

LETTER

Dear Sir:

At the public hearing on zoning at Town Hall on February 20, Mr. Schoonmaker made what seemed to be some very salient points which, unfortunately, apparently passed over the heads of the Town Board.

He started out by saying that he doubted the people of Bethlehem realized the full far-reaching and deep-seated involvements of such an amendment as proposed by the Board for these reasons:

1. The change affects not merely a local district, such as Delaware Avenue, but restaurants and lunchrooms in the whole of Bethlehem, irrespective of location.

2. The fact that the application comes before the Board of Appeals in the first place automatically, in case of dispute, leads to court actions and litigation that might not be necessary if the zoning ordinance change was limited to Delaware Avenue.

3. Any lunchroom or restaurant no matter how long it has been in business desiring to build a substantial addition or extension will have to make application to the Board of Appeals for a special permit.

4. The real heart of the present controversy is the classification and meaning of a restaurant or lunchroom under the present zoning ordinance, and the amendment will not resolve this most pertinent question.

4. There is no need for an amendment. If the Town Board decides, as it should within its responsibility, whether the eatery under consideration is desirable or undesirable, it has merely to say so - it is as simple as that.

6. No zoning ordinance of any other town excludes all restaurants and in this respect

"WHEN YOU VISIT A COLLEGE" MEETING THEME

The Guidance Department of Bethlehem Central Senior High School is planning to hold two meetings during the week of March 11th for the Junior Class. The theme of these meetings will be "When You Visit A College." The purpose is to acquaint the junior students, who may be visiting colleges during the Easter Vacation, with some of the basic facts concerning college visitations and interviews.

The program will run as follows:

Monday, March 11th, 2 P.M., Senior High School Auditorium - Film Strip and Recording: "When You Visit A College." Panel Discussion: Miss Superko, 12th Grade Counselor and four seniors who have had college interviews.

Friday, March 15th, 2 P.M., Senior High School Auditorium - Two members of the Junior Class will be interviewed by: Mr. Jonathan Pearson, Admissions Office, Union College; Mr. Bernard P. Currier, Admissions Office, Siena College.

Following the 'interviews' and comments by the two speakers, there will be a question and answer period.

A cordial invitation is extended to all parents who would be interested in attending one, or both, of these meetings.

Buy Easter Seals!!

Mrs. Mark K. H. Wang has been appointed chairman for the 1963 Easter Seal Drive for Albany and Rensselaer Counties.

Appointments to the committee were announced by the Northeastern New York Speech Center, of Albany, the local affiliate of the Association for Crippled Children and Adults of New York State.

The Center cares for patients from a surrounding area of seven counties. Nearly 80 per cent of all money collected locally goes toward the support of the Center at 652 Washington Avenue.

The Easter Seal Drive will be conducted from March 7 through April 14.

the zoning ordinance itself might be subject to question as to its legality.

Why doesn't the Town of Bethlehem join the Urban-Planning Assistance program (we would pay only 1/6th of the cost) like the progressive communities?

Sincerely,

Bethlehem Resident
Name Submitted

Don't you wish there was a station wagon that was as much fun as a convertible?

Surprise!

Here's the only station wagon you can buy with a hole in its roof: the VW Station Wagon.

The hole has a name: we call it a sun roof.

And it isn't just a tiny hole-in-the-roof. It's big! (Opened, it measures 38 by 54 inches.)

It's even more versatile than a convertible top. You can stop it in its tracks wherever you want, and let in as much or as little sunshine and fresh air as you like.

What's more, it lets you tote tall objects (that couldn't fit in a conventional wagon).

Other surprises: the VW Station Wagon is 4 feet shorter than most conventional wagons, has about 65 cubic feet more space inside, and costs you hundreds of dollars less.

Come in and see a new VW Station Wagon today. (And don't be surprised if you drive home with it.)

YOUR MONEY'S WORTH

MADAM - Do you glare with dislike and irritation at the knives and forks you use every day?

For $20, Madam, you can change all that. Think of it, for $20 you get: Magnificent style, a lifetime guarantee, 50 pieces (service for 8) Dishwasher Proof Stainless Steel!!!

Phew! Sorry to get so emotional about a matter-of-fact subject like stainless steel knives and forks. We believe that it's a get-your-money's-worth buy, so rare and so temporary that in a few years you'll be saying, "Remember back in '63, when I bought this set? Couldn't replace it today for three times the price."

Speaking of rarities, those lovely iridescent Dansk matts are on sale at $4.98 per set of 4. Regular price - $7.80. Hurry, hurry, quantities limited.

A new import shipment of Queen's White arrived this week. It's that sparkling, fluted, pure white English Ironstone dinnerware. Our price is $21.98 for service for 8 - 50 pieces. Unfortunately, this will probably be the last time we'll be able to offer you these dishes at this wonderful price. ASSOCIATION ARRANGES FOR PUBLIC MEETING

The organizing committee of the Delaware Avenue Area Development Association, which is attracting wide attention and support for its interest in promotion of positive planning and zoning, is completing plans for a public meeting to be held at the Elsmere Elementary School at 8:00 P.M. on either the 13th or 14th of this month.

The Committee has announced plans to have at least two outstanding speakers address the meeting on matters of area planning which are of direct and specific interest to residents and business people of the Delaware Avenue area as well as the Town of Bethlehem.

Mrs. George W. Hemstead, one of the outstanding women spokesman on matters of community development and planning is scheduled to speak. The Committee is also arranging for a presentation by an expert in the field of regional and community planning.

In addition to the existing Committee which numbers approximately 30 residents of the area who are interested and active in building a better community, several leading women of the Town have joined the effort under the leadership of Mrs. Robert Shaw of Burhans Place. Among these are: Mrs. Herbert G. Steele of Adams Place, Mrs. Wilhelm Moe of Normanside Ave., Miss Marjorie Terrell of Delaware Ave., and Miss Frances Haner of Marlboro Road.

The exact date of the meeting will be announced shortly.

In the Tri-Village area there has been greater participation this year in the "Great Decisions" program than ever before. There are five adult discussion groups, and four classes of Bethlehem Central pupils that use the kit material as the basis for their study of foreign policy.

Here in our community, discussion groups that meet weekly - during February and March - have been organized and are enjoying enthusiastic support. Richard Mattox heads a group that meets Thursday evenings at the Delmar Presbyterian Church, and Dr. Milton Hamilton was instrumental in getting together a Slingerlands group that meets Wednesday evenings.

Mrs. Wayne Davis and Mrs.

Alexander Rothschild spear-headed the organization of a Friday night group, as did Mrs. Richard Mattox and Mrs. Alan Gittlesohn for Wednesday night sessions. Mrs. Richard C. Taylor started an afternoon group this year, on Wednesdays, particularly for women who find it easier to get out during the day than in the evening.

During this two-month period, luncheons are held weekly at the YWCA in Albany with speakers who are authorities on the subject for that week. Kits containing a wealth of information on all eight topics are made available to all discussion group participants, and everyone has a chance to vote - after the discussions - on what policy he favors.

skill Neighborhood have started making bandages from knitted material and used sheeting, to be sent to the Albert Schweitzer Hospital in Haiti.

The hospital was established by Dr. William Larimer Mellon Jr., whose wife is a former resident of Slingerlands. Dr. and Mrs. Mellon used their entire personal fortune to start the hospital.

As their international project, called "Hope for Haiti," the girls will also make flannel receiving blankets, and collect used, cotton clothing to fit children from birth to age 8.

If you have any children's clothing that could be worn by needy Haitian youngsters rather than collecting dust in your attic - or any torn, worn sheets - why not give them to an area Girl Scout? Or you may leave what you have with Mrs. Harold E. Williams, at the Thistle

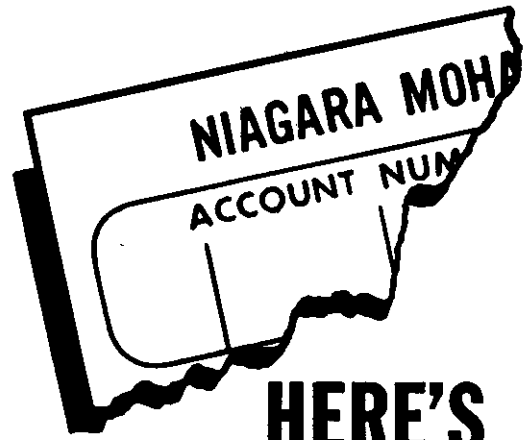

Yarn and Gift Shop in Delmar.

The Bethlehem Business and Professional Women's Club has already set aside a sum of money to cover the cost of mailing articles collected for the hospital.

Normanskill Neighborhood scouts were asked to participate in the project by the Senior Scouts of Troops 106 and 304, at the Juliette Low Program held Feb. 16. Project deadline is April 5, when all articles will be brought to a Girl Scout Activities Night for display, before being shipped to the South Seas.

If you got a separate bill for each electric appliance you use, you could get as many as sixty bills per month. Every year you find more and more uses for electricity in your home.
