"WHITE CHRISTMAS" PREPARATIONS OPEN WITH CALL FOR DOLL-CLOTHING MATERIAL

"How well had your BCHS background prepared you for understanding the world outside the U.S.A.?"

That was one of the questions fired at five young globe-trotters (see picture above) following their panel discussion of "Summer Travel Experiences" at the joint Junior-Senior High School faculty meeting held last Tuesday at Bethlehem Central Senior High School.

The theme of personal impressions of Europe was selected by the faculty steering committee in order to bring Bethlehem Central's more than 100 secondary school teachers (joined for the occasion by 6th grade teachers and a number of parents) a glimpse of European modern life, cultures and traditions as seen through the eyes of their own students. Moderators were Mrs. Elfrieda Textores and Mrs. Doris North.

Listening to the sharp comments of the young observers, most teachers felt a glow of pride in their school system and its product. "These kids are much more grown-up and better equipped to encourage international harmony than I was at their age," said one highly-regarded teacher.

Polly Hale, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Hale, Jr., Delmar, told of her tour of Scot-

Plans for the 18th annual Bethlehem Community Christmas Festival are already shaping up. With Mrs. Sydney L. ("Danny") Smith again its general chairman, the festival will be given this year on December 13, 17 and 18. Details of the organization and program will unfold during coming weeks.

Certain phases of the "White Christmas," as the festival is known by many, have to start long before the Yule season arrives. One of these is the dressing of dolls by the Senior Citizens. It seems that dolls' dresses require material and supplying this is something everyone can do. Needed are small pieces of pretty fabric (wool, cotton or silk), silk ribbon, yarn, bits of fur, lace, velvet, etc. Persons having such unused materials may help this project by taking their contributions to Mrs. James Flavin, 48 Jordan Blvd., Delmar, co-chairman of the White Christmas Committee. The material is needed now, while the dolls are being dressed.

Another activity of the White Christmas is the Bethlehem Clothes Closet, maintained in the basement of the Delmar Public Library. Under the direction of a committee headed by Mrs. James Sullivan, the Clothes Closet provides a medium through which surplus clothing may be made available when and where needed. With cold weather coming on, there is an immediate need for children's warm clothing (in condition you'd be proud to give). This includes outer clothing, snow suits, mittens, underwear, rubbers, overshoes, etc. This material may be taken to the library basement or any member

BELATED NEWS

In the excitement of being printed on a new press, on a nice new kind of paper (isn't it fresh and white!) The Spotlight became so happily involved in its own affairs that it — most regrettably — failed to print three news stories scheduled for the Oct. 14 issue. Apologies are in order to three hard-working publicity chairmen.

We hope that the old fashioned turkey dinner at the New Scotland Presbyterian Church last Saturday was a grand success. With Mrs. Frederick Widmann serving as supper chairman, we're sure it must have been.

And we do know for a fact that the first meeting of the

(BELATED NEWS)

Glenmont PTA on Oct. 14 provided a wonderful opportunity for all parents to become better acquainted with their children's teachers, the curriculum and the classroom facilities.

Our best wishes to this year's Glenmont PTA officers: J. Robert Van Allen, president; Mrs. Martin Heilmann, vice president; Mrs. Richard Hussey, secretary and William A. Greeley, treasurer.

There's one more item. Maybe it's not too late to print it in its entirety. ("It's never too late for square dancing!" comes the enthusiastic rejoinder from Mrs. Hussey.) Here it is:

WESTERN-STYLE SQUARE DANCING

What is it? First and foremost, it's fun. In this day of busy, community-minded people, husbands often go to meeting in one direction and wives in another. Western Style Club Square Dancing is a skill that husband and wife learn together, "from the ground floor up."

Everyone begins at the same starting point and all progress through a series of 14 lessons which culminate in a graduation with diplomas and club badges.

Couples of all ages can enjoy this type of square dancing. It is not rough. There is a minimum of swinging and whirling and the ladies are not "bounced around." People from all walks of life forget the pressures and tensions of modern life and lose themselves in the pleasure of becoming good — and proud! — square dancers.

The Glenmont PTA is sponsoring a class in this delightful pastime. No matter where you live, if you are interested in seeing what a lot of fun it is, please

SLINGERLANDS FIRELADIES RE VIEW YEAR'S GAIN

The Slingerlands Fire Auxiliary will meet on Oct. 28 at the Fire Hall. Refreshment committee includes Mesdames R. Bradford Arthur, Albert Shutter, Walter Britten, Anthony Burton and William Moak.

At the September meeting, President Helen Arthur reviewed the past year's achievements under the leadership of Mrs. Arthur Zautner. The program of refurbishing the kitchen was completed with the installation of a new refrigerator, new 2-oven electric stove, electric grill and two new thermos jugs for use by the firemen when called to fires, especially on cold winter evenings.

According to one of its members, the Delmar Camera Club is considered "the hottest camera club in the area." It is comparatively new and everyone is an enthusiastic, working member. For this reason, a number of members travel from Albany for each meeting. They find it a spot where good photography is produced, discussed and shown.

MASONIC NEWS

Samuel B. Viner, District Deputy Grand Master of the Albany Masonic District made his official visit to Bethlehem Lodge, No. 1096, F. & A. M. on Oct. 20. The meeting started at 7:30 p.m. with Fred V. Knapp presiding.

H. Lloyd Jones, Grand Master of New York State Masons will visit the Albany area Tuesday, October 27. The meeting is to be held at Temple Israel, Albany. Buses will leave the Delmar Masonic Temple and make the return trip. Tickets may be obtained from any officer of Bethlehem Lodge.

LEGAL NOTICE

MADISON FRUIT GARDENS — Notice is hereby given that the persons herein named have formed a limited partnership for the transaction of business in the State of New York and elsewhere, and have filed a certificate in the Clerk's office of the County of Albany, of which the substance is as follows:
The name of the limited partnership is Madison Fruit Gardens.

The character of the business is a retail fruit, produce and specialty shop.
The location of the principal place of business is No. 18 South Pearl Street, Albany, New York.

The name and place of residence of the general partner is Anthony DiPiazza, 12 Lanci Lane, Albany 5, New York, and the name and place of residence of the limited partner is Norman Brickman, 48 Brookline Avenue, Albany, New York.

The term for which the partnership is to exist is from the 5th day of October, 1959, until either the death of either partner, protracted illness of the general partner, or mutual consent of both partners. The amount of cash contributed by the limited partner is $3,000.00. No other property is contributed and no additional contribution is to be made by the limited partner.

The time when the contribution of the limited partner is to be returned is upon dissolution of the partnership.

The compensation of the limited partner is 50% of the net profits of the partnership after deducting the sum of $5200.00, per annum, above and beyond the total costs and expenses of operating the said business.

No right is given a limited partner to substitute an assignee as contributor in his place, nor may the general partner admit additional limited partners. In case of the death of the general partner, the partnership shall terminate.

The certificate referred to above has been sworn to by the general and the limited partner.

Our Printer Has a Heart of Gold, But...

Sometimes we are asked why a notice of a Tri-Village event was not printed. The answer is this: it arrived in our office too late. In order to print your news — and needless to say, that's what our pages are for! — we must have it one week in advance of our publication day; Thursday. We hate to say "too late" because we know from personal experience that very often all the facts in a story aren't available until a little after the last minute . . . but honestly, our printing people have to start work on Friday morning or we can't get it addressed, sorted, and into the Post Office by Wednesday evening.

Keep those stories pouring in — but by Thursday's deadline, please.

Jane Wriston of Slingerlands, Korea, Guam, India, Burma, Japan and various Oriental way stations and whistle stops has left the Tri-City area for another exciting tour of duty in Korea.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Wriston of Slingerlands, and sister to George, Jr. of Elsmere, has been visiting her family before leaving for the latest assignment with the American National Red Cross.

In her new job, Jane will have the responsibility of guiding a staff in planning programs for about 340 separate military units, varying in size from 10 to 157 soldiers who are scattered throughout Korea. She expects to find it a bit more pleasant than it was during her war-time tour in 1951 when she was as-

We're sure that summer is ended . . . September and now October is slipping away fast — Indian Summer is ending. But where have they gone? The unmistakable signs of fall coloring beside the road, the leaves on the tall maples and oaks just waiting for the first good frost . . . 'Tis good to have routine to fall back on at this particular time of year, else we'd all designed to a hospital in Pusan. Her job will involve travel almost every day, by jeep, military truck, or helicopter.

At the beginning of World War II, when the United States came in, Jane had been secretary of the Fort Orange Council Boy Scouts of America. She then went with the Red Cross and was in the service during the Korean War when she was decorated by the King of Sweden for her work at the Swedish Hospital at Pusan, under the United Nations. For several years, during her State-side service, Jane has been a field representative in Ohio. So we salute Jane Wriston and wish her well in her latest assignment-adventure.

mere recently became the bride of Dr. William H. Conklin, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Conklin of Spring Valley, at the Delmar Reformed Church. Mrs. Conklin, a graduate of Albany College of Pharmacy, is a research assistant at Sterling Winthrop Research Institute. Dr. Conklin is an Alfred Stengel Research Fellow with a residency in internal medicine at Albany Hospital and is engaged in the practice of internal medicine in Albany. He is a graduate of Albany Medical College. Mrs. Dale E. Peterson of Winne Rd., Delmar was an honor attendant and Debbie and Gail Peterson were flower girls for their aunt. They will be at home at 7 Harrison Ave., Elsmere after a honeymoon trip to the Virgin Islands.

And good news from the south. The Rev. Harry G. Gill and Mrs. Gill of Chattanooga, Tenn. have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Patricia Ann Gill, to J. Bradford Gibbs, son of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Gibbs, of Marlboro Road, Delmar. A December wedding in Chattanooga is planned. Miss Gill attended the University of Chattanooga and received a bachelor of science degree in nursing from Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore. Mr. Gibbs, a graduate of BCSH has a bachelor of arts degree in English from Union College.

Miss Marsha-Lee Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Smith of Rye, was married to Ensign Michael Anthony Waldbillig, USNR. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Waldbillig of Slingerlands. Marsha-Lee graduated last year

Albany Panhellenic Association Luncheon . . . Mrs. Gerald Love, vice president of the group, is general chairman for the bridge luncheon to be held Oct. 24 at Albany Country Club.

Reservations chairman is Mrs. Raymond Brunner of Grosbeck Place, Elsmere. Hostesses for the occasion are Mrs. Horace Evans, Mrs. Ralph Reed, and Mrs. Melvin Baker. Others assisting are Mrs. R. C. Sutliff, tickets; Mrs. William Bolton and Mrs. John C. McClintock, flower arrangements; and Mrs. Philip Cowen, bridge.

As part of their philanthropic work members of Panhellenic have formed Easter Seal Workshops, addressing 50,000 of the 120,000 envelopes distributed in this area in the spring campaign. Benefiting from this activity is the Northeastern Speech Center on Washington Ave. Mrs. Donald Eisenhart is general chairman of the workshops with assistance from Mrs. John T. DeGraff, Albany area; Mrs. Ross Beyer, Delmar, Elsmere and Slingerlands; and Mrs. H. C. Fullerton, Loudonville.

Margaret Flierl, news reporter of the Nimble Thimble 4-H club reports of the recent election held Sept. 29 at their first fall meeting. President is Joan Wrzenski, Vice-president Judy Basch, Secretary Nancy Alford, Treasurer Patty Clark, Song-leader Nancy Casper, and Margaret Flierl publicity. Then on October 7, Kathy Dunn came to speak and also showed her achievement book, also her food record books. We are sure the girls are grateful for her visit and shall have a good new year.

For three days she took part in a convention of all exchange students, at Bremen. Here, as guests of the Bremen Senate, these young people found the very core of the foreign ex-

abroad, in the heart of a family, and an intelligent explanation of what makes other nations so dif-

This week's SPOTLIGHT ORCHID goes to gourmet Joe Kulik, whose just-opened "Joe's" restaurant on State Street in Albany offers wonderful lunching to Tri-Village husbands on workdays and a real treat for the whole family at dinner! . . . And now to Show Biz . . . Raoul Levy, who produces the Brigitte Bardot pictures, says his star will be fully clothed in "Ebette Goes to War," her next for Columbia, so that teenagers, too, can attend . . . Although "Can-Can" has been shooting only six weeks at Twentieth Century Fox it is already internationally known because of the recent visit to the set by Mr. Khrushchev . . . When Donald Crisp signed to enact the role of Mayor Karl Warren in Walt Disney's Technicolor motion picture, "Pollyanna," it will mark his appearance in his 417th film. Mr. Crisp won an Academy Award for his performance in "How Green Was My Valley," and the honor of being considered, by his fellow workers, one of the finest actors in the world today . . . Teen-age Scoop — Sandra Dee is the latest teen-age screen idol to become a singer. The 17-year-old star of Warner Brothers' "A Summer Place" has recorded "Do It When You're Young," for Decca records, which will be released in November . . . The Andrews Sisters are in New York conferring upon a forthcoming television series . . . Peter Ustinov will produce and star in a picture based on the play "Romanoff and Juliet," which he wrote . . . Best L.P. Album of the week is on the Decca label. It's "Besame," with Toni Arden. Toni hits the Latin route in this package, which has an authentic quality that gives the set a lot of dash. Some of the selections are: "Besame Mucho," "Perfidia," "What A Difference A Day Made," "Say Si Si" and more . . . Dear Mrs.

L. N.: To settle the argument between you and your neighbor. On the television show "Topper," Topper is portrayed by Leo G. Carroll. In the movie series, over twenty years ago, Topper was played by the late Roland Young. Thank you for your card . . .
