Bethlehem Memorial Post #3185, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will celebrate its 15th Anniversary with a dinner and program at Center Inn followed by Open House at the Post Rooms September 30.

On this 15th anniversary a new set of Parade Colors will be presented to the Post Commander.

An Anniversary Program will be printed in which local merchants will be solicited for advertisements to provide the money to buy the flags.

With the exception of the Children's Hallowe'en Programs, this is the first time this post has asked for any financial help since its founding 15 years ago.

LIBRARY SCHEDULES LEFT BANK BIZARRE BAZAAR

Announcement of the Third Annual Bizarre Bazaar on the Left Bank of the Delmar Public Library came today. Held on October 6, 7 and 8 on the Hawthorne Avenue Library approach, the paintings, drawings, etchings of residents of the Bethlehem Central School District will be placed on snow-fence stands on view from 10 to 6 P.M. October 6 and 7 and from noon to 4 P.M. on October 8.

Inspired by Montmartre and Greenwich Village shows the outdoor exhibition presents an opportunity for amateur and professional, young and old to show their art. This year for the first time, division into comparative groupings will be tried.

Entries may be left at the Delmar Public Library on October 4 and 5 until 9 o'clock each evening. Each must be accompanied by a label with the artist's name, medium, and title.

The display is jointly sponsored by the Delmar Library and the Village Four Art Group, with Mrs. Clover Mikol supervising.

ANNUAL AUCTION & BAZAAR OCT. 7 AT VOORHEESVILLE

Did you ever wish that you might take a journey to the past, to a hundred years ago? A glimpse of life during those days is being planned as the theme of the annual auction and bazaar by the First Methodist Church of Voorheesville, on Saturday, October 7.

Carleton Harvey Sr., church historian, is planning an extensive display of Civil War memorabilia in the Room of History which will include firearms, books, replicas of important documents, stamps and pictures and other items to interest history enthusiasts. Colorful costumes and such intriguing names as The Open Trunk, Plantation Kitchen and Vley Hall will greet visitors. A roast beef dinner will be served in the evening.

The planning committee includes Barna Male, general chairman, Mrs. Kenneth Bailey, booths, Robert Shedd, construction and Mrs. Sidney Vunck, publicity. Albert Parshall is in charge of pick-up. Dinner chairman is Mrs. Henry Crouse assisted by Mrs. Emil Ilchuk and William Severinghaus, tickets. Booth chairmen are Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lewthwaite, Mesdames Myndert Crouse, Robert Andrews, Rudolph Crouse, George Bidwell, Paul Cantlin, Harry Shufelt Jr., Robert Proctor, Harold Schultz, John Flansburg, Frederick Blackman, Michael Frohlich, George Vunck, Carleton Harvey Sr., and Miss Mary Munyan and Mrs. Elizabeth Robbins.

The committee is seeking donations of furniture, dishes, antiques and household articles for the auction. Donors may call Mr. Male or Mr. Parshall to arrange for pick-up.

NEW BRANCH GOES OVER $1,000,000.00 IN DEPOSITS

In spite of wet and blustery opening weather and torn up road conditions, our neighborly new savings bank office on Delaware Avenue has run up an amazing record.

Talking with William G. Livingston, president of City & County Savings Bank last week, we learned that the bank's branch office in Elsmere now has over $1 million in deposits. That's a lot of money to put together in less than four months.

The branch office was opened April 29 and went over the million dollar mark on August 22. Which just goes to prove that area residents are loyal to area enterprise and recognize a real convenience when they see it.

And in all modesty, it proves, too, that this little old Delmar Spotlight is a good advertising medium. For City and County has been a consistent advertiser with our paper almost from its inception.

NEW BABY AT YOUR HOUSE?

Congratulations! A present is in order.

You know what makes a good present for a baby? Some additional life insurance on the little one's FATHER.

A growing family brings increased responsibilities, new economic burdens.

Only with life insurance can the average man hope to acquire the peace of mind that comes with financial security. Few can achieve this security with savings alone in these times of high taxes and living costs.

Get that life insurance while you're young enough to enjoy a low premium.

BY SYDNEY J. HARRIS

This is an open letter to a boy, about 18, who forced me off the road while cutting in sharply and passing me on a hill yesterday afternoon:

Dear Son:

You may think you are a good driver, and perhaps you are. But I'd like you to keep in mind that most of your "skillful" driving is due to other motorists.

Anybody can whip along the road as fast and as carelessly as you were going. There's no trick to that - the new cars are loaded with power and pick-up - too much so, I'm afraid.

Just remember that it was my alertness that prevented an ac-

School will re-open on September 13th with a full-day's schedule beginning at 9:00 a. m.

The Kindergarten accommodates both boys and girls; Grades 1 through 6, are as always, made up of day girls while Grades 7 through 12 include both day and resident students. A full academic and college preparatory course is offered.

Russell Sage Evening Session

In September 1961 the co-educational evening division of Russell Sage College enters its twelfth year of self-supporting public service in Albany and its twentieth in Troy. The evening registration increased 353% in the Albany division in the first ten years.

The first graduates who completed their work in the evening division received their degrees in June 1952.

The evening division is planned to provide mature and earnest men and women in the Capital District and vicinity with the opportunity to complete on a part-time basis of late afternoon, evening, and Saturday morning classes, a liberal training in the arts and sciences; and secondarily, an introductory training in various fields of scholarly, professional or vocational competence.

The programs are intended to meet the needs and interests of three general groups of adults in the community:-

1. Those who wish to complete a program leading to a degree.
2. Those who wish to secure specialized training in order to prepare themselves for new vocational or professional fields, but with no desire to secure a degree, although they wish to earn college credit.
3. Those who wish to take advantage of the educational programs of the College on a

Telco Installs Emergency Gas Turbine Power Supply

The New York Telephone Company took another dramatic step today to assure customers here of completely reliable and uninterrupted telephone service -- even during storms.

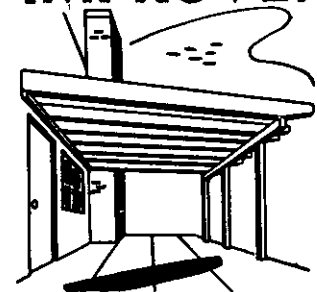

Company manager J.F. O'Shaughnessy announced that preparations were already underway for the installation of a 1,100 horsepower gas turbine engine to be used as a standby by emergency power supply system.

The unit, scheduled to be installed and ready for operation early next year, will be located on the tenth floor of the telephone building at 156 State Street.

The manager explained that the unit will have a completely automatic control system to enable the turbine to start on a signal should regular power fail. In the event of commercial power failures, such as those caused by storms, the turbine will begin operating immediately to provide enough power to keep the telephone exchange working without interruption.

The unit will use diesel fuel stored in a 275-gallon tank placed next to the turbine. Two 10,000-gallon tanks stored underground will keep the smaller tank in constant supply.

Mr. O'Shaughnessy pointed out that the turbine was chosen because it offers several advantages over other emergency equipment.

"As the cities grow and become more crowded," the manager said, "older telephone exchanges, needing greater standby power output, find themselves without space for additional emergency equipment. The turbine's relatively small and compact size -- 1,250 pounds and 51 cubic feet -- makes it ideally suited for use in areas where space is at a premium."

He also noted that the unit can be run and checked without full load, is inexpensive to maintain, requires no warm-up periods, and, because it is vibration free, eliminates the danger of damaging delicate telephone equipment.

THE SPOTLIGHT

ply and surely, by diapering your baby with correctly processed diapers and following a fastidious diapering routine as long as baby wears diapers.

The National Baby Care Council in cooperation with the diaper service industry and medical authorities has set up the following accepted procedure for the correct processing of diapers in your own home:

1. Rinse wet or soiled diapers immediately upon removal. Store until washing in a closed container filled with soapy water or disinfectant.

2. Three rinses in clear hot water before washing. Follow with four separate sudsings. In all home washers, the load must be lighter than for the usual family laundry --- not more than 16 diapers.

3. Six rinses in clear hot water to remove all soap and detergent. This is accomplished in an automatic washer by resetting the dial.

4. After washing and rinsing, sterilize diapers, boiling them 30 minutes.

5. Rinse sterilized diapers in vinegar-water; one cup of vinegar to a gallon of water to be sure diapers are not alkaline.

6. Wring as dry as possible then treat diapers, according to directions, with the special diaper antiseptic suggested by your physician.

What will all this cost? In addition to the time and the effort, it has been estimated it costs about $2.14 a week to do diapers at home. This covers the cost of soap, softener, bleach, water, antiseptic, gas or electricity, the cost of the diapers and wear and tear on equipment used.

As a home economist, let me say, professional diaper service will cost you about 42-cents a week more than the cost of doing diapers at home. When you consider the time and the effort you save, the extra few pennies are well worth the convenience.

A diaper service, each week, will supply you with 80 to 100 clinically clean, soft, white diapers free from irritating residues of soap and detergents. Professional diaper processing is done under strict laboratory control, using specialized washing and rinsing equipment. Diaper service is well worth considering.
