Dear Sir:

A few weeks ago, the Spotlight published several letters condemning the action of the Bethlehem Central Board of Education for appointing an out-of-towner and brother-in-law of a Board member as attorney for the district. All of the letters questioned "why," when there are more than 35 attorneys within the District able to do this job. No School Board member was interested enough to answer.

Now — in July, the Board must make another appointment of attorney because at that time the interim appointment expires.

Here is an opportunity for our School Board to admit its mistake — and correct it!

Your apology in the June 4th issue was not what we wanted. We asked for a retraction of certain untrue statements, which I was told you misquoted.

What do you mean by "under-developed?" As I see it there could not be any great development here. Where is the land to develop? Next, "21 families reside here and their living conditions are greatly hampered by lack of an adequate water supply." I have lived here in my present home twenty-one years, by choice, not necessity, and I have yet to encounter an unhealthy situation.

"Many would have to mortgage their homes." Just how many people in the town of Bethlehem get loans to purchase automobiles, washers, make improvements, etc.? Does one criticize them for doing so? No, because like Loudonville, Colonie, and many more, they are supposed to be highly developed. Let me take you for a drive sometime and show you some con-

136 ELEMENTARY STUDENTS TO BE IN CONCERT SATURDAY, JUNE 13

One hundred and thirty-six elementary students will present the Annual All-Elementary Band Concert Saturday, June 13, at 10:30 A.M. in the Junior High Dining Room. If weather permits, the program will be held out-doors near the Dining Room entrance. Miss Connie M. Conroe is conductor assisted by Mary Williams, BCJHS, and Jean Engel, BCSHS.

In addition to four numbers by the All-Elementary Band, the District Elementary Concert Band will play special selections including the story of "Little Boy Riding Hood," and the "Aladdin's Lamp Overture."

An unusual Flugelhorn solo demonstrated by Frederick E. Taylor, a Junior at BCSHS, will be the Second Movement of the William's Fifth Concerto for Trumpet.

Soloists from the band will be: David Marshman, Glenmont, trumpeter, playing the "Carnival of Venice" with variations. Also, a clarinet Quintette from Delmar, a Flute Polka, and French Hornist, Joseph Riley, from Clarksville.

Student conductors are Robert Nold, Elsmere, and Maria Nuzzo, Hamagrael.

This program is dedicated to Mr. Hamilton H. Bookhout, Supervising Principal, and Mr. Roland R. Truitt, Supervisor of Music, whose efforts and encouragement have advanced the Music Department to its present achievement.

ditions that exist in these same areas.

My children grew up physically, morally and spiritually fit without the Normansville Chapel. Stop degrading what we have fought to establish — a quiet, beautiful place to bring our children up, away from the "middle class or Capital" where there is so much corruption.

To me this article was written mainly to get sympathy on this water situation for these few. These same homes were purchased knowing the condition that existed, so let's not condemn the Village as a whole as unhealthy, and get facts correct and not hearsay next time. The only praise I see is for Mr. McClenaghan and

Strawberry Festival

A picnic supper featuring hamburgs, baked beans, cabbage salad, coffee and lemonade topped off with your choice of strawberry shortcake or strawberry sundae will be featured at this year's Strawberry Festival sponsored by the Ladies' Guild of the Bethlehem Lutheran Church on Saturday, June 13, on the Church grounds from 5 to 7 p.m.

A sale of home baked goods will be featured.

What you have succeeded in doing is creating a social barrier for the children. Shall we call it social segregation?

Fund Raising Drive for Babe Ruth League Set for Friday And Saturday, June 12, 13

The annual fund raising drive of the Bethlehem Babe Ruth and Youth Leagues will take place Friday evening, June 12, and Saturday morning, June 13.

This year the leagues had approximately 200 boys between the age of 13 to 15 sign up to play baseball. In order to give the boys uniforms, bats, balls and all equipment necessary to play, we, the Board Members, are asking parents, friends and anyone else interested for help to support the boys in their desire to participate.

Last year the cost was about $20.00 per boy for each one to take part in this program.

Here's something that spells security - a safe box filled with U.S. Savings Bonds.

Sekellick. Mr. Sekellick is self taught explaining in part, perhaps, his originality and ability to work with the diversified media of oil, clay, bronze, metals and charcoal. His architectural training results in work precise as to line where he wishes. His innate sensitivity to color results in effects bold and gentle.

"Golden Harvest" and

"Gothic Window" illustrate the former trend; "The Lavender Seller" (a prize winner in the Delmar Library Bizarre Bazaar in 1963) and "Old Woman of Rhodes" satisfy the conservative viewer. A bronze relief, "Rhodes," two charcoal sketches and "The Musician," an adventure in sculpmetal, show to advantage Mr. Sekellick's skill in the several media.
