

REHEARSING A SCENE from the Slingerlands Players' forthcoming production of "Sabrina Fair," a sparkling four-act comedy, to be presented May 24 and 25 at Bethlehem High School auditorium are: John Moore, Dick Weeks, Joan Jamison and Dick Sanderson.

FRANCIS MURPHY AND HIS ORCHESTRA will appear out Hamagrael way as parents get into the swing of things for the 7th Annual PTA Dance to be held on Friday evening, May 24, from 9 to 1. Dance Chairmen Dr. and Mrs. Sidney Archer, have been planning throughout the winter to make this the most memorable dance yet. A Spree in the Sea, the theme, suggests myriads of treasure chests among mermaids and sea horses at play. The Harold Willards with capable crew are sailing into the decorations quarter with their usual unusual variations on underwater activity.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harder, Hospitality Chairmen, have a few ideas up their sleeves too, one of which is the contributing of trading stamps by the parents for all door and contest prizes. All contributions will be gratefully accepted. Other crew members assisting are: Mr. and Mrs. William J. Schoonmaker, Food Chairmen; Dr. and Mrs. Franklin Rosenberg, Ticket Chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald LeMaster, Properties; and Mr. and Mrs. Arland Schonher, Publicity Chairmen.

CHARLES J. HAEUSSER TO BE GRAND MARSHAL OF MEMORIAL DAY PARADE

Charles J. Haeusser, President of Chapter 2, Middle Atlantic Blind Golfers' Association, has been appointed Grand Marshal of the Town of Bethlehem's Memorial Day Parade. An industrial accident seven years ago destroyed Mr. Haeusser's sight. A year later he decided to take up golf and was taught by Jerry Dwyer, pro at the Albany Municipal Golf Course. Last year they teamed up in the Pro-Blind Tournament, held at Van Schoick Country Club and won the championship for the 1962 season.

Mr. Haeusser is a member of Nathaniel Adams Blanchard Post #1040, American Legion, which has sponsored the Memorial Day Parade in Delmar for the past 34 years. During World War II Legionnaire Haeusser was a Gunner's Mate 1st Class on Amphibious Gunboat LCSL 14. All of his service was in the Pacific theater where he participated in the Battle of Okinawa and the initial landing on Japan. He now resides at 192 Summit Avenue, Hampton Manor, New York.

This year's parade will consist of five divisions and will begin at 10:00 A.M. from the Post Hall. Units are requested to assemble at 9:30 A.M. The route of march will be from the Blanchard Post Hall, South on Elsmere Avenue to Kenwood Avenue, West on Kenwood Avenue to the Four Corners, then East on Delaware Avenue to the Servicemen's Memorial Park at the railroad pass. Memorial services will be conducted there at 11:00 A.M.

Honorary Grand Marshal for the parade will be the Supervisor of the Town of Bethlehem, Hon. Bertram E. Kohinke. Aides to the Grand Marshal will be Frederick Mosmen and Edward Starkweather. Legiomaire Robert E. Mulligan is chairman of the parade committee and will answer all queries regarding it. He may be reached at HE 9-9064.

Marshall of the first division will be Blanchard Post Commander Rodger Fryer. His aides will be Charles J. O'Hara and Wayne Davis. The division will consist of Blanchard Post members and auxiliary plus the Yankee Doodle Band.

will be Commander William R. Pauley of Bethlehem Memorial Post #3185, Veterans of Foreign Wars. His aides will be Thomas Pratt and Lawrence Welter. They will assemble in the parking lot behind St. Stephen's Church. The division will consist of the members and auxiliary of Post #3185 and the Colton High School Band.

For the first time in Blanchard history, a lady member has been appointed as division marshal. She is Mrs. Robert S. Strickland who served as a Wave in World War II. Her aides will be Mrs. LeRoy J. Cooke, representing the Girl Scouts, and Mrs. Edward Kleinke, Jr., representing the 4H Clubs. The division will assemble on Herber Avenue facing Elsmere Avenue. It will consist of Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts, Girl Scouts and Brownies, 4H Clubs and the Bethlehem Central High School Band.

Division Five will contain the fire departments of the Tri-Village area. Marshal will be Chief Robert Collins of Slingerlands. His aides will be Chief Richard Smith of Elsmere and Chief George Martin of Delmar. Their foot units and motorized equipment will be joined by fire trucks from the Glenmont (Selkirk No. 2) and North Bethlehem fire departments. Music will be provided by the 3rd Regt. Veterans' Corps Band.

Jean Hinkelman 1963 Delegate

Miss Jean Hinkelman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin C. Hinkelman, 64 Roweland Avenue, Delmar, New York, will be a delegate this June to the Empire Girls State at New Paltz State Teachers College.

Miss Hinkelman, a junior at Bethlehem Central Senior High School, Delmar will represent the Ladies Auxiliary of the Nathaniel Adams Blanchard American Legion Post, #1040.

She was chosen because of her outstanding academic record and leadership qualities. Miss Hinkelman has been active in Student Council work and in sports. Among other honors, she has been chosen one of three from Bethlehem Central Senior High School to participate in a social studies conference at Syracuse University.

Intensive training in democratic leadership is given to

Bethlehem Chamber Announces 1963 Essay Contest Winners

The Bethlehem Chamber of Commerce again this year sponsored an Essay Contest for Senior High School Students. The theme of this year's contest was "Bethlehem in '93". The length of the Essay was to be 350-500 words.

The following were judges: Mrs. Katherine DePorte, Mr. Emmet N. O'Brien, Mrs. Eleanor H. Morton.

The deadline for the contest was May 1st. Since that time the judges have been over each and every entry and have announced the following winners: First Prize - Elaine Calistro, 22 Borthwick Avenue, Delmar - $25.00. Second Prize - Joanne Roeder, 39 Groesbeck Place, Delmar - $15.00 Third Prize - Tom Bohem, 123 Winne Road, Delmar - $10.00. Honorable Mention - Hugh Flick, 15 North Helderberg Parkway, Slingerlands.

Mrs. Gladys Hosey acted as chairman of this committee. She has arranged for the presentation of the prizes to be made at the Senior High School in their June Assembly.

The Chamber is very proud of all the students that competed in the contest. We must also thank the committee and the very fine judges who assisted in this venture.

Charter to Nursery School

An absolute charter has been granted to the Slingerlands Nursery School by the Board of Regents of the State of New York.

The school which is non-denominational is located in the Slingerlands Methodist Church. It was founded in January, 1960 by a group of interested parents headed by Mr. and Mrs. George Witt, Mr. and Mrs. Nickson Carey and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Macharg.

Applications are now being accepted for three and four year olds for the fall. For further information call Mrs. Rudolph Schaefer, HE 9-9256 or write to Box 1, Slingerlands, N. Y.

Legion to Install

New officers for the year beginning June 1st, 1963 will be installed by Past Commander Otto De Heus at the Nathaniel Adams Blanchard Post #1040, American Legion, on Saturday May 25th, at 8:30 p.m. A buffet lunch and dance will follow the Installation Ceremonies. Legion members and their guests are invited and urged to attend all three events.

Senior Citizens Events

Bethlehem Senior Citizens will attend a Ball at the Albany Armory on May 29.

On June 11, the group will have its annual luncheon and bus trip to Wally's Restaurant in Greenwich, New York, returning via Saratoga Battlefield.

CANDY! CANDY!

The candy is good. The price is $1.00. The boy is darling, he is so proud of his bright colored hat and shirt. This is a Tri-Village Little League ball player. The first week of June he will be calling on you to buy a box of candy. Please buy from him and help him feel he is doing his share of belonging to this wonderful organization.

Miss Mahoney in Recital

The Academy of the Holy Names will present Miss Suzanne Mahony in repertoire, May 26, at 3 P.M. Miss Mahoney is a senior at the Academy and has been studying music for nine years.

SUMMER SESSION AT SAINT ROSE STARTS ON JUNE 27

Graduate courses in special education, audio-lingual French, and radiation biology, undergraduate courses in astronomy, Latin composition, and a new history course on the Soviet Union will be offered this year by both the graduate and undergraduate divisions of The College of Saint Rose.

Beginning June 27, the summer session will cover six weeks and is open to both men and women. Registration is now going on by appointment. Final registration dates are Friday, June 14, from 4 to 5:30 P.M. and from 7 to 9 P.M., and Saturday, June 15 from 2 to 5 P.M.

Continuing its program to prepare teachers for the mentally retarded, the graduate division will offer a three-week practicum in which prospective teachers will have an opportunity to observe approved teaching techniques in an actual classroom setting. The course is approved for training grants by the New York State Education Department. Courses on organic speech disorders and speech correction will also be offered, leading to a master of arts degree in speech correction and hearing.

A course in Latin American Civilization taught by Rev. Michael McCloskey, O.F.M., chairman of the history department at Siena College inaugurates a cooperative graduate program, now being planned, between Siena and Saint Rose. Father McCloskey is exchanging with Sister Eileen Joseph, C.S.J., chairman of the history department at The College of Saint Rose. Sister Eileen Joseph will teach French Revolution and the Napoleonic Era in the Siena Graduate School this summer.

The intensive teacher training program enabling liberal arts college graduates to teach in the elementary grades will be offered by the graduate division for the 11th consecutive year. A demonstration school showing approved teaching techniques and actual classroom settings, attended by approximately 100 children from kindergarten through the first six grades, will be held in the Father Charles Memorial School.

A special reading course dealing with problems in teaching classroom reading in the elementary school will also be offered. Seminar courses on the graduate level will be conducted in the fields of English, history, business education and philosophy.

In the undergraduate division, a new course in history and political science on the Soviet Union will be offered. Astronomy will be taught again this summer, as will numerous courses in biology, anatomy, chemistry and physics. Business Administration and Economics of Consumption will be among the many courses taught in the field of Economics. Among the language courses offered will be Elementary German, French Reading, Conversation, and Composition; Advanced Spanish Grammar and Composition, and Latin Composition.

Other special undergraduate courses will be Foundations of Mathematics, Differential Calculus, History and Appreciation of Music, Design and Color, and numerous English courses to help teachers to meet certification requirements. A course in Children's Literature and Drama will be among these.

As in other years, the undergraduate programs will also include courses in a variety of other fields including, elementary and secondary education with methods on both elementary and secondary levels, philosophy, world geography, sociology, and business education.

Educational TV, transmitted over New York Telephone coaxial cables, is bringing French lessons to these Great Neck, Long Island, fifth graders. Like youngsters in other communities, who also learn by ETV, these children enjoy an expanded curriculum. ETV may also be one solution to the problem of an ever-increasing school population. Of course, telephones are for talking—but there's a whole lot more than talk on telephone lines today.

This Week's Recreation Program News

By William Fuller, Director

DAWN DANCE

The Dawn Dance originally scheduled for May 4 was postponed until Saturday, May 25. The Citizens' Advisory Commission is sponsoring this activity for the 6th straight year.

Dancing will be held between 6-8 A.M. in the Jr. High Dining Room. A Continental Breakfast will be served at 7 A.M. The Swimming Pool will be open from 8-9 A.M. for those desiring a morning swim. Admission will be 85 cents for couples, 50 cents for individuals.

SOFTBALL-

For the past three weeks, two Recreation softball activities have been operating at the Jr. High School. An informal elementary girls program is held each Saturday, weather permitting, between 10:30 and noon. At present between 35-40 girls are participating in this program, which is supervised by Mrs. Everett Watson.

The high school boys have formed a 4-team league under the supervision of Duane Amster. League games are played on Saturday afternoons beginning at 2:00 P.M. A 7-week schedule has been set, which includes two rounds of play and the play-offs. Presently 40 boys are participating in this league.

Congratulations to Mrs. James L. McGraw of 12 Birchwood Pl. in Delmar on her recent election as branch president of the American Association of University Women.

This national women's organization is in the process of considering some basic changes in program structure, and Mrs. McGraw will attend the national convention next month in Denver, Col., to participate in the deliberations. She will be accompanied by another Delmarite, Mrs. Paul Lemon of 5 E. Fernbank Ave., also an active AAUW member.

The branch president whom Mrs. McGraw succeeds this year, Mrs. C. E. Raymond Haight, has recently moved from Western Ave. in Albany to a new home in Colonial Acres, Glenmont. Anxious to show off her lovely residence, she has already entertained one AAUW group there, and has another event - a picnic - scheduled for June 6.

The picnic will be for members of the Higher Education Study Group, an informal close-out of its year's activities, and Mrs. Joseph Einhorn will be present to tell about her recent trip abroad.

Miss Barbara Olivia Gypson became Mrs. Tracey Romuald Lanthier, in a ceremony at St. Thomas' Church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell H. Gypson, Jr. of 427 Delaware Ave. in Delmar. Mr. Lanthier is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Romuald G. Lanthier of Old Post Road in Marlboro. After a honeymoon trip through Canada, the couple plans to live in Newburgh.

Miss Carol Kay Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Z. Smith, 517 Dawson Rd., Delmar, recently became the bride of Norman Carl Swanson of Cambridge, Mass. The ceremony took place in Westminster Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Smith was graduated from Bethlehem Central and Katharine Gibbs School in Boston, and her husband is a graduate of Boston University.

St. Matthew's Church in Voorheesville was the setting for the marriage of Miss Lorraine MacDonald and Michael John Tuzzolo. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy J. MacDonald of Slingerlands, and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Tuzzolo, 11 Gardner Terr., Delmar. After a wedding trip to Canada, they are living at 1691 Delaware Ave. in Delmar.

Miss Gloria Jean Champlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ashley H. Champlin, 1 Vagele Lane, Glenmont, was married to Edward W. Davis of Cranston, R.I. The Rev. David Boyce performed the ceremony in the Glenmont Community (Reformed) Church. After a honeymoon in Miami, Fla., the couple will live in Delmar.
