Yule Tree at 4 Corners

Members of the 4 Corners Business Men's Association have just completed their Christmas Program for the holiday season, with nearly all at the 4 Corners participating.

Again this year there is music over a loudspeaker system, and, also, organ music will be played by Mrs. Betty Adams from her home, piped into the loudspeaker at the Corners.

A large lighted Christmas Tree has been set up at the 4 Corners, and on three different days Santa Claus will make the rounds of the participating stores with gifts for the children: Saturday, December 13; Saturday, December 20th; Wednesday, December 24.

The following merchants are participating:

Adams Hardware, Inc., Carroll Pharmacy, Delmar Bakery, Delmar Barber Shop, Delmar Bootery, Delmar Department Store, Delmar Liquor Store, Delmar Nursery, Delmar Pharmacy, Delmar Tavern, Den Gift Shop, Dorothy Lynn Dress Shop, Reynolds Gulf Station, National Commercial Bank and Trust Co., Nick's Market, Pauline's Beauty

Chamber of Commerce Notes

There are still about 1,000 brochures of Our Town of Bethlehem . . . a pictorial booklet showing our suburb, at its' very best . . . available. These make delightful Christmas gifts for Delmarites, who have moved away or for newcomers to mail their families to show their new community. If you are interested, call Mr. Harry Keelan at the National Commerical, Al Peterson on Palmer Avenue; or William Pagano on Delaware Avenue.

Bob Martin, our SAAB dealer, tells of the unique 3 way set-up around his auto agency. Across the highway from him (during the summer months) is the ice cream stand for those so inclined to get fattened up. A stone's throw away is the beautiful new establishment to slim down, and then, drive away in one of his sports cars.

Salon, Phillip's Jewelry Store, Schnurr & Wood, Tad's Men's Shop, Thistle Yarn and Gift Shop, and Wood's 5 and 10 Store.

No wonder they look happy! The moving's all done! George Fowler and Harry Moak in the NEW Fowler's Liquor Store which opened last week at the corner of Elsmere and Delaware Avenues. The store is beautiful and modern... and features 3 storage rooms at the back.

SUPERVISORS PASS NEW BUDGET WITHOUT CREATING MENTAL HEALTH BOARD OR PROVIDING FUNDS FOR IT

The Town of Bethlehem was well represented at the last minute appeal to the Board of Supervisors of Albany County to develop a Mental Health Board.

Supervisor John H. Oliver of Bethlehem (Republican) presented a resolution, which left a loophole for the possible reconsideration of the question in the near future. Mr. Oliver's resolution asked that the Board consider, during the coming year, the establishment of a Mental Health Board.

For many of those, who crowded the meeting room, it was their first appearance at a supervisor's meeting in Albany. The extreme courtesy and bowing from the hips by the Board was observed with interest. Yet the fact that it was only courtesy was suggested in conversations, after the meeting. This proved to be true, when the final results were known. The Board voted through the budget without even a mention of the Mental Health Board.

The strong feeling, which took people out on a stormy night to appear at the meeting, was the concern over the possible loss of the Guidance Center, which has been the sole place to help children with emotional problems. Without the creation of a Mental Health Board, which would enable the county to receive State funds, the Center will have to close its' doors.

Mrs. Joseph Harris, 119 Mosher Road, Delmar, representing the League of Women Voters and Mrs. Donald Armer, 139 Marlboro Road, Delmar, representing the Tri-Village Committee for Mental Health, spoke before the meeting. They pointed out that, with the creation of the Board, it was possible to put the Guidance Center on its' feet without adding to the budget, which already allots $37,000. This amount would be matched by the State with the creation of the Mental Health Board and the contribution of the Community Chest of $19,000 to the Center would be matched, also by the State bringing the total to $112,000.

Organizations, who presented petitions to the Board of Supervisors, were: Slingerlands and Hamagrael PTA, The Teacher's Associations, W.S.C.S. of the Methodist Church and the Capital District Guidance Ass., whose president is Arlene Supurko from BCHS.

Beside Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Armer, there were many other familiar faces to this area. Dr. Roger Drew and Dr. William Holt saw to it that the hearing was fitted into their busy schedules. Mr. Phil Auerbach and Miss Supurko, of the High School, were present; and housewives and citizens, who felt action was necessary, skidded through the snow to be among those, who stood up and were counted with the 65 that overflowed the seating capacity of the room.

One pertinent comment overheard, while waiting, summed up a thought many felt: "Things we don't have, we can manage without - but when we already have them and they are taken away . . . that is hard to take."

For 9 years, the Child Guidance Center has administered to children, who have needed help in adjusting to certain problems. These are not retarded children. More often they are normal children, who need help at a particular emotional moment in their lives. It is the Guidance Center that helps them to work out this crisis.

The Center has never had the funds to do the job they wanted to do. A child often has to (Continued on Page 2) wait 3 to 6 months before he can be admitted. But for those who are fortunate enough to be able to use the Center's facilities, there is a full concentration of help. There is no other place in Albany County where children can find this specialized care . . . care, which is so needed and which can play such an important part in a whole life-time of living.

Schools, throughout the country, refer students with major problems to the Guidance Center. (Our own schools of Bethlehem are included.) Many organizations of all faiths use its' facilities. Its' place in our county is recognized by doctors and laymen alike. Its' recognition by Social Workers throughout the east is well-known. Its' importance to the future citizens of Albany, to the problems of juvenile delinquency and to the numbers entering mental hospitals in the future, as well an important part of the picture.

All that is needed to insure its' future existence is the creation of a Mental Health Board. There has been no explanation by the Board of Supervisors as to its reasons for not creating such a

Christmas Workshop

Members of the Garden Group of the Delmar Progress Club will meet for their annual Christmas Workshop at the home of Miss Mary Louise Rossiter, 12 Mayfair Dro, Slingerlands at 10 a.m. on Monday, December 15th. Each year this group prepares greens and makes decorations for the Capital City Rescue Mission, 50 Hudson Avenue.

Workers are requested to bring their own sandwiches and eating utensils.

At the Library

Electric Trains will be in the library for the Christmas enjoyment of children. On the 13th of December they will be set up and ready to run. The set will be staged around a village which was made by last years, 9th grade and presented to the Library by Mr. Joe Todak.

Also on display at that time will be doll furniture. Made to scale this furniture exhibit contains reproductions of antique styles as well as some of the modern.

LETTER

Alice M. Saulsbury writes about $1,000,00 and her family . . .

Dear Friends:

Please, if I was so blessed as to win the $1,000 Grand Prize, won't you put our small, old villege among those where your fine little paper is READ. How could I have ever tried for the Contest, if I had not received the Spotlight every week here?

I wish you would come visit me before three in the afternoon so I may show you the beauty God gave us, as well as, the poorness of many houses that you may better understand why Taxes here are too high.

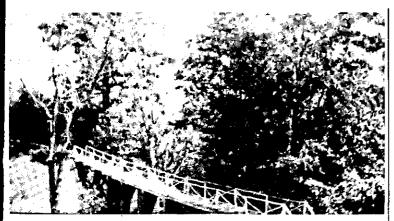

Please read Psalm 23. This Grand Prize is "as a table from the Lord" Verse 5. I went to school at Normansville. I came back to live here, until death claims me, on June 1, 1957. My home is the oldest in this village, I believe, though I may be wrong. Salisbury Street in Delmar, as well as in Elsmere, were named for my Grandfather, Henry Salisbury. When the Normanside Golf Course bought the two Salisbury farms from my father, it was the first time in many, many years, this land was out of the our name. However, he didn't sell all the land to the club. Dad kept a small part of it for himself.

The Normanside Golf Course Prospectus tells of this land made famous by Henry W. Longfellow in the poem, "Hiawatha," In this prospectus, also is the first recorded date, 17 . . . , the Old Homestead (lower Salisbury farm,) was recorded by Joseph Salisbury. My Dad said: "The Salisbury's came here before The Revolutionary War . . . a Lord Salisbury from England was the first. First owners did not record date of ownership then, (Vale of Hiawatha). John E. Glenn or Howard A. Paddock may yethave the Normanside Prospectus.

Sincerely, Alice M. Saulsbury

A FIFTIETH wedding anniversary was celebrated recently by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Warner of East Berne. Many friends and relatives came around to congratulate this happy couple.

Alice M. Saulsbury, winner of the Spotlight Treasure Hunt $1,000.00 Grand Prize, sent these two pictures to us. 'n the upper photo is the bridge across the gully on the Normanside Golf Course, while the lower snapshot shows the old homestead on Salisbury Road.

The Eagles commenced their Suburban Council season with a vigorous 69-48 win over Colonie's Garnet Raiders. BC led the entire game. At the end of the first quarter by four points, the half score was 36-24 and during the third quarter the whole team rallied terrifically and canned 20 more points. Starters for BC were Tom Willard, Bob Lunden, Jim Montrose, Larry Shultes and Don Crysler-Captain. Leading off for Colonie were Sandy Fiacco, Bruce Baird, Capt., Stan Bazyk, Keith Ellis and Dennis Burton.

Fiacco was top man for his team with 15 points and Montrose did considerably well for BC with 19 points.

BC's next game was at Mohonasen Tuesday and at BC tomorrow they'll see action with Shaker which is launching it's first season. Shaker beat Mohonasen 41-37 last Friday. Columbia won over Guilderland 74-42 and Niskayuna pocketed a 66 to 50 victory over Schalmont.

JV's Bow to Colonie

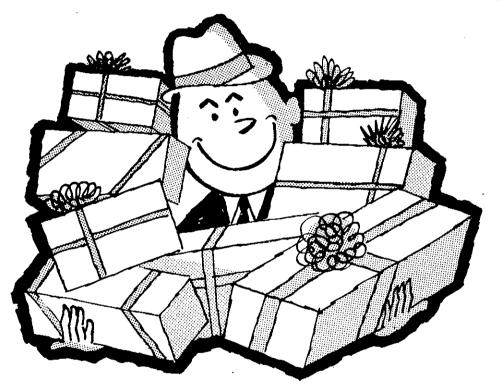

Friday night found Colonie beckoning at our door during the entire first half. Then in the last half they walked all over us to win 58-47.

Starters for BC were an all sophomore team. They included Ed Klink, our best shooter who was expelled from the game in the fourth quarter on fouls; Bill Jones, usually a top shooter had a bad night; Dave Guerrera, made a terrific showing; Dan Towner, top notch bucketman who really showed off his stuff, and Doug Johnson, started and played the first quarter but was replaced by Ned Steere who played the remainder of the game.

The top five for Colonie were Dan Clark, Bill Rogers, John Wildzumas, Blaise Pagano and Tom Kiernan. Clark their top shooter was also put out in the fourth quarter on fouls.

The JV's next game was Tuesday night against Mohonasen at Scotia. We hope to see you all tomorrow at BC for their game with Shaker. Last week Mo-

Just Your CUP O' TFA

For the young: The Record Hops are certainly the vogue for our youngsters this fall, whether at the school canteen or a special variety at somebody's home over the week-end. Of course, there should be food. . . the plenty-ofit kind. Why not a chili supper with lots of hard rolls and homemade jelly? We like to brown a spanish onion in butter or margerine, stir in the hamburger until it changes color, toss in a large can of kidney beans and one of tomatoes, flavor with several pieces of pascal celery and a carrot thinly diced, then we add one large potato diced as thinly as possible. Now, chili powder to suit the cook, some oregano, a dash of Worcestershire sauce for zip, salt and pepper (gourmet type) to taste - then simmer for hours. Would you believe that for 8 or 10 young adults two pounds of meat is adequate and only one onion will do the trick? At least, try it. . and then, always, cokes and cookies to top it off!

Adult type fair say for after our college team's victory on the gridiron could be:

A Scarlet Supper
Chicken or Pork Chops, dipped in
Lusty Scarlet Sauce
Broiled Potatoes baked in foil
Herb-flavored stuffed eggs
Tomatoes, green and ripe olives, peppers
Garlic French Bread
Cheese cake with frozen straw-

Lusty Scarlet Sauce:
1/2 green pepper, diced
1 stalk celery, diced
1/4 lb. butter
1 clove minced garlic
1 can chicken gumbo soup
2 bottles ketchup
1 can condensed onion soup
1/2 cup water
1/4 cup wine vinegar

Cook green pepper and celery BEEEEEEEE in butter or margarine 'til soft. Combine with remaining ingredients, except sauterne. Simmer about 30 minutes. Remove from heat, coolslightly, add sauterne. Chicken pieces or chops should be dipped into sauce, placed in broiler pan with some more sauce added to the top of the meat. Serve with additional hot sauce.

Garlic French Bread Mash 1 clove of garlic to a pulp, then blend and cream well with 1/2 cup softened butter. Partially cut French bread into thick bias slices; do not cut through to bottom crust. Spread garlic butter between slices. Wrap loaf in aluminum foil, place in 450 degree oven and bake for 10 minutes.

It's Time For That Incredible Farmer's Almanac With Its Fantastic Weather Predictions

The Farmer's Almanac of 1959 is on the stands. Ready to guide you, to amuse you, and to keep you happy leafing through for an anecdote or a joke to fit one's mood. It also passes on valuable information on everything from when to plant your parsnips to how to tell the tide at any location.

This is it's 167 consecutive year of publication under the same format, the same name. It claims and, we agree, that is a record!

It has the courage to cover its' last year's weather forecast and to analyze it. Of 31 predictions made between November and March, 67% were correct, only 2 were completely incorrect. Florida's "unexpected" cold wave was forseen, as were the severe storms in January, February, and March.

Predictions for this year find seasonal snowfall between November and March 30-61 inches against 90.5% of last year. In general, we are to expect a "cold December 1958, a mild February, an early Spring, a hot wet June, and an early cool fall."

This general summary cannot give the "color" to the weather as the comments, which range along in the monthly calendars. A few choice descriptions include "Despite adverse comment, the weather's quite decent" . . . "This wintery fog'd freeze a dog"and for the Memorial Day period "Sizzles without Drizzles."

Noted also are the eclipses. with only the October 2nd eclipse of the sun visible in our territory where one must be up at sunrise to see it.

Beside homey philosophy and outdoor planting tables, the Almanac provides recipes, fish, and game summary, auto and postal laws, old fashioned puzzles, and even a letter from a gentleman on the moon.

Over 1,250,000 copies are on the stands. Last year, there were none available in Delmar by Spring.

Speaking of winter, it really made travelling home Thanksgiving vacations difficult! Ruth Gulling and children, Agda Lo and Rob, of Hawthorne Avenue, returned from Ithaca, after visiting with Mrs. R.C. Osborn. The roads were so icy, they just barely made The Paul Mansuy's the trip. came home from over Scotiaway Saturday night and they really crept. The New York Thruway had to be seen to be believed . . . with the hundreds of cars, trucks, busses, and people stranded at the various restaurant-gas stations. Not to mention the snow on Sunday, which really slowed our return from Westfield interchange to our home some fourteen hours. Surely, we were THANKFUL to be safely back in Delmar.

The Young Adults Class of the Bethlehem Reformed Church is busy rehearsing for their Christmas page ant entitled "Still Shines the Star," to be given at the church December 23 at 7:30 The cast includes: o'clock. The Couples Club of the Delmar Presbyterian Church has scheduled a dinner-dance in the Masonic Temple for December 20. The William Howells and Karl Sutters are co-chairman. Wonderful idea!

Hope you all made the annual Christmas bazaar and ham supper of the Unionville Reformed Church set for Saturday.

Isn't it wonderful to know that Pat Dunn, daughter of Henrietta and Perry Dunn, of Adams Place, has been awarded one of the six national scholarships for outstanding 4-H work in Home Improvement? Pat is a freshman at Cornell this year and continues to turn out top grades there. The award was made by Montgomery Ward & Co. . . over 1,000 state gals and boys engaged in some 30 4-H programs and attended the convention recently held in Chicago.

We are glad to welcome back Mrs. G.F. Noyes, from Toledo. Ohio. She is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Tomlinson, of Hawhtorne Avenue, Delmar, for the winter.

Take note of Earl McGuirk, Adams Place, Delmar, state photographer for 45 years . . . mostly with the Conservation Department. Mr. McGuirk loves his work and has not made any plans for retirement as yet, although Earl, Jr. seems to have convinced him Florida would be fun. His hobbies include boating and home movies of his 11 grand-children. Man with camera. . . will travel in due time.

Men do make news this week... George R. Schreck of Fernbank Avenue! Members of Trinity College alumni of Albany area held a reunion at the University Club recently. Among those present were Edward Faber, secretary of the alumni group, Col. C.B. Brill, director of the State Thruway and George, who is the president of the area group.

Congratulations: Two former Presidents of the New Scotland Kiwanis Club have been named to head Capitol Division committees for 1959. Lauren Kissel was appointed Chairman of the Interclub Relations Committee and P.J. McCann Chairman of Education and Fellowship. The appointments were made by John Tabner, Division-Lieutenant Governor elect. Mr. Kissel, also, is to serve on the Kiwanis International Goodwill committee.

Donald M. Slingerlandhas been elected Treasurer of the Northeastern Medical Service, which operates the Blue Shield Plan. and Arthur C. Roberts, of Elsmere was elected assistant-treasurer.

Carson Smith of Elsmere has long earned the title: Albany unofficial bird-care expert. This is rather a unique hobby. . . a doctor-at-large to all types of birds, since little interest is taken in them anymore. Mr. Smith's garage and filling station along the Normanskill has become a Albany's gayest party of the year. . THE TINSEL BALL ... tomorrow night, the 12th, is sponsored by the Albany Junior League. A pre-war tradition . . this is one of the top social events and quite the most fun. A dinner dance in the Empire room of the Sheraton-TenEyck Hotel with Catherine O'Connor, as Chairman and Carolyn Rowe, of The pro-Delmar, assisting. ceeds, of course, go to the League's Community Trust Fund, which does so much good. * * *

One of the first of the Christmas programs to take place in the Tri-Village area was the meeting of the Women's League of the Delmar Reformed Church, when Mrs. LeRoy Brandt and Mrs. Joseph Lamprecht presented "Christmas" in story and song. Those taking part in the program were Jeanne DuBois, Cynthia Lamprecht, Marie Van Allen and Ann Vedder - Special songs.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Alan Hogancamp, Mrs. Arnold Wood, Mrs. Donald Conway and Miss Jennie Quay. Mrs. Arthur McDowell was in charge of devotions which were led by Mrs. Allison Vedder, president.

The league will purchase and deliver a basket of food as their contribution for the White Christmas Festival in the Town of Bethlehem.

The engagement of Beverly J. Suedmeyer, daughter of Mrs. Armin A. Suedmeyer of Delmar, and the late Rev. A.A. Suedmeyer, to Donald T. Wescott, son of the Donald Wescott's of Meriden, Conn. has been announced by her mother.

Choral Concert December 12

The Capitol Hill Choral So- | ciety will present its first concert of the 1958-1959 season on Friday, December 12, 1958, at 8:30 p.m. when it gives a performance of Handel's "Messiah." at Chancellors Hall, Albany, New York. The Society, now in its sixth season, will be conducted by Judson Rand, its founder.

Joining the Society in this presentation will be four soloists from New York City: Sarah Fleming, soprano, Madelyn Voss, mezzo-soprano, Richard Krause, tenor, and Robert Kirkham, baritone.

Mr. Krause, of course, is well known in Delmar circles, and has recently performed with the Choral Society in its presentation of Bach's "St. Matthew Passion" in the spring of 1958, and with the Society and the Albany Symphony Orchestra in the Beethoven "Ninth Symphony, "

Miss Fleming has appeared with the New York City Opera Company, and as soloist with the Boston Symphony at Tanglewood.

Miss Voss is also an alumna of the Berkshire Music Festival at Tanglewood, and will make an important appearance in Carnegie Hall in January 1959 when she will sing in the premiere performance of Hugo Wolf's "Der Corregidor." Mr. Kirkham has also been soloist with the Society previously in last year's presentat on of the "Messiah." He is now a member of the newly formed "Bel Canto Trio" in New York, and has sung for three seasons with the Baltimore Civic Opera Company, and the Baltimore Symphony.

Accompanists for the performance will be Clarence Hollister of Albany Academy for Girls. and Hoosac School, and H. Wellington Stewart of Russell Sage College, playing the Baldwin Organ and Baldwin Concert Grand Piano.

Auxiliary Party Tonight

Tonight at 8 p. m., the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Delmar Fire Co. will have a party in the Fire Hall. Entertainment for the party will be provided by Mrs. Dave Scoons, Mrs. Bernard Wyncoop, Mrs. George Wilber, and Mrs. John Hotaling. In charge of refreshments and table decorations are: Mrs. Roy Cooke, Mrs. Joseph Thomas, Mrs. William Contento, Mrs. Charles Sutter, and Mrs. Warren Humphrey.

A short meeting will be held with the president, Mrs. Leland Wright, presiding.

She did it and managed straight A's except in mathematics. Imagine . . . Her husband is now working towards degree, merely for more education and Mrs. Van Schaick would like to continue studying for a master sdegree in three to five years. Surely proves, a women's work is never done!

Tri-Village retreatfor all area Catholic High School students was conducted Sunday, December 7 from 1:45 to 6 p.m. at St. Thomas School auditorium in Delmar.

Two Albany area Catholic educators conducted the conferences which were sponsored by the CYO of St. Thomas Church. They were the Rev. James A. Mc-Manus, vice principal of St. John's Academy in Rensselaer and the Rev. Lawrence G. McTavey, vice principal of Cardinal Mc-Closkey High School.

Fifth Annual Association of Student Councils of the Capital District. Some 15 area schools represented at Voorheesville Workshop. Featured speaker was Jacob Herzog, state adjutant general, who outlined his impressions of the job being done in the nation's schools. Kenneth George, faculty advisor to the Voorheesville Student Council, acted as general chairman.

Lester Sharp, host council president, welcomed the visiting groups.

The all-day session was in the interest of better inter-school cooperation and improved student-faculty relationships, Mr. George said.

Among the council groups invited were those from Milne School, Rensselaer, Berne-Knox, Bethlehem, Guilderland, Colonie, Columbia and Skaker High School.

Bethlehem Central School District will actively participate in the forthcoming Hudson-Champlain celebration.

The school art students will make a float for local parades and the Albany County parade, September 19.

Otto de Heus, vice chairman said, additional plans include town sponsorship of an essay contest; exhibits and possible reconstruction of the 1853 County Fair.

A committee will meet January 5th at the Town Hall. * * *

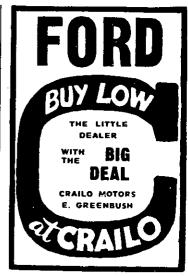

Eight pupils at Berne-Knox Central High School were "tapped" for the National Honor Society at a recent ceremony.

Featured speaker was the Rev. Robert Fitzgerald, pastor of the Westerlo Baptist Church, who outlined the qualities exemplified by membership in the society's Helderberg Chapter.

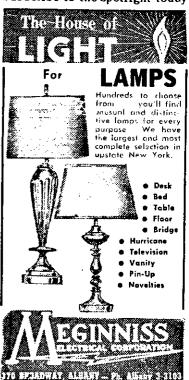

Tapped were seniors Audrey Burnett, Ingeborg Geetze, Roger Tannay and Emily Morlock, juniors Audrey Orlup and Judith Schoenborn and sophomores Linda Masholds and Susan Smith.

We understand that the wild turkeys were viewed at close range by first-graders of Fort Hunter School on a recent trip to the Delmar Game Farm. The two first grade teachers, Mrs. Theclar Bradt and Mrs. Martha Gorden, and nine mothers accompanied the youngsters on their tour.

state for January and June 1958. It was noted that a higher percentage of papers was accepted this year than last.

In comparing the results achieved by Bethlehem Central students with those published by the State Education Department, it was found that in all but two subjects, Bethlehem Central had a considerably higher average than was indicated for the schools of the state in general. In fourteen of the subject areas all students taking the exams passed them. In some instances the number of students involved was rather small while in others it was relatively high. This pattern was consistent with that of the state. In business arithmetic and business law where Bethlehem Central rated low, it was pointed out by Dr. Virgil E. Tompkins, the majority of the students taking the Regents Examinations in these areas are not on a Regents basis in other subjects and, in addition, are not screened or prevented from taking the examination if their yearly averages are low. He went on to point out that the results of the school in general take on added significance when it is considered that a relatively high percentage of the students take Regents. In many schools, he said, only those students who have demonstrated a reasonably high degree of aptitude in a subject are permitted to take the examinations. This is not the case in Bethlehem Central.

The tabulated results of BCHS as compared with those of the state are indicated on Page 24.

French students at Bethlehem Central Senior High School have formed a French Conversation Club this year with a student leader from Algeria. She is Jacqueline Berge, a French student from Trezel, Algeria, who is studying at the school under an American Field Service International Scholarship.

Miss Berge has explained the history, geography, and present day customs of Algeria to the 14 club members. In future meetings, the members will take their turn by telling Jackie about the customs which accompany Thanksgiving and Christmas in the United States.

"The experience is a good one for the club members because it gives them a chance to hear and imitate a native French accent," said Miss Anita Palumbo, language teacher and club adviser.

The club, which has already attended a French movie with Jackie is also planning a trip to Williamstown, Massachuesetts, to view the French art collection at Williams College.

Jacqueline's parents are presently living in Trezel where her father is a "governing official" of the French government. Jackie has lived in many parts of Algeria because her father's duties have taken him and his family to various parts of the country. Her 15 year old brother is attending school in France.

The precarious political situation in Algeria has caused her mother to give up a teaching position this year because of a 20 mile trip to and from the been the scene of many bloody rebel attacks. Aside from this fact, Jackie claims that she and her parents are not frightened anymore by the situation in Algeria because they have become so accustomed and inured to it.

Jackie, who is living with the McConnell family at 23 Hawthorne Street, Delmar, is very impressed with the very friendly people she has met since she arrived on August 9.

Jackie began studying English six years ago and vacationed in England four years ago but she claims her English has been helped greatly by speaking it in the United States.

Education in this country gives the students "more independence, self-confidence, and responsibility." She feels there are more social activities in schools in the United States than in European schools. But, as the role of the two educational systems is different, she feels it is impossible to compare them more.

Jackie is surprised by the scarcity of theatres for dramas and concerts here and by the number of people who do not listen to classical music. Before she came to the United States, she thought she would meet a great many people who would be interested in jazz, as this is its birthplace. But now she feels that the interest is higher in France where jazz is a vital subject.

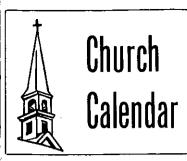

At Bethlehem, Jackie is a homeroom representative to the Student Council; secretary of the Charlatans, the dramatics club; and a member of the Aquatics Club. She played the role of Therese, a French maid, in the recent production of the senior play "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay."

When classes end in June, Jackie will take a three week tour of the United States with other American Field Service International Scholars. The tour will be climaxed by three days in New York City before Jackie returns to Algeria.

On December 16th at 7:30, the annual Christmas program in the Delmar Elementary School will be presented by the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades. The program, "Christmas Is a Time For Singing" will include carols about some of the symbols of Christmas; several instrumental selections, and a variety of songs by the Elementary Choir which is under the direction of Miss Sandra Wermick. She will be assisted by Paul Van Dermark, physical education instructor. and Stanley Reich, art teacher. It is hoped that all parents and P.T.A. members will be able to attend this program since it is one of the highlights of the school year.

Tip from a former teacher of mine: 'Know Thyself' to quote Socrates, but one of the noblest aims of education. Too many of our adolescents are escapists who "finds his strength in others rather than in himself." The problem is to get him to "accept and understand himself instead of running away."
