

Senior Citizens' Party Will Be Held Tonight at BCHS

The Bethlehem Senior Citizens will have their annual Christmas Party Thursday evening, December 20, at the Junior High School.

As in past years, Leonard (Buck) Smith will be Santa and hand out the presents. Each member entering the room will register and pass in a gift.

The committee in charge is directed by Mrs. Mae Farnum, assisted by Olive Wright, Emma Griswold, Minnie Kieman, Daisey Feldman and Eleanora Saulsbury.

Toasted Noses and Toeses

Sing, Sing, Sing!

The Doubles Club of the Delmar Reformed Church will be host to the Carolers who get frost bitten noses and toeses.

The Carolers will leave the church at 6 p.m. on Sunday, December 23. The groups participating will be: the Senior Youth Fellowship, the Senior Choir, the Youth Choir and the Doubles Club.

Refreshments will be served and a fire in the fireplace will warm them both inside and out when they return to the church.

SKD Dance Dec. 22

Sigma Kappa Delta fraternity will hold its 28th annual Christmas formal on Saturday, December 22, at the Sheraton-Ten Eyck Hotel in Albany. This year's dance will be co-sponsored by the Voorheesville Chapter. Music will be provided by the Kentones. Each girl present will receive a favor, and all guests will be served dinner prior to the dance.

Sigma Kappa Delta members contribute to the welfare of each community in which a chapter is located. In Bethlehem this year, the boys contributed to Thanksgiving food baskets for the needy and also held a turkey drawing.

Above is a reproduction of the cover of this year's Christmas Festival program designed by Mrs. Harold J. Willard. Following the Festival's theme, the entire staff of the Spotlight extends to all of its readers a most sincere Holiday Greeting.

1962 Community Festival Dedicated to the Memory of Robert M. Angell

The 1962 Bethlehem Community Festival which will be presented tonight and tomorrow night at 8 P.M. at the Bethlehem Central High School, is dedicated to the memory of Robert M. Angell.

Each season for twenty years, from the very beginning of the Festival, Mr. Angell gave freely and cheerfully of his outstanding artistic talent to help provide a beautiful and inspirational setting for the Christmas Festival. The work he did reflected his skill of hand and mind and the brightness of his spirit. His life made this a happier world.

This year's Festival is probably the greatest effort yet to present beautiful music and good drama.

Everyone in our area is urged to attend and support this truly great community effort.

Candlelighting Service Set For Christmas Eve

A Christmas Eve Candlelighting Service will be held in the Delmar Presbyterian Church Monday, December 24, at 8 p.m. The service is particularly designed for family worship with children. The congregation will sing carols and the minister will read the Christmas Story from Scripture and tell a story of Christmas. Each person in the congregation will be given a candle. At the appointed time in the darkened sanctuary, illumined only by the Christmas candle in the Advent wreath, twelve young people representing the twelve disciples will light their candles from the one central light. They will then proceed to light the candles of those sitting on the aisles, who will in turn light the candle of their neighbor until the sanctuary is ablaze with the light of each person, symbolic of the way in which the light of Christ is spread throughout the world in the sharing of Christian faith.

Persons in the community not otherwise engaged or affiliated are invited to attend this service of worship.

Seal Reminders Sent

John S. Devey, Chairman of the 1962 Seal Campaign, said that about 48,000 reminders have been mailed to people in Albany County who previously received their Christmas Seals.

Christmas Seals support the program of the Albany County Tuberculosis Association; and in an all out effort to eradicate infectious tuberculosis, you are urged to send in your contribution.

Your Tuberculosis Association has an added responsibility in that it is increasingly concerned with all respiratory disease. Also, chronic respiratory diseases are usually disabling, sometimes death dealing.

LETTERS

Dear Editor,

I wonder how many residents of the Elsmere Fire District know that on Tuesday, December 4, they voted for (or failed to vote against) spending $100,000.

It is my understanding that one of the fire engines is to be traded in for a new one at a cost of $25,000, and that an addition is to be put on the fire house large enough to house the three fire engines. This leaves the existing fire house (two stories plus basement) to be remodeled to include private offices for the Commissioner and the Chief and other rooms to be used for meetings and who knows what. This addition and remodeling is to cost $75,000.

I can see how a new fire engine could possibly increase the company's fire fighting effectiveness, but I can't see offhand how additional offices will do so. However, I admit that I am grossly uninformed on this subject, as was the obvious desire of those promoting this expenditure.

The first I learned of this proposal was from a small article appearing in the Knickerbocker News on Monday, December 3 (the night before the balloting).

Upon appearing at the fire house to cast my ballot, I learned how well the voters of this district had been informed of the proposed expenditure. Notice was given in the Legal Notice column of the Knickerbocker News on November 20. I don't know how many people read the Legal Notices everyday in the newspaper, but it is not an easy task without the aid of a magnifying glass. In addition, notices were placed at five conspicuous (?) locations throughout the district. The four locations that I can recall were: (1) Quinn's Service Station, (2) The Coffee Shop, (3) the corner of Mason Road and some other street which I have forgotten and (4) the fire house.

Now perhaps I am in the minority because I don't carefully scrutinize the Legal Notices every night, don't trade at Quinn's Service Station, don't partake of coffee at the Coffee Shop, don't live on Mason Road and am not a fireman; but I doubt it. I am sure a few more conspicuous spots, such as the supermarkets or churches or the Plaza could have been utilized. In addition, an article in the Spotlight would have reached most of the people in the district.

Am I wrong in assuming that the proponents of this plan by giving, in an inconspicuous manner, only as much public notice as was legally required did not want the public to be adequately informed for fear of arousing too much opposition?

The fact that they were very successful in this endeavor is reflected in the vote - 111 for and 4 against.

It has been proven in the past that the voters of this town will not hesitate to endorse an expenditure which is proven to them to be necessary for the maintenance or betterment of a community service. Perhaps this expenditure falls in that category. If this is true, it should have been factually presented to the people and their endorsement sought, rather than cloaked in a mantle of secrecy so that no opposition would be aroused.

I hope that the Fire Commissioner and Chief enjoy and make efficient use of their $75,000 private offices and "meeting" rooms obtained by the "overwhelming" vote of themselves and their friends.

Uninformed

Dear Editor:

A few weeks ago, Mr. Kenneth Ruthman took the Bethlehem Central School System to task in a very critical and unreasonable manner in a letter to the Spotlight.

Apparently Mr. Ruthman is a professional obstructionist and is against just about everything. He was a "write-in" candidate for both sewer and water commissioner because, as he said in a newspaper article, "I don't like to see an election with one name on the ticket." Further, he said he will run in the future for public office.

Mr. Editor, I sure hope he does because it will be a pleasure to vote against this "malcontent."

ing, but it does reflect the attitude of a community toward its school system and certainly has the effect of keeping good teachers from moving to other districts with higher salary scales.

Money spent on education is the best investment possible whether or not we have children in the schools. The world is changing too rapidly for us to be satisfied with the same type of education we received a generation ago. The demands on our children are much greater in this nuclear age. This means a heavier burden on our schools and our teachers.

The Town of Bethlehem deserves the best faculty available. We must maintain good morale in our schools and a respect and appreciation for our teachers. An increase in salary would be a step toward these ends.

Our teachers are asking for a modest salary increase. They certainly deserve it. Other professions with less public responsibilities receive much greater pay. Let's let the Board of Education know that the Bethlehem Central School teachers have the support of the community in their request.

Others appearing on the full-hour color program are dancers Roberta Lubell and Michael Maule and the Roger Wagner Chorale, with Donald Voorhees conducting the Bell Telephone Orchestra.

Jane Wyatt, television, stage and screen actress, will again play the triple role of hostess, narrator and dramatic reader as she did on last year's Christmas Telephone Hour.

Earl Wrightson and Florence Henderson, backed by a chorus of singers and dancers, will present carols and popular songs capturing the spirit of the season.

Metropolitan Opera star Mildred Miller, appearing for the second time on the Bell Telephone Hour on TV, will sing a group of traditional and sacred Christmas songs and will join the Roger Wagner Chorale in a spiritual finale. "Spotlighting the Area"

Most of our young college students have arrived home by now for the Christmas holiday, and many of them are hurrying to get ready for one of the Albany area's most exciting social events--the 3rd Annual Debutante Cotillion.

The dance will take place tomorrow night from 9 to 2 at the Sheraton-Ten Eyck Hotel. As we mentioned last week, among the eight young ladies who will make their formal debuts at the gala party are Candace King of Loudonville, daughter of the "Spotlight" publisher, and Kay Herrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Cady Herrick of Slingerlands.

Many private parties have been scheduled both before and after the dance itself--these collegians are a hardy bunch-- and the Tri-Village will be well represented at the cotillion and at the various parties.

Some of the college coeds from this area who will participate in the festivities are Miss Diana Lesuk, Miss Cheryl Maxwell, Miss Joan Wirth, Miss Susan Shultz, Miss Roberta Watson, Miss Susan Pesnal, Miss Polly Hale, Miss Deborah Rodgers and Miss Patricia Jones. Both Miss Rodgers and Miss Jones were debutantes last year.

Among the male contingent will be D. Cady Herrick 3rd, Howard Flierl, Norman Teahan, Del Adamson, Sidney Jones 3rd, John F. Ten Eyck and Charles Beardsley.

The youngsters won't have at the joyous Christmas season

Peace on earth,
good will to all

"Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a heavenly host praising God and saying, 'Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.'" Across the years echo the words of the Christmas story, an inspiration, a promise and a blessing to all mankind. At this holy, joyous season, we wish to all our friends and customers a holiday rich in the spiritual rewards of Christmas, and a full portion of all the good things that a happy Yuletide holds.

Fifers and Drummers Have New Leader: R. Mulligan

The Delmar Fife and Drum Corps, better known as the Volunteers, have a new leader. He is Robert E. Mulligan, a Delmar resident and a history teacher at Philip Livingston Junior High School. He has replaced Robert C. McLean who was transferred to Syracuse earlier this fall.

The corps is presently practicing on Friday nights at the Bethlehem Junior High School. There are 20 some members including Bob Barned, Brit Brown, Jim Colfer, Jerry Deighan, Baron Fitzgerald, John Fitzgerald, Bill Frueh, Dave Gregory, Ray Hauley, Tracy Kunz, Dick MacDowell, Greg McGrath, Dave Morse, Bob Morse, Buz Olsen, Scott Radley, Chuck Roberts, Pete Schaap, Rick Stewart, and Bob Tinney.

New members are needed, so anyone with a desire to learn the drum or fife is urged to be at the Junior High at 7:30 P.M. on Friday nights.

Later this month, the corps will present its fifth annual Christmas caroling exhibition, followed by a holiday party.

QUESTION: What was the most meaningful Christmas present you ever received?

MRS. GEORGE PARKER, 184 Roweland Avenue, Delmar: "There are two that I think of immediately. The first is a wallet my daughter, Sandra, made and gave to me one Christmas when she was about 10 years old. I haven't used it often; instead, I've saved it carefully because it meant so much to me. The second was a gift of finely-cut wooden figures that Sandra's German fiance sent to me last year. His choice of present indicated to me his sensitivity and love of fine art, qualities he later exhibited when I met him."

MRS. GRACE L. ERKSON, principal, Glenmont School: "This will probably be amusing to the young girls I know today, but when I was in the fifth grade I received a black fountain pen that I loved and treasured. It was the thing then to wear a pen around your neck on a velvet ribbon; and when I received one it made me very happy to be able to wear it the way all my friends were doing."

ROLLAND TRUITT, director of music, Bethlehem Central Schools: "I don't think of any particular present, but the Christmas that stands out in my mind was in 1942. That was the year of the first Bethlehem Christmas Festival, and I left the day after it to serve in the Armed Forces. Leaving the community just at that time made me realize how much all my friends here meant to me. I didn't do much in the war, when you consider how much so many men did; but I wanted to help--even though it meant leaving Delmar for a while."

MRS. FRANKLIN H. ASHBY, JR., 28 Paxwood Road, Delmar: "I had never seen snow until I was 23 years old, when I got married and moved north from Florida. Maybe most Delmar residents don't think of snow as something special, but the "White Christmas" that year was a perfect present for me."

MRS. CARL J. FREUDENREICH, 7 Morningside Drive, Elsmere: "The best Christmas present I ever received was my husband, when he returned home just a few days before Christmas, 1945, after being away in the service for four years."

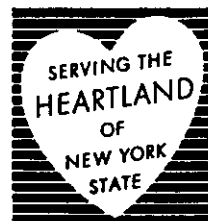

MRS. ARTHUR P. WHITE, 128 Adams Place, Delmar: "Just before Christmas in 1944 I remember praying that my husband and two sons, who were away in the war, would be safe. Two of them returned home safely; and I know now that my son, Jim, who was killed in action, was just as "safe" in another way. This present was not one that was very meaningful at first, but over the years--especially when I see veterans who were injured and today can't find a constructive use for their lives--I have come to realize Jim's "safety" is indeed something for which I can be grateful."

NEAL MOYLAN, 12 Pine Street, Elsmere: "I remember the Christmas of 1945, because I returned home to Syracuse--and my wife and son--from a B-29 outfit in Guam five days after Christmas. Being with them again was the best present I ever received, even though it came a few days late."

MRS. FRED EDMUNDS, 17 Voorheesville Avenue, Voorheesville: "The Christmas gifts I think I appreciated the most were presents for my first child that my husband and I received from our families before she was born. Fred and I were in Sacramento, California, that Christmas because he was in the Air Force during the Korean conflict. It was disappointing to be so far away from our families, who were in New York, at Christmas-time; but getting gifts for our first child made us realize how soon we would be a family ourselves."

WILLIAM SCHOONMAKER, Lyons Avenue, Delmar: "When I was 11 years old, my father promised me I'd get a pair of high-top boots and a jack-knife for Christmas. He died before that Christmas Day, but I did receive both presents just as he had promised. Even though I was quite young, that meant more to me than any other Christmas gifts I ever received."

MRS. JOHN STOKOE, 3 Edgewood Road, Slingerlands: "I have just been trying to remember what presents I liked most as a child, in planning what to get for our two children. The two that come to my mind are a gold watch I received when I was about 16 and a pair of ice skates I received when I was eight. Both were things I had been wanting.

Saint Nick & Safety Belts!

When old Saint Nick tosses the last gift on top of his sleigh-load this Christmas Eve, plants a kiss on Mrs. Nick's cheek and hauls his ample frame up into the driver's seat, you can bet that he'll buckle a seat belt around that "little round belly" of his before Dasher, Dancer, Rudolph and Company go jetting off to the south. After all, space is getting to be a busy place these days; and if Nick collides with something from Canaveral, he wants to be safely belted in!

If you don't have seat belts in your car, they will make an extremely valuable Christmas gift for your family. More and more, the public is buckling down to this wise protection. Yet, one poll indicates that only about 35% of those having belts always use them,

How effective are seat belts? As for their strength, it was dramatically proved in Madison, Wisconsin, when a smashed car was suspended from a steel beam by only a seat belt!

The American Automobile Association conducted a survey in 22 states, and reported that seat belts were responsible for one-third to two-thirds fewer injuries and up to four-fifths fewer deaths.

Indiana discovered that in 495 fatal traffic accidents, 47% resulted because people with beltless cars or unused seat belts were thrown from their automobiles.

Niagara Mohawk Cautions Against Holiday Fires

An "Electrically Safe Christmas" was urged today by Niagara Mohawk Power Corporation.

The power company noted that many fires are caused each Christmas season by the dangerous use of worn lighting sets, overloading of house electrical circuits and by leaving lighted tree lights unattended.

The use of aluminum trees in the home also presents a hazard, the company said, if the trees are wired for lights. Should the wiring break down, the entire tree can become charged with electricity. Such trees should be floodlighted, instead, Niagara Mohawk said.

Rules of tree lighting safety include:

Use only tree lighting sets bearing the UL (Underwriters Laboratories) label.

Check lighting sets BEFORE using for frayed wires, loose connections, and broken sockets.

Make sure the fuse on the electrical circuit used for lighting is not over 15 amperes.

Call an electrician for extensive holiday lighting.

Don't plug too many cords into one outlet.

Make certain that all tree lighting is turned off before you retire or leave the house.
