

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL AT ST. STEPHEN'S

The Men's Club of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Elsmere will hold their annual Strawberry Festival Saturday, June 18. Strawberries with ice cream or home-made shortcake will be featured. The public is invited. "Bring the whole family for supper," says the news release on our desk. Hamburgers, hot dogs, cake, coffee, and soda will be available. The Festival will start at 5:00 P.M. and continue until all are served. In the event of rain, food will be served indoors.

THIS SPECIAL NOTE IS FOR MRS. OTIS

At 8 P.M. on Thursday, June 16, the choir and music literature study group of the Slingerlands Elementary School will present a June Concert in the school auditorium.

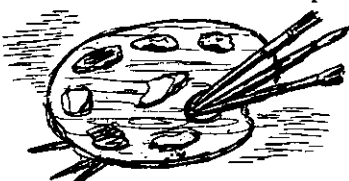

Directed by Mrs. Gladys Otis, music teacher at the school, the program will include choral arrangements and solos by choir members and original works by individuals from the music literature study group.

More than 45 children will participate in this year's concert which promises to maintain the remarkably high level of direction and performance attained in previous years.

LOCAL ARTISTS CHOSEN

Several local artists are represented in the 25th Annual Regional Exhibition by Artists of the Upper Hudson which will be on view at the Albany Institute of History and Art through June. Over 300 artists submitted paintings, drawings and sculpture; the work of 91 was chosen.

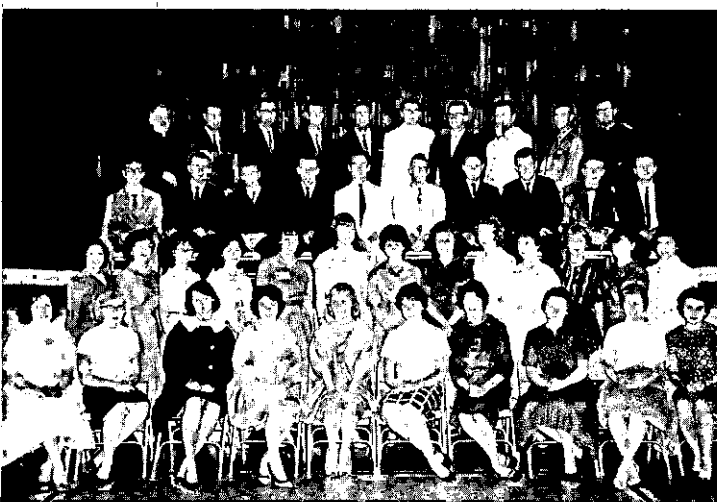

Among these are Edwin W. Becker, J. Coolidge Hand, Herman Rasker and Marion Sharpe.

SPRING ACTIVITIES FOR HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES FROM ST. THOMAS PARISH

On Sunday, May 22, the high school graduates of St. Thomas Parish, Delmar, attending high schools in the Albany area, gathered for a One-Day Retreat in St. Thomas School, sponsored by the Senior CYO under the direction of the Reverend William B. Fitzgerald. They are pictured above.

The spiritual exercises were conducted by the Reverend Edward F. English, Director of Television and Radio of the Albany Diocese. The discussions were geared to the interests of young people leaving secondary schools and preparing for the next step in their educational careers. A buffet supper was served in the evening.

By Presidential Proclamation, the week of June 13-19 is designated as National Little League Baseball Week. The week includes Flag Day, which has significance for a program of youngsters in Little League. In the past 21 years, Little League Baseball, nationally, has helped more than 3,000,000 boys to become better citizens.

Locally, the Tri-Village Little League was established in 1954. It has progressed from 8 teams with 175 boys to 24 teams with 420 boys. Magee Park has been improved from a field without a grandstand or water, to 2 fields with a grandstand and bleachers, water, and a building for storage and a concession stand. While one set of catcher's gear was the sole equipment at first, now all teams are completely equipped.

The Tri-Village Little League, Inc. is part of the International Little League Organization; it is District No. 13, New York; president, Larry McArthur. The Board of Directors, consisting of about 25 men, is in operation the year round, and sets all policies for the League. The League is self-sufficient, thanks to the generous support of the community and the many team sponsors, billboard advertising, and friends. The League owns its property and is a taxpayer.

Much credit is due the many faithful managers, coaches, parents and friends who contribute so many hours — on a volunteer basis — to the Little League. The Ladies' Auxiliary has given active support to the League since its inception and is especially helpful in fund raising and the operation of the refreshment stand.

"Play Ball" with your Little League by attending ball games whenever possible; the boys ap-

Sandra Parker, daughter of George and Mabel Parker of Rowland Ave., Delmar has been home from Smith College, having just completed her Sophomore year, and is madly packing for a year's study abroad. Recently she shared with a senior the Anita Lauria Ashe Memorial Prize for excellence in the German language and literature (Sandy's second laurels, having been honored last year by the German Embassy). On June 28, she will fly to London and spend the month of July traveling in the British Isles, going on to the Netherlands, Belgium, Denmark, Norway and Sweden through August, and in September seeing France and Germany arriving in Munich at the end of September to start her "Junior Year Abroad" at the University of Munich! Thus in all spending about 16 months away, traveling and studying. What a grand experience! During the past two weeks Sandra took up Judo, and even got to the Parker's cottage on the Cape for that one last moment of relaxation before leaving the States . . . We know that the Parkers are proud of their daughter and so are we! A graduate of BCHS, this gal has always known what she wanted to do . . . Happy landings and more power to you, my dear.

on the news of Mike Wolcott, a former resident of Delmar. Many of our Spotlight readers will remember the Rome Wolcott family of Fernbank Ave., and Mike's terrific bout with polio while attending BCHS. Well he has just graduated from Fairfield University, Fairfield, Connecticut, where the Wolcotts now live. He graduated Cum Laude with a B.S. degree, also received Honorable Mention in Social Sciences. The crowning thing is that in the fall Mike will enter Yale Law School. It's thrilling to us what great inner strength this young man has developed . . . Much continued success to all the Wolcotts . . .

Entertaining this weekend, June 18, prior to the Colonie Theatre-in-the-Round performance of "Girl Crazy" will be Paul Mashburns of Loudonville; followed by dinner at Schuyler Meadows. While the Tri-Villagers who are members of the Albany area Panhellenic Association, will go to Normanside Country Club, where the Robert Haungs of Wayne Place, Delmar, will be the host members. Jessie Haungs, incidentally is Philanthropic Chairman for the group and this benefit is for the Children's Ward of Albany Hospital for additional films for their library which the Panhellenic group started some years ago. We wish them a large success . . . By the way, their newly elected officers are Mrs. Gerald Love, president; Mrs. Horace Evans, vice-president; Mrs. Fred Hout, recording secretary; Mrs. Frances E. Almstead of Elsmere, treasurer; and Mrs. Glenn Prescott of Glenmont, corresponding secretary.

AMERICA'S DEPENDABLE FOOD MERCHANT SINCE 1859

(BY THE WAY)

Our Bethlehem Senior Citizens held their annual election this past week and Mrs. Clara Forkel is president; Mrs. Daisy Feldman, vice-president; treasurer is Tom Ryan; recording secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth Heidt; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Eleanora Saulsbury; historian, Katherine Van Allen; and monitors, Harry Bender and Olive Wright. They had their annual luncheon June 14 at the Inn in Williamstown, Mass., thus winding up a very active and worthwhile session for the group.

Well, we have wished our Elmsere friends Mary and Dr. Ted Beecher of Oakwood Place a very cheery bon voyage for their flight, June 11, via Spanish air lines, to Madrid for a month's trip abroad. Ted has two medical meetings, one in Madrid and the other in London. What could be nicer than having one's wife along too! Sunday's farewell party at Rev. Don and Hettie Condon's in Albany was very much enjoyed by many of their Tri-Village

C. G. Brust, auctioneer, will sell at public auction, for the undersigned, who has bought the Stanley Mowak Farm — at the property located 1/2 mile off Settles Hill Rd. (Go out Route 20, past Victoria Acres Race Track — 1 mile west to Settles Hill Rd.)

Sat. June 18 — 10 A.M. Complete contents of home, farm machinery, small tools. All household goods, 1954 Super 6 IH tractor, with front-end hyd. loader, snow plow blade, 2 row cultivator, (2) 14" plows, 7 mower (2) rubber-tired wagons, Ford dump truck, 3 section spring tooth harrows, manure spreader, side del. rake, thresher, reaper, binder, corn harvester, double set discs, blacksmith forge, 12 tons timothy hay, 100 bales straw, 1 ton fertilizer, rotary lawn mover (new). Many other carpenter and small tools. By order of Howard Vagale.

friends, Ann and Don Vrossman, Ruth and Ken Goldner, Ruth and Dick Vanderwood, Lizette and Bob Benedict, Ruth and Dick Van Woert of Johnsville, formerly of Delmar, also Victor and Dr. Ethel Cermack from Albany, also Dr. Jim Cullen, plus Mary's parents from Chapel Hill, North Carolina, who will be on deck at the Beecher home with their four granddaughters.

May we mention the terrific job Bob Kurzon did directing the play "Inherit the Wind" which was presented by the new BCHS drama group, Sock & Saffron. The play, entirely student-produced, cast and directed, was under the guidance of Mrs. Helen Adler, faculty advisor. Who by the way entertained the entire cast and crowd after the Saturday nite presentation. Dr. Tompkins had a partial production repeated for the entire student body Monday afternoon at the high school . . . So orchids to Sock & Saffron et al . . . Well done!

Home now from a Spring vacation trip at The Cloister, Sea Island, Ga. are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ehrenfreund of Paxwood Dr., Delmar. Also Isabelle and Ken Williams of Winne Rd., Delmar had a rather whirlwind trip meeting in Cleveland, after Isabelle had a wonderful weekend at Vassar with her niece and sister-in-law. Then from Cleveland they flew on up to visit Sue at Michigan State where she has just completed her freshman year.

Paul McGinnis, Commissioner of Corrections for New York State, won the senior championship at Normanside this past weekend. Posting net scores of

NORMAN ROCKWELL ORIGINALS ON SHOW AT CITY AND COUNTY

A collection of original Norman Rockwell Saturday Evening Post cover paintings are on display at the City and County Savings Bank until June 24.

The paintings have been placed on tour of the United States and Canada by The Curtis Publishing Company in response to requests from art schools and art groups which sought the collection after noting the enthusiastic response it received recently from the public when it appeared for three months as a feature attraction at The Corcoran Gallery of Art in Washington, D. C.

The Rockwell exhibition shows the amazing amount of painstaking effort the artist puts forth to insure that the finished painting will meet his own and the Post's exacting standards. In some cases, the original theme of a cover idea remains unchanged between the first pencil sketch and the finished oil; in others, improvements are shown which illustrate the artist's changing thoughts as he seeks more impact for his original theme. Among the famous cover paintings on exhibit is "The Art Student," an impressive manifestation of Mr. Rockwell's genius as a fine artist and a teller of charming pictorial stories.

The exhibit will be on view at the main office of City and County Savings Bank, 100 State Street, Albany, New York from 9:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M., weekdays, as well as Thursday evenings until 8:00 P.M.

This week's SPOTLIGHT ORCHID goes to the Community-minded merchants who sponsor Little League and Babe

Ruth League teams in the Tri-Village area, helping bring plenty of fun to young and old alike. Good luck, to both leagues for a great season . . . And now to Show Biz . . . In the Tri-Village area, there is a great group of round and square dancers, known as the "Circle Squares." Last week, I had the pleasure of seeing them perform, and their timing and legwork were excellent. After their dancing, I went over and met the head of the group, and he told me that they would be more than glad to dance at any available time for any church function, or charitable benefit. Anyone interested in this group, may drop me a card, and I will gladly make the arrangements . . . The other night, I saw a special showing of Walt Disney's "Pollyanna" down at the Palace theatre. This is without a doubt, one of the finest family films to be shown in a long time. Thirteen year old Hayley Mills (daughter of famed English actor John Mills) will steal your heart away as Pollyanna, supported by an excellent hand-picked cast that includes: Jane Wyman, Karl Malden, Richard Egan, Adolphe Menjou, Donald Crisp, Agnes Moorehead and Nancy Olson. This picture will open July 6th at the Palace . . . Walter Winchell has been signed by the Dot Record company to make an album in New York this month titled "The Voice of the Untouchables." Mr. Winchell will then return to the coast, to appear in the new movie "Don-

NEW SCENIC DESIGNER ARRIVES AT SHELLEY PLAYERS

Renate Doost, the Shelley Players' newly-appointed scenic designer, has just arrived in these parts, complete with plans, pictures and paintings for the 10 sets (in 8 plays) that will appear on the Shelley stage this summer.

Miss Doost had to do quite a bit of traveling to reach New Scotland. Born in Berlin, she lived in Bavaria for 10 years and then came to the U. S.

(North Carolina) in 1955. Later, she moved to New York City where she studied theatre; specifically, scenic design; at Columbia University, working on many plays at the Brander Mathews Theatre, one of the foremost university theatres in the country.

Miss Doost has also been connected with some of New York's most important off-Broadway productions, including the New York Shakespeare Festival and the Fourth Street Theatre.
