ATTACK FATAL TO DR. MAC DOWELL

Dr. Robert L. MacDowell died of a heart attack while making house calls on Tuesday, December 26. His sudden and unexpected death came as a shock to the entire area.

Some 19 or 20 years ago, young Dr. MacDowell came to Delmar to work with Dr. Thomas Holmes who was hoping to retire. He became well known and respected during the short time before he left to join the Armed Forces in World War II.

After the war, Dr. MacDowell took over the practice left vacant by Dr. Holmes' death. His was no easy task because Dr. Holmes had long stood in the forefront of most Tri-Village activities: medicine, politics, service clubs, Legion.

Over the years Dr. MacDowell assumed the tremendous responsibilities that belong to a doctor. He was loved, respected and trusted by a multitude of people to whom he was the symbol of aid and comfort in sickness and an inspiration on the road of convalescence.

In addition to being a member of several medical societies and organizations, he was on the staff of Albany Medical Center Hospital and a member of Nathaniel Adams Blanchard Post 1040, American Legion.

Survivors include his wife, the former Madah Taylor; three sons, Laurence E., Richard G., and William B., two daughters, Judith Ann and Jeannie M. MacDowell.

1961 marks the tenth year the Bethlehem Chamber of Commerce has presented the graceful, colorful Nativity Scene for the residents of the Town of Bethlehem. The original purchase of the scene, the installation and the lighting, are contributions of the members of the Bethlehem Chamber of Commerce.

The impetus of the purchase of a Nativity Scene in the Town originally came from Thomas Dorato, a long time Bethlehem resident and one of the founders of the Delmar Businessmen's Association, the predecessor of the Chamber of Commerce. The figures, setting, and colors were designed by Robert Angel, and the scene was constructed in collaboration with the members and students in the Art Department at Bethlehem Central Senior High School. The Delmar Lumber Company furnished the lumber. After the initial presentment, there was a ceremony at which the dedication remarks were made by Gren Rand. For the first two or three years, provisions were made for the playing of Christmas music at the Nativity Scene. Technical difficulties have necessitated the discontinuance of that practice. In 1959, the Chamber purchased a star which was placed in an elevated position above and to the right of the Nativity Scene. The star was also used in 1960. At the present time, a suitable device for the suspension of the star is not available. The Chamber has been studying the display of a large star in the community for several years. Up to the present time, the cost has been found to be prohibitive.

FEAST OF LIGHTS PAGEANT AT ST. STEPHEN'S

There will be presented at Saint Stephen's Episcopal Church, Delmar, N.Y. the Feast of Lights pageant on Sunday, January 7th, at 7:00 P.M.

The pageant will include a dramatization of all those "individuals of old" who came to visit the Christ child, and of those who followed Him as he made his journey to Calvary.

BURNING OF GREENS SET FOR JAN. 5

The Twelfth Night "Burning of the Greens" ceremony will be held January 5th at 7:30 on the lot of the Delmar Presbyterian Church, 585 Delaware Avenue. The community is invited, as in years past, to bring trees and Christmas greens to the lot anytime prior to the burning.

The church members and their families will join in a Twelfth Night supper prior to the ceremonies on the outside. At the supper the traditional Twelfth Night cake containing a bean will be the means of determining among the young people who shall reign as Twelfth Night King and Queen. As the custom goes, the King and Queen will touch candles to the waiting heap of greens signalling the end of Christmas and heralding the Light of Christ to the world.

Several hundreds of people have enjoyed witnessing the burning of the greens in years past and everyone is welcome to attend. The Delmar Fire Department has also always been on hand to offer protection and help and have said that they would prefer that trees be burned in this way than in people's backyards.

The Spotlight joins the entire Town of Bethlehem in mourning the passing of one of its most eminent citizens and sincere healer of the ill -

Mormon Choir in First TV Appearance Next Sunday

On Sunday, December 31st, American Motors Corporation will sponsor the telecast of the Mormon Tabernacle Choir over the CBS Television Network. While the Mormon Tabernacle Choir has been on network radio for 31 years, this will be the first time this world famous choir has appeared on television.

The program titled "Let Freedom Ring" is appropriately timed and especially prepared for the Christmas season. The purpose of Let Freedom Ring is to trace by words and music the moral and spiritual growth of our country from pre-Revolutionary days to the present -- to re-awaken in the American people the feeling that if they were to apply to the present the same strength with which they have met challenges in the past, there would be nothing to fear.

Among the highlights of Let Freedom Ring will be remembrances of the Revolutionary War, with Dan O'Herlihy in excerpts from Patrick Henry, Thomas Jefferson and Thomas Paine -- the Civil War, with Laraine Day presenting Lincoln's letter to Mrs. Bixby, Howard Keel singing "Aura Lee," Richard Boone in an excerpt from his Broadway production of "Lincoln," and the Mormon Tabernacle Choir in a medley of Civil War Songs and a stirring rendition of "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Santa Claus School Has Graduated Over 500

Christmas Park in upstate Albion, New York, is a fantasy come true for the many children who visit each year, and it is also a merchandising dream come true for stores across the country, according to State Commerce Woman's Program reporters. For it is here that department store Santa Clauses are trained at the only school of its kind in the country. In the more than 25 years of its existence, some 500 men have taken the school's five-day $75 course, followed up with their B. S. C. (Bachelor of Santa Claus) degrees and settled down in Christmas toy shops from Maine to California.

It all started when farmer and toy designer, Charles Howard, on a Christmas shopping tour with his children, shared their disappointment at the shabby depiction of a department store Santa Claus. Children deserved better, he decided. In fact, he could do better himself. And so he did. A rosy cheeked, jovial man, he had little difficulty looking the part. And so it was that when many stores clamored for his services, he decided to teach other men how to play the role at its best -- and as children expect Santa to look. Proper make-up (not a mask), a warm speaking voice, a jovial laugh, a costume that really looks the part!

Mr. Howard's own Santa costume - of bright red wool, lavishly trimmed with white fur, was so envied by store personnel, he was soon in the costume business. Then came Christmas Park, for word had leaked out and children were coming to Albion, eager for a glimpse of the school where Santa Claus trained his helpers. So Santa's Workshop was built, with tools all in order. Mrs. Santa's kitchen followed and Toyland; a miniature village; Santa's farm with real animals to pet; Kris Kringle's castle; Santa's train for touring the Park; and best of all, Santa's stables where Donder and Blitzen and all the fabled reindeer live - real live reindeer.

Today Mr. Howard is a master Santa Claus, often the one who waves from the famous Macy Thanksgiving Day parade. And his School's graduates have increased toyland business across the country. The Howard children are now parents themselves and no longer live in Christmas Park. But their children delight in the chance to visit each year. And how lucky they are! Imagine having Santa Claus for a grandfather!
