

To The Spotlight:

The weekly issue of Spotlight has just come and I have read it from cover to cover, including the letter of a "Home-sick Resident." I am puzzled. For I too am one of the newer residents. However, I have been impressed by the warmth and friendliness of our neighbors and the townspeople of the Tri-Village area. Everyone has been most helpful! When drifts of snow cut us off from the outside world — someone saw that a snow plow got to us, and while we were still unknown and illness came, neighbors came offering help.

Everyone we meet as we go about in the community —

BCHS STUDENTS LEAD COUNTY IN WINNING REGENTS SCHOLARSHIPS

Classroom scene in an upstate college.

In an outstanding demonstration of excellence, Bethlehem Central Senior High School students won 28 of the 103 Regents Scholarships offered in Albany County. An additional 11 were named alternates.

Some 55,000 high school seniors from about 1,200 schools took the competitive examinations last Oct. 14.

The senior class at BCBS represents approximately 7.5% of all seniors in Albany County. They won 27.2% of the scholarships. Last year, with 8% of the senior class population, they won 22 of the 88 scholarships offered, or 25%.

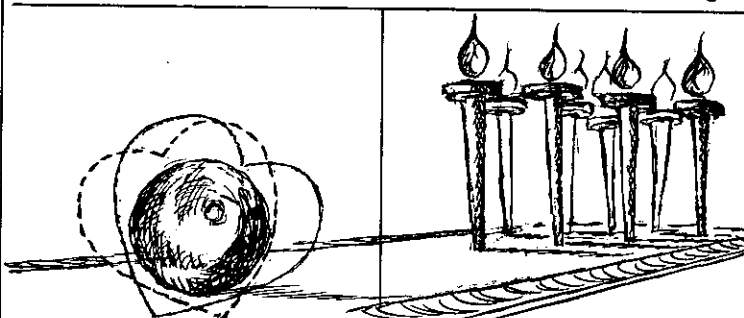

BCBS placed 3 in the County's top 5 scores. Valerie Lowe was first, with 264; Allan Groves was fourth, with 254; Richard Cease was fifth, with 252.

Other schools in the County ranking near the top in number of winners were:

Albany High School with 18, Vincenzian Institute with 12 Shaker High School with 9.

Five BCBS students won scholarships for Education in Engineering, Chemistry, Physics and Mathematics and one was named as an alternate. Another was named alternate for Basic Professional Education in Nursing.

HEART FUND BOWLING HONORS EARLE C. SMITH

At 7 P.M. on Saturday evening, Feb. 27, the annual Earle C. Smith Heart Fund Bowling Match will be held at Sport-haven Bowling Alleys in Delmar. The proceeds of the match will go to the Heart Association of Albany County.

The match is being conducted to raise funds in the name of the Elsmere Fire Company's deceased secretary, and is being sponsored by the Elsmere Fire Company, firemen and their wives. A buffet will be served at the firehouse afterward and all members and their wives are invited.

Merchants of the Tri-Village have donated many prizes and some of the refreshments for the event.

(LETTER)

those in the Post Office, the bank, the shops—indeed everywhere—we feel all go beyond the line of duty. Our hearts are warmed by the continual expressions of friendliness and thoughtfulness.

The Spotlight is published every Thursday by Spotlight, Inc., 395 Kenwood Ave., Delmar, N. Y.; Robert G. King, publisher. Mailing address: 395 Kenwood Ave., Delmar, N. Y.

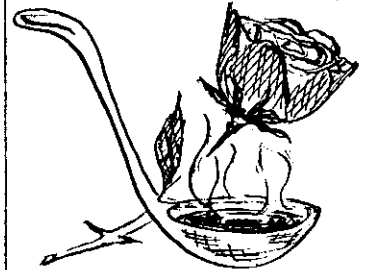

Our friends from out of the area who have had difficulty finding our home have also been impressed by the helpful attitude from those of whom they have sought directions. "What a friendly community you have. It is nice to think of you living in it." We agree.

Happy Newcomer (Name submitted)

(It is a friendly community, indeed. We have received a number of phone calls asking for the name of the lonesome letter-writer. Woman after woman expressed a wish to call on her, to invite her to their homes. We phoned her ourselves, finally, after having some trouble making out her name, in her distinctive script. She begged us not to reveal her identity. "Maybe I'll like it better, here, after a while," she said. "You know how it is with impulsive letters.")

We always tear up our own impulsive letters the morning after writing 'em, but we understand, all right.

Anyway, we certainly are proud to live in the same town as you, Mrs. W., You, Mrs. X, you, Mrs. Y, and you, Mrs. Z.... — Editor.)

ELSMERE HOME UNIT MEETS MARCH 2

The Elsmere Home Bureau Evening Unit will meet on March 2 at 8 P.M. at the Elsmere Grade School cafeteria. Ann Hulene will speak on "Soups" and there will be several different types of soups for all to sample. The Stripe and Plaid class will show their finished garments in a fashion review, and Ruth Estey will close the meeting with a talk on "Culture of Roses" and a film entitled "Modern Roses on Parade." Visitors are always welcome to attend.

TRI-VILLAGE WOMEN TO ATTEND RETREAT

All women of the community are invited to attend a retreat to be held at the Delmar Methodist church on Feb. 29 at 10:45 A.M. under the direction of the Tri-Village Council of Churchwomen.

Mesdames Samuel H. Hazelton, William R. Vogel, P. A. Pugliese and Stuart S. Verch, representing local churches belonging to the Council, will conduct meditations.

The retreat will be in preparation for the World Day of Prayer on March 4, and will be led by Mrs. Sanford F. Smith, president of the Council.

MOTHER'S MARCH WAS SUCCESSFUL HERE

Mrs. Donald H. Ross, chairman of the Mothers' March in the Tri-Village area announces that the total collected from the area is $3,542.50.

In addition to the door-to-door march which brought in $2,404.44, the schools in the area collected $432.26. Under the leadership of Father Bondi and Richard Miller the Jr. C.Y.O. at St. Thomas met the Bethlehem Youth Center in a basketball game and donated the proceeds — $34.20 — to the March of Dimes. Mrs. Alexander Rihm placed coin boxes throughout the area and with the cooperation of many community merchants $108.35 was accumulated in the boxes.

Some residents of the Tri-Village mailed in contributions, which amounted to $535.25. Others who may still wish to mail contributions may send them to 179 North Main Street in Albany. These will be credited to the Tri-Village total.

The Delmar Evening Unit of the Albany County Extension Service will meet Tuesday, March 1st at 8 P.M. in the Delmar Grade School.

A program on the use of curtains and draperies in home decoration is planned with an illustrative film.

Current projects are repeat classes in Swedish weaving and spring millinery with Mrs. Edward Hoffmeyer and Mrs. Richard Vander Wood as leaders.

Hostesses for the social hour are: Mrs. Thomas Lewis, Mrs. Edwin Albrecht, Mrs. Robert Sullivan and Mrs. Earl Fearnside.

NO BRIDEGROOM HE, SAYS SAILOR'S MOM

Last week, in telling of Robert P. Conklin's transfer from a Brooklyn U.S. Coast Guard Reserve billet to a sister unit in Scotia, we copied faithfully from the release sent us by the USNR Training Center, Naval Supply Center, Scotia, N. Y., the phrase "... became a bridegroom recently ..."

Well, apparently the Public Relations folks at Scotia were jumping the gun, a little. We had a call from Bob's mother, advising us that he isn't a bridegroom at all. As a matter of fact, the wedding is set for June 11.

GIRL SCOUT TROUP 308 COMPLETES INTERESTING, WORTHWHILE PROJECT

Doing something for others quite often turns out to be the most fun of all. Ask any of the members of Intermediate Girl Scout Troop #308. These Delmar Grade School Scouts have just completed the project of designing and making stuffed clowns which they will present to the children of St. Margaret's House and Hospital. Each clown was a bit different from all the others and this gave added interest to the "dos and don'ts of sewing."

Missing from the picture but also participating were: Rebecca Clark, Jane Lynch and Nancy Hall.

Sharing in the pleasure of the project were Mrs. Allen L. Cornes, Leader and Mrs. Francis J. Wojtal, Assistant Leader.

DELMAR MEN'S ORCHESTRA PLANS PROGRAM

Plans are progressing for the Delmar Men's Orchestra presentation of a musical program entitled "Music Around the World."

This will be a benefit performance for the Community Charity Funds of the Kiwanis, Lions and Rotary Clubs of the Town of Bethlehem, who are jointly sponsoring this program.

It will be held at Bethlehem Central Senior High School on Friday evening, March 25, at 8:30. "Sound a note for charity," urges our correspondent, "by supporting this worthy local activity!"

DELMAR PROGRESS CLUB'S GARDEN AND GOVERNMENT GROUPS TO MEET

The Mar. 7 meeting of the Delmar Progress Club's Garden Group, of which Mrs. Albert Ehrenfreund is chairman, will be held in the Delmar Public Library, at 1:30 P.M.

The topic, "How Green is Your Garden," will be presented by Mr. D. H. Keller, local representative of American Agricultural Chemical Co. of Carteret, N. J. It will be a full color-sound motion picture. After the presentation of the film there will be a question-and-answer period.

Mrs. Jerry Ruddle is hostess for the tea following and will be assisted by Mesdames Hugo C. Gutsche, Christian L. Heyl, Arthur C. Riemer and Harold C. Wiggers.

At 10 A.M. on Tuesday morning, March 8, the Government Group of the Delmar Progress Club will meet in the home of Mrs. Christian L. Heyl, 35 Hawthorne Avenue, Delmar.

The subject will be "The Dark Continent," and Mrs. Carroll W. Greenman will speak about "Africa in Ferment."

There will be a coffee hour preceding the meeting.

Mrs. Arthur W. Pense is chairman of the group.

QUEEN BEES BUSY

The Elsmere Queen Bees 4-H Club placed three winners in the local D.A.R. dress contest: Carol Brown 1st, Mary Lou Van Wormer 3rd and Mary Jane Wasserbach honorable mention. The dresses have been sent to Catskill to compete at the State level.

Mrs. Becker, assistant county agent, spoke to the Feb. 15 meeting on "Record Books." President Mary Jane Wasserbach presided over a business meeting attended by Denise Falvey, Carol Brown, Mary Lou Van Wormer, Peggy O'Dea and Linda Allen.

The Club celebrated Lincoln's Birthday with a joint outing with the Clever Clover Maids and a very nice time was had by all.

BY THE WAY
by Abbie Utz

Do you realize that this is the special month which gives us Leap Year. In a few days we'll be given an extra 24 hours . . . How will you spend this wonderful day?

The second program sponsored by the Bethlehem Junior High School's Parents Steering Committee was held this past week. The subject "Boy-Girl Relations" with panel members: Dr. Paul Patterson, Robert Foster, Philip Auerbach, and Mrs. John Thomas. Rev. Richard Hughes served again as moderator.

The house was packed and there was a question-answer period after the panel discussion. Guess it all boils down to a fairly routine matter — teenagers do grow up!

Next month will find the Normanside Women entertaining on March 10 at 1 o'clock. This will also be the annual date for an early Spring Bridge Luncheon-Hat Auction . . . Remember last year's? . . . Well, we do, since it snowed something up a breeze and most everybody was immobilized and particularly the road to the Country Club. So we had it in April and still it was successful and so well attended. The Board just couldn't resist another go at it. By the way, we would just love your retired chapeaux. Why not send them our way at your earliest convenience? The more, the better the show! What will you bid? Sold . . .

Good to visit with Rev. and Mrs. Gilbert of Newark, N. J., here for a short while at their daughter's, Mrs. L. Gerald Winn of Wilshire Rd., Delmar.

Good and bad news all in one week for the Theron Johnson family of Mosher Rd., Delmar. Good for Betsy, a sophomore at the University of Minnesota, has made the Dean's List for the semester. Oh so sad tho' for Doug, a junior at BCSH, broke two toes the other night during the Junior Varsity Basketball game with Albany High. Aren't those bleachers solid?

Ship-to-Shore scene at the Petit Paris included many of our Spotlight readers for the Commodore's Dinner Dance last weekend. The new commodore and his good wife — Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Kisselburg, also Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Sharpe of New Scotland. The Roy Myers, Van Wies Point, Carl Foster of Cedar Hill, William Bennett and Robert Taylor of Slingerlands, William Strong and Arthur McDowell of Delmar. A most amusing note during the evening and amid fanfare from the orchestra was Art McDowell's specially wrapped Valentine (containing a lemon ice cream soda). This is the 20th consecutive year his spouse, Ruthie, has been delivering these wherever he has been. College days included!

Tri - Village Newcomers Bridge from recent party: The Winners Corner! Mesdames Eric Molke, Charles Redmond, Richard Phelan, Robert Stone, Norman Teahan and Charles Miller. (Judging from the list the turnout was good.)

A great production was presented by Group III of the Mr. and Mrs. Club of the First Methodist Church, called "The Second Look." Dinner was first on the agenda and then followed a brief business meeting.

Members of the cast were Genevieve and Dick Baker, Bill Larkin, John Leonard and Alice Brown.

Many happy returns to a few of our young friends who have celebrated with parties — Fran Zeronda of Lyons Ave., who entertained last Saturday. Debbie Dempsey of Fernbank Ave., who had a theatre party in the city and luncheon at her home, and an early birthday to T. Tomlinson who thinks a real circus is the thing for entertainment for his Kindergarten set. Oh what fun . . .

BLANCHARD POST PLANS ANNUAL MASQUERADE PARTY ON FEB. 27

The Mardi Gras, the annual masquerade party of the Blanchard Post #1040, American Legion, Delmar, will be held on Saturday, Feb. 27. This is the area's biggest costume party of the year. Roger DiNucci and orchestra will provide music from 10:00 P.M. to 2 A.M. Given Hynds, activities chairman, has appointed as chairman, Dr. Stanley Klett, assisted by Dick Williams, Frank Walsh, Richard Kieper, and George Butman. There is no admission charge for members and their guests, but a mild fine will be assessed against the few who appear sans special costume.

Otto De Heus and Bert Kohinke are the costume judges, and they guarantee impartiality. Prizes will be awarded to persons with the Most Original, the Best, the Worst, the Best Couple, and the Craziest garbs.

WHEELLOCK AND UNION GLEE CLUBS TO SING HERE, MARCH 12

Wheelock College Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Leo Collins, will join Union College Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Robert Campbell, in two concerts. The first will be held on Friday, March 11, at Union College, Schenectady, and the second will be held on Saturday, March 12, at 8 P.M. at Bethlehem Central Junior High School. The public is invited to attend.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

The Spotlight extends best wishes — its own and those of many readers — to Miss Alice M. Saulsbury, who reached her 70th birthday on Feb. 16.

Miss Saulsbury was kind enough to write a letter to the woman who signed herself "A Homesick Resident" in our letter column. We were glad to forward Miss Saulsbury's letter to her.

HAPPY HANDS & HEART

The girls of the Happy Hands and Hearts 4-H Club of Elsmere have completed their sewing project for this year under the instruction of Mrs. Harry Eyres, club leader.

Every girl has made herself a simple skirt which is worn with a white blouse and beanie hat as the uniform on meeting days.

The cooking project has begun, with instruction by Mrs. John Blendell.

Plans for taking part in National 4-H Week, March 5-12, will be made at the next meeting.

This week's SPOTLIGHT ORCHID goes to the Slingerlands Community Players for their unusual and very effective program last weekend; about the 15th or 16th in their series of bringing good, live theatre to the Tri-Village area . . . And now to Show Biz . . . If you missed "The Big Fisherman," or if you would like to see it again, get down to the Palace theatre this week. This picture is excellent entertainment for all ages . . . Twentieth Century-Fox has twelve films in various stages of production all costing over $2,000,000 each, with "The Greatest Story Ever Told" estimated to cost $15,000,000. Who said that the movie business is bad? . . . Samuel Engel, who produced "Sitting Pretty" and "A Man Called Peter," is now making "The Story of Ruth" . . . In "Crack in the Mirror" Bradford Dillman will be seen for the first time since his highly acclaimed performance in "Compulsion" . . . Rod Steiger gets the title role in "Leonardo," the biography of Leonardo daVinci, which will be made in Italy . . . The comic strip "Dondi" is now in preparation for a movies series by Albert Zugsmith . . . Barry

Sullivan has the title role in "The Two Faces of Buggy Siegel" . . . Mae Marsh, who won stardom almost a half century ago in "Birth of a Nation," returns to the cameras for an important role with Jeffrey Hunter and Constance Towers in "The Trial of Sergeant Rutledge" . . . If you're going to be in New York this week end stop in at the Copacabana. For the first time in nite club history you will see an 8-minute movie. This is part of the act starring Ken Murray and Marie Wilson . . . Best L.P. Album of the week is on the Kapp label. It's "Always" with Roger Williams. Once again, Mr. Williams turns up with a wonderful musical package, including popular and long-haired favorites such as: "Stardust," "Moonlight Sonata" and 10 more . . . Dear C.K.: Debbie Reynolds is a very busy lady these days. While making picture after picture and taking care of two children, she has plenty to do. Debbie's latest picture will be "The Rat Race," which also stars Tony Curtis. Thank you for your card . . . Write any questions you want answered to Jonny Borne, in care of The Spotlight.
