VILLAGE VOLUNTEERS FIFE AND DRUM CORPS EXPAND MEMBERSHIP AND CALENDAR OF ACTIVITIES IN 1964

Members of the Village Volunteers Fife & Drum Corps were in a festive mood this past week, and for a good reason. The corps achieved the highest financial success of its career, and increased its playing ability substantially, proven by several trophies won at competitions this past summer.

The corps was also active in the fall. They traveled to the Fort Klock pageant, Fort Plain, Brattleboro, Vt., and also played in the 200th anniversary program at the South Bethlehem Reformed Church.

During the holidays, the corps was on television, giving a five minute performance on the Cerebral Palsy Telethon. Following the performance, the corps played Christmas carols at several points in Delmar and wound up at the Capitol steps in Albany, where publicity photos were taken. After exchanging their Colonial attire for suits, the 20 man unit went to a local restaurant for its sixth annual Christmas dinner.

The following Friday the regular meeting was cancelled and all members were invited to bring guests to the Naval

COMMUNITY AMBASSADOR PROJECT FILM FESTIVAL TO BE RESUMED THIS WEEK

As announced last fall, the second half of the Bethlehem Community Ambassador Project Friday Film Festival resumes this week Friday, January 10. Your child's school menu will have the title of the feature.

The non-cartoon feature films, chosen for their appeal to elementary school age youngsters will be shown each Friday evening through March 20 with the exception of two school holidays, February 14 and 21. Shows begin at seven o'clock and are generally scheduled for a nine o'clock closing. All shows are presented in the Junior High School Auditorium.

Supervised by adults of various community organizations, the series partially provides the funds to send a member of the community to another country during the summer to represent Bethlehem as its Ambassador.

On behalf of former and future Ambassadors, the Project wishes to thank the many families who have patronized the series and also the supporting organizations whose members have so graciously provided supervision in the Fall series: Kenaware Park Home Demonstration Unit, Slingerlands Home Bureau, Delmar Elementary School P.T.A., Delmar Rotary, Bethlehem Business Women's Club, Hamagrael P.T.A.

Organizations which will provide supervision in the Winter Series are: January 10th, Altar and Rosary Society of St. Thomas Church; January 17th, Delmar Progress Club; January 24th, Delmar Home Demonstration Evening Unit; January 31st, Glenmont P.T.A.; February 7th, Women's Society of Christian Service, Delmar Methodist Church; February 28, Slingerlands Elementary School P.T.A.; March 6th, Delmar Kiwanis Club; March 13th, Women's Guild, Bethlehem Lutheran Church; and March 20th, Friends of the Community Ambassador Project.

Did you ever imagine that an opportunity to live and travel in Yugoslavia, India, or Finland is possible? Should you qualify as our Community Ambassador, you would be able to do this.

You are eligible to apply for this exceptional opportunity if you:

1. live or work within the limits of the Bethlehem Central School District,
2. are 19-35 years of age,
3. can be gone July and August,
4. are willing to share your experience with organizations in the area during the following year.

Application forms may be obtained at:

The Delmar Public Library
The Thistle Shop
C. M. Grover Stationers
Bethlehem Central Senior High School Guidance Office

All applications must be mailed before February 1 to:

Mrs. Jessie Rezzemini
486 Kenwood Avenue

LETTER

To the Editors:

At an open house party recently a newcomer to our community suggested that: "instead of three times a week collection of garbage, one of these collections might be a pick-up of rubbish."

I pass this on to SPOTLIGHT readers for comment . . . and

Sincerely,
Mary R. Lake

Today, home music has a concert-hall quality, thanks to the magic of electricity and the marvels of FM and stereophonic sound. It's just one of the many ways that electricity and modern electric appliances have made modern living more comfortable, convenient and enjoyable than Grandma ever dreamed possible. No wonder we say electricity is the biggest bargain in your budget.

Builders & Farmers Meet

On January 15, there will be a Builders School for Contractors at Duaneburg, according to Leonard Palmer, Associate County Agricultural Agent.

The Duaneburg Hall is located next to the airport on Route 7 just west of the intersection of Routes 9 and 20. County Builders and Agricultural Agents who will attend in addition to Albany County are from Montgomery, Fulton, Schenectady, Saratoga and Delaware. This is the second school of this kind Mr. Palmer stated. Last year's school was so successful that many builders have requested another this year.

Michael Delgatti of Rochester has been named general manager of Sharlet's Finer Furniture Inc. of Latham to fill a vacancy created by the resignation of Leon C. Sharlet, it was announced recently.

Center in Albany, where food, dancing, and movies were enjoyed.

Now that the holidays are over, the corps will be on a regular meeting schedule again. Recruits are urged to come down to the Knights of Columbus Hall on Hudson Avenue in Delmar, at 7 p.m. on Fridays. It is hoped that more of our local boys will support this organization and through it help to make the town of Delmar known throughout this part of the country. Future appearances on NBC television in June, 1964, and at the World's Fair in '65, are in the offing for future members.

The Clarksville Grange will sponsor a Card Party at the Grange Hall tonight, January 9.
