More than 50 local theatre enthusiasts are racing into the home stretch in preparation for the mid-winter offering of the Slingerlands Community Players. This dramatic-comic-musical program will be presented at 8:40 P.M. on Thursday, Feb. 18 and Saturday, Feb. 20 — no show on Friday — in the Bethlehem Central Senior High School auditorium.

(The production was originally scheduled for Feb. 13 and 14 but the dates were changed to avoid conflict with basketball games also scheduled for the 13th and 14th.)

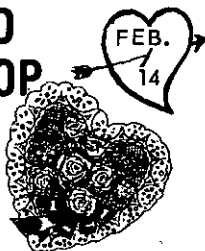

The program will open with Noel Coward's Still Life, followed by "Blackouts." It will conclude with Leonard Bernstein's Trouble in Tahiti. The Players call it a "bonus" show because season ticket holders are entitled to see it as a free extra on their regular $3 tickets. Anyone else may purchase tickets at $1.50 each from any member of the Players, from Mullen's Pharmacy, from the Delmar Library, or at the box office.

Bill Kraus, of the Milne School faculty, will direct the poignant Coward tragedy, with Ellen and Bill Heenehan of Colonie in the starring roles. Supporting them will be Betty Taylor, Charles Losacco, Ron Denham and Mary Nugent of Slingerlands; Al Basch of Delmar; Joan Lehner of Elsmere, and Marge Guntner, Lou Layne and Craig Smith of Albany. Joanne Bauckman of Voorheesville is assistant director.

Dr. Paul Bruce Pettit of State College will direct the "Blackouts" which will bring brief stardom to Edith Feder, Melissa McCandless, Art Ploetz, Frances Monthie, and the Messers Losacco, Layne, Basch, Denham and Smith. Larry MacDonald

A member of the Players forecast that Saturday would be the S.R.O. night and suggested that those who could, might be wise to attend on Thursday, to even out the "house."

"Doris and Jack Clark drew music lovers from all over Albany County last year, when they performed Menotti's "Telephone" said this spokesman, "and the Bernstein opera is every bit as exciting. Doris and Jack and the trio are in perfect voice and Noel Coward is a great drawing card, so I advise people to come early."

WOKO and the Key Club are adding something newer, good music. Teens are getting tired of regular 'record hops' and it's time for a lift."

WOKO announcer Dave Barker will emcee the festivities.

To The Spotlight:

Please convey the deep thanks of the Delmar Fire Dept. to the people of the Tri-Village area for their generous response to our appeal for funds for a new ambulance.

I might borrow a slogan from the Heart Association and say: "Thank you, neighbors, for helping your Rescue Squad to help you!"

And our hats are certainly off to The Spotlight. Some years ago, it took about 6 months to raise enough money for a new ambulance. This time, it took about 6 weeks. Your fine little paper's help in announcing and explaining the urgent need made the difference.

Money is still coming in, although we terminated the drive on Jan. 11. Whatever surplus comes in will be placed in the special Rescue Squad Fund which pays for all ambulance expenses except gas, oil and major maintenance.

SOMETHING WORTH SEEING

by PEGGY O'BRIEN

Clover Mikol, one of the motivating forces behind the Library's art shows, has at last hung her own works there.

Mrs. Mikol and Mrs. Barbara Rau had the idea for these shows three years ago and have persistently encouraged local artists to exhibit.

Water colors, oils and illuminated manuscripts make up the varied show at the Library. Mrs. Mikol's paintings have been seen in the area far more than have her illuminated manuscripts. This work is an art almost lost in this world where typewriter and printing press hold sway. However, wherever an illuminator still works, the demand for tributes, testimonials and messages of appreciation is constant. The individual quality of the lettering, the personal relationship which the pictures, symbols and decorations can add still outdoes the many mechanical machines of our times.

"God Bless You" loaned by Mrs. Kenneth Johnson of Syracuse and "Corinthians" loaned by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pellman of Albany, are both excellent examples of this dying art. Symbols of buds, seeds and flowers indicating development may be seen in both examples; in fact Corinthians is developed entirely around growing things.

The late Peter Sharpe, one of New York's famed illuminators, assisted Mrs. Mikol in many ways in the development of her art. He left her many of his tools which she highly prizes and also gave her a book "1001 Initialed Letters" printed in 1864 by Day and Son, Lithographers to the Queen. Mrs. Mikol believes it is possibly the only copy in America.

Clover Mikol's contribution to art wherever she is has always been enthusiastic — she works at it from all directions — from helping to develop outlets and exhibitions for artists, to teaching and to painting. She does it with her sleeves rolled up ready for action.

A number of the paintings at the Library come directly from the exhibit last month of "The Village Four" at the Albany Institute. In addition to these and the illuminated manuscripts is a charcoal "Portrait of an Actor in Character." The character was of Lenny in "Of Mice and Men.": the actor, Bernie Fein, originally of Albany, who is easily recognized by television enthusiasts as Corp. Gomez of the now extinct Sgt. Bilko series.

REMEMBER...?

Here is an interesting bit of history, together with an invitation, which we are happy to pass along to our readers:

"History of the Elsmere and Delmar Sewing Society:

"We understand that in 1902, six ladies met once a week for lunch and did their own mending during the afternoon. They were Mrs. Wm. Furman, a Mrs. Henning, Mrs. Lucius Reed, a Mrs. Rourke, Mrs. Harry Shill and Mrs. Elsworth Van Wie. Later, Miss Madge Reed, who is now Mrs. George Casey, and Mrs. Agnes Bender joined the group.

"There seems to be no available records from that time until 1926. We should welcome any reliable information . . .

"Membership was at that time [in 1926] and still is limited to thirty members.

"Meetings are still held on the third Thursday of each month from September to and including June. Dues remain at ten cents per month. "The so- (continued on next page)

DELMAR KIWANIS SPONSORS 4-H CHICK REARING PROJECT

Since 1955, the Agriculture and Conservation Committee of the Delmar Kiwanis Club has sponsored a 4-H Chick Rearing project. The purpose is to encourage and recognize agricultural achievements of 4-H members by helping them to carry on a worthwhile poultry raising experience. The project is open to boys or girls between the ages of 8 and 18 who live in the Bethlehem Central School district or in adjoining areas of the Ravena - Coeymans - Selkirk district.

the project is given 50 straight-run baby chicks of a well-bred strain late in March. This year they may be either White Plymouth Rocks or New Hampshires. These birds are brooded and reared for the following 6 months and in September, two male birds are dressed as roasters and returned to the Delmar Kiwanis Club. Later these roasters are auctioned off to Kiwanis Club members to help finance the project. At this same time the boys and girls who have completed the project are the guests of the Kiwanis at dinner and awards are made to them. Awards are given for the best dressed birds, the best records kept and to the two 4-H'ers who do the best all-around job with the project, including good management and care in rearing their birds and their success in showing their birds at the Altamont Regional Fair.

Previous winners of major awards are ineligible to compete in the project the following years. Last year's winners were: 1st, Edward E. Van Alstyne, Jr., 186 Kenwood Avenue, Delmar and 2nd, Samuel B. Van Hoesen, Feura Bush, R.D. Several boys and girls have already signed up for the 1960 chick rearing project but there is an opportunity for a few more to participate. These young folks must have a suitable place for raising the chicks and they must also have the financial means for providing the birds with sufficient feed throughout the rearing period. The county 4-H office and the Kiwanis Agriculture Committee will assist with information and supervision.

Boys and girls interested in taking part in the 1960 project should contact either Donald Z. Terhune, 53 Fernbank Avenue, Delmar (phone HE 9-2184) or John B. Geurtze, Woodridge Farms, Glenmont (phone HE 4-8903). Entries for the project must be in by early February.

good too; keeps the heart both "young and gay."

Along with the young in heart goes our bit of congrats for the three lovelies — Wendy Hutchinson, happily crowned Miss Junior Miss of Albany last week. With her was Barb Gypson, an excellent runner-up finalist. Diane Hunter received the $300 scholarship aid contest, which was run in connection with the Junior Miss Contest by the Albany Junior Chamber of Commerce. We are more than proud of these gals and shall await the State-wide contest results with Wendy in Schenectady and look to the Nationals in Mobile, Alabama, come March.

Looks like Normanside Country Club will be having a Valentine dance come Feb. 13, from 9 to 1 o'clock. Music is by the Or-Ket's and the first fifty (50) sweethearts will receive a lovely sweetheart rose corsage. Laverne and Al Myron are co-chairmen, assisted by Sue and Charles Redmond and the Bill Baxters. Added attraction is the late-snack buffet . . . 23 skiddo!

Fresh on our minds is the recent Mother's March supported by hundreds of volunteers from the Tri-Village area as well as Glenmont, Clarksville and Unionville districts. Special thanks to Mrs. Alice Ross of Elsmere, chairman of the March in our village and from her to all the cooperating team, Mmes. Alvin Lierheimer, L. Herrick, Alexander Rihm, James Chamberlain. Regional leaders: Clarksville, Mrs. Joseph Fitzgerald; Unionville, Mrs. William Burton and Dolores Herrick; Hamagrael section, Mrs. Richard Welter; Mrs. Theodore G. Brown, Slingerlands; and Mrs. Frank O'Dell of Elsmere. Final results are still being tabulated and properly set down, but we're relying on Dolores Herrick, publicity chairman for her over-all coverage.

Another news flash for Normanside Women: Don't forget the Valentine luncheon and card party today at 1 p.m. Hostesses: Mrs. Claire Austin, and Mrs. Lawson Curtis assisted by Mmes. James Lawson and John Sullivan. Chairman for the luncheon is Betty Morgan and Virginia Smith is in charge of the table prizes. Have fun!

Things are really happening at the YW in Albany. Beginning tomorrow evening, Feb. 12th and continuing on succeeding Fridays, there is to be round and square dances from 8 til 12 p.m. This will no doubt appeal to the single and unattached young adults in the area.

Weather permitting — there's to be a family party to celebrate Washington's Birthday on Sunday, Feb. 21st with a pancake and sausage supper beginning at 5:30. At Normanside! So members ahoy! ski, sledding, tobogganing all afternoon. Peg and Frank Balisdell are in charge, and we think it is a great idea. . . .

Almost forgot to congratulate Alice Ross, Polio March chairman, on making the Dean's list at State Teachers College. She's carrying a full schedule and doubling in brass on the home scene too.

Young Dave De Porte figures he'll be wearing his plaster-of-paris vest for a month or so. He says it's worth having a fractured vertebra to have all the pretty girls sign his cast. Seems he zigged when the toboggan zagged. . . .

Had the opportunity to hear Dr. Hilda Ives from Maine, an ordained minister, and very well known for her interest and work in rural churches, Dr. Ives spoke last week at the W.S.C.S. luncheon of the First Methodist Church, Delmar. She has served the church in isolated rural spots and speaks with strong conviction on the importance of the real farmer to our country; rededication of ourselves in prayer for the world. The audience was well represented by many churches from the Tri-Village, Glenmont, Albany. . . .

Good to see Mrs. George Myrick out and about after a rather difficult past few months. . . .

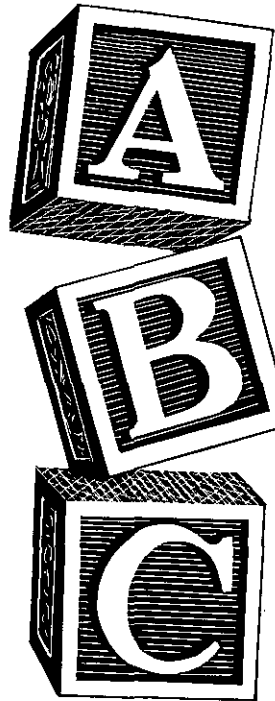

Oh yes, Barbara and Warren Weaver of Delmar are really in a whirl. . . . They plan to move very soon over around Chatham. Get fairly well settled and get ready for a pre-scheduled March date! Happy landings yo'all.

This week's SPOTLIGHT ORCHID goes to BCJHS music mentor Ed Jantschi and the rest of the music department for giving so many of the kids a taste of the real big-time in music; a trip to hear "Carmen" sung at New York's fabled "Met" . . . And now to Show Biz . . . "The Nun's Story," starring Audrey Hepburn, has more international appeal than any Warner Brothers picture in recent years, and is playing to record audiences in nearly every part of the world . . . David Janssen, star of television's "Richard Diamond," will get his first big film break in Allied Artists' "Hell to Eternity" . . . Donald Woods returns to the screen for the first time in more than 6 years in William Castle's Columbia release "13 Ghosts" . . . The television show "The Fabulous Fifties" will go on record as one of the most expensive shows ever to be televised. The total cost was close to $900,000 . . . Academy Award winner David Niven can't seem to find any time for himself. He is in demand by nearly every major studio. He will join Gregory Peck and Anthony Quinn in "The Guns of Navarone" . . . Alan Ladd's 16-year-old daughter, Alana, who makes her screen debut with her pop in "Guns of the Timberland," must finish school before she can make acting a full time career. Her father said so . . . Last week, we attended the sneak preview of "On the Beach," at the Strand theatre. It was an excellent picture, with a top cast, and a very unusual story. Don't miss it . . . Best L.P. Album of the week is on the ABC Paramount label. It's "We Got Us" with Eydie Gorme and Steve Lawrence. This winning team works together with an infectious joy. Some of the major tunes in this album are: "Side By Side," "Together," "Flattery," "I Remember It Well," "Cheek To Cheek," and many more . . . Dear Mrs. R.D.: Kay Kyser has retired. Although once in a great while he will do a guest shot on a television show, or play a club date. He is still very happily married to Georgia Carroll, who used to be his singer. They have two children. Thank you for your card . . . Write any questions you want answered to Jonny Borne in care of The Spotlight.

WHO'S SORRY NOW?

If you had to do it over again would you buy "on time"? Would you pay as much as 33 1/3% interest charges a second time?

Without a savings account you'll HAVE to buy on time and the vicious cycle of expensive credit charges will never end for you. You'll always "be in hock."

Easiest solution is to open a savings account this payday at Albany Savings Bank. Your money EARNs dividends . . . a big 3 1/2% per annum.* Amazing how fast your account grows. Then you can pay cash for the things you need and save those heavy extra credit charges. Save . . . pay cash . . . and really save!

RAMBLER WINS COMPACT CAR ECONOMY TEST!

HERE ARE THE OFFICIAL PURE OIL ECONOMY TRIAL RESULTS

RAMBLER AMERICAN 51.281 Miles Per Gallon
FALCON 44.614 MPG—Rambler gave 14.9% more mileage
VALIANT 41.801 MPG—Rambler gave 22.7% more mileage
CORVAIR 39.882 MPG—Rambler gave 28.6% more mileage
LARK 32.965 MPG—Rambler gave 55.6% more mileage

IMPORTANT—All cars in the Pure Oil Economy Trials were driven by expert drivers and operated under ideal conditions. The winning Rambler American Custom was equipped with optional overdrive which is not available on most other cars in the Compact Car Class and averaged better than 25 miles per hour. No car owner should expect to approach in every day driving the mileage achieved in this test by Rambler or any of the other cars. However, the results prove again the superior economy that Rambler owners enjoy.

Rambler American tops nearest competitor by 6.67 miles per gallon in Pure Oil Economy Trials at Daytona

Once again Rambler proves it is America's Economy King! Under official NASCAR supervision, the Rambler American won over all other U.S. economy cars to sweep the Compact Car Class in the Pure Oil Economy Trials held at the Daytona International Speedway Public Proving Grounds, February 1-3.

But gasoline mileage is only one measure of Rambler economy. Rambler owners save, too, on lowest prices, lowest upkeep, and highest resale value.

Discover Rambler's all-around economy yourself. See your Rambler dealer today.
