these ages), and to give them an opportunity to adjust and have fun with their age group. All this has been carefully planned by its regular teachers, Mrs. Ralph Smith and Mrs. John Paige, and a teacher's aide, Mrs. E. S. Dayter.

Today, the Nursery School is a going concern because of the persistence and work of the parents of the present and previous "students." Being a co-operative venture, each parent is expected to serve on a committee during the year. In order to keep the tuition low (presently $45 per quarter) so that it is available to as many as possible the committees have taken on all sorts of jobs to keep the costs down.

The Tri-Village Nursery School now has its' headquarters in the Bethlehem Center School building, at the junction of Route 9-W and Feura Bush Road, where it rents the ground floor from the Board of Education. School buses transport the children and the nursery school pays for this on a mileage rate.

However, this has not always been the situation. Their history includes a continuous succession of moving days - and many a desperate search for accommodations.

Beginning in 1946, in the Nathaniel Adams Post, they have been located in the Sunday school room of the Methodist Church in Slingerlands, the Elsmere school, Delmar Reformed Church, and the Elsmere Fire Hall. Car pools and taxis provided transportation in the early years. These methods proved either too expensive or too unstable. The use of the school buses has simplified this

The Clayton Smiths, with daughters, Joyce and Judy, found lots to do in New York this past weekend. Not only did they take in a family wedding in the Bronx but a gala night on the town afterward.

Many things continue to amaze us around these parts, for instance: College - people are still going in droves! Talked with Mabel Parker, of Rowland Avenue, Thursday and found that Sandy will be going to Smith as a freshman, the last week in September. Also Betsy North, of Winne Road, is off for a wonderful year at Wellsley. Sue Cline, of Forest Road, decided on Green Mountain College in Vermont.

Over luncheon, after some Fall golf, we learned that Joan Myron will return to Syracuse University as a sophomore this year. Joan lives on Marlboro Road, and has had a wonderful summer as a counsellor at Camp Brown Ledge up in Mallets Bay, Vermont.

Susan Rand, daughter of the Gren Rands of Brookview Avenue, dropped by for tea this past week, with great plans for her second year at Cornell. She is a member of Delta Gamma, will live in the house, and has found a job. Really talking with these young people makes one realize that Bethlehem Central turns them out well-organized and serious-minded.

Frederick Wilson, of 26 Darroch Road, just returned from Europe in time to resume his studies at Colgate University as a senior in pre-med. school. He devoted much of his time in Europe to building a Methodist Church in Austria. There, with 29 other American students, he lived in a refugee camp, sharing the food, sorrow, and labor.

Surprise dinner party was given by Jean Ladue, of Center Lane, for husband, Bob. It was very much fun and most creative. The gifts turned out by guests: Eve and Betty Parry, of Albany; the Warren Kimmneys, of Rural Place; Emmy and Paul Mansuy; Gerry and Ed Tisdall, all of Groesbeck Place; and Abbie and Bill Utz, of Lyons Avenue were top entertainment. Quite a gracious way to celebrate being just one year older.

More weddings... Miss Carol Virginia Hope, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall A. Hope of Oneida, was married to Fletcher Cameron Wait, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Wait, 263 Kenwood Avenue, Elsmere in the First Presbyterian Church in Oneida on September

Rotary of Albany had 27 foreign exchange students as guests last week at the International Center. The visitors came from as far away as Pakistan. After dinner, they visited many "local" homes. Among the families entertaining in this area were: Richard Hermann of Delmar played host to Friedrich Aurfhammer and Manfred Hans from Germany; E. D. Homiller, Slingerlands had Leonard Heidenberger of Germany; George Bonacker, Delmar entertained Christopher Leeds of England; David Hartley of Elsmere entertained Ann Marie Dessain from Belgium; Richard Hauser, Slingerlands - Lloyd Young Kong of British Guiana; Milton C. Olson, of Selkirk - Heinz Dietrich of Switzerland; and M. S. Khan of Pakistan; John N. Brownrigg, of Feura Bush - Jeanne Postma of Holland; Len R. Pritchard of Delmar - Rudolf Plattner of Switzerland; and Ralph Brooks, of Delmar - Miss Marja Vaara of Finland.

It was our privilege to call on Miss Vaara at the Brooks' home on Center Lane. She is a kindergarten teacher, speaks 5 languages fluently and has returned to get her final degree in more advanced college work. Young Ralph, a 6th grader at Hama-grael, and Debbie, a 4th grader, invited Miss Vaara to visit their classrooms on Wednesday. Busy every moment of the four short days spent here, the host families will long remember their visitors.

FOUR WOMEN Express Views on Laundries

Attitudes of homemakers toward professional laundries vary little whether they live in Kansas City or Albany. Their preferences and prejudices stem from either happy experiences or disappointments in past relationships.

The foregoing observations are prompted by the findings of four typical American women recently serving on a panel in a midwestern city who were asked to express their views on laundries. Here are their conclusions as reported in a bulletin issued by the American Institute of Laundering.

1. All did their laundering at home because they felt they could do a better job.

2. All conceded that they had shirts sent to a professional laundry - AT THEIR HUSBAND'S INSISTENCE!

3. All agreed that they would prefer to send their laundry out IF THEY COULD ONLY BE SURE IT WOULD BE DONE AS WELL AS THEY COULD DO IT AT HOME.

4. None was particularly interested in cut-rate laundering prices if the alleged savings involved the sacrifice of top-flight workmanship.

Killip Laundering Company feels impelled to offer some observations of its own on the above report. Our comments appear at the right - in the form of a "challenge."

An Invitation

We would like to dispel any misconceptions you may have about what the inside of a modern laundry is like. Pay a visit to our premises. Note the pleasant environment - the air conditioning - the lighting, the girls in their spotless white uniforms. Many a visitor has remarked: "I would not mind working at Killip's myself!"

Will you accept this friendly KILLIP challenge?

Call Albany 5-3311

or, in Troy, ENTERPRISE 9-624

A courteous Killip route man will call at your home for your soiled pieces. We will launder them with the highest professional skill and return them - clean, white, and sweet-smelling as a breath of cool forest air. Examine our work with a critical eye and COMPARE! See if you do not agree that it not only meets, but actually excels, the quality standards referred to in Comment No. 3 at the left.

82 YEARS OF PROFESSIONAL LAUNDERING "KNOW-HOW"

● We wash everything in filtered, rain-soft water, using only mild, billowy LUX suds. Tests show that water in our final rinsings is pure enough for human consumption. You could not possibly get a cleaner, whiter washing at home.

● We guarantee only the safest and gentlest methods are employed at Killip's. Far from "wearing things out" our safe method actually insures MAXIMUM LIFE to your shirts, underwear, sheets, towels, napkins and table linens.

● Compare Costs! Does home laundering really "save" you money? Consider ALL the cost factors - soaps, bluing, starches, gas, electricity - and particularly the value of your own time. If you engage a laundress, consider the cost of her transportation, wages, meals. This will prove that any alleged savings are imaginary rather than real.

To really cut laundering costs to the bone, try our economical WASH, DRY and FOLD SERVICE

Some pieces are too cumbersome for any woman to struggle with. We'll wash, Dry and Fold your sheets, tablecloths, wearing apparel exactly as you would do it yourself - except that we will do it professionally. This service is both a health saver and a money saver.

CREATIVE PLAY SESSIONS

The Hamagrael Pre-School PTA plans four creative play sessions for three year olds. Each session will be limited to about 15 children with 5 mother volunteers in attendance to assist Mrs. Charles Hurwitz who is chairman of the project. The number of times each child may attend depends upon the total number of children registered.

Planned activities will consist of working with clay, crayons, paints, stories and musical games. Sessions will be held in the Hamagrael Elementary School gym from 9:30 to 11 a. m. on Thursday October 16, Thursday October 23, October 30 and November 6.

A similiar program for 4 year olds is being planned for the spring.

If you are interested in having your child participate or wish more information call Jean Hurwitz or Ann Patton before October 1.
