At a recent meeting of his Board of Directors, Hugo E. Rausch, new manager of the Eastern New York Adequate Wiring Bureau, announced plans for a high powered Spring membership and business promotional campaign.

Mr. O'Bryon, vice-president of National Commercial Bank, and Mr. Kukuk, Albany District Manager of Niagara Mohawk Power Corp., are both directors of the Bureau and serve on several Board committees. Charles J. Bernhardt of Slingerlands and Harold H. Friedman, Elsmere, also Board members were not present when the photo was taken.

Mr. Rausch - "Hooks" to his innumerable friends throughout upstate New York - was recently named to succeed Stanley M. O'Grady as head of the Bureau whose purpose is to promote better living electrically through "full housepower."

Mr. Sowers, appliance department manager of John G. Myers Company, was elected a short time ago to his second term as chairman of the Bureau's Board of Directors.

ANNE'S HAT BOX & ACCESSORIES OPENS TODAY!

Pastel pink and gold - a fabulously frivolous feminine shop - this is the background for the newest business in the Tri-Village area. . . Anne's Hat Box and Accessories! In the heart of the Four Corners, the Hat Box adjoins the Empire-

Grand Union Market at 406 Kenwood Avenue - a most convenient location because parking space abounds.

Anne McGoey (pronounced Goy) is the dynamic proprietress, fulfilling a dream she had in high school. . . her own Hat Shop. Just a short month ago, she was engrossed in her multiple duties as housewife, mother of 2 teenage boys, and leading dealer of Stanley Home Products.

A casual conversation after church one Sunday exploded this 11 year routine almost instantaneously. A shop. . . that is, a Hat Shop for rent at the Four Corners. Her enthusiasm engulfed her brother, sons, two sisters (who share her love for bonnets) and her husband, well-known Bill McGoey, district circulation manager of the Times Union. It carried her into the office of Mrs. Meskill, head of the Women's Program of the N. Y. S. Department of Commerce for guidance and advice and on to New York City, where she plunged into the intricacies of the wholesale world. . . a most luxurious and satisfying experience.

Anne's gay and vivid personality, developed through years in personnel work and salesmanship, is a natural for this type
