

HUDSON-CHAMPLAIN COMMITTEE GIVES $1200 TOWARD PLANETARIUM

The Bethlehem Hudson-Champlain Committee has given a check for $1200 to the Henry Hudson Planetarium Fund, thus ending a year of work on the "Year of History."

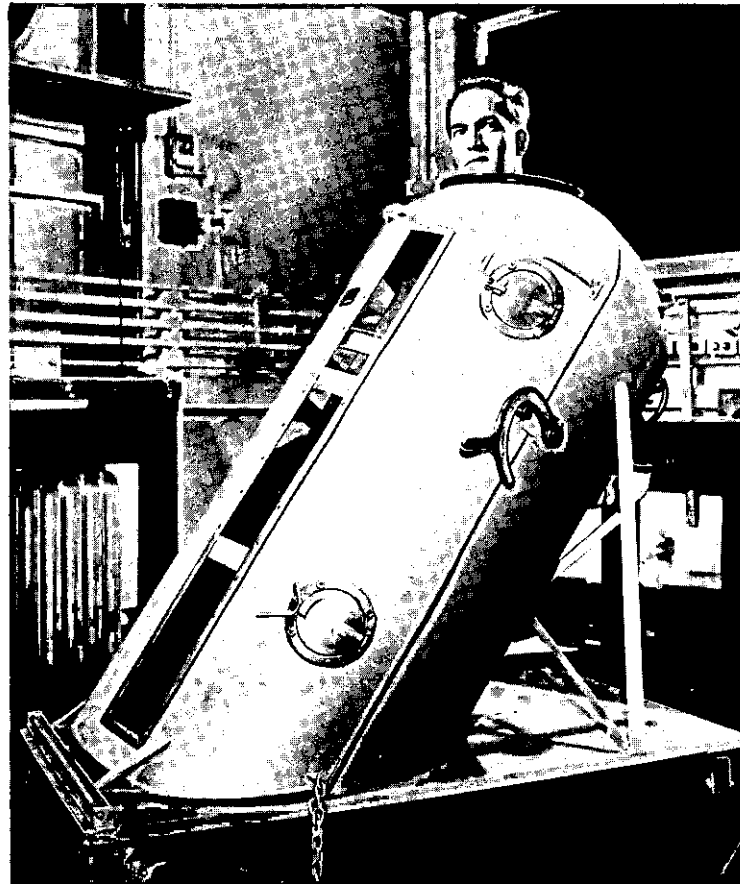

This sum includes the donations by town's people at various events and donations by the Bethlehem Reformed Church, Bethlehem Home Demonstration Unit and the Slingerlands Players. It does not include the $256 already turned in by the Bethlehem Business and Professional Women which was realized by their sale of wooden nickels. The sales of souvenir ash trays, plates and maps helped to swell the total.

LOTS OF BOTTLES STILL NEEDED

Members of Girl Scout Troop 106 are still endeavoring to raise enough money for a wonderful trip to Washington in March. You will remember that they are trying to earn a share of the expense by collecting deposit bottles from friends, neighbors, and interested members of the community. We're told they had a fine response to their first appeal in The Spotlight a month ago, and they hope that another reminder will elicit many more calls. Please call Mrs. Theodore Were at HE 9-3346 or Mrs. Donald Brossman at HE 9-5216 if you have any deposit bottles for the girls to pick up. Help make their dream trip come true!

SUCCESS OF CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL ASSURES CONTINUING PROGRAM OF AID TO NEEDY

YOUR SUPPORT of the March of Dimes made possible this new Iron Lung which allows the patient to view the world from a nearly-normal position. If you've ever spent time in a hospital bed, you can just begin to understand what an enormous difference this makes!

MOTHERS' MARCH FOR POLIO ON JAN. 30

The March of Dimes Mothers' March will be held in the Tri-Village area on Jan. 30 from noon to three o'clock. This house to house canvass is the only means of collection for this worthy organization, so residents are asked to have someone at home on that day. In addition to the collection the canvassers will be taking a count of people still requiring polio vaccine shots, the number of children born with birth defects, and members of each household suffering from arthritis.

Mrs. Donald H. Ross is chairman for this year's drive with Mrs. Leonard W. Herrick serving as publicity chairman, Mrs. Alexander Rihm is in charge of coin boxes, and Mrs. James L. Chamberlain and Mrs. John Bourke taking care of school collections. Regional chairmen are: Delmar, Mrs. Joseph Fitzgerald and Mrs. Herrick; Slingerlands, Mrs. Theodore G. Brown; Clarksville, Mrs. Edward A. Ross, and Unionville, Mrs. William H. Burton.

For the first time collections will be used this year for research and remedial work in child birth defects and arthritis as well as polio.

MEDICAL AND DENTAL AID TO CHILDREN TO BE AVAILABLE

Receipts from the Bethlehem Community Christmas Festival last month amounted to $1,625.62, according to Thurlow McWhinnie, treasurer. This amount was made up of $1,197.07 in offerings at the three performances of the festival, $158.10 contributed by students at Bethlehem Central Senior High School and $270.45 donated by organizations and individuals. It is expected that the latter figure will be increased somewhat when other gifts are received.

The Christmas activity of the White Christmas Committee, reported by Mr. and Mrs. James Flavin, chairmen, consisted of clothing, fruit baskets and toys distributed to 51 families in the Bethlehem school district comprising 80 adults and 155 children. Also, to persons on the "sunshine list," were distributed 67 plants, 24 fruit baskets, 5 boxes of candy and 12 greeting cards.

The year round activity of the White Christmas committee, primarily for children, includes eye examinations and eyeglasses, dental care and unusual medical care. If funds are adequate, it is expected that cash contributions will be made as in previous years to CARE and American Friends Service Committee for the aid of children in Europe and South America.

The White Christmas committee is especially grateful to the many groups whose assistance was so valuable at Christmas time, including the Senior Citizens, Young Adults, 4-H Club, Brownies, Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts. In addition, numerous individual families participated, in coop-

Quality Responsibility Honesty

To The Spotlight:
Are we selling education short?

On the 25th of this month, the voters of our Bethlehem Central School District will again go to the polls to vote on an amended bond issue for an addition to the Senior High School. As everyone knows, the first vote resulted in a resounding defeat to the tune of more than two to one.

The writer and his wife, as co-presidents of the Steering Committee of the Senior High School, have attended many meetings pertaining to the defeat of the bond issue, and what caused it.

It would seem that the defeat was due to three major reasons:

1. The inclusion in the plan, of a new gymnasium in addition to the already existing plant, which fact provided a rallying point for the opposition.

2. An increased antagonism on the part of the public in general toward the borrowing of any additional monies which would result in an increase in taxes.

3. Most importantly, the failure on the part of a very large group of parents—which group, incidentally, should be the most concerned—to get out and vote.

This group consists of the parents of pre-school, elementary, and junior high school students, who apparently felt that the issue was a long way off as far as they personally were concerned—and so they simply did not bother to vote at all.

In the re-submission of this issue, we should like to observe that the new gymnasium has been eliminated in its entirety, which represents a major reduction in plant expenditure.

For those who voted against the issue out of general antagonism, we submit that with the rising cost of materials and prices generally, it would be cheaper in the long run to build now than four or five years later, for build we must, now or hence.

As for the parents of children in the lower age groups, we feel that they should get out and vote for this issue, as the only possible alternative is a double school session.

A double school session is neither a hollow threat, nor a happy solution. The writer himself attended double session in his freshman year at Albany High School in 1925, and there was no joy whatever in starting classes at 1:30 in the afternoon, and getting out of school at 6:00 in the evening. Quite apart from the great inconveniences engendered by double sessions, there never has been a case where this solution to a problem such as ours has resulted in anything less than a deterioration of the quality both of instruction and scholarship.

While we ourselves, as individuals, have no axe to grind due to the fact that both of our children will be out of school before a new addition would be in use, we still feel that the continuation of the high grade education now given to the children of this community should not be endangered by shortsightedness at this crucial point.

What do you think?

To The Spotlight:

On Jan. 25, '60, we the voters will again be given the opportunity to vote upon the proposed addition to the new Senior High School. To the people who got out to vote and defeat this proposal it shows that at least 2000 people in this township are up to their ears in taxes and just can't stand anymore. . . .

. . . Times-Union, Nov. 18, '59, pp. 22; The Very Rev. John F. Bourke, diocesan superintendent of schools: "Each new school, providing for 300 to 400 pupils, costs an average of $250,000 to $300,000." And our proposed wing only is to cost an estimated $945,000. How can there be such a big difference in these figures? How many bids were received from different builders and architects and suppliers of school equipment? Why is a $50,000 architect needed just to build a concrete block addition on a building which is something any good competent contractor can do by himself?

 Why do people write letters with only half truths, such as, "I'll be glad to pay only $1.59 more" or something to that effect, not saying that that is to be for EACH $1,000 per assessed valuation and then comes the cost of the extra teachers etc. in addition to this and then not have nerve enough to sign their names but sign "Taxpayer" or some such thing? What about those on a fixed income or our senior citizens who are trying to live on a small fixed pension? How about more answers and more information and be sure to keep voting NO until we get the whole truth.

To The Spotlight:

As pastor of the Delmar Presbyterian Church, I believe a word of public appreciation should be extended to Fire Chief Blake Case and the men of his department. I refer to their fine service at the "Burning of the Greens" ceremonies sponsored by our church for the community on Twelfth Night, January 5th. The two trucks, the ambulance and the six men from our Fire Department lent an atmosphere of security to that festive occasion. During the burning the men worked steadily shifting and adjusting the trees. The ceremonies themselves lasted less than a half hour, but the firemen were there for an hour before they finally put out what was left of the fire. I am sure that all the children, as well as the adults, were pleased to have the Fire Department there.

May I also thank your splendid paper for helping to make this Christmas event a community affair.

George H. Phelps, Minister.

To the Editor:

In view of the fact that a planting of trees may have obstructed a driver's view, and thereby been a contributing factor in a recent accident involving a child riding a bicycle, let us inspect our property to ascertain whether we have trees or shrubbery planted too near the street.

There are several homes on streets I frequently drive where plantings block the driver's view of the driveway and also, corner plantings that obstruct the view at intersections.

Who among us would value a tree or a bush above a human life?

HAPPY HANDS & HEARTS WIN SEAL, BANNER

The Happy Hands and Hearts 4-H Club of Elsmere, under the leadership of Mrs. Harry Eyres has been awarded a Seal of Achievement for the past year since each of its members has completed two projects—one in sewing and one in cooking. The club was also awarded a banner for having earned enough points over the year to qualify as a Blue Ribbon Club. Miss Kay Dunn is Junior Leader, and Miss Zan Blendell is the very able publicity chairman of the club.

"My father-in-law and I were far out on Long Island. Somehow I made a wrong turn, and we ended up stuck in soft sand on a back road. Dad is a severe diabetic, so I was afraid to leave him alone. But he had to have food to maintain his insulin-sugar balance. After waiting helplessly for some time I decided I must go after assistance. Just then, from nowhere, a telephone truck appeared. The men gave us water, helped me free the car and got us safely back on the main road. A little incident, to be sure, but it convinced me that even in this modern, mechanized world there is still no substitute for simple friendliness and helpfulness."

SOMETHING WORTH SEEING
by Peggy O'Brien

A bit of Albany history is revived by an airplane propeller — which today's pilots must regard as no larger than a matchstick — displayed at the Delmar Library.

The propeller, of World War I vintage, is the clue to a story of Albany's early ventures in aeronautics. It came from the home of Mrs. Chauncey D. Hakes, Van Wie's Point, whose late husband was called "... a man who has done more than any other to further aviation in this city [Albany]."

Mr. Hakes, a pioneer motorist who died in 1958, though not a flyer himself, was a man of imagination and continued interest in the future of aviation. In 1920, he was appointed to the first State Aviation Commission by Gov. Alfred E. Smith. He served on the joint committee that made Westerlo Island the first municipal airport in the country. Before this period, fliers had used the old polo grounds in Loudonville. This early field was small and on a side hill and too many crack-ups forced the change to Westerlo Island where the Quentin Roosevelt field serviced airplanes until the present airport was chosen by a committee also headed by Mr. Hakes.

The propeller? It was held in readiness for Col. Archie Miller, a close friend who was stationed at Mineola Aviation Field on Long Island. Col. Miller feared that the soft ground—the only runway—at the Westerlo Island field might cause his plane to nose over, cracking his propeller, when he made a landing there. The Hakes kept Col. Miller's "spare" ready and waiting for such an event.

Throughout this period, Mrs. Hakes was also busy. With Mr. Hakes as official greeter at the airport, interested in all fliers, famous or not, their house was always open to the airmen of the day. She never knew whether there would be two, four, fourteen or twenty-four at dinner. At their home at Van Wie's Point, they entertained Lindbergh, Wiley Post and Bert Acosta, to name a few of the more famous, plus hundreds of the courageous, constantly experimenting, devil-may-care pilots who roamed the skies in those wonderfully exciting and dangerous years when airplanes were coming of age.

well attended. Good chance to keep in touch with your golfing friends, and many other acquaintances.

We note with pride that our old friend-neighbor George Myrick of Winne Road, Delmar, a consulting engineer has really made the Town of East Greenbush officials very happy. . . . All over a "Water Strike," reportedly one of the biggest finds of its kind in the area. Completed reports will be made this week on the water survey from George C. Myrick Associates.

Dr. John G. Hutton of New Scotland Rd., Slingerlands, has been appointed general manager of General Electric's Specialty Control Department and will assume his duties January 15, at Waynesboro, Virginia. Mighty nice country to move to and we hope that the Hutton family will enjoy their new home.

Two Delmar gals have been chosen as sports leaders at Wellesley College, Wellesley, Mass.

Betsy North, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George North, of Winne Rd., has been named head of hockey for the Athletic Association. While Nancy McConnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McConnell, of Hawthorne Ave., has been chosen to represent the Athletic Assn. in her dormitory at Wellesley.

Both girls are BC graduates and have spent the recent holidays in Delmar with their families.

Surprise! Surprise! And congratulations are in order to . . . The Twenty-fifth wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. & Mrs. Clarence Crysler of Grosbeck Place, Elsmere. Of the thirty-three guests present, four generations were represented in the Crysler family — Mrs. Clarence Crysler, Sr. was up from New York City; Daughter Diane — Mrs. Robert O'Donnell of Delmar, and her five month old daughter, Colleen completed the span.

It seems that Mr. & Mrs. Irwin Esmond of Sylvan Avenue, Elsmere thought up the party. By the way, "Es" is Mrs. Crysler's brother and so they planned with Dr. & Mrs. John Paige, Dr. & Mrs. William Cooper, Peg and Cliff Talcott, and Harriet and Charles Haslam of Slingerlands.

third around 8 o'clock the guests all descended upon them. Flo Allen, Elsa Gunther and Peg Talcott, all three teachers with Maria Chrysler at Delmar Grade School were present and other guests were all from the Tri-Village area. Silver Dollars were given the surprisees and the magnificent tiered wedding cake added a final touch to the gaiety.

The most unusual thing about the entire wonderful affair was that not one person goofed . . . it was a real surprise!

We also learned from Flo Allen, first grade teacher at Delmar School, that her son Dean, a Frosh at Indiana University, spent the entire Christmas vacation in Florida. Along with twenty-two others, the swimming team were based at Ft. Lauderdale. But they went to The Keys for spear fishing and made underwater movies to boot.

Along with his regular freshman studies, and ROTC, Dean spends sometimes three hours in the afternoon and three more hours in the evening practicing swimming. His marks have to be good or else no swimming team.

The Clifford Wrights of Elsmere Avenue are really thrilled. Finally they have a son, Clifford Jr. born January fourth, weighing 10 pounds. We do imagine his five sisters were impressed and we know his parents are happy. . . .

Tom McDowell, son of Mr. & Mrs. Thomas W. McDowell of Kenwood Ave., Delmar has become engaged to Lois Sluss, of Redwood City, California. She is the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Olin A. Sluss, Bloomington, Indiana. They are planning an early fall wedding.

This week's SPOTLIGHT ORCHID goes to Delmar's Millerd Larkin, a dedicated drum-beater (well, all right; publicity chairman) for some very worthwhile causes . . . And now to Show Biz . . . Don't miss Channel 10's Top Talent Telethon for Cerebral Palsy, Sat. nite at 10 . . . Henry Fonda and daughter Jane will co-star in April's "duPont Show of the Month." They'll present "Years Ago"—actress Ruth Gordon's play about her teenage days in New Bedford, Mass. Wonder if they'll do it as well as the Slingerlands Community Players did, last year? Harry Belafonte is breaking all records at New York's Palace. The crowds are so great that Harry's stay has been extended. If you're going to be in New York, and want to see him you'll have to take standing room only or call in good and early for seats . . . Robert Preston will take a leave of absence from the Broadway hit, "The Music Man," this month to report to Warner Brothers for the top role in "The Dark at the Top of the Stairs." After Bob finishes this picture, he will also star in the film version of "The Music Man" . . . Frank Sinatra will debut as a motion picture director on "The Execution of Private Slovik," to be filmed by his independent company with someone else as the star . . . Rita Hayworth will play a middle-aged teacher in "Wild in the Country" . . . Marlon Brando is being paged by producer Sam Spiegel for the title role in "Lawrence of Arabia," a Columbia release . . . Shirley MacLaine goes into "All in a Night's Work," replacing Audrey Hepburn, who bowed out because of impending motherhood . . . Michael O'Shea returns to the screen, after a 6-year absence, to play Lana Turner's chauffeur in Universal-International's "Portrait in Black" . . . Best L.P. Album of the week is on the Capitol label. It's Dean Martin's "A Winter Romance." Dean sings in his usual free-and-easy way all the songs about the winter weather; "Let It Snow, Let It Snow," "Winter Wonderland," "Baby, It's Cold Outside," and many more . . . Dear J. G.; As far back as I can check, the oldest shown on television is the "Gillette Calvacade of Sports." It has been on television since 1946. Thank you for your card . . .
