LOCAL PICTURES NEEDED FOR COMING CELEBRATION

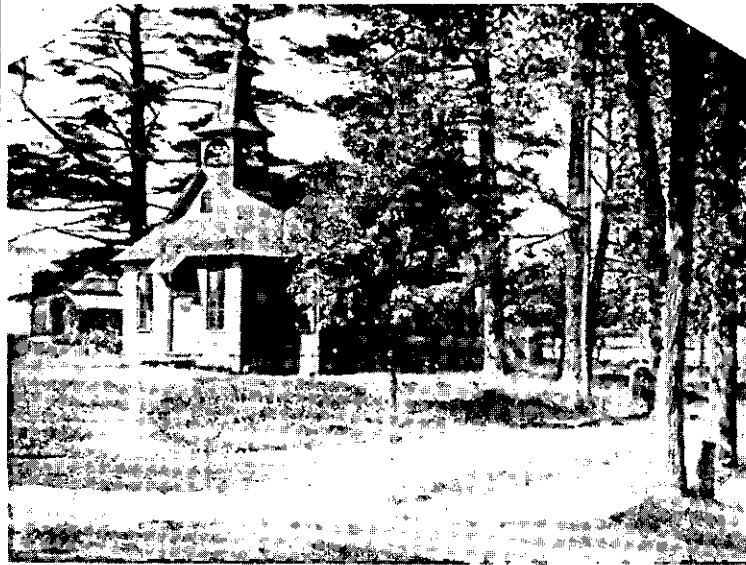

Hudson and Champlain sail again . . . and ideas about their historical time and period are causing many a group and committee to unfurl their sails and establish their communities participation in New York State's year of Historical observances, which begins January 1, 1959.

The Town of Bethlehem's Committee for the Hudson-Champlain Celebration, headed by Mrs. Paul Dickenson, is preparing material to bring our township into the forefront.

The first request is to assist in the pictorial exhibits of the area. Photographs, portraits, pictorial history exhibit, including many periods of town history, is being sought.

It is not necessary to have a picture of Henry Hudson riding at anchor at the mouth of the Normanskill; or of Alberly Bradt, who leased mill privileges on the Normanskill in 1630, and is considered the first settler; nor of the legislature in session, when the township of Bethlehem was created officially in 1793. But if you do have anything along that line, be sure to let the committee know about it. Material down to World War II is needed. Early deeds, maps, and pictures views of the town of any period other than the present are needed. Of course, it is necessary that all be identified. Many may be of considerable value. Therefore, if any person has available material, will they contact Mrs. Dickenson, or any of her committee? It is important as enough material for a are excellent possibilities.

Also, the Committee is planning other exhibits and programs. Already they are sponsoring the Writing Contest, which is in full swing in the Junior and Senior High Schools.

The committee includes: Mr. Otto D. deHeuss, vice chairman; Mrs. William J. Comstock, Secretary; Mrs. John T. Delaney, Mrs. Anna K. Rowe, Mr. John E. Glenn, Mr. Leonard Welter, Sr., Mr. S. Vint Van Derzee; and Mr. Paul S. Twitchell.

"YEARS AGO" SCHEDULED BY LOCAL PLAYERS

"Years Ago," a comedy by Ruth Gordon, will open at the Bethlehem Central Junior High School on Wednesday, November 19, at 8:30 p.m. The play, which is presented in arena style by the Slingerlands Community Players, will run for four successive nights. All seats are reserved. Tickets may be ordered by telephoning 9-4158 or may be bought directly from members of the Players.

"Years Ago," which is an autobiographical play by a successful Broadway actress, won the approval of New York critics when it opened on Broadway and had a long and successful run. The late Wolcott Gibbs, theater reviewer for the New Yorker Magazine, described it as "a charming comedy with undeniable appeal. The background and the people who inhabit it have the kind of humor and the feeling of a past recalled with loving accuracy that are only too rare in these hard pressed times." It is a play to which you will want to bring the whole family.

The three members of Ruth Gordon Jones' family (she dropped the "humiliating Jones" when she entered the theater) will be played by Arthur Ploetz and Zaida Johnson, as the mother and father, and Nancy Jean Alsten as Ruth. Paul Bruce Pettit is director and Edith Feder is Assistant Director. Other members of the cast are Leslie Ann Brownrigg, Jean Alexander, Dean Hartley, Charles Losacco, Kenneth Warner, and Betty Taylor.

Another reader writes on local integration

Spotlight Readers:

I was pleased and encouraged to read Mrs. Oliver's letter of October 23 raising the question of whether Delmar should be a segregated community. The ice has been broken, and I, for one, would like to add my personal support to her call for human kindness and understanding. I am sure there are many others in our community who also agree.

It has long been my belief that nice people are nice people, wherever they were born or whatever their backgrounds. We all know that there are any number of fine negro families who would make good neighbors for all of us and our children - - if we would let them.

As home-owners here, my husband and I would welcome the opportunity to do our parts as neighbors, in demonstrating that we really live in a community where friendliness and democratic principles are not merely idle talk.

Barbara W. Weaver

The awareness of a community can often be determined by the quantity and quality of the letters written to its own local publication. We'll be happy to print yours!

David Utz wants some answers concerning a local Drag Strip

Mrs. Walsh,

Lately around school (BCSHS) there has been talk about looking into possibilities for organizing a Drag Strip for the Tri-Village Area. I thought, maybe, through this note to you, as editor of the "Spotlight," all of us concerned might get some public opinion, pro or con, as to what they think. Food for their thoughts might be: Why should we or should not have one? Would we back one up wholeheartedly? Could we get enough backing or would taxpayers end up footing the bill? These are just a few ideas, there are many more. I sincerely hope this will bring a response.

Respectfully,
 Dave Utz

JUST YOUR CUP OF TEA

We like entertaining evening guests and have served a variety of foods at these parties. One of our favorites (due to the ease of preparation and the rapidity of its disappearance) is a ground-beef concoction:

Simply take 1/2 cup of minced onion, 1/4 cup of butter and 1 1/2 pounds of hamburger. Stir with a fork in skillet until meat is separated and loses color. To this add 1/2 cup pickle relish, or India relish and 1 can of tomato soup. Cook as long as you wish, season with any of the many popular salts, peppers, herbs, etcetera to your personal taste and ingenuity; then, serve the grand elixir on toasted buns or mounds of rice.

The latter brings to mind a perfectly delicious new taste in rice dishes. Again 1/4 cup of butter (or oleo) melted and browned slightly in frying pan. Pour 1 cup of rice into butter and stir constantly until rice is thoroughly greased. Now pour in one can of onion soup, adding 1 cup of water. Turn heat low, cover, and cook until rice is well done. Has a guarantee with each mouthful. . .

Budget Your Time

Learn to budget your time very carefully. A person with a small income needs a well-planned financial budget even more than a wealthy person does, to make his money stretch as far as possible. In the same way, if you have very little free time, learn to budget it wisely and learn how to STRETCH it!

Thanksgiving is coming? You may think we are a bit early but it's a good idea to start listing items necessary for the "Family or Friend" traditional dinner right now. Shopping done leisurely lends to a more relaxing time for the hosts. And why not begin the Thanksgiving theme with a lovely center-piece specially created for your home - or dining spot - with a truly unique "Everlasting Bouquet" from Anita and Rose. This is another new business venture of local gals. Rose is Mrs. R.E. Vanderwood of Bender Lane - and Anita is Mrs. Douglas Bridge of Union Avenue, Slingerlands (across from grade school) . . . and that is where most of the work is done. They have raised and collected all their material and use Anita's barn to dry and process them. We are thrilled with their ideas and hope you will be too.

Speaking of the efforts of women, don't forget the Woman's Association of the Delmar Presbyterian Church Bazaar. This is to be an all day affair Friday, the 21st at the Delmar Masonic Temple on Kenwood Avenue. Proceeds are for the church building fund. We have been talking to some of these hard-working gals and know that great things are planned to interest all customers. There's to be a fortune teller, a mitten tree, aprons, baked goods and candy, doll clothes, toys, flower arrangements, plants, and a country store. Mrs. George Phelps, Jr. and Mrs. Sam Hazleton are in charge of "Pick-aPocket" a top secret; co-assistants in the cafeteria will be Don and Dave Potter plus the Westminster Youth Fellowship group.

Never under estimate the power of a woman. . . an old cliché but so true in the case of the Candy Stripers. . . Theirs is a Junior group of student volunteers sponsored by The Women's Auxiliary of Albany Hospital. These girls must be 14 1/2 years old to begin their training and may continue through their senior year in high school. . . This past Thursday June Gunn, Sec'y of Christian Social Relations of First Methodist Church of Delmar, arranged to circulate some of our girls who are Candy Stripers. Sue Yaple, Joan Alexander, Karen Broughton, Patsey Sutliff, Janice Quinn, and Judy Trowbridge spoke at the Circle Meetings. Carol Gainer and Debbie Rodgers are also members of the group. All of the Candy Stripers are trained for thirty-two hours by a Registered Nurse and must promise to give fifty hours of service, as a minimum to the hospital for a year. Actually they have the same training as the Nurse's Aides. Here's one great big opportunity for young Florence Nightingales. . . Service with the accent on all the letters! Incidentally you might just try asking some of these Candy Stripers what goes. . .

The Russian Language has been added to the curriculum at Bethlehem Central Senior High School. Twenty-five students are taking the course for credit, and seven are auditing, according to Dr. Virgil Tompkins, principal.

This course in Basic Russian is being televised over WTRI, Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, from 2:30 to 3:00 p. m., under the sponsorship of the Mohawk-Hudson Council on Educational Television.

Dr. Arash Bormanshinov, Assistant Professor of Russian and German at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, is the teacher of the course.

Miss Roberta Glatz and Miss Anita Palumbo, language teachers at Bethlehem, are supervising the course at BCHS. Mrs. Glatz has studied Russian in the past and Miss Palumbo is presently studying the language. Tape recordings are made of each program and these recordings serve as review for the students, who hear the tapes just before the next lesson.

Students must successfully complete two years of this course in order to receive credit. Text-books are being supplied by the school.

Dr. Bormanshinov believes that to learn a language a student must see and hear it and in this respect television provides a u-

PRESBYTERIAN BAZAAR

Everyone is cordially invited to the Bazaar of the Delmar Presbyterian Church which will be held on Friday, November 21 at the Masonic Temple in Delmar.
It will be an all day event until 9 p. m.

Among the unusual things you will find are fascinating objects which Mrs. Augard Carlson brought back from her recent trip to Mexico. Famous Mexican tin and silver jewelry, hand-painted baseball bats and a variety of handmade baskets.

Mrs. Gerald Knapp has worked diligently at her loom, weaving
lovely things for our Bazaar.

Mrs. Ewald Nyquist has spent many hours working for the event.
She has a loom in her home and
has made a number of beautiful rugs.

Mrs. Keith C. Colburn will have a wonderful selection of homemade candies and a complete line of baked goods.

You will also find a special
table where the children can shop
for their Christmas gifts within their means. Nothing over fifty cents.

The decorated Christmas stockings are beautiful and don't worry about the filling them as we have a number of unusual reasonable gifts.

Your children will adore the colorful night dresses - sizes 4 to
8. These are hand-made by the Women of our Church.

You may order your Christmas wreaths at our Bazaar - whether you like them plain or decorated
we can accommodate you.

Our patrol post booth will be a great attraction. There will be packages from all over the country.
