

LETTER

Editor's Note: The following letter, written by David G. Esmond and sent to his parents, is printed here because of the interest which has been shown in this project and the many offers of help that have been received.

Dear Friends,

Everything is going well and we're ahead of schedule. The community has accepted the project very well. The sheriff is reasonable. There is no Klan Organization here. This is an area of Mississippi in which there is a positive attitude toward all people getting along with each other.

I believe that many in Delmar and the Albany area will be interested in contributing to this project. However, this contribution would not be a present or a gift from those below in response to an attack of conscience. Rather, our community would be helping the people there do something they would have done anyway, but with money diverted from incomes often little above the subsistence level. Not to be concerned with these people is to kill something within ourselves.

These are people who should be our friends. We can learn much from them. They are poor in material things but not in humanity.

I'm living with a Negro family of nine in a five room house. Furnishings are sparse. The food is high in fat content, low in protein. The family has only a wood stove; yet they themselves are warm and friendly, their children intelligent and open hearted. They are proud, as they ought to be; yet they desperately need, and will gratefully accept, the kind of help which you can give by contributing to the project.

Delmar Day Unit to Meet Tomorrow, Friday, Jan. 8

The Delmar Day Unit of the Home Demonstration Department will hold its regular monthly meeting on Friday, January 8, at 1:30 P.M. at the Delmar Library.

Mrs. Murray Klingaman will give an illustrated talk on her recent trip to Europe.

Tea will be served and guests are invited to attend.

These people deserve a church.

If you would like to help, please send checks payable to the Antioch Missionary Baptist Church to Martha Honey, Tank Hall, Oberlin, Ohio. Thank you very much for your concern.

Truly yours,
David G. Esmond

Bethlehem Church Gives Bus to Coeymans

A ceremony was held recently at the First Reformed Church of Bethlehem in Selkirk, when the congregation presented a bus to the congregation of the Riverview Missionary Baptist Church of Coeymans. The bus had been used to transport the children of the Reformed Church to Sunday School and for various other group activities. A growing enrollment in the Sunday School necessitated the purchase of a larger bus. The Coeymans Church plans to use the vehicle for similar activities.

Presenting the keys were Reverend Robert Hoeksema, Edgar Covey, and Francis Elmore of the Bethlehem Reformed Church. They represented a committee headed by Mr. Covey and LeRoy Vadney. Drivers for the church buses are Mr. Elmore, Gerald Van Kempen, Peter Van Kempen, and Willard Driver.

Accepting the keys for the Riverview Missionary Baptist Church were Reverend Samuel B. Sutton, Trustee George H. Lipscomb, Pleasant Foy, and James Boxley.

The presentation ceremony was representative of the spirit of unity and cooperation between the churches of the area.

There'll be some changes made soon in the Russell Road-Krumkill Road area of North Bethlehem. A 12-acre site has been authorized for purchase from Peter H. Goettel by the Guilderland School District. Residents of the school district voted 594 to 190 in favor of the purchase on December 16.

The site will be used for the building of an elementary school. A committee of North Bethlehem residents has been working hard for more than a year to convince the Guilderland school officials of the need for a school in their area, and they hope the school will be erected in the next few years.

moved his family to the new home on Russell Road on December 14. The Griffins formerly lived at 9 Marjorie Dr. in Guilderland.

Dr. Griffin works in the internal medicine department at the Veteran's Hospital, and he and his wife have three children: Mary, 10, Clint, 9, and Chris, 4. Both Mrs. Griffin, who is a native of Burlington, Vt., and her husband, originally from Herkimer, N.Y., like the privacy of country living and the opportunity it allows for outdoor sports.

Mrs. Griffin has had some experience with renovating and decorating different homes, and says their new 9-room home will need some major work, such as sanding and painting. But she hasn't had time yet to tackle it, and last week she gave me a two-word description of the house: "A wreck."

The Griffin's all enjoy the more rugged sports, such as hiking and tobogganing, and have a camp trailer in which they take trips every summer. Though they've moved only about a mile from their former home, they've crossed town lines from Guilderland to Bethlehem and that's reason enough for us to say: Welcome, Griffin family.

 Many of you may wish to take a trip to the Delmar Public Library sometime this month in order to see an exhibit of 11 watercolors painted by the Rev. J. Coolidge Hand, who now lives in Rock City Falls, N.Y.

Cal Hand lived with his family on Delaware Avenue in Delmar from 1941 until 1962, while in the retail merchandising and insurance businesses. Two years ago, at the age of 53, he entered the Methodist ministry on a full-time basis and now has three pastorates, in Rock City Falls, Middle Grove, and East Galway.

Mr. Hand is a graduate of the fine arts department of Pratt Institute in Brooklyn, and has enjoyed painting as a hobby almost all his life. While a resident of Delmar, he taught an adult education art course and was instrumental, as a member of the Delmar Rotary Club, in arranging for prizes to be awarded to exhibitors at the Delmar Library's annual Bizarre Bazaar.

He has had two one-man art shows previous to this one, and his paintings have won many prizes in different competitions.

Mr. Hand believes that the creative work that goes into the artistic reproduction of the beauty in our world is, in itself, "an act of worship."

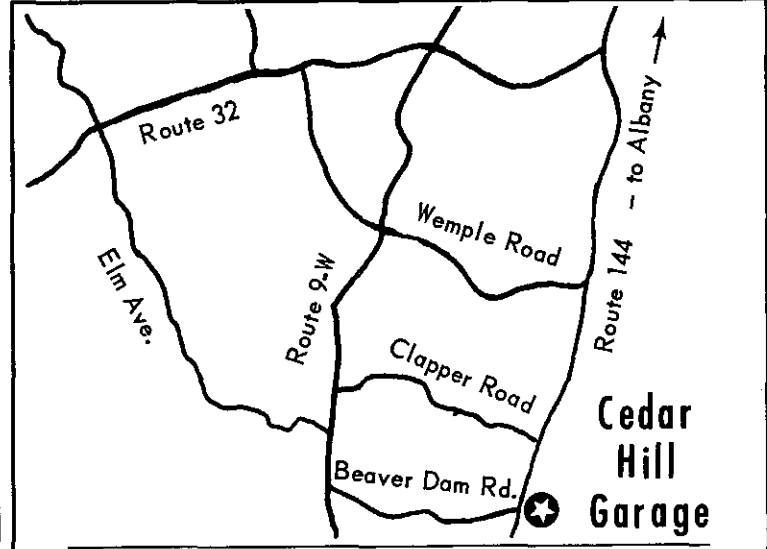

Cal and his wife, Emily, were active in the Delmar Methodist Church while they lived here. They have two married daughters, one of whom, Mrs. David Scott, lives in Delmar with her husband and two-year-old daughter, Jennifer.

 Among the many family reunions enjoyed this past holiday season by area residents was one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond C. Mayberry of 64 Delmar Pl. in Delmar.

Their daughter, Judith, who became Mrs. Richard Considine last August, was here with her husband from their home in South Bend, Ind. Richard is studying for a Ph.D. degree at Notre Dame.

Also present at the home- stead were twins Joan and Elizabeth, who are working gals and share an apartment in New York City. Cheerfully putting up with all the feminine fuss was son Charles, a junior at Bethlehem Central.

The Mayberry's moved to Delmar six years ago from DeWitt, N.Y., where the girls attended high school. Judith is a graduate of St. Lawrence University and earned a Ph.D. at Penn State; Joan also graduated from Penn State, and Elizabeth is a graduate of Cornell.

A New Year's Eve party that gave some of our local teenagers a chance to welcome the New Year with proper fanfare was hosted by Miss Sue Kleinke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kleinke, Jr., Maher Rd. in Slingerlands.

The kids had a ball playing records and dancing, engaging in various party games, and putting noisemakers into action when the hour tolled midnight.

The young guests, most of whom are juniors at Bethlehem Central, included Laura Jepsen, Sue Sutter, Nancy Oliver, Carol Buttercase, Alison Sanders, and Joan Kleinke.

Also, Conrad Hartman, Charles Scott, Rick Dunn, Jim McKee, Dick Erhardt, Jack Fairbank, and John Hilliard.
