

If you're a parent of normal, red-blooded American children, the chances are at least one of your offspring is horse-crazy. This is a phenomenon I've never been able to figure out, not being a horse lover myself, but the fact remains that to many, many people, horses are more than just animals - they are pets upon whom much love and care is lavished.

I've already talked in this space about two forms of recreational activity enjoyed by Tri-Villagers - bicycling and swimming - so this week I thought I'd do a little investigating into a third such activity, horse raising and riding.

My main source of information, a horse-crazy sister, tells me there are about six well-established stables in the area, where you can rent horses for riding.

The standard riding rate, I understand, is $2 per hour, and you can usually choose the horse you wish to ride. If you don't mind admitting you're a novice, you'll be given a few pointers on saddle technique and horse handling. Usually, someone from the stable will accompany a riding party.

Being able to take an occasional ride will satisfy some small fry, but others dream for years of owning their own horse. Santa Claus does his best every Christmas, but every year there are youngsters who can't forgive him for leaving a bike or a wagon beneath the tree, instead of a live and lovable pony.

And many kids never outgrow their fondness for horses. If two such fanatics (I use the word kindly) end up getting married, they can indulge the interest without threat to budgetary disharmony.

This is obviously the case with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pellman, who live on a 15-acre lot on Kenwood Avenue in Glenmont. For the past 20 years, since they've been married, they have raised and ridden horses as their major hobby.

Mrs. Pellman, a self-professed country girl, told me she introduced her husband to the fun of owning horses shortly after their marriage. They both enjoy riding, but equally appealing to them is the day-by-day physical activity of caring for their four-footed friends.

"My husband works in an office all day," Mrs. Pellman said, "so when he comes home, he looks forward to the relaxation of some physical labor."

At present, the Pellmans have four horses, all registered purebreds, whom they refer to affectionately as The General, Rocky, Peeper and Lena.

I asked Mrs. Pellman to estimate for me the cost of maintaining a horse for a month. She replied that "rough board" costs - just feed and bedding - comes to about $65 each month. Other care required - exercising, grooming, and shoeing - brings the total up to about $100 monthly.

Horse owners can, of course spend much less by caring for the horses themselves, but to own one and board it out costs about $1,200 a year.

The Town of Bethlehem has at least its share of horse lovers, both youthful and adult.

SURPRISE LUNCHEON HELD FOR EXCHANGE STUDENT

A surprise luncheon honoring Holmfridur Krestjansdottir of Iceland was held July 17, at the parent's home of the hostess, Linda Vandenberg, at 216 Winne Road, Delmar. Miss Krestjansdottir (Lilly) was an exchange student sponsored by the Delmar Methodist church. She left Delmar on July 20 to return to her home in Reykjavik, Iceland.

The highlight of the luncheon was a cake molded to the outline of her native country topped by her country's flag. Two charms for her charm bracelet were presented, one depicting New York State, the other a heart shape with BCHS 1962-63.

Those present were: Sue Peters, Sue Klett, Merdith Gowedy, Betsy Krantz, Sue Patterson, Joan Bardole, Debbie Foster, Janit Lawrence and Barb Barbarossa.

EDWARD PIERRE BUYCK PAINTINGS NOW ON DISPLAY IN COMMUNITY EXHIBIT ROOM AT CITY & COUNTY

Profile of an Artist, Edward Pierre Buyck, R.A.B., is the exhibit currently featured in the Community Exhibit Room at City and County Savings Bank. The presentation was announced by Frederick W. Stolz, president.

The late Edward Pierre Buyck, born Count di Morkhoven in an ancestral castle in Bruges, West Flanders, in 1888, was educated in Europe. He came to America after sustaining an injury on the Belgian front during World War I which disqualified him for further action.

The exhibit, in many ways, is a departure from the usual procedure of showing the works of an artist. It has been designed to suggest the mood of informality which enhances Edward Buyck's Slingerlands studio, Highfield Hall, where most of his paintings, sculpture, and etchings were created. Besides exhibiting a broad and representative collection of the artist's work, its purpose is to give the viewer an intimate understanding of Edward Buyck's manner of working, and to provide an introduction to the traditions of Flemish art as interpreted by a native son.

As an unnamed author viewing the exhibit said, "The self portrait, uncompleted at the time of his death, rests on his easel exactly as he left it. The Flemish Horse Fair reveals his love for horses; the Peonies his feeling for flowers. The Belgian scenes, painted from documentary sketches made in his homeland, give evidence of an abiding affection for the scenes of his boyhood, his still life studies and landscapes demonstrate the value of a sound groundwork in fundamentals, his portraits show a sensitive rapport with his subjects."

The public is cordially invited to visit the exhibit at the bank's Downtown Office, 100 State Street, Albany, weekdays from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. and, in addition, Thursdays until 8:00 p.m., through August 22.

EXCRUCIATINGLY DELICIOUS!

WOMEN'S VANGUARD TO RAISE MONEY FOR ACOUSTICAL SHELL FOR ALBANY SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

"Shell out for a Shell," will be the theme song of the Women's Vanguard for the Albany Symphony orchestra until the newly formed organization achieves its first goal: $2,000 for an acoustical shell.

In case you are not already acquainted with the Vanguard, it is the result of a half a hundred civic-minded women who have thus far met twice in an effort to create the missing force in the Symphony's 33 year existence: a women's group whose sole aim will be the benefit and maintenance of the Albany Symphony orchestra.

At the first of their two recent meetings, the group heard an address by Edgar Curtis, music director of the orchestra and head of the music department at Union College. Mr. Curtis apprised the group of some somber facts of Symphony life. "The orchestra owns none of its own equipment, not even a music stand. It has no manager, which is an impossible situation," were but two of Mr. Curtis's revelations. Mr. Curtis also stressed the need for an acoustical shell which would be entirely collapsible enabling the orchestra to transport it to concerts at home and away.

With these sobering facts in mind, the Vanguard, under the leadership of its appointed President, Miss Sue Yager of Niskayuna, N.Y., met a second time to firm up plans for the first step towards securing the funds necessary for the "Shell."

It was agreed that the Vanguard would sponsor a Jazz Jamboree, featuring Symphony players with other great jazz artists from the area. Mrs. Lawrence L. Everett and Mrs. Brooks R. Barvoets are co-chairmen of the event which will be held at Richard Reinert's barn, 63 Old Niskayuna Road, Tues., August 13, at 6:00 P.M. Invitations will go out shortly.

Invitations to a Membership Party for the Vanguard will go out in early September according to plans made by Mrs.

Robert Whitfield, chairman of that affair.

And Opening Night, Oct. 28, will be made a Gala Symphony Night under the direction of joint chairmen Mrs. Charles Wheller and Mrs. Stephen A. Scullen, Jr. Various committee members will be announced later.

Miss Yager announced a series of private teas, coffees and receptions will be given throughout the summer at the homes of many vanguard members: Mrs. William Squires, Niskayuna; Mrs. Gordon Bowker, Delmar; Mrs. William J. Friesner, Loudonville; Mrs. Duncan Martin, Delmar; Mrs. George L. Dresser, Albany; Mrs. Joseph B. Robinson, Loudonville; Mrs. Charles Stokes, Delmar; Mrs. Madelon Pound Herzog, Slingerlands.

Eastern Regional Exposition, ne: Altamont Fair, Will Be Bigger and Better Than Ever

Three free grandstand shows of circus acts will be presented daily beginning Tuesday at the Eastern Regional Exposition in Altamont, August 12 through 17. A twilight show has been added for 5:15 p.m. showing.

Also added to the program is a matinee performance by the Jack Kochman Hell Drivers on Monday, opening day, in addition to the regular evening show at 8:15 o'clock. No charge will be made for grandstand seats at any time.

Family convenience was cited by Manager Stuart T. Rombough as the directors' reasoning in scheduling the twilight show. The addition means that fairgoers will have three choices - the matinee performances at 2:15, the twilight shows at 5:15 and the evening presentations at 8:15. Fireworks will follow the stage show on Saturday just before the close of the Exposition.

Families can attend the twilight shows without the parents losing a day of employment and without keeping the children up late at night. Many fine eating places will be available on the exposition grounds besides free picnic tables in Franken Grove for those who care to bring their food. Rom-bough said these conveniences are expected to increase the total attendance.

Furthermore, he said, the new covering over the stage will make it possible to present the circus shows rain or shine. The arches, rising 25 feet in the air, are of laminated wood bolted to the stage underflooring. They will be covered by a single enormous sheet of a specially processed translucent vinyl material. Lights are being installed overhead in the new covering.

Just behind the colored footlights, an area eight feet wide and 60 feet long on the apron of the movable stage will be left uncovered. This will permit top visibility from all seats in the grandstand and provide space for acts requiring more than 25 feet in height.

The Eastern Regional Exposition, long noted for innovations in its annual presentations, is the originator of the three-a-day policy for its free grandstand circus show. Bicycles will be given away at the matinee shows on Tuesday and Friday and the pony parade will take place in advance of the Friday matinee.

mother. For there can be no argument that whatever affects mother, also affects baby.

There is one thing the modern mother does not seem to have too much of, even with household automation. And that is time - time not only for herself, but also for her baby.

In a recent motivational research study we did for the nation's diaper service industry, interview with young mothers indicated they place as much value on their time as they do on their labor.

The survey showed that young mothers today are more realistic about the use of household equipment and more sound in their application of household economics and time-management.

They realize that while much of the drudgery and toil has been eliminated by labor-saving machinery, no one has eliminated the need for someone to fill, operate, watch, empty, clean and repair the machines. Clothes and dishes still must be prepared by hand. The bigger the wash, the bigger the ironing, handling and folding. The more buttons, levers and controls, the more things to remember, operate and maintain.

As a result, more young mothers today are using the latest advancements in complete outside services in conjunction with the sensible use of home equipment. This, they have found, provides them with more time to spend with baby and other members of the family.

Our motivational research study showed that of the American families using professional diaper service, two-thirds also own automatic home laundry equipment. The interviews revealed that these families realize that for about 38 cents more each week, baby's diapers can be processed professionally and scientifically by a diaper service and 547 hours or about 23 days a year can be saved.

The time saved includes the time the mother would have to spend with three pre-rinses, four separate sudsings, six post-wash rinses to remove all soap residue, loading the washer, adding soap, bleach, softener and antiseptics at various steps in the process, boiling after washing to sterilize the diapers, drying and finally gathering the diapers and folding them for storage.

A young Pittsburgh mother of three put it all this way: "You can become a slave to the mechanics of having a baby rather than to the charms of the baby. I feel that even if you have every convenience for washing diapers at home, it's still a wasted effort because it takes time away from the children."

Two Scholarships Awarded by County Home Demonstration

Through contributions given by the home demonstration units, two scholarship awards have been made by the Albany County Home Demonstration Department. Mrs. F. L. Bober-schmidt, chairman of the scholarship committee, announces that Miss Michaeline Beth Han-Chett and Miss Joanne Patricia Moore have each been named recipients of the 1963 awards.

Miss Michaeline Beth Han-Chett, daughter of Sargent and Mrs. Everett T. HanChett, Latham, will be entering her senior year at the state University College at Plattsburgh in September. Miss HanChett is a member of Kappa Delta Pi, the national education honor society, and belongs to Phi Kappa Chi Sorority.

Miss Joanne Patricia Moore, the daughter of Mrs. Concetta Moore, lives in Delmar, and will be a sophomore at the New York State College of Home Economics at Cornell in the fall. Miss Moore is a member of the Sage Chapel Choir and is on the Dormitory Council.

Both the girls are enrolled in the home economics course at their respective colleges.

18 Stake Races Are Features Of Centennial Year at Spa

Eighteen stakes races, with a total of $565,000 in added money, are listed for the Centennial of Thoroughbred racing at Saratoga - 24 days of the best of racing from July 29 through August 24.

Since the first racing day at Saratoga on August 3, 1863, the tradition has been maintained. The only gaps in the 100 years were in 1911 and 1912 when there was no racing in New York State and during the war years of 1943, 1944, and 1945, when Federal travel restrictions made it necessary to hold the meetings at Belmont Park.

As has been the rule at Saratoga, the two-year-olds are paramount and seven stakes races are on the schedule for the juveniles, headed by the 59th running of the $75,000

But, while great stress is placed on juveniles at Saratoga - home of the annual yearling sales - the three-year-olds and older horses are not overlooked. The oldest stakes race in the country, the $75,000 added Travers, will be run for the 94th time on August 17 with three-year-olds slated to go a mile and a quarter. Last year's Travers turned out to be one of the most thrilling races in the memory of all veterans who witnessed it - with Jaipur and Ridan going head and head for the full mile and a quarter and Jaipur scoring by a nose in track-record equaling time of 2:01 3/5.

This year's Travers is expected to draw such as Darby Dan Farm's Chateaugay, winner of the Belmont Stakes and the Kentucky Derby; Greentree Stable's Outing Class, Hopeful winner of 1962, who beat Chateaugay in the Dwyer this year; Rex Ellsworth's Preakness winner, Candy Spots; George D. Widener's Crewman and, possibly, Cain Hoy Stable's Never Bend, who has recuperated from a "hot" ankle which put him out of training after the Preakness.

The older horses - headed by such as Bohemia Stable's Kelso, horse of the year the past three years; Hobeau Farm's Beau Purple; Greentree Stable's Cyrano - have the Whitney and Saratoga Cup among other races and there is a possibility that Katherine Price's Carry Back may return to the races early in the meeting.

Fillies and mares also will have their innings, the likes of Meadow Stable's Cicada, Darby Dan's Bramalea, Eleanora Sears' Spicy Living and W. H. Perry's Lamb Chop, expected to start at the meeting.

Post time daily 2 P.M., with the Daily Double windows closing at 1:50 P.M.

Hill Cumorah Pageant Will

Draw More Than 100,000 on.

August 7, 8, 9 and 10

Two young missionaries of the Mormon Church assigned to this area who have been chosen to participate in the 1963 Hill Cumorah Pageant at Palmyra, New York, today issued a cordial invitation to residents of this community to attend the famous religious spectacle.

This year's performances will be given at 9 P.M., August 7, 8, 9 and 10. There is no charge for seating or parking. Elder Norton and Elder Gunter will be part of a cast of 350 actors appearing on 25 stages on the huge slope of Hill Cumorah, all of them dressed in colorful and authentic costumes of ancient Hebraic, Grecian, Roman, Aztec and Mayan design.

Around 100,000 people see this spectacle every year. It has been presented since 1937.

The performances start at 9 p.m., but there is an hour of recorded music by the world-famous Mormon Tabernacle Choir of 375 voices preceding the performances.

We will be at the entrance way to extend a warm, personal welcome to the residents of this community who decide to come. Just ask for us by name and we will take great pleasure in greeting you. We have made many friends during our missionary work in this area.

Participating in this famous Hill Cumorah Pageant is one of the most thrilling and inspiring experiences that can come to us.

This is the 140 anniversary of the year that Joseph Smith was led to the golden plates of the Book of Mormon on Hill Cumorah under the guidance of the Angel Moroni. It was on the basis of this book and other revelations that he founded the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, commonly known as the Mormon Church.

The Book of Mormon recounts the founding of a civilization by a band of Israelites on the American continent 600 years before the birth of Christ. They were directed by the Lord to flee from the destruction of Jerusalem.

The exciting story of this ancient American civilization together with scenes of great events in the Holy Land are all powerfully and reverently enacted by a cast of more than 350 young Mormon men and women.

Great batteries of colored floodlights and spotlights shift from stage to stage. For certain scenes, the performers are seen through translucent curtains of water on which colored lights are focused.

All through the Pageant there is magnificent music by a choir of 300 voices, the Utah State Symphony Orchestra and the famous Tabernacle Organ which has 11,000 pipes. This is reproduced by four track high fidelity stereophonic recording. In addition, there are some tremendous sound effects. In one big scene, when the Land of Zarahemla is destroyed because of the wickedness of its inhabitants, the audience hears the crash of thunder, the reverberations of earthquakes, the screams of the wounded and dying.

They also see flames and smoke of the conflagration and the flashes of lightning. In fact it is so realistic that some people say that this is what they imagine the destruction by nuclear bombs would be like.

When you see the bearded prophets, the patriarchs, the priests, the kings and the weirdly-painted savages it is hard to believe that they are just young Mormon missionaries 19 to 20 years old.

The director, Dr. Harold I. Hansen, will start casting and rehearsing about 10 days before the Pageant starts. In order to communicate with all 25 stages and with all the units of actors for his many scenes as well as with all his lighting and sound effects technicians, Director Hansen uses an elaborate inter-com system.

In the Pageant, the spectators see, through beautiful water curtains, the Nativity at Bethlehem with the Wisemen bringing their gifts, and they also see Christ ministering to his followers in the Holy Land, and finally his arrest by the Roman soldiers. These are shown to the ancient American Israelite civilization as visions of things to come, as recounted in the Book of Mormon.

After His death and resurrection in Jerusalem, Christ appears to his "other fold" in ancient America. This is a powerful scene - the entire cast of 350 with their arms upraised in supplication moving slowly up the hill toward the figure of Christ at the summit."

This ancient civilization as depicted in the Pageant comes to a tragic end, the missionaries said. They split up into warring factions and ultimately all of them except a few scattered bands of those who fell into savagery perish in a great war of extermination.

One of the Prophets, Mormon, kept a record of this civilization and gave it to his son, Moroni. In the last days of these people, Moroni buried the plates of gold on what is now known as Hill Cumorah near Palmyra, New York, about 23 miles east of Rochester.

They remained there for 1400 years. Joseph Smith was led to them by Moroni who appeared to him as a resurrected heavenly messenger. This was in 1823 - 140 years ago.

"Joseph Smith translated the Book of Mormon and founded the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Fayette Township in Seneca County, New York, in 1830," the missionaries said.

Today, the Mormon Church has more than 2,000,000 members. The current president, David O. McKay, is the ninth president of the Church and he will be celebrating his 90th birthday on September 8.

A member of our Council of Twelve Apostles of the Mormon Church has described the Hill Cumorah Pageant in this way:

"What you will see here tonight is not fantasy. It is fact, historical fact. It is of great significance to all Americans, and indeed to people of all lands and tongues, for the message we give tonight is a testimony that Jesus lives, and that he is in very deed the Son of God, and that he had an American ministry in ancient times in addition to his work in Palestine.

"As the Bible is the record of God's dealings with the ancient people of Palestine, so the Book of Mormon is the record of his dealing with ancient Americans."

It is traditional that we missionaries pay all our own expenses while we are serving our own expenses while we are at the Pageant. Besides the missionaries, the cast will also have some 160 young men and women from Brigham Young University at Provo, Utah. And they also pay their own travel and living expenses and consider it a great honor to be chosen for a part."

It's That Time of Year, and

Here Are A Few Precautions

The New York State Civil Defense Commission today issued a list of precautionary measures to be taken during the hurricane season months of August, September and October.

The Commission outlined recommended measures for vacationists, small craft owners and the average householder to prepare against the perils of storms, torrential rains and floods that normally develop during these months.

Special Warnings for Vacationists

Because the three hurricane months are also popular vacation months, the following safety measures apply particularly to vacationists and boat owners:

Follow storm warnings carefully.

Tune in frequently on radio or TV before starting on a fishing trip or cruise. Secure pleasure craft when official storm warnings are issued by the Weather Bureau.

Haul boats to safe locations upon receiving storm notices.

Give vessels at anchor plenty of slack in moorings to avoid swamping.

Add an extra anchor to secure boats.

Secure loose gear.

Leave beaches or other spots which may be threatened by high tides.

Keep a sharp eye out for high water in places

Keep your car in top condition with battery, lights, etc., in good working order and with the gas tank at least three-quarters full.

As a safeguard against damage from flooded cellars, check cellar windows and move valuable material to a safe place.

Store canned goods, drinking water, canned heat, can openers, and paper dishes in a safe place.

Have available an axe, a crowbar, and a saw. Check gutters to be sure they are not clogged.

Move furniture and other movable objects on porches and lawns, to safe spots.

Special Precautions Before the Storm

When storm warnings go up, time is short and these precautions must be taken at once:

Board up windows or leave storm shutters in place.

Use strong lumber for all bracing.

Sterilize the bath tub, jugs, bottles, etc., and fill with drinking water.

Put car in garage or park away from trees and poles, and shut the windows tightly.

Close house and garage windows and doors except one window on the lee side (the side away from the wind.)

Keep food in the refrigerator at a minimum to avoid spoilage.

At the first warnings of danger, turn freezer setting up so that, if power fails, food may stay frozen for three or more days.

While the storm is going on, keep away from windows. In a tornado, in this area, the southwest corner of the basement will offer the best protection.

If out-of-doors, take refuge in a ditch or ravine.

Avoid all loose wires - they may be live.

Stay in a safe place until the storm has passed. If the center, or eye, of the storm passes directly over, there will be a lull lasting from a few minutes to a half-hour or more. Then the wind will suddenly blow from the opposite direction, sometimes with even greater violence.

Finally, keep these instructions handy before and during a disaster period.
