

HAROLD W. MERRITT WINS FIRST PRIZE IN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE LIGHTING CONTEST FOR 1963

On Monday, December 23, three area residents acting as judges, spent four hours in touring the town in an effort to determine the winners of the Bethlehem Chamber of Commerce Christmas Lighting Contest. Winning selections were as follows:

Residential

The committee consisted of Harry C. Miller, chairman, Richard Barzin, Richard Brown, William Weber and Clifford Van Dyke.

The judges, who were Mrs. Margaret Kneff, Town Clerk; Mr. George Bonacker, Principal of the Delmar Grade School; and Rev. Robert B. Thomas, pastor of the Delmar Methodist Church, made note of the very effective and attractive displays in the homes at Colonial Acres in Glenmont. Each home was tastefully decorated by a white candle in each window.

The contest, designed to encourage the residents of the Town of Bethlehem to participate in the theme of Christmas, was acclaimed a wonderful success as evidenced by the greatest number of displays ever judged in any contest.

"Burning of the Greens" Is Scheduled for January 5

On Sunday, January 5, the Delmar Presbyterian congregation again invites the community to the celebration of Twelfth Night with the "Burning of the Greens" ceremonies on the lot at 585 Delaware Ave., where the church building is located. Townspeople are also invited to bring their greens and trees to the lot, as in years past, any time up to the burning. The burning will take place at about 7 P.M.

Mother-of-Pearl Silverware Is Featured in Library Exhibit

Twinkling under holiday lights is the exhibit of mother-of-pearl silverware belonging to Mrs. Sherman Murphy, which is now on display at the Delmar Public Library. Mrs. Murphy began collecting the pearl handled knives, forks and spoons after her grandmother left her 12 dinner knives. She began noticing the occasional and rare piece in antique shows and shops, finding the gravy ladle here at the local St. Andrew's Fair, and also the fish forks and knives at their second Antique Show.

In her collection, tiny spoons made completely of mother-of-pearl are one mystery as they are too large for use as salt spoons yet smaller than a teaspoon. These came from Montenegro Bay, Jamaica. One piece was dug from the ground when a barn was repaired in San Diego, California, when the Murphys were there. Ingeniously, someone joined a spoon to a mother-of-pearl button hook handle and this makes an entertaining piece.

Her luncheon forks, Mrs. Murphy relates, are a gift from her husband, while her jauntiest piece is a mother-of-pearl tooth pick.

hearted peon ranch hand who is devoted to a horse he has raised from a colt. "So Dear to my Heart," featuring Burl Ives, is a heart-stirring tale of village farm life - of a boy and his deep love for a black lamb and a granny who worries about them both. The Disney technicolor production runs for 1 1/2 hours.

You are invited at 7:30 P.M., in the Lounge of the First Methodist Church, Delmar, for the Wesleyan Service Guild meeting.

Tales

BY THE TATTLER

A holiday season is drawing to its close. Each family of our Tri-Village area has had its rich rewarding moments and probably its moments of frustration when one wonders where time goes and why one can't savor the beauty of the season more.

With this in mind, I asked myself and my friends, "Tell me, what IS happiness?" Happiness is . . . the joy of having family and friends with whom to celebrate the holidays.

We loved the parties for the young people where we were lucky enough to play host. Seen at the Albany Country Club were such young people as Dean Hartley with pretty Diane Hunter. The young Diefenbachs, Alan and Kay, with blonde Kirsten Baker, Steve Guest and his partner chatted with Garry and Nancy Houck whose attractive mother, Mrs. Frederick Stolz, dressed in a white wool smocked gown received guests, along with her husband. Also at this party were Bob Birchenough, Mike Anderson, Butch Flierl and so many others of our Tri-Villages that space doesn't permit mentioning. The college crowd, hosted by the club members, enjoyed the quiet mood of candlelight, a good trio, guitar playing by some of their own members, and getting acquainted again.

The younger set had a great time that same evening (December 26) at the Aurania Club. This was the winter dinner-dance of the Tri-Village Assembly. The Assembly is limited to young people who are Juniors in High School and the attendance is by invitation. About 100 attended this gala semi-formal dance and their hosts and hostesses for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. David Brossman, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jackson and Mrs. Robert Mullens.

With the weekend's coming, we'll say a reluctant goodbye to all our college friends and look forward to their "break" at the end of the semester. In the meantime, the beautiful decorations will be wrapped up; we'll start "taking stock" of ourselves, reading that new book, and we'll look back on a truly blessed Christmas season in Bethlehem town.
