"ADVENTURE IN ECUMENISM" FEATURE OF 3-DAY DISCUSSION THIS WEEKEND IN DELMAR

With the subject of ecumenism prominent in the minds of thinking people, the Commission on Missions of the Delmar Methodist Church has scheduled a three day symposium on "Adventure in Ecumenism" for the weekend of January 24, 25 and 26, with members of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches of Delmar as participants. Outstanding church leaders will address the sessions.

The program has been conceived to explore the possibilities of practical grassroots ecumenical dialogue. Referring to the coming event, the Rev. William G. Vigne, associate minister of the Delmar Methodist Church, declared, "We shall explore with our Presbyterian and Reformed neighbors the question 'Why Ecumenism?' We anticipate a lively dialogue as we gain new insight into our Christian heritage and our common calling."

The program starts with a combined dinner Friday evening at 6:30 in the Delmar Reformed Church for the Methodist Couples Club and the Reformed Church Doubles Club, followed by an open meeting at 8:00 o'clock in the sanctuary of the Reformed Church at which all are welcome, when the speaker will be the Rev. James P. Ebbers of the Board of World Missions of the Reformed Church in America.

and Ravida's Market, Slingerlands; the Voorheesville Pharmacy; and, in Albany, Mistletoe Bookshop, 238 Washington Avenue. Tickets can also be purchased on performance evenings at the box office.

Regular admission is $2.00. Student admission is $1.35. Curtain time will be 8:40 p. m. at the Bethlehem Central High School, this Friday, January 24 and Saturday, January 25.

Saturday morning at 8:00 o'clock, a men's fellowship breakfast for all men of the participating churches will be held in the Delmar Methodist Church. Reservations for the breakfast should be made by calling HE 9-9976 by Friday noon. The breakfast will be followed by group discussions. From 2:00 to 5:00 P.M. there will be workshops for pastors and lay leaders of all Presbyterian, Reformed and Methodist churches in the capital area. A buffet supper will be served at 5:30 by the Mr. and Mrs. Club of the Methodist Church with couples of the Presbyterian Church as invited guests. At 7:00 P.M., an open meeting in the sanctuary of the Delmar Methodist Church at which all are welcome, will be addressed by the Rev. Donald Black of the Commission on Ecumenical Mission and Relations, of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

On Sunday morning, Rev. Black will preach at the Delmar Presbyterian Church, Rev. Ebbers at the Bethlehem Reformed Church in Selkirk, and the Rev. Donald Redmond of the Board of Missions of The Methodist Church will preach at the Delmar Methodist Church. A tea, at which all are welcome, will be served in the lounge of the Delmar Methodist Church at 4:30 o'clock.

At 4:30 P.M. Sunday in the sanctuary of the Delmar Methodist Church, an open meeting will be addressed by the Rev. Dr. Carlyle Adams, stated clerk of the Presbytery of Albany, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Rensselaer, syndicated columnist, and observer at the Vatican Council, who will report on the Vatican Ecumenical Council. The public is invited to hear Dr. Adams in this culmination of the weekend program.

Panhellenic Luncheon

The midwinter luncheon of the Albany Panhellenic Association will be held Saturday, January 25, at the Albany Country Club at 12 o'clock noon. Miss Julia Graham, executive secretary of the International Center, will be the guest speaker. All alumnae of national college sororities are invited to attend. The price of the luncheon is $3.50.

Mrs. Alan Hilchie, 39 Alden Court, Delmar, is in charge of program arrangements for the affair, while Mrs. Albert Wagar, 58 N. Allen, Albany, is luncheon chairman. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Wagar at HE 8-3702.

Mrs. Louis Dempf, 15 Pine View Ave., Delmar, Membership Chairman of the Panhellenic Association, wishes to remind all Panhellenic members that the new Directory will go to press very soon, and that the yearly dues of $2.00 must be paid to her in order for a member to be listed in the Directory.

New Library Program

The Delmar Public Library will start a new and different program on Wednesday, January 29, at 3:30. A "just for fun" reading club for children in grades four, five, and six will begin then. The children will meet once a month to talk about books they have read and to share their experiences.

The Library also offers a Story Hour for children in kindergarten, and grades on through three. These children meet at 3:30 every other Wednesday. The next dates for this group are January 22 and February 5.

LEGION TO SPONSOR ICE CARNIVAL ON SATURDAY - (WEATHER PERMITTING) - AT VON RONNE'S POND

The Children's Ice Carnival on Saturday, January 25, was announced Commander Richard Dalton of Blanchard Post, American Legion, Delmar. If good skating weather prevails, it will start at 1:30 p.m. at Von Rome's Pond on Gardner Terrace Extension off Hudson Ave., Delmar.

All children are invited by the Post, and, as usual, there will be a large supply of free hot dogs, hot chocolate, and other refreshments. The program will consist of ice-skating contests and races, with many prizes to be awarded. This date may change depending on weather, and parents and children are advised to watch newspapers for possible postponement.

Carnival Chairman Joseph L. Cannizzaro and other Legionnaires are making the arrangements for this community affair.

Scholarship Applications

Applications for the Glenmont Parent Teachers' Association annual scholarship grant of $300 will be distributed to all eligible Bethlehem Central High School seniors by the Guidance Department, and must be returned by January 31.

A senior, to be eligible, must have completed the fifth and sixth grade at Glenmont Elementary School.

The Scholarship Selection Committee of the Bethlehem Central High School will process applications in February and the scholarship will be awarded at the March meeting of the Glenmont Parent Teachers Association.

Rescue Squad Reports

The Rescue Squad of the Delmar Fire Department finished 1963 with the busiest and most gratifying year in its long history. They not only served the community 337 times but put in service a new ambulance without the normal fund raising drive as in the past. This was accomplished by depleting the funds left over from their last ambulance drive in 1959 and with the donations received during the years from those people they served.

The squad is not only proud of their record but glad to donate over 80 eight hour days last year to give to this area the service of the ambulance that is made possible through free donations only.

The squad is a part of the Delmar Fire Department, who insists that there is at least one trained First Aid man on every call. They also believe that the siren should be used only in an emergency. The ambulance is radio equipped so that they are in constant contact with the Bethlehem Police and will be included in the Town-wide fire radio system to be installed shortly.

by THE TATTLER

Editors' note: This is the first in a series of stories concerning Tri-Villagers. Our area is composed of a population enriched by many creative, interesting people. We want you to meet them via the Spotlight!

Meet the Kirkmans! When the attractive white cottage door at 22 Borthwick Rd. in Delmar is opened, you will meet a lovely blonde of Scandinavian descent, a handsome greying husband, and a husky good-looking fifteen year old son. You'll be meeting Ruth and Bob Kirkman, and Bob Jr. Daughters Jan and Judy are living out of town: Jan is now Mrs. Bernard Harvith of New York City and Judy is a teacher in the Denver Colorado schools.

This family had its beginning in the mid-West. Bob was associated for many years with the Wm. Wrigley, Jr., Company and Ruth worked as a photographer's model. (She began by hiring the models for a commercial art studio but so many of the accounts said they wanted Ruth that photography modeling soon became her career and she was considered one of the three top models in the Chicago area, featured on billboards and magazine covers, and making commercial movies and movie travelogues!) When the Wrigley Company sent Bob to Phoenix Arizona to be comptroller-treasurer of the swank Arizona Biltmore Hotel, Barry and Peggy Goldwater were among their first callers. Peggy (Margaret Johnson) Goldwater and Ruth became such good friends that Peg and Barry asked Ruth to be the Godmother of their first son. Bob and Barry Goldwater and their wives have continued this friendship and close association over the years and there is deep mutual respect and fondness some displays and exhibits of products and services of prominent area and national concerns, this, too, is a Kirkman touch! Bob has been responsible for seeing to it that the Albany Airport Terminal space has avoided a "cluttered" look and that advertising there has good taste and dignity. In addition, right now, he is launching into a new field, the construction of displays. For proof positive of his ability, notice such displays as Niagara-Mohawk, First Prize, Dodge, and General Electric. The latter ad, usually showing turbines, motors etc., uses a method of creating an impression of motion by the use of lighting, a tricky and effective technique called Technamation!

And don't think for a moment that Ruth isn't right in there pitching, giving Bob the benefit of her years in advertising. Ruth Kirkman thrives on juggling roles! She also helps Peg Spath of Albany coordinate conventions which are brought to this area by the Albany Convention Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce. (Ask her sometime about the time she started a fire in the wastebasket, purely by accident, at the time of the Firemen's convention!) Ruth's flair for that which is different has led her up the path of the small business world, too! When she once made up a basket for some of Bob's young friends to send to a chum in the hospital, it began a series of baskets for those confined. These were not ordinary baskets, however, received bibs with the name and color of the father's alma mater. Each such gift Ruth originates "catches on," and before she knows it, she's in business, turning out the unusual in gifts for friends and acquaintances!

If you are invited to the Kirkman home, don't be surprised if Ruth "rolls out the red carpet" for you, for she actually has a strip of red cloth which she rolls out for special guests and special occasions. If she's giving a bon voyage party, chances are you'll enter by way of a gangplank and a door with a cardboard port-hold will open for you! If it's a wedding shower for kitchen accessories, don't be surprised if you're sent an invitation on contact kitchen paper of gay plaid and you are served in the kitchen. After all, it IS a kitchen shower and the bride-to-be will undoubtedly receive a corsage of small imitation vegetables! If you notice unusual touches around the house, it's not surprising. It's just that Bob and Ruth Kirkman are unusual people with a great portion of talent, a delightful sense of humor, and a great love of their fellow man.

Kirkmans came to Albany where Bob purchased the advertising company representing the United Traction Company and the then Schenectady Railroad Company. He has been prominent in the advertising field since that time, responsible for the displays you see on the buses you ride! Today, if you've noticed that Albany airport terminal looks like a little bit of New York with its hand-most unusual, wrapped in clever ways. Soon friends asked Ruth to make up Christmas remembrance baskets, etc. One friend still chuckles over her remembrance. Hospitalized because of an arm operation, she carefully opened a "plant" wrapped as from a florist, only to find an artificial arm firmly planted in soil and elaborately adorned with rhinestone bracelets! N.Y.) and every year the four-some takes charge of the outdoor art shows, "Bizarre Bazaars," held in October at the local library. Mrs. Mikol also acts as supervisor of the regularly scheduled art exhibits in the library's Community Room.

Their concern for encouraging interest in art is particularly commendable, I think, because all four are very busy people - not the breed of creative folk who "want to be Vehicle Bureau, and recently opened "The Gallery Miniature" on Chapel St. in Albany. Mrs. Mikol is an art teacher of much experience, having taught at the Institute of History and Art, the State University, and at the Albany Academy for Girls.

All four have also won many prizes, and have had their work displayed at many shows and exhibits.

We should be proud to have such talented artists within our community - and grateful for their volunteer efforts to help us learn about and enjoy the art they love.

You still have a week and a half in which to get tickets for the Albany performance on Tuesday, February 4, of the National Ballet of Canada. It will be held at the Palace Theatre.

Co-chairman of the benefit event is Mrs. A. F. Edith Dappert of 11 Pinedale Ave. in Delmar. She is acting president of the Albany League of Arts - in the absence of Dr. Paul Pettit who is presently in Greece - which also sponsored the opera, "La Traviata," presented here last fall, and is planning to bring other outstanding cultural programs to the area.

All four stars of the Canadian ballet company will perform at the Albany program. They are Lois Smith, David Adams, Galina Samtsova and Earl Kraul.

The 80-member company will present "Serenade," choreographed by George Balanchine; "Offenbach in the Underworld;" a comedy, "One in Five," to music by Strauss; "Pas De Deux" and "Walpurgis Night!" from the Bolshoi Ballet.

The National Ballet of Canada is currently touring the country with this program. Its appearance here is being sponsored jointly by the Women's Council of the Albany Institute of History and Art and the Albany League of Arts.

Mrs. Dappert, whose co-chairman is Mrs. Charles Tobin of Albany, tells me there are still seats available in the orchestra ($3.50) and second balcony ($1) sections of the theater.

Mail orders which include stamped, self-addressed return envelopes will be filled immediately. The address is: The Institute Gift Shop, 125 Washington Ave., Albany 10.

There is also a box office in the Gift Shop of the Institute, if you prefer to pick up tickets.

The ballet company has received rave reviews for its performances throughout the U.S., and you're sure to like the presentation whether you're an expert or an ignoramus on this delightful dance form. See you there?

young, are taking advantage of every opportunity to head for the snow-covered hills.

Students at Bethlehem Central have recently proven just how enthusiastic they are about this great outdoor sport. The school has had a ski club in the past, but when a group applied for a school charter this fall, they were turned down by the student council.

"Too dangerous," was the council's reason for rejecting the organizational request. The pupil representatives felt the school shouldn't officially sponsor a club that might incur physical injuries among its membership.

The skiers, though, wouldn't be stopped. They organized - 116 strong - as an independent group, and obtained a building permit to hold meetings at the school. The club officers, all BC seniors, are Jim Myron, president; Jim Bradt, vice-president; Rosemary Marotta, secretary; and Dick Drake, treasurer.

The club has gone on two skiing outings already, and another is planned for this Saturday. Two busloads, or about 80 youngsters, participated in the first two trips. The first was a day-long outing on December 23 at Hunter Mountain near Tamersville, and the second was a night visit to the Bousquets Ski Area in Pittsfield, Mass., last Thursday.

Buses are chartered from L.C. Smith, and each skier must have a permission slip from a parent.

"So far we've had no accidents or trouble of any kind," Jim Myron told me. Maybe I'm going out on a limb to say so, (not being a skier, all of mine are still intact) but it looks to me as though the kids have demonstrated mature determination in this venture. And let's hope everybody's limbs remain intact throughout the skiing season.

Would you like to send an Avis button to your son at college?

We try harder.

Or to the man who installed your dishwasher? Or to the laundry that doesn't replace the buttons on your shirts?

It might wake up somebody you know. The way it did us.

The button jacked us up. It reminded us we were only No. 2 in rent a cars. With a lot more to do than just hand you a new car like a lively, super-torque Ford.

We had to try harder to keep you coming back.

All of us.

The girls at the counters, the men who fill up the gas tanks, the mechanics, the president back at the office.

We're still only No. 2. But we're inching up.

Pick up a button at any Avis counter.

If the slogan doesn't work, turn it over.

Try the pin.
