Art's at 4 Corners

Many, many people in the Tri-Village area will be happy to know that Arthur Sgroi, former manager of the Delmar Albany Public Market, is the new manager of the Star Super Market at the Four Corners.

Mr. Sgroi is one of the outstanding retail merchandisers of this area. He has spent his entire working years in grocery stores, the last 18 in managerial capacity with super market chains.

Wintering Indoor Plants

During the winter season, it is well to refresh our memories on how to maintain indoor plants over winter months. Mrs. Joseph Parser will do just that for the garden department of the Delmar Progress Club on February 1 at 1:30 p.m. in the Delmar Public Library when she speaks on the green thumb magic for house plants and will illustrate with colored slides.

head at Albany Medical Center Hospital, was named "Young Man, of the Year" by the Albany Jaycees recently.

Dr. Goodman, who also is assistant professor of medicine and attending physician at the medical center, will be entered in statewide competition later this year.

The Jaycees honored Dr. Goodman of 121 Westchester Drive, Delmar at their Bosses Night in the Schine-Ten Eyck Hotel.

A graduate of Harvard College and the Harvard Medical School, Dr. Goodman has held medical and research positions in New York's Presbyterian Hospital and Massachusetts Memorial Hospital.

He is a Phi Beta Kappa and a member of Harvard's Alpha Omega Alpha and Boylston Society.

Two Ambassadors to Be Chosen for 1965 Trips

In its tenth year, a special honor has come to the Bethlehem Community Ambassador Project. This community has been selected as one of five in the entire United States to receive a partial scholarship for its Ambassador to Japan. The selection of our community was made by The Experiment in International Living, recent recipient of a gift making these grants possible. Bethlehem's able Ambassadors and the people's growing interest over the years, are largely responsible for the selection.

Thanks to this scholarship, to the generous support of the local organizations, and the community support of the Children's movies, it is possible for a second Ambassador to be sent abroad in 1965. The country chosen for this young person's stay is Chile, a land of great variety and interesting people.

Because of the enlarged program, the completion date for applications has been extended to February 15. Any young man or woman, 19 to 35 years of age, working or residing in Bethlehem, free to spend 6 to 8 weeks abroad next summer, and willing to speak to groups for one year after return, is invited to apply. Applications are still available at Grover's, The Thistle and Yam Shop or the Delmar Library.

Hofaker Re-Elected Prexy

Aloysius L. Hofaker was re-elected president of Norman-side Country Club recently. Other elected officers were: John Germann, Slingerlands, Vice-President; John Burke, Albany, Treasurer; and Philip Murray, Delmar, Secretary.

Am. Legion Membership Drive

The Nathaniel Adams Blanchard Post #1040, American Legion, Delmar, N.Y., is having a membership drive during the month of February.

All veterans of World War I, World War II and Korean are urged to avail themselves of an opportunity to join an organization dedicated to the welfare and interests of the veteran: community, state and nation.

Service men are cordially invited to attend a meeting held the first and third Monday of the month, February 1 and February 15 at 8:30 P.M. at the Post, Elsmere Ave. & Herber Ave., Delmar. Bring service discharge or photostatic copy of same.

Quaker Display at Library

An exhibition of the American Friend's Service Committee (Quakers) work in photographs and children's art is currently on display at the Delmar Public Library. Quakers, best known perhaps, for their relief work in war-torn areas, also sponsor programs in peace, education and alternatives to violence.

From around the world these appealing young faces greet us from these photographs. Pictures painted by appreciative children respond with friendship. These efforts of the Quakers are to help find constructive ways to lessen tension and conflict in our "one world" of today.

An examination of this material will be a hope-provoking experience.

LETTER

Dear Editor,

This year, some of the students at Bethlehem Central started an A.F.S. Club with the hopes of having an American Field Service Exchange Student in the school next year. I have personally worked with these students, and have watched their enthusiasm mount up as deadline for applications draw near.

I have never seen such enthusiasm before and it will never be seen again unless people in the community are willing to give them their support. Don't let their hard work and high hopes come crashing down in defeat. Help them! Help them find a family - now the only barrier between success or failure.

The only requirements for the family are: (1) There must be children who attend or have graduated from Bethlehem Central Schools. (2) The parents must be over 37. (3) There must be a little extra room in the house and hearts for one more. For the little bit of love, patience and time a family gives for one year, they receive, in return, a life time of memories and experiences never to be forgotten.

Anyone wishing more information or interested in keeping a student should call me. We have only a few weeks to find a family. If we fail, all our efforts have been to no avail. Make them worthwhile. Give our student a home!

Yours very truly,
Judy Otis - HE 9-3288
President of A.F.S. Club

FOUR BOYS TO RECEIVE EAGLE SCOUT BADGES

Four members of Boy Scout Troop 72 in Slingerlands will become Eagle Scouts when the troop celebrates its 50th birthday at a golden anniversary program at 7:30 p.m. February 11 in the Community Methodist Church, Slingerlands.

They are Thomas Arthur, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Bradford Arthur, 1 Arthur Terrace; Richard J. Coughtry, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Coughtry, 31 Maple Avenue; Daniel G. Lantz Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel G. Lantz, 35 Maple Avenue, and William Tougher, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Tougher, 105 Orchard Street, all of Slingerlands.

It will mark the first time in the troop's 50-year history that more than one boy has attained the rank of Eagle, highest in the Boy Scouts, in a single year. The troop has had seven of its members receive the coveted rank of Eagle previously since it was organized in 1915.

Guests at the golden anniversary program will include Leonard E. Frieland, president of Fort Orange-Uncle Sam Boy Scout Council; Raymond F. Logan, the council's Scout executive; and Bertram E. Kohinke, supervisor of the Town of Bethlehem.

Robert K. Illingworth will serve as master of ceremonies for the program, at which the troop's present scoutmaster, Robert Carpenter, will be honored.

All former members of the troop are invited to attend the program. Special recognition will be paid to former scoutmasters present.

Troop 72 was one of the first units to be organized in the Capital District when the Boy Scout movement was started in the United States. When it was chartered in 1915, it was designated at Troop 23 - the 23rd troop to be organized in New York State when the state's only Boy Scout Council was located in New York City.

It was redesignated Troop 1 on June 22, 1921 by the Fort Orange Council when the council was established in Albany. In 1929 it was changed to its present number, Troop 72.

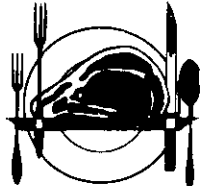

When the troop was first organized in 1915, it was sponsored by the I.O.O.F. of Slingerlands and held its weekly meetings in the Odd Fellows Hall on New Scotland Road - the building now occupied by Ravida's Market and the Slingerlands Community Players.

Sponsorship of the troop was taken over in 1930 by "A Group of Citizens" in the town and, in 1924 it changed its meeting place to the local schoolhouse which at that time was located on New Scotland Road opposite the Community Methodist Church.

In 1936 the troop changed its meeting place to the church, where it currently holds its weekly meetings on Thursday nights, and in 1953 the church became its sponsoring institution.

When the troop was first organized 50 years ago, it had a membership of 10 boys. Today there are 45 boys registered. Over the years it has played an active role in activities of the Fort Orange-Uncle Sam Council and its Helderberg District.

In case you hadn't noticed, this has been a bad winter for skiers. So far there have been only a few suitably snowy days for hitting the trails, and many Tri-Villagers are among those lamenting the lack of proper weather conditions.

Seven area families got together prior to this season and purchased a year's membership at Scotch Valley, a skiing resort near Stanford, N. Y., about 65 miles from here. "We have hopes for good weather next month," Mrs. Nathaniel A. Boynton told me, meaning by "good weather", of course, a few nice little blizzards.

The Boyntons haven't used their skis yet this winter at all, and the other six families are feeling equally as frustrated. Mrs. Frederick Stimmel confided that the group chose a skiing area not too distant, so that at least some members of the families might be able to use it on weekdays as well as on weekends.

The group includes the families of Mr. and Mrs. Norman W. Llewellyn and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Stagg, who live in Slingerlands as do the Stimmels and the Boyntons, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Woodward who live in Voorheesville, Mr. and Mrs. Karl H. Schrade and Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Stringham, who live in Delmar.

Many of the adults in the group became interested in skiing because their children

Let me introduce you to a very interesting family that moved here last summer. They are Dr. and Mrs. Alan D. Miller and their five children: Matthew, 18, Karen, 15, Julie, 12, Margaret, 4, and Daniel, 2. The Millers live at 99 Dumbarton Dr. in Elsmere.

Dr. Miller is a psychiatrist who is now the Associate Commissioner for Mental Health for the New York State Department of Mental Hygiene. He is retired (which doesn't seem an appropriate word for a man of his age and vitality) from the United States Public Health Service.

The Millers moved to Elsmere in July from Bethesda, Md., where Dr. Miller worked at the National Institute for Mental Health. They have also lived in Denver, Col.

Mrs. Miller, who is a psychologist, was born and raised in Cape Town, South Africa. She has a master's degree from the University of Cape Town, and also did some graduate work at the University of London, where she met her husband.

Her family keeps her pretty busy these days, but Mrs. Miller spends one day a week at the Study Center for Learning Disabilities in Albany. She is a student of classic guitar, incidentally, and is looking for a teacher in these parts - unsuccessfully so far.

LOCAL MUSICIANS WILL TAKE PART IN PROGRAM

Tri-village residents will figure prominently in the forthcoming American Music program to be presented at the Albany Institute of History and Art on Monday evening, February 1, 8:30 o'clock. This is a feature which the club presents each February to join the "Parade of American Music," sponsored by the National Federation of Music Clubs, in which music clubs across the country participate. A printed program is submitted to a national board of judges and awards given on merit. The Monday Musical Club has won many "excellent" and "superior" awards during its nine-year association with the parade.

Miss Adelaide Belser, well-known local teacher and pianist, will be featured, along with Mrs. Lyle J. Schoenthal, soloist at the Delmar Methodist Church who will sing one of the leads in Menotti's "Old Maid & Thief." Both of these musicians are artist members of the Club. Also to be heard are Roger D. Nucci, clarinetist, of Slingerlands, and Robert Oliver of the Colonie Central School. Mrs. Warrar W. Knox, a club member and Federation Secretary, of Ten Eyck House, Selkirk, will be hostess to the special guest from New York Federation of Music Clubs, Dr. Marion Morrey Richter. This program is open to the public and tickets are available at the door.

 "It seems as if almost everybody skis nowadays," Mrs. Stimmel said. Before she took up the sport three years ago, she watched the "mass exodus" to nearby slopes every weekend, and decided there must be a good reason for it. Now she loves skiing herself, and is crossing her fingers that the weatherman will make up for his lack of cooperation to date.

* * *

Here's a social note from the youngsters: Miss Shelley Smith of Selkirk, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William B. Smith Jr., entertained 16 of her Albany Academy for Girls classmates at a skating party last Friday.

The girls, all 7th graders, met at the Albany Country Club right after school and couldn't wait to get out on the ice. Sandwiches and hot chocolate kept them fortified for the fun, and many of the mothers made use of their skates, too.

Among local girls invited to the outing were Sarah Elmendorf of Feura Bush, Lisa Shilling of Altamont, Prudence LeFevre of Coeymans, Nancy Headley and together with fellow stringed instruments devotees for musical sessions whenever possible. He's a graduate of Amherst College, where their eldest son is now a student.

Mrs. Miller told me that Cape Town is a beautiful city, about the size of Albany, located at the southernmost point of Africa where the Atlantic and Indian Oceans meet. Her parents have visited this country on various occasions, and the Millers hope to take their children to Cape Town for a visit sometime soon.

They are enjoying their new home and friends very much, Mrs. Miller said, and we're certainly happy to welcome them to the community.

Mrs. Arlene Schiller tells about her unusual telephone job at Kennedy International Airport.

"I'm here to help people use the phones...but I feel like a one-woman welcoming committee!"

"Officially, I'm here at Kennedy Airport to make change and help people use the public phones, but I've found that there are many other ways to help people on my job, too. A woman will ask me to watch her baby for a moment while she phones. A traveler from abroad will need help with the telephone or in finding his way around the airport. An arriving passenger can't seem to find the people who were supposed to meet him . . . and I'll help if I can. The wonderful thing is how people react. Why, they write thank-you letters to us from all over the world! I have one of the nicest jobs in the telephone company."
