

To The Spotlight:

On the evening of Friday, Dec. 18, we had a group of friends from out of town visiting. The inside and outside of our house had been decorated for Christmas. On the back porch was a small tree decorated only with lights.

Sometime between 8:30 and 9:30 P.M. a boy crossed the snow on the front lawn, and the same boy entered our rear porch and removed all the lights from the sockets. He dropped one, but took with him 29 outside light bulbs.

Isn't it difficult to understand how any boy or boys, living in such a nice community where people have so much pride in their homes, would enter a neighbor's property and steal light bulbs? What do parents think when their children come home with pockets stuffed with light bulbs? Or, do the boys, fearing parental disapproval, throw their loot away? And if

Ambulance Fund Sets Record; New Vehicle to Arrive Jan. 15

Responding to an appeal for funds to buy a new ambulance made some weeks ago by the Rescue Squad of the Delmar Fire Department, Tri-Villagers have dug into their pockets with such quick generosity that thousands of dollars have poured in and —

1. The Ambulance Fund will end on Jan. 11.
2. Our community has set a new record for money-raising.
3. A brand-new, ultra-modern ambulance has been ordered and will arrive at the Fire Hall on Jan. 15!

"We're absolutely amazed," said a jubilant member of the Department. "We had hoped to be able to replace the wrecked ambulance, but honestly, we never dreamed it would be so soon. We were afraid it would take months and months. Please tell your readers how grateful we are to everyone."

The new ambulance will be on display at the Delmar Fire Hall on Saturday and Sunday afternoons, Jan. 16 and 17, 1-5 P.M. Uniformed members of the volunteer Rescue Squad will be on hand to explain their life-saving techniques and to demonstrate the scores of advantages in design and construction of the new vehicle (which will go into service soon after its official welcome).

Asked for some specific instances of assistance, the Department spokesman told us of the Stratton Place carolers who Beverly Putnam, internationally known sportswoman and traveler, will show full-color motion pictures of the All-Girl Safari she led into Central Africa in 1958 at the Bethlehem Central Junior High School auditorium on Saturday, Jan. 16.

The performances, both afternoon and evening, will be sponsored by the Capital District Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. Proceeds of the benefit show will go toward support of the society's national research program and toward purchase of special beds, patient hoists and other equipment for the local chapter's loan closet.

Miss Putnam, who will give the commentary on the film in person, achieved international attention when she led the first all-girl safari into Kenya and Tanganyika. She also headed several subsequent expeditions into the heart of the African plains and sub-tropical forests.

The film features spectacular photography of gnus, giraffes, gazelles, impalas, lions, zebras, elephants, monkeys, and wild birds. This technicolor film was featured on opening night of the current Town Hall Film Series in New York.

The afternoon showing, featuring a special price (35 cents) for children, will be at 2 P.M. The evening showing will be at 8:30 P.M. There will be no advance ticket sale. Tickets ($1 for adults) may be purchased at the door.

Members of the local Multiple Sclerosis Board serving on the benefit committee are Dr. Albert H. Harris, of Slingerlands, chairman; Jeremiah R.

We at The Spotlight can reveal that it was Mr. and Mrs. Donald Slingerland of Elsmere who were high bidders for the donated oil painting displayed in our window. They got a nice picture and the Fund got their substantial check.

(LETTER)

such is the case, aren't these boys off to a wrong start in life? Certainly decorative light bulbs are not a necessity, so the theft wasn't committed because of need.

These lads evidently need corrective counselling from home, or church, or school now, before their lust for theft develops to greater proportions.

This was reported to the Bethlehem Police in the hope it would save others in the neighborhood from a similar loss.

"YOU CAN PRINT THIS" SAYS TOWN SUPERVISOR KOHINKE

Stopping in at the Town Hall early one morning last week, we found Town Supervisor Bert Kohinke there ahead of us, working at his desk. A pleasant man, with an air of quiet competence, he talked to us about his views of his big, new job.

"Yes," said Mr. Kohinke, "I can still feel the excitement of being chosen to serve the Town of Bethlehem. This is the crowning honor of my life.

"I won't try to replace John Oliver in the hearts and minds of his hundreds of friends, but I do hope to win an equal place there. I'm going to do everything possible to continue the same friendly relations and the same fine type of government that the people of the Town have been accustomed to. This I promise to do prayerfully and with the help of God."

Mr. Kohinke considers himself fortunate to work with the dedicated people who have been serving the Town for so many years. "It gives me a feeling of assurance," he said, "and pride and confidence in the future, to be a member of such a competent, experienced team. Tell your readers I'll be available at the Town Hall at any time. I'm going to work harder at this than ever before in my life."

KOHINKE BRINGS YEARS OF CIVIC AND BUSINESS EXPERIENCE TO NEWPORT

Bertram E. Kohinke, vice-president and general manager of Albert E. Oliver, Inc., was recently named supervisor of the Town of Bethlehem to replace the late John Oliver.

Mr. Kohinke brought years of experience in town service to his new post. He served as chairman of the Sewer Commission and deputy county director of Civil Defense. He is a life-long Republican.

He is a past president of the Central Ave. Civic and Merchants Association. Past commander of Blanchard Post, American Legion, he is an Army combat veteran of World War II. He is a member of the Salvation Army's advisory board and was chairman of its 1959 fund appeal. He is a director of the Greater Albany Chamber of Commerce and heads its aviation committee.

A 32nd Degree Mason, Mr. Kohinke is a member of Guttenberg Lodge, F&AM and Cyprus Temple, AAONMS. He is a member of Wolfert's Rost Country Club and councilman and treasurer of St. Mark's Lutheran Church. His home is at 16 Snowden Ave., Elsmere.

DELMAR PROGRESS CLUB TO HEAR OF LIFE IN MEXICO

The first general meeting of the Delmar Progress Club for 1960 will be on Monday evening, Jan. 11, at 8:00 P.M. in the Delmar Public Library.

Guest speaker will be Miss Betsy Martini, our Community Ambassador for Experimental Living, who was in Mexico this past summer. Miss Martini graduated from BCHS last June, and is now a freshman at the Albany Medical Center School of Nursing.

She spent 10 very interesting weeks in the home of a Mexican family. There were two teen-age girls and a younger boy. The father of the family was the only one who could speak English. Miss Martini knew no Spanish when she left Delmar, but by the time she returned could carry on a conversation in Spanish. She has been elected to be an Experimental Representative to Mexico, to return for three more weeks in August of 1960 for an Experimenter's Convention.

Mrs. Addison Clark, president, invites all Club members to attend this colorful and unique program.

PAST TENSE

Once more we have to print a notice of a most interesting meeting in the past tense. We received the news of the United Nations meeting of the Wesleyan Service Guild of the First Methodist Church in Delmar too late to include it in last week's issue.

We know that all who attended the meeting of Tuesday evening (and the preceding covered-dish supper) had an informative and absorbing evening. Mrs. David Giles showed slides and talked about her recent three-day visit to the United Nations and many Tri-Village women gave their impressions of similar trips.

We were asked to invite interested residents to attend, and we are truly sorry not to have been able to do so. Thursday deadline is a necessity in order to have the type set in time for the printer to deliver the finished issue to the Spotlight office in time for us to get it to the post office in time to reach you TODAY.

SELKIRK WOMEN'S AUXILIARY TO MEET

The Women's Auxiliary of Selkirk Fire Company #2 will meet at 8 P.M. on Tuesday, Jan. 12, at the fire house in Glenmont. Mrs. Robert Burns will preside and the refreshments will be served by Mesdames Paul Andres, Merle Oliver, James McGraw, James Neville, and John Gombel.

ROLL 'N PIN GIRLS HELD CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Roll'n Pin Girls of Glenmont held their annual Christmas party at the home of the leader, Mrs. Frank Jordan, on Dec. 22. Mothers and younger brothers and sisters of the members were invited. Mrs. Becker, Assistant County 4-H Club Agent, presented the seal of achievement to the club. She also awarded the club a miniature flag set for being a blue ribbon club all year.

General chairmen for the party were Ariene Pauly and Sally Plass with Carolyn Cook and Linda Pohl refreshment chairmen and Kathy Nolan and Karen Aupperle in charge of the program and the games.

SOMETHING WORTH SEEING

PEGGY O'BRIEN

The Delmar "Village Four" have scored an impressive triumph at the Albany Institute of History and Art.

Despite slippery driving, competition with the Globe Trotters and Althea Gibson's exhibition tennis, and an opening date very close to Christmas, more than a hundred guests slipped and slid into the Institute to attend the opening reception last week and to view the 28 paintings of the 4 artists.

Marking their first big exhibit together, these artists; Edwin W. Becker, Harold Laynor, Clover Mikol and Joseph Todak; have moved rapidly in their purpose to establish a recognized group to further art in this community.

Considered a "particularly well balanced show" by Janet MacFarlane, director of the Institute, the exhibit shows four distinct yet facile styles. Ed Becker, creator of moods with line, color and idea blending together has 5 oils and two watercolors which again show his versatility. Harold Laynor, who is constantly experimenting with texture, color, ideas in thought and at times, pure decoration, also has 7 pictures, all in oils, which exhibit his skill in different approaches. Clover Mikol has added a new touch to her work with an impressionable abstract "Some Light in Dark Places." Her watercolors herald some of this approach and her still life oils show another facet of her varying technique. Joseph Todak has reached a new fluid style in the works displayed in this exhibit. Exciting, strong and rich in color and feeling they anticipate a new period of his painting.

Moving from smaller shows to the present exhibit is a big step for this group who banded together only last spring. It definitely gives them added prestige as a group in their endeavor to open up avenues for artists and art enthusiasts in our area.

The lovely new year stretches before us. How well will we use it? Graciously, let us hope . . . honestly too, and trustingly, above all.

So much delighted were the Senior High Ski Club members from BCHS, that the first scheduled trip to Mt. Snow on Wednesday, Dec. 30 went off without a hitch. Some weeks ago the trip was sold-out and President Barb Howe had paid reservations. There was talk of a second bus, but they moved cautiously for this first trip and used only one bus. Golly, do these teenagers love to ski — our son, Dave was up and out by 5:45 a.m. and upon arriving at the school found a dozen cars ahead of trip arrangers Dave, Will Wendell, and Dick Foland. But the day was clear, the snow and just everything about the event was neat, and out of the grand total of forty, we learned only one gal had a minor mishap, Shuey Kunz of Slingerlands.

John Lyons and Dean Hartley went swimming in the lovely heated pool . . . The whole group kidding them, of course. Food consumed was mostly furnished by the skiers themselves: Paul Peterson and Dave Utz believe in packing more than any annual card party Jan. 13th, Wednesday — 12 noon, at the Ten Broeck Mansion. Since Sue is chairman of the event we hope those interested will contact her immediately and make up that table to start the new year properly.

Well Twelfth Night is over and the Christmas greens and trees are down and the ole home place is back to normal once again. School and routine are once again the order of the day. So let's make this a wonderful New Year . . .

DR. MARVIN RAPP SPEAKS AT CLARKSVILLE

The Clarksville PTA will hold its regular meeting Jan. 13, 8 P.M., at the school.

Dr. Marvin Rapp, associate executive dean of the State University of New York and president of the New York State Folklore Society, will speak on "Folklore of the Helderbergs and Upper Catskills." Second Grade mothers will be hostesses.

This week's SPOTLIGHT ORCHID goes to Mr. and Mrs. Negley Norton, 534 Huron Rd., Delmar, for their cheerful enthusiasm in starting what we hope will be an annual event . . . a neighborhood Christmas tree and evening caroling . . . It was a wonderful idea! . . . And now to Show Biz . . . Jane Russell will be a very busy girl during the month of January. She is scheduled to play 19 different dates in the next 25 days, in Italy, Germany, Spain and Portugal . . . Frances Nuyen will recreate her original stage title role in the motion picture version of "The World of Suzie Wong," with William Holden . . . Due at the Palace theatre very soon is a very wonderful motion picture "The Story on Page One," starring Rita Hayworth, Anthony Franciosa and Gig Young. If you like deep drama and suspense, don't miss this one . . . Ever-beautiful Myrna Loy, goes into "From the Terrace" starring Paul Newman and Joanne Woodward . . . Crime may not pay off in reality, but it certainly does in acting. James Cagney, the late Humphrey Bogart, Paul Muni and Edward G. Robinson all first captured the film audiences with their dynamic portrayals of gangleaders. The first three won Academy Awards, and all four achieved stardom. Today, history could repeat itself for Ray Danton. He gives a very convincing performance in "The Rise and Fall of Legs Diamond." Incidentally, for those of you who never knew it before, Jack "Legs" Diamond was shot right in Albany on Dove Street near Hudson Avenue . . . Teen-age idol Dick Clark is reported to have surprised everyone by his exceptional acting ability in Columbia's "Because They're Young" . . . Best L.P. Album of the week is on the R.C.A. Victor label. It's "60 Years of Music America Loves." This is a double album that will add great value to your record collection. It has many artists, too numerous to mention . . . from the golden voice of Enrico Caruso, right up to the present . . . Dear Mrs. J. G.: To settle your argument, Gary Cooper played the late Lou Gehrig and William Bendix played the late Babe Ruth. Thank you for your card . . . Write any questions you want answered to Jonny Borne in care of The Spotlight . . . Until next week, that's Show Biz . . .
