With approximately 1,000 less voters going to the polls than in the last local election in 1961, Bertram E. Kohinke was returned for the third time to the Supervisorship of the town of Bethlehem by a vote of: Kohinke, 6,903; Murray, 1,793. This represents about a 4½ to 1 margin.

In an exclusive Spotlight interview, Mr. Kohinke said, "All the Republican candidates wish to extend their thanks to the voters for the confidence extended. By this voter mandate, we feel that we can go forward with all of our well-grounded plans for the Town."

A milestone was reached in this election in the Town of Bethlehem. Here are a couple of conclusions proving this:

1. Two years ago, in 1961, the insurgent Lincoln Party, appealing to the Republicans who were dissatisfied with the regular Republican Party, garnered more than 3,000 votes. This year, the Lincolns didn't even appear on the Primary ticket.

2. In 1961, the usual Democrat vote in the Town dropped by about 50% because of the Lincolns and the fact became apparent that many Republicans must have been voting the Democrat ticket as a protest vote. This year, the Democrat vote rose again to around 1,600 votes as opposed to about 1,200 in 1961.

Another interesting fact: David A. Mead, Republican candidate for Superintendent of Highways, was the biggest vote-getter for the Republicans.

May we all live to see the day when disputes between all nations will be decided fairly in an atmosphere of friendship and goodwill.

While that is still only a hope, let Veterans' Day remind us that the strength, the courage, and the will to sacrifice which brought victory in war are needed today to keep the peace in an uneasy world.

DELMAR PUBLIC LIBRARY WILL CELEBRATE CHILDREN'S BOOK WEEK, NOVEMBER 10-16, WITH FULL PROGRAM

Children's Book Week, November 10-16, will be celebrated at the Delmar Public Library in many ways. A story hour for children in kindergarten through third grade will be started on Wednesday, November 13. The program will start at 3:30 and last for one hour. The story hour will continue to be held every other week. All children are invited to come and it is not necessary for them to register in advance.

A coffee hour will be held for the mothers of pre-school children attending the morning story hours. A discussion of children's books and reading will be featured. Books on children's reading and excellent children's books will be displayed. These displays will be available for viewing by all parents and interested people during the entire week.

Future plans at the Delmar Library call for a reading club for older children in grades 4 through 6. The club will be similar to the familiar summer reading club, but the children will meet together to discuss the books they have enjoyed. The club will begin in January, the exact date to be announced later.

Community Ambassador Will Speak to Government Group Of Delmar Progress Club

"Family Night with our Community Ambassador" will be the theme of the next meeting of the Government Group of the Delmar Progress Club on Tuesday, November 12, in the Delmar Public Library.

Families and friends of the group are invited to hear Mrs. John Cunningham, our Community Ambassador, tell of her summer spent in Turkey.

A Coffee Hour at 7:30 P.M. will precede the program with the following members of the committee as hostesses, Mrs. Arthur C. McHugh, Chairman, Mrs. William Bowie, co-chairman, Mrs. Richard Bennett, Mrs. Kenneth Clark, Mrs. Frederick Guy, Mrs. Joseph Parser, Mrs. Raymond Stout, Mrs. Robert Stuart, and Mrs. Ralph Sutliff.

LETTERS

Dear Sir:

I would like to point out the pointless, inadequate and stupid police "protection" practiced in our area Hallowe'en night.

During the time when the small fry was Trick or Treating (5:30 to 7 P.M.) in Feura Bush, ONE police car (NY Central Police) went through the town on Route 32. With sometimes as many as 50 small children wandering around not more than 1 motorist in 10 slowed down and showed any respect for the kids.

To add to this "clown" police performance, between 8 and 10 P.M. when most small fry were in bed, State Police, Bethlehem Police and again, the N.Y. Central Police were almost bumper-to-bumper in an effort to keep the peace. By 9:30, some villagers were already turning out lights - but the prowl cars continued to prowl a now-almost-deserted road!

Scallions to our peace officers!

Dear Sir:

Have you noticed the "up for grabs" attitude of promoters et al in an attempt to buy up for quick profit much of the residential property along Delaware Avenue in Elmsere? During these past few weeks the race is on to business-develop this area as never before.

One fact that the promoters don't care about: How will it look after "development?" Is Elmsere to take on the Coney Island look of Western and Central Avenues?

Dear Sir:

Once again you have helped to put over a Slingerlands Player's production, and we are deeply grateful. Without the Spotlight a great part of our audience would not be aware that we have a play. Your several stories and pictures publicizing "The Lark" were an important contribution to our success.

As you know, Slingerlands is a strictly non-profit organization. We put on plays not only for our pleasure but to bring the highest quality live theater we are capable of to this community. The community has been generous in its acceptance. But since most of our earnings go into the cost of production, with little margin left over, we are dependent on the generosity of the press to keep our audience informed.

Your help was invaluable, and again we say, thanks from all of us!

Very sincerely yours,

"THE MOUSE THAT ROARED" TO BE PRESENTED BY BETHLEHEM CENTRAL SENIORS NOVEMBER 15 & 16

Friday, November 15, and Saturday, November 16, at 8:15 p.m. in the auditorium of the Bethlehem Central Senior High School, the Senior Class is giving its annual play. This year's seniors, under the direction of B. C.'s drama coach, Sidney Turner, are performing "The Mouse that Roared."

You'll be seeing these members of the class on stage Friday and Saturday night, November 15 and 16: Betsy Many, the Mouse (who roars!); Sally Everson, Gloriana XII; Bob Lyons, Tully Bascom; Dan Eddo, Count Mountjoy; Edward Lange, David Benter; Jeff Daniels, Mr. Bestom; Jim Kleinhans, Prof. Kokintz; Jack Hillen, the President; Jim Myron, Gen. Snipert; Tim Moore, Will Tatum; Jean Olson, Wac Jill; Nancy McCormack, Wac Debbie; Frances MacIntosh, Mrs. Bascom; Pam Mulligan, Mary; Sue Loudis, Jane; Karen Gardinier, Fran; Jean Tripp, Pam; Dianne Benedict, Ann; Sue Wrigley, Norma; Linda Storch, Helen; Mary Blumenstock, Miss Johnson, Debi Mayne, Miss Wilbins; Elaine Lesuk, Page; Linda Widowfield, Mrs. Reinier, Mark Laynor, first soldier; Dave Reynolds, second soldier; Paul Gallagher, third soldier; Paul Gibbs, fourth soldier; Roger Chesser, Tom Mulligan; Leonard Dietz, Dick Boutelle, Barton Moore, and Dave Murray, four soldiers. The Stage Manager is Paula Dorman; her assistant is Linda Storch.

The play itself is funny as well as being discerning. When a declaration of war is delivered to the U.S. Department of State by the Duchy of Grand Fenwick, Americans have a good laugh. After all, Grand Fenwick, a few square miles left over from the Middle Ages, is the smallest independent country in the world. The declaration proves to be no joke as a standing army of 20 mail-clad bowmen make a beachhead in lower Manhattan. Grand Fenwick's whole object is to get rich quick on U.S. appropriations for war relief, but horror reigns in the daffy duchy when Fenwick wins the war.

Club Women to Meet

The Women's Organization of Normanside Country Club will have its regular Monthly Party at the Club House Thursday, November 14, at one o'clock.

This will be a dessert luncheon followed by Cards.

The Chairmen for this event will be Mrs. B. J. Lynch and Mrs. J. J. Kiley.

PLAYERS INAUGURATE NEW TICKET IDEA TO RELIEVE LONG COLUMNS OF STANDEES AT FUTURE PRODUCTIONS

Because of the popularity of The Lark production last month, many late-comers stood in a long ticket line to get seats at the High School auditorium. To solve this problem, the Slingerlands Community Players are now offering a "combination ticket" on advance sale for the other two plays of the season.

Charles Losacco, President of The Players, said today that the combination ticket may be bought now for productions of George Bernard Shaw's comedy Pygmalion, on January 24 and 25, and the macabre suspense drama, The Deadly Game, on May 22 and 23.

The tickets are four dollars each. Individual play tickets are sold for two dollars a piece.

Mr. Losacco pointed out that such a large number of playgoers wanted tickets at the box office for The Lark that a number of people were inconvenienced by having to wait in line.

"By getting tickets in advance," he said, "our audience not only will be spared the wait at the box office but they will also be able to get in earlier and have a better choice of seats, which are filled on a first-come first-served basis."

The combination tickets may be purchased by sending a check or money order to Mrs. George H. Jamison, Jr., 13 Glenwood Street, McKownville. Purchasers are asked to indicate whether they wish tickets for Friday or Saturday nights.

THE REV. P. FLOYD GIBBS, who has completed two five-year terms in the Philippine Islands, working among the Tausug people of Jolo, Sulu, will speak at the Albany Bible Institute, Sunday, November 10 at 4 P.M.

Starting this new service to the borrowers of the school district with five prints varied in style and period, the Library will make them available for six weeks without charge. In the initial collection are Vil-lon's Yellow accent, Vlaminc's Une rue a Saint-Jean, Ver-meer's Maid-servant, Winslow Homer's Hurricane, Bahamas and Diego Rivera's Flower seller. A brief biography of the artist and notes on the painting is pasted on the back of each picture.

Alumni Dinner Planned

The University of Rochester regional alumni clubs of Schenectady and the Capital District will hold a joint dinner meeting at 7:30 p. m., November 14, at the Crossroads Restaurant in Latham.

This will be the first combined meeting of the two groups. It was arranged by Dr. Leonard Neidrach and Walter Taylor, presidents of the Schenectady and Capital District clubs respectively.

W. Allen Wallis, president of the University of Rochester, will be present to make a brief speech and answer questions. It will be his first appearance here since his inauguration as president last May.

A cocktail hour will precede the dinner.

Planning Committee Meetings

The Planning and Zoning Subcommittee of the Delaware Avenue Improvement Association met at the home of Attorney Thomas P. Connelly, 12 Louise Street, Friday evening, to prepare recommendations to be made to the Town Planning Board in connection with the pending study of the Town's Zoning Ordinance. The study has been underway since January and is being conducted for the Planning Board by Mr. Russell D. Bailey, a professional planning consultant from Utica. The Planning and Zoning Subcommittee will be meeting frequently until revisions to the present ordinance are adopted by the Town Board, which is expected to be before the end of the year.

Farmers Wage Membership Campaign Throughout This Area

The 1964 Albany County Agricultural Extension Service Membership Campaign, under the leadership of Carl Peterson, Knox, is off to a good start. During the Membership-by-Mail phase of the campaign, nearly 500 members joined for 1964.

Township committees will be meeting next week in preparation for the Committeemen's Canvas. At the nine township meetings, each township chairman will provide his committeemen with material and information for making the annual canvass. From now until November 23, committeemen will be contacting members who have not yet renewed their membership for 1964 and contacting prospective members. During this time, 75 volunteer committeemen will contact over 600 people.

Saturday night, November 23, will be the annual Round-Up Dinner and Meeting. At this time the results of the 1964 Membership Drive will be known. Awards will be given to the township and to the team of three townships that have conducted the most successful campaigns. Awards will also be given to the three committeemen enrolling the most new members.

Treasure Tree for '63

There will be a Treasure Tree in the Delmar Library in early December. The Treasure Tree is a unique Christmas tree trimmed entirely by Tri-Villagers and their friends with trimmings destined to travel all over the world.

The trimmings may be sweaters, booties, mittens, blankets or blanket squares, balls of yarn, Surprise balls (just wind yarn around a toy), sewing kits, and school supplies. The American Friends Service Committee (Quakers) sponsor the Treasure Tree, and will see to it that the gifts reach children who need them.

Will you start your knitting now? Will you help to make this year's Treasure Tree beautiful to see, and a joy to children who need Christmas particularly this year?

On Saturday, November 2, Miss Susan Chesney became the bride of James Henry Wakelin, III of Washington, D.C. Miss Chesney is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Dukehart Chesney of 37 Paxwood Road. Mr. Wakelin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Wakelin, Jr. He is the Asst. Secretary of the Navy, USA. The Wakes were accompanied by their other two sons, Alan and David.

The bride, beautiful in a white lace gown over satin, was escorted to the altar of the First Presbyterian Church in Albany by her father. Mrs. Bruce Paul VanderMel, her sister, of Syracuse, was matron of honor. Miss Moira Tease of Wynwood, Penna. was maid of honor. Both attendants were gowned in cranberry shade dresses and wore ivy wreaths on their heads. Ushers included James & Alan Chesney, students at Hope College, brothers of the bride.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the Chesney home. Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. VanderMel who stayed at the Hawthorne Ave. home of Mr. VanderMel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. VanderMel. Also Dr. and Mrs. Parker Chesney and Mr. and Mrs. Alastair Fraser, of Montreal, and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Macdonald of Arnprior, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Wakelin, III, will live in Delaware, Ohio, where the groom is attending Ohio Wesleyan University.

One of the gayest and warmest affairs to grace the old farmhouse being used as a "clubhouse" until Normanside Country Club rebuilds, was held on Thursday, October 31, in honor of Mrs. David I. Shultes. Arrangements for the luncheon were made by Mrs. J. W. Gibbons, and over thirty women attended. Mrs. Gibbons presented Grace Shultes with a beautiful charm on which were engraved the first names of all those attending . . . all of whom are fellow golfers of this prominent woman. Davis Shultes, (who is retiring) and his charming wife, will move to Clearwater, Florida the first part of December. They are vacating their home on South Helderberg Parkway, Slingerlands, November 20 and will stay with their parents in Albany through the Thanksgiving holiday when they will be joined by their daughter, Diane . . . a student at Cornell University.

General and Mrs. Frank McLaughlin of Salisbury Road, Elmsere were hosts at a bridge party for the Davis Shultes on Saturday evening, November 2.

When the Paul Mansuys entertained at cocktails on Saturday it was partly a belated "happy birthday" to the man of the house!

There was swinging and a'singing in Slingerlands the last Saturday of October. The new owners of the old Simmons home, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Brewster - who with their six wonderful children and Mrs. Brewsters' parents . . . Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cammack . . . took possession of the estate in September - had a square dance. With Reuben Merchant calling (and Sydney T. Jones beating out the rhythms on his famous "bass" as he joined the band) the fifty some guests danced till their feet couldn't take more. Cider, doughnuts, and a midnight buffet completed the evening . . . and everyone who attended has warm memories of a wonderful evening with a charming host and hostess.
