ALPAN A-FRAME GRAND PRIZE AT HOME SHOW

CHAIRMAN OF THE 1963 Home Show at the Washington Avenue Armory is James Michaels, landscaper and builder of Colonial Acres in Glenmont.

The Shore Colony, Assembly Point, Lake George, will be the permanent home of the Alpan A-Frame, Grand Prize Award of the 1963 Home Show Research Exposition, March 16 through 24 at the Washington Avenue Armory, Albany. Here is the Shore Colony Story:

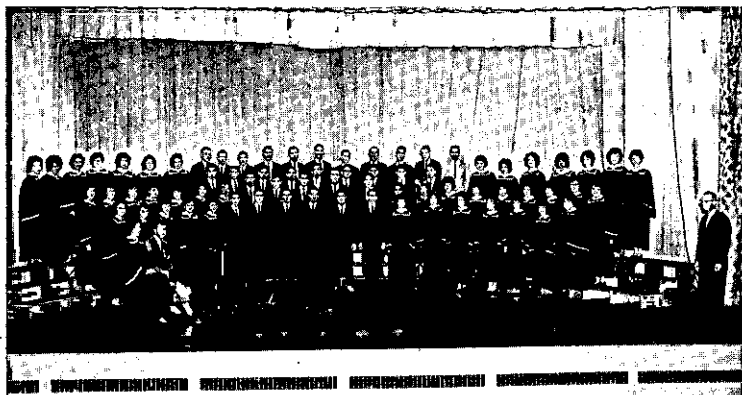

Located on Assembly Point in the heart of Lake George's finest residential area, SHORE COLONY is a modern development consisting of a limited number of sensibly restricted lots designed for modest, but permanent, summer homes (no trailers permitted). It is only 6 miles from Lake George Village on Route 9L. Here on the shores of beautiful Harris Bay you can live, play and have your own Vacation Home or Cottage at a reasonable price. At SHORE COLONY you can enjoy the many advantages of Lake George at about one-half the cost of the usual summer home. A cottage at Lake George has been the dream of thousands of people but, for many, prices have made it impractical. Here is the opportunity for fun-loving, budget-conscious families to make that dream come true - A RECREATION HOME ON LAKE GEORGE!

COLLECTING TALLIES AND Wrapping Prizes for Albany Panhellenic Card Party and Fashion Show to be held on March 26, are: Mrs. Robert Pike, Mrs. Alan Hilchie, Mrs. Lewis Welch and Mrs. Ralph Sutliff.

Village Lawn

The cleanness and delicacy of Village Lawn® is a perennial delight, like the first crocus. Minute flowers . . . curling spikey leaves and tendrils . . . breath-of-air cotton. The dress is the VILLAGER dress, also a perennial delight . . . roll sleeves, pan collar, matching burlap belt. Fresh clear monotonies of Blue, Red, Olive. Sizes 6 to 16.

Shell Collection Featured at Delmar Public Library

Anyone with an hour to spend can enjoyably use it examining the shell collection of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dewire now on display in the Community Room of the Delmar Public Library. Combining shells from Cape Cod and Florida in an exhibit of several hundred items, the collection includes the dainty kitten's paw, the heart shaped cockle, the lacy murex and dozens of others. The graduated rows of shells have as much fascination as the shark's teeth or calico coral or the handsome horseshoe crab. The labeling of individual pieces adds much to the enjoyment of this exhibit which will be at the Library until April 15th.

Mrs. Wallace MacBride has loaned to the Delmar Public Library her collection of red and white Venetian and Victorian glass. Gathered over a period of years the berry dishes, creamer-sugar, drinking glasses and other items of Mrs. MacBride's collection glow with the ruby color so popular in the mid 1800's, with touches of gold banding emphasizing the designs. On display until April 15th, the collection is housed in the Hallway.

At 7:30 a.m. one cold, windy morning last week, about 40 Tri-Village women boarded a bus at the Delaware Plaza, on their way to an exciting day in the Big City. The women (who were joined by three stalwart males) were members of the Garden Group of the Delmar Progress Club, and their destination was the 46th International Flower Show at the New York Coliseum.

Once the bus rolled into New York, all the ladies were on their own. Most of them visited the flower show, took in a matinee, and even had time for some shopping before getting back on the bus at 8 p.m. Twenty of them were lucky enough to have obtained tickets for "How to Succeed in Business without Really Trying," and thoroughly enjoyed the hit musical.

In spite of the un-Springlike weather, the flower show reminded them that April showers and warm breezes can't be TOO far away, and many of the local gardeners bought plants and seeds in readiness for the time when winter will take its leave.

Among the women who made the trip were Mrs. Reuben Warrell, chairman of the Garden Group; Mrs. Albert Ehrenfreund, Mrs. Henry Nachbar, Mrs. Perle Kezer, Mrs. Anthony Proto, Mrs. F. Harris Patterson, Mrs. Russell Miller, Mrs. William Murphy, Mrs. Eric Lake, Mrs. Gordon Brower, Mrs. Charles Carroll, Mrs. Raymond Lewis, Mrs. John Haberer, and Mrs. Albin Studler.
