

BLANCHARD POST ANNOUNCES MEMORIAL DAY PARADE PLANS

Again this year Nathaniel Adams Blanchard Post #1040, American Legion, will sponsor the Memorial Day Parade for the Tri-Village Area. Colonel Robert E. Mulligan, NYG, chairman of the parade committee, announced the details of the parade at a meeting of the division marshals at the Post Hall, last Monday night.

All participants are requested to be in their respective assembly areas by 9:30 A.M. on Wednesday, May 30. The parade will start promptly at 10 A.M. from the Post Hall. Route of march will be south on Elsmere Avenue to Kenwood Avenue, then west on Kenwood to Delaware Avenue, then east on Delaware Avenue to Servicemen's Memorial Park where the reviewing stand will be located.

A memorial service will be conducted in Servicemen's Memorial Park at the conclusion of the parade.

Grand Marshal of the parade will be Lt. Comdr. Whitman Daniels, USNR. His aides will be Lt. Col. James W. Marotta, USA, and Major Robert Roth, USAFR. They will be followed by a color guard provided by the U.S. Air Force Reserve and several cars carrying the Hon. Bertram E. Kohinke, Honorary Grand Marshal and Supervisor of the Town of Bethlehem, plus several other Town officials.

Division One will form on Poplar Drive beside the Post Hall. It will be composed of the members of Blanchard Post #1040, American Legion, and the Auxiliary, plus the Yankee Doodle Band. Division Marshal will be Post Commander Alexander J. Woehrle. His aides will be Vice-Commander Rodger Fryer and Lt. Col. Charles J. O'Hara, USAR.

Division Two will consist of Company "A", 1st Medium Tank Battalion, 210th Armored Regiment, NYARNG stationed in the New Scotland Avenue Armory, Albany. It will form on Poplar Drive in rear of Division One. Division Marshal will be its company commander, Captain Francis G. Cullen.

Division Three will consist of Bethlehem Memorial Post #3185, Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Auxiliary. It will form on Herber Avenue facing Elsmere Avenue. Division Marshal will be its new Post Commander, Ralph Sherman. His aides will be his new Vice-Commanders, Joseph Cozz and Joseph Grieco.

Division Four will form on Glendale Avenue. It will be composed of the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts, Brownies and the 4-H Clubs. Music will be provided by the Bethlehem Central Junior-Senior High School Band. Division Marshal will be Colonel Lawrence McArthur, USAFR, and a Tri-Village Scouter. His aides will be Mrs. Fred Muchelot, a Delmar Girl Scout leader, and Mrs. John Zitko, a member of the 4-H Council.

Division Five will form on Ridge Road beside the Elsmere Fire House. It will consist of the following fire companies, auxiliaries and motorized equipment: Delmar, Elsmere, Slingerlands and Glenmont. Music will be provided by the Village Fire Fifers. The Cyprus Temple Motor Patrol will also be a part of this division. Division Marshal will be Elsmere Fire Chief Richard Smith. His aides will be Delmar Fire Chief Henry Kleinke and Slingerlands Fire Chief Robert Collins.

At the conclusion of the parade, Blanchard Post Commander Alexander J. Woehrle will conduct a memorial service for all American service men and women who have given their lives for our country. Invocation will be given by Rev. Charles H. Kaulfuss of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, and Blanchard Post Chaplain. The Post will present a new American flag to Supervisor Bertram Kohinke to be flown in Servicemen's Memorial Park during the ensuing year. There will be musical selections by the Yankee Doodle Band and the Village Fire Fifers. A floral tribute from the American Legion Auxiliary and the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary will be placed by the respective presidents of those organizations. After Three Volleys by the Post Firing Squad and Taps sounded by Boy Scout buglers, the service will be concluded with Benediction by the Rev. Paul G. Bondi of St. Thomas' Roman Catholic Church. Also taking part in the ceremony will be Rabbi Alvin S. Roth, Temple Beth Emeth.

Commander Woehrle hopes that all residents of the Tri-Village Area will display the flag of our country on Memorial Day. He is particularly anxious to have 100% participation along the route of march during the parade.

Correct flag etiquette on Memorial Day requires that the flag be hoisted to full-staff, then lowered to half-staff until noon, in honor of our heroic dead. At noon the flag is hoisted to full-staff, remaining there until it is lowered at sunset, in honor of our living heroes.

HAMAGRAEL PTA DANCE TOMORROW NIGHT

Out Hamagrael way, the parents are getting set to swing into Spring on May 25 at the sixth annual PTA Dance. The South Sea Island theme, "Bali Ha'i," indicates that hula wiggles and torrid twists may replace the more conventional fox trot that evening.

Mr. & Mrs. Harold Willard are in charge of decorations. The gymnasium will glow with tropical color: vivid birds of paradise with wings that actually move, will float over the dancers, and exotic fruit will adorn every table.

Dr. & Mrs. Sydney Archer, in charge of the musical arrangements, announce that Francis Murphy and his Orchestra will provide a rhythmic jungle beat from 9 to 1.

Mr. & Mrs. John Harrison and their committee are offering a variety of refreshments.

SHOCKER FILM TO BE SHOWN BY ROTARY

The Delmar Rotary Club, as a public service, has arranged, through the courtesy of the New York Telephone Co., to show the startling and serious film "Signal #30" to the general public Friday evening, June 1st at 7:30 P.M. in the Bethlehem Central Senior High School Auditorium.

Thirty minutes spent viewing this film is guaranteed to make you a more careful driver. Rotary members unanimously agreed, after seeing the film at a recent meeting, that every citizen should have the privilege of being exposed to this unusual documentary showing the tragic consequences of poor driving judgment and faulty equipment.

It is requested, because of the nature of the film, that only people sixteen years of age and over attend.

The following is an endorsement by Charles Redmond, Chairman of the Safety Committee, Town of Bethlehem.

"Signal #30" film is put out by the Ohio State Police, and is a real 'shock film.' It should be pointed out to any audience to which this film is shown that this is not the answer to accident prevention. You must educate the public on the proper driving techniques; for example, driving defensively at all times, driving without excessive speed, etc." The following is a statement made by Bertram E. Kohinke, Supervisor of the Town of Bethlehem:

"SAFETY IS EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS - The wise driver always exercises every measure of precaution even if he is delayed at an intersection giving another driver the right-of-way, or being patient in slow moving traffic. Safety signals, measures and speed limits should be obeyed at all times. It is needless to say that when we drive defensively, we are much safer drivers."

The members of Delmar Rotary Club urge everyone to attend to help make our community a safer place in which to live.

Dinner Scheduled for June 9

Saturday, June 9, the Voorheesville Alumni Association will have a dinner at Yezzi-Osterhout's Restaurant at 6:30 p.m.

Behind every Dunlop tire we sell stands the company whose people invented the pneumatic tire in 1888, later developed the first low pressure tire, the first foam rubber, the first drop center rim, the first company owned and operated rubber plantations.

The tire we sell you is made by the same Dunlop organization that supplied the tires for every car that has held the world's land speed record since 1929 . . . the same Dunlop that made tires for the winners of every 1959, 1960 and 1961 International World's Championship Grand Prix race.

New Publication Started By Republican Organization
The Bethlehem Eagle, a newsletter published by the Bethlehem Republican Club, rolled off the presses recently and 1,000 copies of the first issue are in the mails addressed to town residents.
In addition to stories on the record of the Republican town administration, the first issue takes a few potshots at the Albany County Democrat organization.

One story charges that Albany illegally carries "certain state-owned buildings . . . on the assessment rolls of the City of Albany." The taxes are not paid and the tax is then picked up by the entire county, the article contends, and that Bethlehem is chipping in to pay the illegal taxes. The buildings referred to are owned by the State Teachers Retirement Fund which, the Court of Appeals has ruled, may not be taxed by the city.
Other stories range from accounts of Supervisor Bertram E.
Kohinke's recent attacks on the Democrat-controlled Board of Supervisors to a brief item describing the town's mosquito-control program.

WRGB WEEKDAYS 5:15-5:30

"THE GREAT SEBASTIANS" SET FOR FRI. AND SAT.

A light-hearted look at the dark side of Communist officialdom will be given by the Slingerlands Community Players in their next production, "The Great Sebastians," to be presented Friday and Saturday, May 25 and 26, at 8:40 p.m. in the auditorium of the Bethlehem Central Senior High School, Delmar.

The three-act suspense comedy by Howard Lindsay and Russel Crouse concerns the effects that a mind-reading team have on bigwigs in Communist Czechoslovakia when they drag some red herring of their own making across a shaky political scene.

To the Great Sebastians, a husband-wife team in the classic vaudeville tradition, politics is merely a remote nuisance until they become enmeshed in Communist intrigue. But they have some tricks of their own and, figuring they are better wed than red, take on the Peoples' Democracy brass in a battle of wits.

The fun-filled spoof of red-faced Reds first was presented on Broadway at the ANTA Theater in 1956. Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne appeared in the leading roles of Rudi and Essie Sebastian, a not exactly top-flight act who think of themselves, however, as theatrical immortals. But their spirit and quick thinking allows them to take in easy stride such setbacks as being followed by Fink's Mules in their show and being hounded by suspicious communists after the show.

HILCHIE RE-ELECTED TO CHAMBER PRESIDENCY

At a recent meeting of the Bethlehem Chamber of Commerce Alan Hilchie was re-elected president for the coming year. Other officers included: Frank Williams, vice-president; Mrs. Gladys Hosey, secretary; William Weber, treasurer.

SENIOR CITIZENS HAVE TIME FOR SUMMER CAMPING

Camping is catching on with senior citizens. Adventure is their watchword! New found leisure provides time for travel and opportunity to search out the beauty spots all over the U.S.A., and Europe. Retirement furnishes the time. "Camping cuts costs and promises relaxation, recreation and good companionship well within the most modest income" according to the National Campers and Hikers Association.

Not all our mature population are ready to be wrapped in cotton wool and tucked into a retirement home. You can bet your best road map on that. These senior citizens are having the time of their lives seeing the sights. Sights they had to forego when they were raising a family. When they were battling the business world for the where-with-all to pay the mortgage, the college expenses, the food bills.

Retirement means curtailment of income but not curtailment in the capacity for enjoyment. Off they go with a tent, trailer or station wagon. Free as the birds they are. South in the winter. North in the summer. East with the rising sun. West, where it sets over lordly sequoia, Alaskan glacier, or flashes on fins of fresh fish to be caught and broiled over an open fire.

Some senior citizens are experienced campers. Others would like to learn the secrets of comfortable camp life. The latter learn this "when, where and how" of camping by joining a local chapter of the National Campers and Hikers Association.

Anyone wishing to see camping in action should visit the annual convention of NCHA at Indian Falls Lake, near Batavia New York from July 7-14. About 2000 families are expected with every type of equipment. Jerome and Faith Bayer, 249 Central Ave., Lancaster New York are chairmen. The Bayers are Regional Directors for New York State.

Editor, All About Babies

That you remember every little thing about baby's growing up is only natural. There's something fascinating about watching a baby develop, especially if baby is yours.

That because you remember you often compare your baby with someone else's baby or with your other children, is natural too. For, after all, comparison is an instinctive human trait.

We compare when we shop, hire a baby sitter, select a TV program, and give our vote to a political candidate. There probably isn't a thing that we do or say or think that to some degree doesn't include making a comparison.

Though the desire to compare is so much a part of us, take it from an experienced father - don't practice the art on baby.

You just can't compare your baby with any other baby. For that matter, you can't even begin to compare your baby with any of your other children. And for very good reason too.

Every baby is an individual. The word "individual" means a single and particular being. In other words, your baby is his own sweet self. He cannot be an exact copy of any other baby.

For a time, during our son's first year, he gained a little over three pounds a month. We compared him with the baby across the street who was gaining hardly two pounds a month and decided we were raising a giant. Our doctor assured us our baby was normal and healthy and that his gains were in keeping with his large frame.

"Every baby," said our doctor, "develops according to his own schedule."

As we left the doctor's office, there was our neighbor in the waiting room. She had compared her baby to ours and had come to ask the doctor if she was raising a midget.

The folly of comparing one baby with another became even more evident when our daughter was born. Where the girl was early, the boy was late. Where the girl was fast, the boy was slow. Did this mean the girl was brighter than her more leisurely brother?

When we considered each child as an individual, it was quite evident that both were bright. Only the attributes, the special qualities that each possessed, were different. They're still different. The curious, fast moving little girl who poked her nose into everything is preparing for a newspaper career. The slow, easy going little boy who hummed himself to sleep, is now playing in a symphony orchestra.

Two resolutions were approved at a recent meeting of the Bethlehem Republican Club. They are as follows:

RESOLUTION ON COUNTY SALES TAX

WHEREAS, resolutions to impose a County Sales Tax and a compensating Use Tax are now pending before the Board of Supervisors of Albany County and,

WHEREAS, the need for additional taxing powers has not been demonstrated and,

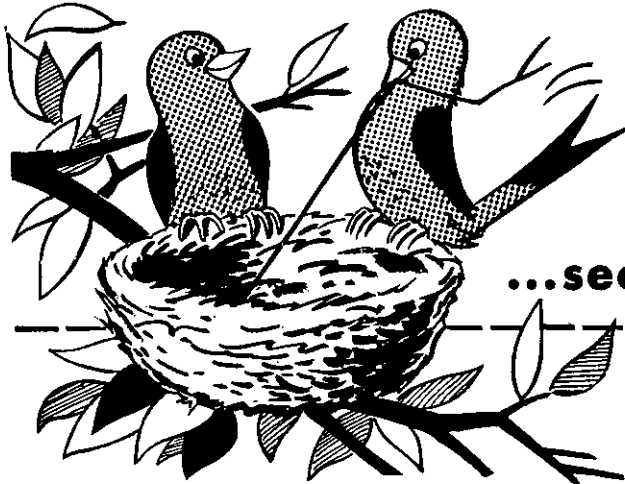

WHEREAS, the administration by the County of Albany of the existing Real Estate Tax has been both inefficient and discriminatory and thus not fully productive of revenue; now, therefore be it

RESOLVED, by the Bethlehem Republican Club, Inc., that this club, its members, officers and directors oppose this tax by using its facilities to inform the public of the fiscal conditions of the County, and governmental subdivisions which would share in the tax, and, be it further RESOLVED, by the Bethlehem Republican Club that it supports the position Supervisor Bertram E. Kohinke has taken on this matter.

RESOLUTION ON THE ASSESSMENT OF EXEMPT PROPERTY IN THE CITY OF ALBANY

WHEREAS, the City of Albany has assessed certain properties belonging to the New York State Teacher's Retirement System and the New York State Employee's Retirement System, instrumentalities of the State, in New York which have been accorded exemption from taxation by the New York State Legislature, and

WHEREAS, upon the rightful refusal of the Retirement Systems to pay illegal taxes, the City of Albany returned the unpaid tax bills to the County of Albany and the County Treasurer accepted the same, crediting the City for the full amount of the taxes unpaid, and,

WHEREAS, by the above means amounts to be raised by taxes on the Real Property and taxpayers of the Town of Bethlehem are paying a share of the expenses of the City of Albany; now, therefore be it

RESOLVED, that Supervisor Bertram E. Kohinke be encouraged to determine how the County Treasurer plans to recover County money credited to the City, and that to this end he be encouraged to introduce a resolution calling for a full report by the County Treasurer to the Board of Supervisors, and, be it further

RESOLVED, that this club continue its efforts to reveal the facts of this matter to the public and to seek a solution which will compel the return of moneys obtained by the City in the manner recited.

I Hear!

that Connoisseur Gallery's reasonable price policy has become even more reasonable with the presentation of the THIRTEEN COLONIES Collection. This is good news every Homemaker can bank on. See the beautiful collection of upholstered pieces, dining and bedroom pieces, boudoir chairs, lamps, mirrors, pictures and occasional furniture. A bountiful stock.

A CHARMING EARLY AMERICAN BEDROOM ENSEMBLE FROM OUR THIRTEEN COLONIES COLLECTION.

IT IS AS DISTINGUISHED AS THE ORIGINALS FROM WHICH IT WAS REPRODUCED.

The wood pegging, the softened "worn edges," the smooth elegant turnings are as fine as the original. The solid brass pulls are especially fine. The warm hand rubbed finish has produced an aged melowness and patina only possible with solid Sugar Maple and always found on all good antique maple pieces. Sugar Maple possesses natural beauty, great strength and endless charm.

There are a number of designs of beds, chests, highboys, bedside tables and mirrors which provides opportunity for personal selection of an ensemble. For Example, a five piece group which includes a full size bed or one single is priced at $595. On other ensembles the price will vary up or down according to selection. All ensembles are available with standard double or triple dressers.

You will enjoy a visit to Our Gallery . . .
