DELMAR PROGRESS CLUB TO OPEN BUSY INTERESTING NEW SEASON

To The Spotlight:

The Kiwanis Club has read with much interest, two letters recently published in The Spotlight with reference to the riding of bicycles by youngsters in the Town. Both letters refer to the fact that the writers, who were mothers of youngsters, had advised their children either to ride upon the sidewalks or to ride on the left side of the highway. We are particularly disturbed at the suggestion that youngsters ride on the left side of the highway, although riding bicycles on the sidewalk is also prohibited both by the New York State Vehicle and Traffic Law and the Bicycle Ordinance of the Town of Bethlehem.

We quote below excerpts from the Vehicle and Traffic Law and the Bicycle Ordinance in the hope that these excerpts will be of some assistance to parents who are concerned about the safety of their youngsters and will point out to them the actual provisions of the law applicable to the riding of bicycles.

EXCERPT FROM THE VEHICLE AND TRAFFIC LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

Sec. 1234. Vehicle and traffic law.

Riding on roadways and bicycle paths

(a) Every person operating a bicycle upon a roadway shall ride as near to the right side of the roadway as practicable, exercising due care when passing a vehicle or bicycle standing or proceeding in the same direction.

(b) Persons riding bicycles upon a roadway shall not ride

A fall and winter parade of pleasant and instructive events in the Delmar Progress Club is heralded by activities beginning next Monday. "Gay Nineties Night" sounds the theme for the Club's first general meeting on Monday evening, October 5, 1959; featuring dinner at 6 p.m. at the First Methodist Church in Delmar.

After a short business meeting with new president Mrs. Addison J. Clark, presiding, a program will be presented by members of the Albany Chapter, Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, Inc., Mr. Geoffrey E. Maclay, president.

The program is being arranged by Mrs. Anselmo F. Dappert, chairman of program, and her committee: Mrs. Arthur C. McDowell and Mrs. William Patchen.

Assisting with arrangements for the dinner are Mrs. Warren A. Wilson, social chairman, and her committee: Mesdames John R. Pike, George I. Davis, Robert D. Hartley, Jerry Ruddle, James T. Purves, Arthur C. Reimer, Samuel N. Bacon, Hugo C. Gutche and J. Wallace Campbell.

At 10 a.m. on the same day the opening meeting of the Garden Group of the Delmar Progress Club will be held in the Delmar Public Library, with Mrs. Albert Ehrenfreund as chairman. There will be a Flower Arrangement Workshop, conducted by Mrs. Theodore Czaban, well-known specialist and teacher of Schenectady, who will demonstrate flower arrangements that bring out the full beauty of the early autumn blooms.

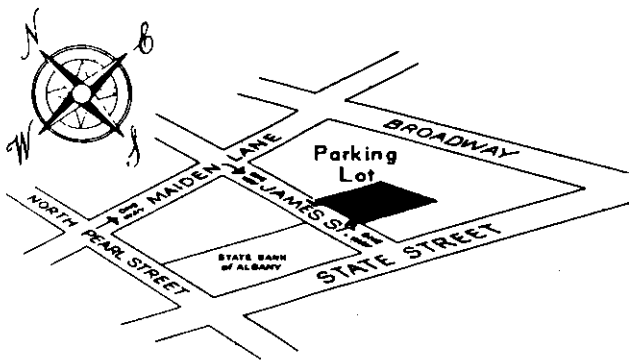

It is urged that all members

THEY'LL TRY AGAIN

A new club has been formed in the Tri-Village. It is called "The Modern Order of Second Timers," a rueful allusion to the fact that members are drawn from the ranks of the widowed, separated or divorced; all determined to re-dedicate themselves to a more cheerful new life.

An organization meeting was held on Sunday, September 20,

HAROLD AND FORD DODGE HEAD INSURANCE-REAL ESTATE SERVICE

The Dodge brothers first came to Slingerlands from the Lake Placid area when they were young boys, in 1921. Their roots are now pretty deep in our Tri-Village ground.

Harold A. Dodge attended Albany High School and Albany Business College and 6 years later, F. Ford Dodge attended Bethlehem High School.

Starting work with the New York Telephone Company, Harold then went to Ready Mix & Supply Corp. After 16 years there, he joined Nationwide Insurance Companies as agent, rose into management, and 7 years later, became superintendent of agents for the Eastern Division and Regional Manager for New Jersey. When ill health forced him to resign, he returned to Delmar in November, 1958.

Ford worked for the Hudson Valley Paper Corp., leaving to serve for 5 years with the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers. When he returned to civilian life, he went into business for himself, as a carpenter and cabinet maker and later, became an agent for Nationwide Insurance Companies.

START FIRM IN JUNE

On June 1, 1959, the brothers established Dodge Insurance Services, and on September 15, became sales representatives for J. Fred Haupt, realtor, in the Tri-Village area.

With a combined experience of 25 years in insurance, they feel qualified to serve the needs of family security. Service, being the only tangible product they have to offer, according to Harold, is foremost on their list. "The policyholder has a right to demand fast, accurate service," he continued, "and we are prepared to give it, both in underwriting and claims, twenty-four hours a day."

"You might add," Ford told the reporter, "that we have adopted Nationwide's slogan, 'New Ideas for a New Era' as symbolizing our belief that security for Americans is best achieved by people working together with imagination for the common good."

Harold is married to the former Idah Burnham who taught in the Slingerlands Grade School for 12 years. They have one daughter, Nancy, who is a sophomore at Jackson College, and reside at 21 Elm Avenue in Delmar.

Ford is married to the former Irva Metcalf who teaches physical education in Colonie. They have two daughters, Ellen and Kathy, and live at 1 Greenwood Lane, Slingerlands.

Harold is a Mason, in Delmar. He and Ford are members of Kiwanis and the Chamber of Commerce.

DELMAR EVENING UNIT TO MEET TUESDAY

The Delmar Evening Unit of the Albany County Extension Service will meet Tuesday, October 6th at 8 p.m. in the Delmar Grade School.

After a business meeting, Mrs. John Delaney of Slingerlands will speak on "History of the Town of Bethlehem."

The project for this month is "All-Occasion Aprons," with Mrs. Joseph Leese as leader. Hostesses for the social hour are: Mrs. Darwin Benedict, Mrs. Joseph Leese, Mrs. Darwin Hinsdale and Mrs. Robert Mulligan.

Service of the Albany County Chapter of the American Red Cross, reports that a new fall training course will begin October 6 to fill the need for more volunteers.

While the Gray Man is not as well known as his female counterpart, he is becoming an increasingly important part of the hospital staff. Perhaps retired, perhaps working in his spare time, he relieves the regular hospital staff for important professional duties by giving personal service to patients, assisting in emergency wards, occupational and physio-therapy programs, and in escort service.

At present, Gray Men are helping at Albany Hospital, Veterans Administration Hospital, St. Peter's, Memorial Hospital, Brady Maternity Hospital and the Cerebral Palsy Center. Mrs.

Birchenough tells us that volunteers are also needed for the recently expanded service to the Men's Hospital Department at the Ann Lee Home.

ELSMERE PTA OPEN HOUSE SCHEDULE

Mr. Harold Smith, President of the Elsmere Grade School PTA Board and Mr. Richard Herrmann, principal of the school, have announced the hours for "Open House" for the parents.

Each grade will meet separately on consecutive evenings at 8 P.M., enabling the parents to become acquainted with one another and to meet their child's teacher. The parents will be told of the over-all program the children will experience during the coming school year, and will be invited to ask questions.

The following schedule has been arranged for grade meetings with grade mothers as hostesses:

Oct. 1 — Grade 3: Mrs. John Ganey and Mrs. Levon Bedrosian

Oct. 6 — Grade 4: Mrs. John Chetney and Mrs. Arthur Roberts

Oct. 7—Grade 5: Mrs. Edmund Rukwid and Mrs. Carlton Englehardt

Oct. 8 — Grade 6: Mrs. Fred Lynk and Mrs. Frank Odell

Oct. 13 — A.M. — Kindergarten: Mrs. George Vernooy

Oct. 14 — P.M. — Kindergarten: Mrs. James Hoppe

With this return of warm weather comes a golfing note, via the grapevine . . . The rather-newcomers, the Mikkelsens of Westchester Dr., Delmar, are real enthusiasts. So it seems Scott was playing in a Texas Oil Company tournament in the New York area recently and had a hole-in-one! The Mikkelsens play at Normanside now, having recently moved here from the Buffalo area.

Speaking of Buffalo, we hope the Robert Mortons like their new home in Orchard Park, N. Y. They left Delmar just before school opened and have a house on Fernbank Avenue.

Congratulations to Dr. Selig Katz on his recent appointment as assistant director of the State Health Dept. Bureau of Maternal and Child Health. He was formerly a practicing pediatrician and more recently, a health officer in Maryland. Dr. Katz is a resident of Elsmere and lives on Salisbury Road.

HOW DID YOU GET YOUR NAME?

UP into mediæval times, most people were known by their Christian names alone. Surnames did not exist.

There came a time, however, when there were too many plain Johns, Alfreds, Rowlands and Roberts running around. Something had to be done to distinguish one from another in village records.

And so one John became known as John of the Hall, and finally John Hall, because he lived near the lord of the manor's hall or great house. Another became John of the Mead, and finally John Mead, because he lived at the mead or meadows; another John the Smith, and then John Smith because he was a smith by trade; another John Reed or Reid because he had red hair. Usually surnames became attached to a family gradually, over several generations.

Because William was a favorite name in mediæval times, as it is today, Williamson and Wilson are now common. Originally they meant the son of William and the son of Will.

John was another popular name in old England. This explains why there are so many Joneses today. Jones is simply a shortening of John's son . . . Originally Hudson meant the son of Hud; Watson, the son of Wat . . . MacIntosh means son of the chief; MacIntyre, son of the carpenter; MacNair, son of the heir.

If your name is Wood, your ancestors once lived near, at or in the wood; if it's Green, they lived at the village green; if Lee or Leigh, they lived at the lea or meadow.

Clifton, Manchester, Sutton, Bradford, Kirby, Middleton and many others were taken from names of towns or villages in old England. A man acquired one of these names only after he had moved away from the town. It was natural for people in Kirby, for example, to refer to the strange John who had just moved among them as John of Middleton, if he had previously lived there.

If your last name is Swan, Lion, Hart or Cross, it may mean that your ancestors owned, worked in or lived near an inn called The Swan, The Blue Lion, The White Hart or The Golden Cross.

Ball might also come from an old inn sign . . . or from the name Baldwin, long prominent among English nobility . . . or it may mean that one of your ancestors was quite bald.

Old Testament names were popular in the Middle Ages. Adams, Addamson, Addison and many others are derived from Adam . . . Davies, Davis, Davidson, and Dawson from David.

Is your name Coward? This often derived from cow-herd. Armour? One of your ancestors probably made armor for mediæval knights. Stringer? The first in your family to hold that name probably strung bows and arrows . . . Shepherd, Baker, Wright (the old name for carpenter), Cook and Miller are other common occupational names.

The names Brown and White come from ancestors who were dark or light-skinned respectively . . . Knight may mean you are descended from the likes of Lancelot or Galahad . . . of your name may have come down from the Old English word, cniht, meaning servant.

Is your name Short or Long? These names originally described physical characteristics of your ancestors . . . Poker? It probably means your ancestors made bags. Poke meant bag in old England . . . Stewart, Steward or Stuart? These may signify that your ancestors occupied the powerful post of lord's steward back when knights were bold.

Bell may mean that one of your ancestors was a bell-ringer; or, like Ball, the name may have come from an old inn sign; or from "le bel," meaning the good-looking one . . . Cruikshank means crooked leg; Armstrong means just what it says.
