

Slingerlands Players Season Tickets Sale

Capital District theatregoers have been heard to wonder how so small a community as Slingerlands can supply enough manpower and talent to produce the superior dramatic fare for which The Slingerlands Community Players have become famous. The truth of the matter is, of course, that it doesn't. Only about a fifth of the group's membership lives in Slingerlands. Of the remainder, about two-fifths come from Albany, an equal number from Delmar or Elsmere, and a fifth from the villages in all directions - Voorheesville, New Salem, Altamont, Colonie, McKownville, East Schodack and Castleton. Among the officers, only the vice-president is from Slingerlands, with the other four spread among Albany, Colonie and McKownville.

The group's audiences are even more widely dispersed, as disclosed by analysis of the addresses of last year's holders of season tickets, the Players president, Ralph Smith reports. Although Albany County is most heavily represented, there are large numbers from Rensselaer and Schenectady Counties, and sprinklings from Columbia, Greene, Schoharie and Saratoga.

"We are especially proud," said Mr. Smith, "that the bulk of each year's buyers of season tickets are repeaters, season after season. We're grateful for the support that lets us spend the money necessary for a fine production, and we think their loyalty is a demonstration of our success in achieving our artistic goals, in supplying live entertainment more memorable than that of the television or movie screens. Besides, they get a genuine bargain - three full length plays for $3.00, the price of two at regular admission prices after October 20, when our season ticket drive ends."

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK · OCTOBER 7-13

The Players have announced an ambitious program for the year. Their first play, on November 30 and December 1, Caine Mutiny Court Martial, is already in rehearsal. This strong drama has an all male cast of nineteen - the personnel of the court martial, the crew of Commander Queeg's ship, U.S.S. Caine, and witnesses to the technical and mental competence of the Commander.

Next will be Look Homeward, Angel, an adaptation of Thomas Wolfe's famous novel, on January 25 and 26. This play won the Pulitzer Prize for 1958. Again, there are nineteen in the cast, but about equally divided between men and women. The story, set in Eliza Gant's boarding house, portrays the attempts of her sons and husband to escape her domination. The play is rich in humor and pathos, for some of the gallery of characters have to be losers in the conflict.

The third play, on May 24 and 25, is Sabrina Fair, a suitably light comedy for the spring. The story has gaiety, sophistication and wit, and at the end Cinderella gets her prince. The Slingerlands Players have performed several such bright and fast-paced comedies, always to the enthusiastic delight of their audiences.

Season tickets can be purchased by mail, at $3.00 each, from Slingerlands Players, P.O. Box 21, Slingerlands, New York. They are also available at the Delmar Library, Douglas Marone or C.M. Grover at the Delaware Plaza, Mullens Pharmacy in Elsmere, Voorheesville Pharmacy, Toll Gate Pharmacy in Slingerlands and Arthur Jackel, 104 N. Pearl St., Albany.

JULES CERN WILL SPEAK HERE TUES.

Jules Cern, a well-known lecturer on Christian Science from New York City, will discuss its teachings and healing power in a free public lecture in Delmar next Tuesday, October 16.

Mr. Cern will speak in the First Methodist Church, Kenwood Ave. at 8:00 p. m. under the auspices of Christian Science Society, Delmar. His subject will be Christian Science: Its Divine Revelation and Human Application.

A native of Dallas, Texas, Mr. Cern has been engaged in the public practice of Christian Science for more than twenty-five years. He became interested in Christian Science when a young actor. While in the theater, he appeared in a few plays on Broadway and toured nearly all of the United States and Canada. He has lectured on Christian Science throughout most of the world since he was first named to The Christian Science Board of Lectureship in 1953.

LINCOLN REPUBLICAN CLUB URGES ACTIVE REPUBLICAN SUPPORT IN CITY OF ALBANY

The Lincolns Republican Club has formed a Volunteers for Rockefeller to work in the Town of Bethlehem. The Co-Chairmen are Alice Boutelle of Delmar and Arthur P. Fisher of Elsmere. The committee will concentrate on getting out the Independents and Democrats who support Governor Rockefeller. The campaign will be carried out by direct mail, personal contact, coffee klatches, and transportation on election day. Any person who is interested in working for the Governor in the coming campaign is welcome to work with the committee. They may volunteer by calling Mrs. Boutelle or Mr. Fisher or writing to the headquarters at 388 Kenwood Avenue, Delmar, N.Y.

The second phase of the Lincolns' participation in the election will be to lend assistance to W. Gordon Morris, a club member who is a Republican committeeman in the city of Albany. The club members will assist Mr. Morris by canvassing the district and in other ways which will be developed. Assistance in this effort is needed immediately. The Lincolns feel that the Republicans in the towns will have to help their Republican brothers in the city before a start can be made to having a real county Republican organization. The Lincolns deplore the situation where there is such a shortage of Republican canvassers in the city and so many surplus Republican workers in the Town of Bethlehem. The enrollment in the city is 10 to 1 in favor of the Democrats while it is 9 to 1 in favor of the Republicans in the Town of Bethlehem. Any Bethlehem Republican is eligible to work in the city or be a committeeman there. At the last count there were 40 districts in the city which lacked one committeeman. The Lincolns can't understand why the Regular Republican organization with all its resources doesn't provide workers for the party in the City of Albany. There are no local elections in Bethlehem this year and the place where the Republican organization needs help the most is in the city. The Governor has an opportunity to carry the County this year. He lost the city in 1958 by 34,200 votes. The Lincolns call on the Republican organization to provide workers in the city - in addition to themselves.

On June 29 of this year Mr. De Heus announced that his organization obtained 4,821 names in four days on petitions for committeemen in Bethlehem. He termed it a "blitz." The Lincolns invite him and his organization to turn those forces loose in the City of Albany where Republican workers are as scarce as hen's teeth. It is time that Republican recognized that a county-wide effort is necessary to beat the machine.

Two Guests at Meeting

The Monday Mid-Monthly meeting of October 15 at Blanchard Post #1040, American Legion, Delmar, will feature two guest speakers. They are Mr. Fitz-Edward Otis of Slingerlands, representative of the Post at Boys State, Colgate University, in June, and Mr. John J. Bellizzi, Chief of Narcotics Bureau, New York State Department of Health.

Fitz Otis, a senior at Bethlehem Central High School, will relate his experiences at Boys State in his informal talk.

Mr. Bellizzi, a well-known official of State Government, will bring an interesting and timely report to Post members on the functions of the Narcotics Bureau.

The time of the program will be 8:30 p.m. No Post business will be transacted.

ALL ABOUT BABIES

A Public Service of the National Baby Care Council

TRAVELING BY AIR -
By Molly Bosman
Chief Stewardess,
KLM Royal Dutch Airlines

With the fall travel season approaching, many young mothers soon will be taking baby on his first vacation trip. - by air.

Most major airlines maintain extensive facilities for baby's travel comfort and mothers will find that a trip by air with baby can be both simple and pleasant. Babies travel very well by air and since the trips are quick, many of the stresses and problems of long journeys are eliminated.

To take full advantage of an airline's baby facilities, let the reservation clerk know, when you buy your tickets, that you will have your baby with you. An infant under two years of age travels for ten percent of the adult fare, unless you want to reserve a seat just for him, at 50 percent of the regular fare.

Baby's traveling basket, diapers, blankets and other necessary items are carried free of charge and are not included in the weight of your baggage. On many flights the airline will supply, without charge, a hanging baby basket which can be suspended above your seat. These should be reserved when you purchase your tickets.

Food for baby aboard an aircraft also is provided by the airline, although not every brand is stocked. Most aircraft carry albuminous and whole milk, supplies of strained vegetables, fruits and cereals and baby crackers. The stewardess will be glad to have food ready for your baby if you will inform her of baby's feeding schedule.

Airliners also carry a special "baby box" for your convenience. It contains oil, ointment, powder, baby soap and other essentials. Sterilized water is available on most flights and the galley is equipped to store formulas under refrigeration and to heat them when needed. It is advisable to prepare your own formula at home and give it to the stewardess on boarding the plane.

When an aircraft takes off or descends, it is quite normal to feel a slight pressure in your ears, even on pressurized planes. Your baby may react quite naturally and start to cry. By giving him something to drink, he will swallow automatically

Adequate Wiring Sponsors Awards Program

Employees of electrical manufacturing companies will receive Community Service Awards from the Eastern New York Adequate Wiring Bureau. The program, which is sponsored jointly by the League and the National Electrical Manufacturers Association, is now underway in the League's area, and up to five bronze medals will be presented.

The NEMA Community Service Awards honor full-time employees of electrical manufacturers for outstanding, voluntary, civic contributions. The League is cooperating with electrical manufacturers to stimulate nominations for the awards from among company personnel. Employees are being urged to "nominate their neighbors."

Hugo E. Rausch, Manager of the Eastern New York Adequate Wiring Bureau, commented that endeavors considered worthy for nominations include activities in such fields as little league baseball, scouts, education, charity, community progress, and cultural and other appropriate activities.

The eastern New York area embracing Albany, Schenectady, and Troy is one of several this year conducting the Community Service Award program, with the cooperation of the National Electrical Manufacturers Association. NEMA is the nation's largest trade association for producers of electrical products and comprises over 500 member companies located in all parts of the country.

SPENCER McCARTY RECEIVES NEW INSURANCE HONOR

Spencer L. McCarty, CLU, senior agent of Provident Mutual Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia and a resident of 98 Delmar Place in Delmar, has been named "Agency Man of the Month" because of his leadership in sales during September.

Spencer L. McCarty

Mr. McCarty has been awarded many company honors. He has earned Provident Mutual's senior agent designation in recognition of his fine record of sales and service to his clients, and has qualified for the Provident Round Table, business conference for leading underwriters of the company.

Awarded the chartered life underwriter designation by the American College of Life Underwriters, Mr. McCarty has served as president of the Northeastern New York Chapter. He is a past president of the Life Insurance and Trust Council of Eastern New York and of the Albany and New York State Life Underwriters associations. He was presented with a scroll last year, for his service during his sixteen years as managing director of the state association.

Associated with the Albany Agency, under the direction of manager Lewis Takas, Mr. McCarty has offices in the State Bank Building at 75 State Street.

Delmar Man Receives Top Cash Award at Arsenal

Contributions to 18 different weapons projects at Watervliet Arsenal during the year ended October 31, 1961 have earned a $250 award, and an "outstanding" rating for Victor R. Preska, VanDyke Rd., Delmar. Preska, a supervisory mechanical engineer in the Arsenal's Research & Engineering Division, was cited particularly for his work on the Vigilante weapon, system, recently approved for tests with troops.

Five other employees also received awards totaling $320 for their contributions to Arsenal activities.

Allan A. Albright, 201 Old Niskayuna Rd., Colonie, received $200 for his work on the 105mm howitzer, and the 105mm tank gun, during the year ended Dec. 31, 1961.

A $50 award was shared by Martin L. Slawsky, 16 Knob Hill Rd., Loudonville; and Francis A. Heiser (29 Birchwood Dr.) Waterford, in recognition of their paper on steel castings, presented at the International Foundry Congress in May, and selected as the best in its division. Keh-Chang Wu, 6 Dan Del Dr., Watervliet, received $25 for his preparation of a paper on the effect of weld heat on titanium which is to be published by the American Welding Society.

Henry E. Schmidt, (98 John St.) Nassau, a machinist, received $45 for his suggestion to improve a firing lock which will save an estimated $890 annually.

Somebody Special!

"Somebody Special - You as a volunteer in Girl Scouting," is the theme for the Hudson Valley Girl Scout Council recruitment drive during the month of October.

This is the 50th anniversary of Girl Scouting in America and a special birthday film spot in color is to be shown during the recruitment drive at the Palace, Strand, Delaware, and Ritz Theaters in Albany.

This council serves girls in the counties of Albany, Columbia, Greene, Rensselaer, and part of Saratoga. It has an active membership of 9861 with a waiting list of 679. There are 136 adults needed in many capacities in such fields as Troop Leaders or assistant, Troop Committee, Program Consultant, Trainer, Troop Consultant, Public Relations, Finance and Administration.

No special training is needed to be eligible. Any woman of sound character who has an aptitude for any of the above fields, enjoys being with children and working for them will be trained by the Council in her own neighborhood.

The council with the assistance of the Women's Army Corps, has printed their own adult recruitment flyer which will be in circulation throughout the four-county area this month. The "Cover Girl" on the flyer is Mrs. James Sawyer of Hudson, a board member, district coordinator and troop leader.

The Hudson Valley Council is supported by the Albany Community Chest, the Hudson Community Chest and the Troy United Fund. Aiding in the Recruitment Drive throughout the Delmar Area, are the following: Mrs. Frederick Edmunds, Mrs. Charles Hall, Mrs. L.C. Smith, Jr. and Mrs. William Bennett.

Gymkhana Sunday, Oct. 21

A gymkhana, games on horseback, will be held Sunday, October 21 at 12 noon on Long Lane, Selkirk, between Jericho Road and Route 32 South of Feura Bush. The show is sponsored by Jericho Valley Ranch, Mr. & Mrs. Frank Delbene, owners.

There will be 15 events for Junior and Senior riders. Trophys, money and ribbons will be awarded. Refreshments will be available on the grounds. The public is invited to attend.
