NURSERY SCHOOL PRESENTS DISNEY FILM SATURDAY

Walt Disney's "Hoppity Goes To Town" - winner of the Parents' Magazine Family Medal Award - will be presented in the Clarksville and Tri-Village areas on Saturday, March 16. To be shown in the Clarksville School at 10:30 a.m. and in the Bethlehem Central Junior High School at 2:00 p.m., the film is the second in a series sponsored locally by Tri-Village Nursery School. Donations of $.35 for children and $.50 for adults will be accepted at the door beginning twenty minutes before show time.

"Hoppity Goes To Town" is the story of how Hoppity leads Honey Bee and her family and friends to a Shangri-La home in a penthouse garden. Big-city dwellers, they undergo trials and tribulations in the process - all told with action, fun and songs. The film will last approximately 1 1/2 hours.

Mrs. Thomas R. Lewis, nursery school executive committee chairman, reported that on March 2, "Dumbo" played to entranced audiences, with a full house in the afternoon. "We are most gratified," she said, "over this enthusiastic reception of our film series."

NANCY TUDICO AWARDED FIRST ANNUAL GLENMONT SCHOOL SCHOLARSHIP

Nancy J. Tudico, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tudico of Glenmont, a former sixth grade pupil at the Glenmont Elementary School and a senior at Bethlehem Central School in Delmar, has been awarded the first Glenmont PTA Scholarship Grant. The award represents $300 which will be given to Miss Tudico in two payments; one in September, the other prior to the beginning of the second semester of the student's freshmen year in college.

Miss Tudico has been active in the Future Teachers of America Club as Chaplain and a member of its Activities Committee, chairman of the Points Committee and president of the Club in her senior year.

She is on the School Year Book Staff, has been a member of the Spanish Club and in her junior year was a participant in the Canteen Show.

Music activities include membership in the concert choir for 3 years, the Chansonettes, the Choraliers and the Starlighters.

The alternate chosen by the Scholarship Selection Committee of the Bethlehem Senior High School is George Kondred Parry, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Parry of Feura Bush Road, Delmar, also a former Glenmont Elementary School pupil.

The Glenmont PTA will continue to present this award annually to a Bethlehem Senior who has completed the final two years of his elementary school at Glenmont. The selection is based on sincerity of desire of the student to continue his education and scholastic achievement.

Soon after the Glenmont School was established in 1956, its PTA concluded that a scholarship program for students was the one worthy project it wished to promote. A Scholarship Committee was formed and worked for several years formulating procedures to be followed in establishing the Scholarship as an annual award.

Nancy J. Tudico

PTA members and many friends of the school in the vicinity of Glenmont have given countless hours to the PTA's major money raising event, the Glenmont Variety Show which was presented annually under the direction of John Schoch for the past four years. Receipts from bake sales and contributions received from a dance group, the Helderberg Twirlers, have helped the PTA reach its financial goal and made the scholarship program possible.

The formal presentation of the award to Miss Tudico will be made on March 14 at 8:00 p.m. at the Glenmont School. Taking part in the presentation will be Mr. Carl Kundel, PTA president, Mr. Richard Hussey, chairman of the Scholarship Committee, and Miss Ruth Doyle, sixth grade teacher at the time Miss Tudico was at Glenmont.

CHURCH PLANS EDUCATION WING

Plans for expansion of the First Methodist Church of Delmar located at 428 Kenwood Avenue are progressing, following approval by the congregation last November 18 and authorization by the Quarterly Conference December 17.

Construction, scheduled to start this spring following a building fund campaign, will consist primarily of a new education wing, a two-story L shaped structure 50 x 125 feet. Also included in the plans are numerous improvements in existing buildings to provide an enlarged fellowship hall, new and larger kitchen, enlarged lounge and choir room, enlarged chapel, enlarged balcony in the sanctuary, increased administration space and structural improvements for increased convenience and safety.

With recently purchased property adjoining the present property on the east and west, the church will have a continuous frontage of 384 feet on Kenwood Avenue and 220 feet on Nathaniel Boulevard. Four existing frame buildings will be razed to provide off-street parking space for 170 cars.

"We are now faced with the challenge of a growing church in a rapidly expanding community," said Rev. Arthur P. White, pastor for the past 17 years. "Our needs are evident to anyone who moves through the church school on a Sunday morning or any evening during the week," he said.

The cost of the building program, designated as Phase 2 of the church's long range building program, will be approximately $432,000, according to Fayette C. Walworth, chairman of the building committee. Assisting Mr. Walworth on the building committee are Harold H. Geurtze, Ronald S. Hall, Mrs. Robert L. McNitt, Mrs. Douglas D. Reynolds, William B. Strong and Charles W. Turner, Jr.

Architects are Charles A. Schade and William N. Marden, associate, of Albany who have designed numerous churches in the capital district.

The original Methodist Church in Delmar (then called Adamsville) was erected 130 years ago - in 1833 - at 413 Kenwood Avenue. In 1873, a new sanctuary was built at 428 Kenwood Avenue where the present church now stands. A major building program was accomplished in 1929 with the construction of a parish house in the rear of the sanctuary. The sanctuary was enlarged in 1952.

ASSOCIATION TO HAVE MEETING NEXT TUESDAY, MAR. 19

The organizing committee of the Delaware Avenue Area Development Association, a newly organized association of citizens interested in planning and zoning matters in the Town of Bethlehem, has announced the finalization of plans for a public meeting to air the subject at the Elsmere Grade School on Tuesday, March 19, at 8 p.m. Residents and business people of the town are cordially invited to attend, a spokesman for the Committee reported.

A sub-committee which has been active in formulation of the program indicates that the meeting will be organized so as to cover the program in a minimum period of time and to allow for discussion and questions from the floor. The meeting is reportedly being held in response to the growing interest within the community in the subject of orderly residential-business-professional development of what the Committee has referred to as "a community in the process of rapid growth and transition."

Principal speaker on the program will be Roger L. Creighton, a noted planner, who is presently Director of Upstate New York Transportation Studies, an agency of the State Department of Public Works. Mr. Creighton has directed much of the metropolitan area planning in the Niagara Frontier and was formerly Associate Director of the Chicago Area Transportation Study and also Planning Director for the City of Portland, Maine. He resides on Devon Road, Delmar.

In addition to Mr. Creighton, the Committee will present Mrs. George W. Hemstead, whose interests and accomplishments in community activities of this nature are widely known. To round out the program, one or two others who are intimately acquainted with matters of planning and zoning in the Town of Bethlehem will speak.

"Mr. Mood" at Elsmesian

Everyone who has dropped in at the Elsmesian Restaurant recently is raving about "Mr. Mood," whose piano playing produces just about the prettiest mood music you've ever listened to.

"Mr. Mood" is George Paddilla, well-known supper club pianist, who came to this area for an engagement three years ago. Area demand for his music has led him from one club to another and the original "engagement" has never ended. His most recent TV appearance was on the Earle Pudney Show.

Rink Closed for Season

Rodger J. Fryer, Commander of Nathaniel Adams Blanchard Post #1040, announced last week the American Legion Skating Rink at Van Rome Pond on Gardner Terrace had been closed for the season.

Commander Fryer expressed his thanks to the many Legionnaires as well as fathers of children who used the rink, for their help in contributing to a most successful season. He gave particular thanks to Wright Brothers, 97 Elsmere Avenue, and F. Harris Patterson, Inc., 100 Adams Street, Delmar, for donating their snow plowing equipment to keep the pond cleared.

It used to be that when women talked about "curling," they were giving instructions to their hairdressers. Not any more. Now when they use the word, they are more likely to be referring to the new and popular sport that is played on ice, by both men and women.

Never having witnessed "bonspeil," I couldn't possibly describe how curling is played. But I do know that those who participate in the sport are wildly enthusiastic about it, and I plan to visit the Albany Curling Club, on Schoolhouse Rd. in McKownville, one of these days just to see what the big attraction is.

Last weekend the club held mixed competition, beginning Friday night and lasting through Sunday. Most members took time out for a dinner party at the club Saturday, and then winners were announced and received awards at a cocktail party Sunday evening.

Of the approximately 130 Albany Curling Club members, many reside in the Tri-Village area. Some of them who were on the ice last weekend were Ev and Betty Parry, Connie and Bob Baker, Ed and Bess Crandell, Orville and Helen Crook, Prentiss and Jane Rodgers, Gren and Alice Rand, Connie and Bill Eaton, Ruby and Charles Turner, Del Everett, Ruth Kirkman, Martha McClintock, Herman and Werner Liebich.

"Bonspeil," it was pointed out to me, means "good time," and I guess that's what curling is all about. It certainly has a language all its own - or do you know what "skipping a rink" means?

Anyway, a group of female curlers from the Albany club will be going to Schenectady tomorrow, for a "bonspeil" with the women of that club. I guess it's safe to say "good luck in the competition," without misusing any terms.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Dukehart Chesney of 37 Paxwood Rd. in Delmar entertained Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lane Rubendall as their house guests last weekend.

Mr. Rubendall is president of Dickinson College, and former president of the Northfield School. He preached the sermon Sunday at the First Presbyterian Church in Albany, as part of that church's 200th Anniversary Celebration.

The Chesney's invited some friends in to meet the Rubendall's on Saturday night.

Mrs. Audrey Taolini, a 1st grade teacher at Glenmont Elementary School and last year's Bethlehem Community Ambassador, spoke Tuesday evening to members of the Delmar Progress Club and their families.

The program, planned by the Government Group of the Progress Club, was held at the Delmar Public Library. Mrs. William Bowie and Mrs. Arthur McHugh are co-chairmen of the group.

Mrs. Taolini was one of 11 Americans who visited Nigeria last summer, spending one month with a Nigerian family and another month traveling throughout the country. She illustrated her talk with slides she had taken while in Nigeria.

The Progress Club is one of the organizations which sponsors and supports the Community Ambassador project.

All of Delmar's younger set

(and I mean quite young!) is buzzing about the current big attraction at the Delmar Game Farm. Three bear cubs are being nursed and cared for by Mrs. Clinton H. Bishop, wife of the game farm's zoo director.

Since January, when the cubs were delivered to the Bishops, groups of children from the Tri-Village area have been flocking out to see them.

The three baby bears were left motherless shortly after their birth, when a hunter near Saranac Lake unwittingly came upon the family scene and was forced to shoot the mother bear when she rushed to attack him. He turned the cubs over to the State Conservation Department, and officials decided they should be sent to Delmar.

Mrs. Bishop is giving the cubs plenty of tender loving care. "It's just like having a newborn baby around," she told me, "because I have to mix their formula and sterilize their bottles and feed them every four hours."

But thanks to her - and a sympathetic hunter - the cubs are well on their way to becoming healthy, happy citizens of that popular animal settlement known as the Delmar Game Farm.
