

DELMAR MEN'S ORCHESTRA OPENS 19th SEASON NEXT MONDAY

Virtually unique in its field as a non-professional community instrumental group, the Delmar Men's Orchestra opens its 19th season in the Friendship Hall of the Delmar Methodist Church at 8 P.M. on Monday, August 31.

Over the past 18 years, the orchestra has grown from a handful of Delmar area men who met in each other's homes to a well-balanced instrumental group of some 40 members. In addition to its annual appearance in the community White Christmas Festival, the orchestra has enjoyed a growing popularity with various church and social groups throughout the Capital District in recent years.

Its membership represents a cross-section of business and professional men of the community. Roland Truitt, music supervisor for the Bethlehem Central Schools, will conduct again, this year. Officers include: Burdette Parker, secretary; Frederick Eckel, treasurer, and Louis Irvin, librarian. Proud of what has come to be a community musical tradition, and anxious to broaden and sustain it, they extend a cordial welcome to any men of the area who play an instrument. Those interested may contact Walter Drautz, the group's manager, at 9-3986. They can be assured of a pleasing and rewarding experience both musically and socially.

MEMORIES OF PROMINENT AREA FAMILY

Mrs. Marklay — see her letter, below — has kindly allowed us to reproduce these pictures from her family collection. Reading counterclockwise, they are: the Winne homestead, 150 years old, as it appeared many years ago and as it looked last winter. The late Harry H. Winne with his grandnieces, Judith and Jean Marklay. (This picture was taken 6 years ago.) Mr. Winne was 5th District Republican Committeeman, Truant Officer and Dog Warden of the Town of Bethlehem. Finally, at upper right, is a "tintype" of David I. Winne, first Poormaster of the Town of Bethlehem, as he faced a cameraman at the St. Louis World's Fair of 1893.

To The Spotlight:

I would like to pay respect to my mother's family and to the late Harry Winne by sharing these pictures and a few brief reminiscences with your readers.

My grandmother came to this house as a bride. Her father (Hoyt) gave her the house and land as a wedding gift; also a pair of Negro slaves, man and wife. The slaves were freed before the Civil War. They took the name of Winne and moved to a town about half way to New York, along the river. My grandmother also brought up two orphans, a boy and girl, who later married each other.

Margaret and David Winne had 9 children of their own. They raised 6: Mildred, Anne, Margaret, Edward, Harry, and my mother, Florence. All were born and brought up in this

To The Spotlight:

In a letter published in the August 6th issue, someone spoke of the many pet dogs running wild. The writer asked how many readers wish something could be done. I believe there are many of us.

I just returned from a visit in a residential area similar to this where it is required by law that all dog owners keep their pets confined to their own property, and when taking them for walks, keep them on leashes.

It was a pleasure to walk in a clean yard and not see shrubs and flowers destroyed. Of course, this ruling means a pet makes more work for the owner, but I feel if a person has a pet he should assume full responsibility.

Some people may comment that they wouldn't want to fence in a dog. A dog could be trained to live that way. I'm sure most of these people wouldn't allow their children to wander through neighbors' gardens, and yet they have no qualms about letting their dogs roam.

If there were just a few dogs and wide-open spaces in which they could run, the situation would be different, but with a canine population as large as it is in these communities, I feel it would be proper to curtail their freedom.

ABC ENROLLMENT UP

Early enrollment at Albany Business College has been unusually heavy this year, it was announced recently by Prentiss Carnell Jr., president. Space is still available in the regular November 16, 1959 and February 8, 1960 classes. There is room also in the evening program and in certain IBM sections. September 14 day classes are filled and there is a substantial waiting list.

Certain changes have been put into effect. A new machine has been added to the IBM Department. The course has been slightly lengthened without a tuition increase. Because of anticipated demand, Speedwriting shorthand sections will start monthly in the evening program. The new day school curriculum based on a standard school year instead of the longer business college schedule has proved popular with both faculty and student body.

Fall starting dates in day classes are September 14, evening classes, October 5; IBM day classes, September 21; IBM evening classes, November 9; Speedwriting shorthand, October 12.

AT NEW SITE

The Albany Academy for Girls will open on Tuesday, September 15th, for a full day of school. This will begin the first year of this college preparatory day school for girls at the new Academy Road site. The modern brick building was completed in March and the move to the new school was effected during the spring vacation.

Miss Rhoda E. Harris, Headmistress, has announced additions to the faculty this fall which include three former teachers. Mrs. Elizabeth Colyer, who formerly taught and also served as admissions director, will return to teach in the Middle School. Mrs. Marian D. Terry will return after a year's absence to teach the Nursery School. Mrs. Marion P. Sharpe, well known artist and portrait painter will head the Art Department. [See The Spotlight, Aug. 6, 1959.]

Mlle. Anne Tribot Laspierre, who sailed this month from her home in Angouleme, Charente, France, will teach French in the school. Other new members of the faculty at the Albany Academy for Girls this year will include Mrs. Robert Hughes who will teach Latin, and Jean Weber Loofbourrow, who will teach the Kindergarten, replacing Miss Julia Damkoehler who will

DISTRICT SHARES
NEW STAMP HONORS

The Albany County Soil Conservation District is among 2800 such districts throughout the country being honored by issuance of a new 4-cent U.S. postage stamp.

The stamp, which went on sale today, is printed in three colors and depicts a modern conservation farm, symbol of care and wise use of land as a principal source of food, water, shelter and clothing for urban and rural people.

Organized in 1945 by local farmers, the Albany County District now has about 600 cooperators, 260 of whom have basic conservation farm plans. It is governed by a board consisting of Henry Latham, Westerlo, chairman; Lloyd Hill, Knox, vice-chairman; Fred Halsted and Donald Vanderzee, Ravena; Jacob Creshan, Cohoes; and Eugene Kellam, Medusa, secretary. Technical assistance is provided by the U.S. Soil Conservation Service, with Frank Leavitt, Delmar, in charge, assisted by Carl Heidt, Delmar, and Milton Turner, South Bethlehem.

SOIL CONSERVATION

During the past 14 years, here is what has been accomplished by our district: 450 acres of strip-cropping to stop erosion; improvement of 1600 acres of pasture and 3300 acres of hayland for better cover; 1600 acres of trees planted; 5000 acres of woodland protected from grazing; 62 ponds built for livestock water, fishing and fire protection; 30 miles of ditching to drain wet fields; 11 miles of diversion ditches to stop erosion and to drain fields . . . and many other extremely valuable and commendable conservation activities.

Bridal Notes: Beverly Suedmeyer of Fernbank Ave., daughter of Mrs. Armin A. Suedmeyer now of Spring Valley, Illinois, was recently married to Donald T. Wescott, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Wescott of Meriden, Connecticut at the Evangelical Protestant Church, Albany. The couple left for a wedding trip to Canada and they will live in Newburyport, Mass. The bride is a graduate of Bethlehem Central High School and Vermont College and was employed by the Sterling-Winthrop Research Institute. Her husband was graduated from Meriden High School and Norwich University. He has just completed a tour of duty with the Army as a second lieutenant stationed at Fort Benning, Georgia.

Another summer bride was Janet Marie Conahan, daughter of Mrs. Robert C. Conahan of New Scotland Rd., Slingerlands, and the late Mr. Conahan, to Gary Fleming, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gage B. Fleming of Holmsdale Ave., Albany, former resident of Elsmere. The wedding took place at two o'clock Saturday, August 15, at St. Thomas Church in Delmar. After a reception at the Helderberg Lodge, the couple left for a northern motor trip. They will live in Slingerlands after the end of August. Both are graduates of Bethlehem Central High School. Mrs. Fleming also attended Mildred Elley Secretarial School and is employed by Bruno and Sommers, attorneys. Mr. Fleming is employed by the Lowe Brothers Paint Company.

Our third bride is Nancy Jane Tjeerdsma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Tjeerdsma of Iilon, who was married to Harold Roche Moore Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Moore of Fernbank Ave., Delmar, Saturday, August 15th in the Grotto of Our Lady of Lourdes. After a wedding reception at the University Club, the couple left for Lake George. The bride is a June graduate of Albany Medical Center School of Nursing. The bridegroom attended Notre Dame University and was graduated from the University of Vermont and also was a June graduate of Albany Law School. He is associated with Travelers Insurance Company.

The fourth wedding of August 15th took place in the First Methodist Church of Delmar. This was the marriage of Jean Anne Wiley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon E. Wiley of Fernbank Avenue, Delmar, to Thomas DeWitt Shazer, son of the Shazers of Greensburg, Ind. The reception took place in the church parlors. The couple then went on a motor trip through northern Michigan. They will live in East Lansing, Mich., where the bride plans to teach homemaking and the bridegroom is a hotel management student at Michigan State University. Jean is a graduate of Bethlehem Central High School and Oneonta State Teachers College.

HOW DID YOUR SUPERSTITION START?

Do you avoid making decisions on Friday the 13th, or knock on wood to ward off bad luck, or change course when a black cat crosses your path?

If you do, you have lots of company. Practically everyone has a pet superstition—and most of them are centuries-old.

Both the day, Friday, and the number, 13, for example, have been associated with bad luck throughout recorded history. Legend has it that Eve tempted Adam on Friday, and from the Middle Ages have come numerous tales of misfortune visited on those who sat 13 at a table.

Carrying a rabbit's foot for good luck—because the rabbit is so prolific—is another old superstition. It originated in the days when families were largely self-sufficient, and the more children, the better the living a family could wrest from the soil.

People have steered clear of black cats ever since mediæval times when Satan was said to prowl the earth in the guise of a slinking black feline.

by the way

by Abbie Utz

Seems downright impossible that this is nearly the end of August! First, may we recapture the delightful rhythm and mood of the Village Fire Fifers as they marched across the green and on to stage-area designed by the Slingerlands Community Players. This recent presentation was really one of the most original, and truly unique shows done by our local group. Orchids are still in order for the director-writer, Katherine DePorte, and for the clever lyrics by David DePorte. If it is possible we would wish "Amid the Alien Corn" back for a return performance. We loved the lampooning of some of old New York State and past history of our country.

"Her voice was the sweetest sound I've ever heard"

"As I was dressing one morning, I suddenly felt terribly ill. Somehow I got back to bed. But, even though the telephone is right beside it, I was too weak to call my doctor. I did manage to dial 'O' and give the operator his name. Then I heard the sweetest voice in the world say, 'Don't be frightened, Mrs. Blatt, we'll get help to you very soon.' It was the supervisor. She stayed on the line, comforting me, while the operator got help. And, thanks to the telephone—and those wonderful people — it arrived in time."

Many join us in our hopes too . . . How about it, Players? Along with the Champlain Anniversary Celebration we note that this past week Dudley is having their Seventy-fifth Anniversary Celebration too, at Westport, August 21-23 were the exact dates. Many local boys have been campers at Dudley and remember the wonderful summers on Lake Champlain. Let's plan ahead for the next 25 years and try for the Centennial year.

Congratulations are in order for Jim Cockroft whose mother lives on Marlboro Road, Delmar. He has recently been appointed to teach English and Philosophy at an English-language school in Bogota, Colombia. Jim is a graduate of Albany Academy and Cornell University and he completed work for his master's degree at Stanford University. He left for South America over the past weekend and is traveling with his wife and ten month-old son. We certainly wish them well in their

Just learned that Irving (Butch) Klink of Elsmere Avenue will be leaving September 21 for Fort Dix. He has enlisted in the U.S. Army and will spend the first 8 weeks in Automotive Mechanics School. Also hope all went well for the family send-off on Sunday as Ginny and Stewart were holding open house for about sixty members of the family and close friends. See you when you are home on that first furlough, Butch . . . Happy landings!

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Reynold of Elm Avenue, Delmar recently had a welcoming picnic for the Harold Lees. Those attending from the immediate neighborhood were the Charles Lee family, the William and Nicholas Goes, the Alfred Lamourees and Flo and Albert Shaw of Murray Avenue.

Glad to have Margaret Varney home from her long tour of duty at Albany Hospital. Winne Road and Delmar probably never looked so good. Know everything will come along nicely there too as it should with Dot Strandberg taking over. Dot and Herb are now living in Stamford, Conn. and we still miss them, so it's good to see them too.

Westchester Drive, Delmar is picking up new neighbors. Dorothy and Marion L. Henry, area people from McKownville with their three children, Bob, Linda and Carol are one of the families. Marion is the Assistant Commissioner for Management, State Health Department. Already they have had a busy time, as if moving isn't enough . . . Show Biz

By Jonny Borne

This week's SPOTLIGHT ORCHID goes to Mrs. Paul Dickinson, the Town Historian, of 27 Partridge Road, Delmar, for the wonderful work she has done on behalf of the town of Bethlehem — Hudson-Champlain Celebration . . . And now to Show Biz . . . Charming Spring Byington. (of television's December Bride) returns to the screen for a part in Metro's "Please Don't Eat the Daisies" . . . Teen-Age-Scoop — Frankie Avalon, the rock'n'roll singer, goes into his second starring picture "The Alamo" with John Wayne and Richard Widmark.

Frankie has cancelled two months of personal appearances for this role . . . "Anniversary Waltz," a comedy which has played on the Broadway stage for years, has been made into a motion picture. Its new title is "Happy Anniversary"; the stars are David Niven and Mitzi Gaynor . . . The new Metro musical "For The First Time," with golden-voiced Mario Lanza and an attractive newcomer named Johanna von Koczan, takes you on a European tour in glorious Technicolor filmed in Capri, Rome, Naples, Vienna and other famed pleasure spots . . . In "The Big Operator," Mickey Rooney's a meany again. This time he plays a brutal, crooked labor boss, with Steve Cochran playing a hero for a change. Steve has been a villain in nearly every movie he has ever made . . . Best L.P. Album of the week is on the Capitol label. It's "No One Cares" with Frank Sinatra back again in a soft ballad mood with such songs as "A Cottage For Sale," "I Can't Get Started," "I'll Never Smile Again" and "None But The Lonely Heart" and eight others. This album can't miss the top ten within a month . . . Dear Mrs. C.H.: Clark Gable has won only one Oscar. It was in 1934, in the movie "It Happened One Night," with Claudette Colbert. Thank you for your card . . . Write any questions you want answered to Jonny Borne, in care of The Spotlight, Delmar, N. Y. . . . Until next week, that's SHOW BIZ . . .
