Kohinke Announces Election of Two Commissioners

Town of Bethlehem Supervisor Bertram E. Kohinke has announced that the election of a Water Commissioner for Water District No. 1 in the Town and a Sewer Commissioner for the Delmar-Elsmere Sewer District will take place on Tuesday, December 5th, at the Delmar Grade School, corner of Delaware and Borthwick Avenues in Delmar. The voting hours have been set for 7 to 10 P.M. on that night, Mr. Kohinke said.

In the interest of good government, Mr. Kohinke urged all eligible voters to visit the polls during the designated hours

Residents living in either or both of the Water and Sewer Districts for thirty days preceding the December 5th election date are eligible to east their ballots in the election, Mr. Kohinke pointed out. These residents must also be property owners within the districts, as Ilsted in the most recent assessment rolls. All those persons whose names appear on the assessment rolls for a given residence, may cast individual votes at the polling place.

Ralph S. Butler, 10 Booth Road, Elsmerc, and a long-time resident of the Town of Bethlehem, will be a candidate for re-election to another three-year term on the Sewer Commission, it was learned today.

Butler, a retired insurance broker, was formerly a Justice of the Peace in Bethlehem and has been a member of the Sewer Commission for the past five years. Butler has also been a commander of the Nathaniel Adams Blanchard Post of the American Legion and is a member of the Bethlehem Masonic Lodge No. 1096. He and Mrs. Butler have five children.

ADVENT SERVICES AT BETH, LUTHERAN CHURCH

Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Delmar has again scheduled three special Advent Services which will be held at 8:00 P. M. on Wednesdays: December 6th, 13th, and 20th. The first service will be centered around the Biblical traditions of Advent and Christmas. After the service the families will be invited downstairs to the social room to join in a party to make wreaths and Christmas decorations for the church. Each family will be encouraged to make an Advent wreath for their own family use at home. After the final service on December 20th, there will be another family evening for trimming the trees, hanging wreaths and garlands.

Families of the Tri-Village area are most cordially invited to attend these Advent Services. In the hectic, pre-Christmas rush of buying and wrapping packages, addressing the endless Christmas cards, the special baking and housecleaning, we can so easily echo, "Bah! Humbug!", and wonder grudgingly what it's all about. God, with His great and compassionate love for us sent the greatest gift of all, His Son. And we in turn show our gratefulness and share that love by presenting gifts to our families and friends. But it is so easy to lose sight of the real meaning of Christmas in all the rush that proceeds it. Advent should also be a season of spiritual preparation for Christmas, preparation for that wonderful, fleeting moment that may come as we look at the stars on a cold, crisp, Christmas Eve, attend a Candlelight Service, or watch the joy on our children's faces on Christmas Day: that Christmas Minute, when suddenly our hearts will say, "Happy Birthday, Baby Jesus. "

1575 New Scotland Road, Slingerlands will be a candidate for a three-year term as Water Commissioner.

Zimmerman, a career employee in the New York State Department of Commerce, has served on the Bethlehem Central School District Board from 1958 to 1960.

A graduate of the University of Chicago, Zimmerman saw military service in World War II with the Counter Intelligence Corps. His work in the State Commerce Department began as an economist, and he has held the directorship of the Bureau of Business Research, advancing in 1959 to Assistant Deputy Commissioner.

A member of the Slingerlands Methodist Church, Zimmerman is also a member of the Albany Economics Association. A former member of the Slingerlands Fire Department, Zimmerman is now a director on the Board of the Albany Council of Community Services.

Mr. Zimmerman and his wife, Aileen, have two children, Susan, 18, and Robert, 14.

The New York Telephone Company has started extensive, around-the-clock testing of Capitol District telephone facilities in preparation for the introduction of Metroplan dialing on December 3.

This new telephone service will eliminate toll charges and put calling on a local basis between Albany, Schenectady, Troy and neighboring communities. "Telephone users will be able to make as many calls as they like, whenever they like and without overtime charges throughout their enlarged calling area," according to Area General Manager Russell W. Scofield.

The Metroplan is one of the major projects in the New York Telephone Company's current $7 million expansion, improvement and replacement program for this area --- a program that got underway two years ago.

Next to view for the metropolitan area is Direct Distance Dialing, which will enable Capital District telephone users to dial calls direct to communities throughout the nation.
This added service will begin by the middle of 1962. Also planned for late next year is a further expansion of local calling areas for some outlying Metroplan exchanges.

Explaining the company's preparations for Metroplan service, Mr. Scofield said a large amount of new equipment has been installed and all calling routes have been enlarged to make toll-free dialing possible.

"Testing of the entire communications network that crisscrosses the metropolitan area is well under," he pointed out. "We want to do everything we can to make sure that the new calling service will be ready to go on December 3 without a hitch.

"Judging by past experience, calling in this area will grow several-fold once Metroplan service begins," Mr. Scofield declared. "In order to handle this increase, we've enlarged the capacity of every calling route in the Capital District. Some routes, in fact, have been designed for five or six times the number of calls that calling route, some 3,000 more are being made today." calling paths have been in-

Some calls may travel part of the way by cable and part of the way through the air, he continued, because the company has constructed a microwave relay system between Albany and Schenectady. As many as 600 simultaneous conversations can be beamed by high-frequency radio about 20 miles through the air between the two cities.

"The microwave link was by far the most satisfactory way to provide a large number of additional communications paths between the cities," Mr. Scofield said. "There's no difference in sound or quality to the caller. He won't be able to tell whether his conversation is being carried by cable or is being sent through the air by microwave."

In addition to the microwave calling route, some 3,000 more calling paths have been installed and the capacity of numerous existing cables has been enlarged to handle toll-free calls.

The telephone official reported that additional switching equipment and cables also have been installed in every central office in the metropolitan area. Sizable additions were made to telephone buildings in Colonie, Latham and Troy. In Schenectady, a new power transformer and related switching gear were installed.

Special large switching units known as tandems will go into operation in Albany, Schenectady and Troy. "A tandem is actually a centralized switching point for calls from a number of communities," Mr. Scofield explained. "Rather than

Details and Instructions for Metroplan Dialing Being Mailed to All Customers

The New York Telephone Company is sending complete details of Metroplan service to telephone users throughout the Capital District.

Some 195,000 letters and dialing information cards are being mailed, according to General Manager Russell W. Scofield.

The dialing information card being sent to each customer shows the new local calling area for his telephone and tells how to dial within the Metroplan area, Mr. Scofield said. He suggested that telephone users keep the cards near their phones so they may refer to them quickly when dialing calls after Metroplan service begins.

He also asked any telephone customer who does not receive the company's letter and card by next Friday, December 1, to notify the telephone business office.

More than a snack . . . or a Texas Jack

We haven't seen much in the food line lately but tremendous turkeys, so lets take our leave of them for awhile and try a stick-to-the-ribs affair. No airy stuff for this time of year and the charm of this recipe is that it is made ahead of time. The ingredients can be mixed early, and served late.

This is a wintery day and we've been keeping snug with lots of steaming hot coffee, a most favorite brew around here. And we are thinking about what to serve for a late supper party. We want something more than a "snack" and a delicious concoction called Texas Jack is the answer.

Texas Jack

- 4 slices of bacon, diced
- 1 medium onion, sliced
- 1 green pepper, diced
- 2 cans (1 lb. each) red kidney beans
- 1 can (8 oz.) tomato sauce
- 2 tbs. chili powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- dash of pepper
- 1/2 pound sharp cheeder cheese, grated
- 4 to 6 frankfurters

Fry bacon crisp and drain on absorbent paper. Cook onion and green pepper in 2 tablespoons of bacon fat until soft but not brown. Add kidney beans, tomato sauce, seasoning, crisp bacon and cheese. Stir over low heat until cheese melts. Slice frankfurters and stir in. Makes 8 servings.

A huge pot of steaming hot coffee is the ideal accompaniment for this hearty meal.

A Busy Housewife's THOUGHTS ON A RAINY NOVEMBER MORNING!

GREAT BIG RIVULETS run down the windows . . . as it pours and pours . . . just the kind of a morning for thinking random, not-tooimportant thoughts . . . a perfect day to start planning to get our. homes freshened and beautified for the holiday season. Weeksend painters are working furiously inside and out. New waxes are being tried out on antique Bible Tables and those ultra-modem blond coffee tables.

It's only a month until Thanksgiving . . . and relatives and friends that we may see only at this time of year, will be visiting us on that wonderful weekend.

. . . Does the kitchen need new curtains? . . . Wouldn't it be nice to put a gay, flowered-spray paper on the guest room? ... Remember to ask Dad to help shift the furniture in Jr's room. . . . Couldn't we swap that living room lamp for a good big turkey platter? ... Is Sally still allergic to onions? If so, let's not use them in the stuffing! . . . Have I completed my Community Chest calls? Should we buy that Lionel train set advertised this week . . . or should we wait and see what else comes along? ... MAKE A NOTE to launder those upstairs curtains! . . . Take Susie and Jimmie to the dentist on Wednesday.

AND THAT, MEN, is what could be running through any woman's mind as she drives along on a November Rainy Morning! So, please make allowances for us . . . and don't get angry if we get in your way. This is an exciting time of year . . and we DO have our problems!

The "Innocent Drinker".

Cross one driver with one whiskey bottle... and you've got a murderous breed. To make it all the more tricky, the social drinker with just a few under his belt is more dangerous than the drunk who weaves all over the road. A "staggering" car is at least a warning. It's the man with a fairly low alcohol concentration in his blood the man who appears "steady," but whose judgement is unsteady who is more likely to sneak across the center line and mow you down.

Time was when the statisticians said that one-fourth of all traffic fatalities were caused by drinking drivers. Recent studios boost this up to one-half, or more. InDelaware, 61% of 1957 fatal traffic accidents incolved either a drinking driver or pedestrian. During last Christmas and New Year's in California, the State Highway Patrol found a drinking driver in 7 out of 8 traffic deaths in unincorporated areas. In New York City, 38 drivers out of 66 involved in fatal accidents had significant levels of alcohol in their blood.

Time was, too, when 0.15 per cent alcohol in the blood was considered to be, roughly the dividing line between a competent and an incompetent driver. Now, a committee of professional medical men has resolved that .05 per cent should be the critical blood alcohol level. University of Washington researchers have claimed that even a level of .02 alcohol causes a measurable reduction in driving skills.

Other studies point to the same grim fact: The life of the party is death on the road. From the latest evidence available, the National Safety Council estimates that last year, some 21,000 people were killed and 800,000 injured by drinking drivers.

Two cocktails (about 0.04% alcohol) have about the same effect on your vision as wearing dark sun glasses at night. And how long does it take to eliminate that much alcohol from your blood? At least three hours. Coffee or other stimulants won't help; time, alone can do the trick.

Yes, it's a DANGEROUS crossing; far more dangerous than is commonly realized. Yet, for some peculiar reason, we still find the drunken driver treated mildly - even humorously - in news stories and on film. Might as well be consistent about it; let's laugh off arson, kidnapping, assault and murder, too.

Sooner or later, we are going to have to face up to the fact that any drinking affects driving: that it's as dastardly a crime to threaten the innocent with tipsy driving as it is to threaten them with guns and knives and blackjacks. The drinkers must be unhorsed from their horsepower... or doesn't our society care to bother about the 21,000 who are slain, and the 800,000 who are maimed, each year, by the murderous breed?

-- All statistics from the National Safety Council.

Beginning Sunday at 2:01 a.m., you'll be able to dial over a much wider area without paying toll charges. In fact, you'll be able to reach up to 300,000 other phones in the Capital District faster and easier than ever before.

This extension of local service, known as Metroplan, will unite Albany, Schenectady, Troy and nearby communities in one big telephone neighborhood. You'll enjoy the greater convenience and value of Metroplan dialing.

HERE'S HOW METROPLAN SERVICE WILL WORK:

If you're calling from the white area shown on the map: you'll be able to dial throughout the entire Metroplan area without paying toll charges.

If you're calling from the shaded area: you'll be able to dial all of the white area plus your adjacent Metroplan exchanges without

If the dog's diet has been well-balanced and has not contained too much fat or starches, cut down on the total amount of food given him by one-third. At the same time, increase his exercise gradually, taking the dog for longer and longer walks each day. Here are house-plants that come in sizes, shapes and colors to please the most imaginative indoor gardeners. Best of all, once you understand their needs, you will find them easily adapted to your winter window garden.

Gloxinias grow from solid tubers, which are sold at florists, nurseries and seed stores. These are the basic requirements for growing gloxinias successfully:

- 1. Rich, easily pulverized soil.
- 2. Good drainage.

Average size gloxinias (1½"-2") will mature and flower in 4"-5" pots. Soak the pot at least 24 hours before planting time. Place an inch of drainage material in the bottom and fill with soil to about an inch and one half from pot's rim. Settle the tuber in the center and sift another one half inch of soil around and over it. It is best to be able to see the top of the tuber when you look in the pot. set this planting in a pan of warm water and, when the topsoil feels thoroughly moistened, place the plant in your window. New leaves generally appear in two weeks, but a few refuse to show life for as much as six weeks. Be sparing of water. After the leaves are about an inch long, it is well to sift enough soil into the pot to cover the exposed part of the tuber.

It is impossible to lay down any laws on when or how often to water the plants as conditions vary in every household. The more heat - the more water; during cloudy weather they will use less water than on a bright day. One way might be to allow the leaves on the plant to assume a slightly limp appearance before administermore water. Then moisten with room temperature water from top to bottom until the soil is completely soaked. Do not water again until the soil feels dry. Be careful not to get water on the leaves - and if you do, take time to blot it off carefully.

COMMITTEES FOR COMMUN CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL BUSY

Again in Bethlehem the Committees for the Community Christmas Festival are busy with the last minute rush of duties.

On Sunday afternoon, December 10 at 2:30 p.m. and on Thursday and Friday evenings, December 14 and 15 at 1 p.m. the 20th Community Christmas Festival will take place in the Bethlehem Central High School Auditorium.

For twenty years the people of Bethlehem, have been expressing their gratitude for their blessings. In 1942 the musical groups of the churches and Bethlehem Central High School. joined together for a Christmas Concert. Because of the farsighted wisdom of Mrs. Sydney L. Smith and Rolland R. Truitt, The Christmas Concert expanded to become a year-round community project. Today the entire Town of Bethlehem and the Bethlehem Central School District work as one on the Festival.

During these 20 years the purposes of the Festival have not changed. The program dramatizes the story of the birth of Christ in the Bethlehem of long ago, with its eternal message of peace on earth, good will to men. From their fullness of heart, the people of present day Bethlehem, express their good will toward others by their voluntary offerings of toys, clothing, food and and money.

The Program and Publicity Committees have worked together to carry out the Anniversary Theme in their design for the program cover and the posters. Miss Mary Krackeler, art teacher in the Slingerlands and Clarksville Schools, is ideally suited to do the final cover design, for she has known the Festival since her student days at Bethlehem Central, To provide a decorative scheme in keeping with the theme, the Decorating Committee plans to enlarge, for display in the foyer, some of the highlights from the Community Festivals of other years. Members of these three committees are:

Mr. & Mrs. Frank J. M. chairmen; Mr. & Mrs. Joh Alford, Mr. & Mrs. Richa Cooper, Mr. & Mrs. F. W Davidson, Mr. & Mrs. Garinger, Mrs. Norm Hulme, Mr. & Mrs. Erich man, Mr. & Mrs. Rober enik, and Mr. & Mrs. Bellizzi.

Publicity:

Mr. & Mrs. W. Mason Lawrence, chairmen; Mr. John D. Crimmings, Dr. & Mrs. George F. Foot, Mrs. Gladys Hosey, Mr. & Mrs. Robert Knickerbocker, Mr. Wayne Luehrs, Mr. & Mrs. Lloyd A. Maeder, Mr. Charles H. Palmer, and Mr. Raymond Scofield.

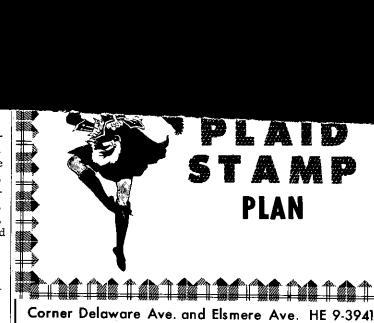

Decorating:

Mr. & Mrs. George McAlpin, chairmen; Mr. Robert M. Angell, Mr. & Mrs. Richard L. Barzin, Mr. & Mrs. Ralph A. Derby, Mr. & Mrs. Paul F. Devio, Mr. Louis A. Spelich, Mr. & Mrs. Richard Ferrari, Mr. & Mrs. Walter M. Kinn, and Mr. Frank E. Martin.

Scenery to enhance the beauty of the program and the staging which is so essential to a smooth production has been planned by the Staging and Scenery Committee. Under the direction of Mr. & Mrs. Harold A. Dodge, Mr. & Mrs. Clifford Van Dyke, Mr. Howard W. Dayton, Mr. Alfred C. Hamilton, Mr. Charles Herr, Mr. Webster MacDonald, Mr. Frank Mengel, Mr. Otto Rauch, Mr. Bernard Skaskiw and Mr. Warren A. Wilber, are spending long hours at the Senior High School carrying out these plans.

Mrs. William Kraft, chairman of the school committee, says the student council, guided by its president Pat Tuzzolo, will begin its drive for gifts to the "White Christmas Fund" on December 1. Offerings will be accepted in each homeroom until Wednesday, December

To assist Mrs. Kraft in her duties are: Hugh Brown, Delbert Collis, Dominick DeCecco, Henry J. Hall, Warren D. Kullman and Gordon Molyneux.

E GIFT SHOP TO

ar members of American Legion Auxiliary Units throughout six counties in the area participate in a Christmas activity at the Albany Veterans Administration Hospital, known as "Gift Shop." This is an unusual gift shop operation as there is no exchange of money. Patients at the hospital may choose, at the expense of the American Legion Auxiliary Units participating, Christmas gifts for their wives, children, parents, and members of their immediate household. Not only are the presents without charge, but they are gift wrapped by members and mailed via parcel post at the expense of the Auxiliary.

Under the direction of Mrs. Herbert E. Hafley of Elsmere, unit rehabilitation chairman, members of the auxiliary to the Nathaniel Adams Blanchard American Legion will assist on November 29 and 30 and December 2 and 4, in preparations for mailing the gifts, setting up the Gift Shop, and gift wrapping.

The public is invited to attend the formal opening of Gift Shop at VA Hospital, Holland Avenue, Albany, on Sunday, December 3, from 2 to 4 p.m.

3 Girls Enter Novitiates

Maureen Walsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Walsh, Slingerlands, and Roseanne McGrath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jame's McGrath, Delmar, have been accepted as postulants in the Novitiate of the Holy Names, New Scotland Road. A religious vocation has been chosen also, by other members of the Walsh and McGrath families. William Walsh has received the name of Brother Gilmartin at the Maryknoll Novitiate, Brookline, Mass., and Patricia McGrath has selected the name Sister Jude Marie at the Convent of Mercy, New Scotland Avenue, Albany.

REV. THEODORE LUIDENS RESIGNS TO ACCEPT CALL FROM LONG ISLAND

The Rev. Theodore W. Luidens, minister of the First Reformed Church of Bethlehem, Selkirk, N.Y. for the past fourteen years, has resigned his pastorate to accept a call to the Reformed Church in Kew Gardens, Long Island. Rev. and Mrs. Luidens will leave for their new charge the last week in November.

Before coming to Selkirk, Pastor Luidens was assistant pastor of the Flatbush Reformed Church in Brooklyn, New York.

Members and friends of the congregation held a farewell party at the church Wednesday evening, November 15th, starting with a covered dish dinner at 6:30, followed by a program in the sanctuary at 8 P.M. Andrew Koonz, Sr., Chairman of the Spiritual Life Committee, was in charge of the program.

Visiting clergymen included the Rev. Roscoe Mott Giles of Coeymans, N.Y. and the Rev. Louis H. Chisman of Ravena, N.Y. The main speaker was the Rev. Norman E. Thomas, pastor of the First Reformed Church of Albany, and President of the Reformed Church in America.

Rev. and Mrs. Luidens were presented with a gift of a tape recorder, a Bible and a purse of money from the congregation.—The best wishes and prayers of the congregation go with Rev. and Mrs. Luidens in their new field of endeavor. They will be greatly missed in our community.

IT'S A WOMAN'S WORLD

Any woman who would like to discover the best job field for her experience and abilities, who wants guidance on up-dating her skills, and would appreciate hints on how to prepare for a return to the business world is invited to attend the free Job Horizons Clinic coming to Albany December 5. It will be co-sponsored by the Woman's Program of the State Department of Commerce and the Albany YWCA and will take place from 7:30 P.M. to 10:30 in School 24, Lincoln Park, Delaware Avenue, Albany. All residents of Albany and neighboring counties are welcome.

The Clinic program was announced today by Deputy Commerce Commissioner Guin Hall, head of the Woman's Program. The first half of the Clinic will present a broad over-all picture of four aspects of employment: the many different kinds of industry and business in the area, the several different kinds of jobs each business encompasses, what an employer looks for when he interviews an applicant, and how an applicant can prepare for the interview and the job. Miss Hall points out that information on the last point will include facilities for retraining and hints on how an applicant can put "her best foot forward."

Workshops, which will start at 9:00 P.M. and continue to closing, will offer detailed information on 7 different work categories. Conducted by experts in these categories, they offer an opportunity to ask questions and secure individual counsel. Workshops will be held in Office Skills, Civil Service, Retailing, Medical Services, Insurance and Real Estate, Social Services, and New York State Employment, Woman's Program business consultants will conduct an eighth workshop for women interested in establishing a self-owned business or service.

Albany groups cooperating with the YWCA in the Job Horizons Clinic are the Albany Board of Education, the Albany County Extension Service, Albany Inter-Racial Council, Altrusa Club, the American Association of University Women, Business and Professional Women, Council of Church Women, Credit Women, the New York State Division of of Employment, Practical Nurses Association, Soroptimist Club, Women's Club and Zonta.

Admission is free, and everyone is welcome.
