The Bethlehem-New Scotland Roads Association last night called for early construction of the southside arterial highway to speed suburban traffic to the State Campus area and downtown Albany.

Association president Frederick C. Stimmel told a communitywide meeting in Bethlehem Central Senior High School that 80 percent of Delmar-Elsmere residents would be better served by the planned southside artery than by the Delmar-Slingerlands bypass link proposed by the Department of Public Works.

At the same time, Stimmel asked the DPW to conduct an informational meeting of its own, and pledged cooperation of his organization in developing a road location of "most benefit to us, not only for the present, but for the future."

Last night's meeting was called by the association to help resolve the dispute between residents and the DPW over the route of the Slingerlands and Delmar bypasses and their connecting link, which presently is designed to cut through the hamlet of Slingerlands.

Stimmel pointed out that fewer than 50 residents of Delmar, those working now or slated to be transferred to the State Campus site, would be benefited by the bypass connector under its present alignment.

"We therefore raise the question," he declared, "whether the connector is even needed, when you compare the needs of fewer than 50 people to construction costs of some $1 million a mile."

If the bypasses were built along the route originally proposed by the Department in 1958, and the southside arterial highway were speedily constructed, Stimmel said all of Slingerlands and 80 percent of Delmar and Elsmere residents would be able to reach Albany locations more swiftly than by using the presently proposed bypass connector.

He added that the extension of the bypasses to connect in New Scotland would be of great benefit to the expansion of New

This is the congenial start of a shocking night of suspense and terror for the man caught in the web which is the subject of "The Deadly Game," Slingerlands Players' forthcoming production. Martin Barr (left) as La Roque, and Douglas Marone (right) as Carpeau are already planning their moves in the mock trial which is to trap a passing stranger in a Swiss mountain eyrie. Pouring for this macabre klatch is Pierre, the deaf-mute manservant (Arthur Ploetz). Directed by Sydney Turner, performances are next Friday and Saturday nights, May 22 and 23 at Bethlehem Central Auditorium.

WILEY IS CHOSEN GRAND MARSHALL FOR BETHLEHEM MEMORIAL DAY PARADE SPONSORED BY LEGION

Charles J. Wiley of Voorheesville has been chosen as Grand Marshall of the Town of Bethlehem Memorial Day Parade. Commander Richard P. Dalton of Nathaniel Adams Blanchard Post No. 1040, American Legion, Delmar, sponsors of the Parade and Memorial Services, has endorsed his selection and cited him for his dedicated service to his country and Legion Post.

Mr. Wiley was one of the first four Albanians to volunteer for service in World War I. He enlisted in the Tenth Infantry at the age of 17. Later he was transferred to the 105th Infantry Regiment of the 27th Infantry Division.

Mr. Wiley was a charter member of Capital City Post, American Legion, Albany. He transferred to Blanchard Post in 1941. He served twice as a Vice-Commander, guided several fund-raising drives, and was chairman of the Drum Corps in its active days and Service Officer. In 1948 he founded the Post bowling league and now serves as Secretary. He is an active 40 and 8 Member of Albany County. He works at his trade of carpentry at the State Campus site.

Aides to the Grand Marshall will be Mr. Robert E. Mulligan of Brockley Drive, Chairman of the Memorial Day observance again this year, and Mr. Alexander J. Woehrlé, Past Commander of Blanchard Post.

The Honorable Bertram E. Kohinke, Supervisor of the Town of Bethlehem, will be Honorary Grand Marshall of the Parade.

ANNUAL POPPY SALE STARTS ON WEDNESDAY

The Annual Poppy Sale of Nathaniel Adams Blanchard American Legion Auxiliary, Unit 1040, will open on Wednesday, May 20, in the Tri-Village area.

Auxiliary volunteers will be stationed at several locations throughout the area during the sale to distribute the little crepe paper replicas of the wild poppies of France and Belgium, asking that they be worn in honor of the nation's war dead. They will be happy to accept contributions for the Auxiliary's work in assisting the disabled war veterans and the needy children of veterans and others.

Thousands of disabled war veterans unable to do other work are given gainful and beneficial employment during the year making the flowers in veteran hospitals and convalescent workrooms maintained for disabled men outside the hospitals.

As in the past, the American Legion sale will be conducted in conjunction with the annual poppy sale of the Bethlehem Memorial Auxiliary to Post 3185, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

P-TA Meeting

The final meeting of the Slingerlands P-TA will be held on Tuesday, May 19, at 8 P.M. This will be an evening of entertainment honoring teachers on "Teacher Recognition Day." The program is under the direction of Mrs. Joanne Kimmey and Charles Losacco.

Named Editor

William Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnston, Jr., 73 Darroch Rd., Delmar, and a Junior at Allegheny College, has been appointed managing editor of The Campus, the student weekly newspaper.

Scotland and Guilderland Villages.

"The DPW's original westerly route would provide quick access to outlying areas and help stimulate industrial and commercial growth of New Scotland in those areas zoned for such expansion," Stimmel asserted.

"At a public hearing in 1959, the DPW had this to say about its 1958 route," he said. "The red line (showing bypasses meeting at routes 85 and 85-A) will serve as a bypass of Delmar and Slingerlands while taking into account the growth trend of areas toward the west and south, and serve as a central artery to the greater Delmar area and stimulate growth in this section of the Capital district." We agree with them!"

The department has a moral obligation to build the bypasses to skirt Slingerlands, Stimmel declared. "In 1961, residents and the Town Board of Bethlehem withdrew opposition to the DPW plans on their publicly declared assurances that the two bypasses would be connected in an undeveloped area; that the bypass would not cut our residential section, nor our town, in half; that every consideration would be given to the preservation of the residential character of our community, and that a new proposed alignment would be presented to the Town Board for approval."

Stimmel said if the bypasses were joined west of Slingerlands, two road crossings and one railroad crossing would be unnecessary, and right-of-way acquisition costs would be less for open land than the residential property now in the design.

"And the cost of a new location could be saved," he said, "since the 1958 route has been completely engineered already."

The association president said DPW Superintendent J. Burch McMorran and DPW District Engineer Frank J. Fuller had both been invited to participate in the meeting, both declined.

Lt. Governor Malcolm Wilson was represented at the meeting by his counsel, John Fomer.

CAR WASH REALITY FADES IN LATEST COURT RULING

The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court has ruled (on May 6, 1964) in a unanimous decision that The Town of Bethlehem Board of Zoning Appeals exceeded its jurisdiction when it granted Fleahman-Rice a special exception to build an Automatic Car Wash at the intersection of Euclid Avenue and Delaware Avenue in Elsmere. The appeal's court ordered the Bethlehem Zoning Board of Appeals' decision annulled. The effect of the decision is that as of now there is no authorization to build the Car Wash.

The Bethlehem Board of Appeals granted a special exception to Fleahman-Rice (back on December 13, 1963) to build the car wash after a heated hearing which was held on November 21, 1962. Several residents of Elsmere then instituted a court action to overrule the Board of Appeals. The Appellate Division ruling of May 6, 1964, reverses a ruling in favor of Fleahman-Rice and the board which was made by a Special Term of the Supreme Court on August 27, 1963.

The residents who brought the action to court are: William J. Hartnett and Blanche S. Hartnett, Lyle K. Oliver and Dorothy W. Oliver, Douglas D. Reynolds and Margaret Reynolds, Arthur E. Robinson and Lillian Y. Robinson, Christine Pauly, Harry T. O'Brien and Alma T. O'Brien, Martin L. Barr and Leonore Y. Barr.

The long legal battle started in April of 1962, when Arthur Zautner, the Town of Bethlehem Building Inspector, issued a building permit to Fleahman-Rice to build the automatic car wash. In another case (actually the first one) the Elsmere residents appealed from the Building Inspector's action. The Building Inspector was overruled by the board and after a

to continue your education?
Why not get a Student Loan from National Savings?*

When you take out a Student Loan from National Savings Bank, you borrow on promissory notes and you pay no interest while in school. After graduation or termination of study, you pay only 3% interest, and repayment of the principal is made in monthly amounts in keeping with the salary you are earning. These payments may be spread over a 6-year period. Why don't you stop at NSB this week for complete information on how you can get a Student Loan?

A New Service for Prospective New Home Owners ...

SAME DAY MORTGAGE APPROVAL

Now it is no longer necessary to anxiously wait days or weeks for a bank's decision as to whether or not it will grant you a mortgage for the purchase of a home.

Applications for a mortgage received at any of our three offices before 11:00 A.M. will be acted upon at once and the applicant advised of the Bank's approval (or other action) the same day.

This revolutionary, new type service, exclusive with this Bank, is made possible by our Field Appraisers covering the area in 3 automobiles equipped with telephones.

As soon as an application is received an Appraiser will be directed by 'phone, wherever he may be, to go to the property, make his appraisal and report promptly back to our Mortgage Department. This rapid appraisal service coupled with the Bank's prompt checking of the applicant's credit rating, makes it possible to give the Bank's decision the same day. Out of town credit ratings take a few days longer to verify.

The one-day service is limited to existing homes. On applications for new construction we waste no time either, but it does take a few more days to check plans and specifications.

Presbyterian Church Fair

The fifth annual Delmar Presbyterian Church Fair will be held Saturday, May 16, from 11:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. at the church grounds on Delaware Avenue in Delmar.

All year members have been making unusual gifts and novel children's toys for the handicraft booth. Homemade candy, breads and baked goods will be featured at the food booth, and house and garden plants at the outdoor garden booth.

Many attractions are especially for the children. A May pole cake dance, a clown and a pick-a-pocket lady are among the favorites of the small-fry.

Everyone should plan to be there for the auction at 2:00 p.m. Here, items sold to the highest bidder range from small kitchen appliances to furniture, toys to dishes.

The refreshment booth will be offering snacks and light lunches throughout the day so that all may come early and stay late. In case of rain, the fair will be held May 23.

Preliminary plans have been completed for the formation of the Town of Bethlehem Cycle Club to promote the general interests and welfare of bicycle riders in this community, it was announced today.

The new bicycle group will devote the major part of its activities to encouraging bike tours, cycle outings, family picnics and cycle nature trips for riders in the Albany Capital District Area.

The new club will undertake a program which has as its main objectives, the following:

1. To increase the pleasure and enjoyment riders experience from this healthful sport;
2. to promote good-fellowship and lasting friendships;
3. to maintain a community-wide bicycle safety campaign;
4. to sponsor a bicycle field day annually for the enjoyment of club members and the entire community;
5. to interest more people in the community in the healthful and recreational aspects of bicycling;
6. to promote the development of bicycle paths in the community.

For membership applications write Bicycle Club, P.O. Box 7202, Capital Station, Albany.
