The replica of Henry Hudson's brig, "Half Moon" which adorned the entrance to Home Savings Bank at 11 North Pearl Street since the building was erected in 1927 and which became a familiar landmark for art-loving Albanians, has been moved to the interior, to a position of importance over the vault of the recently refurbished bank.

Exposure to the elements after 37 years inevitably produced definite wear and erosion. Impressed with the unique quality and design of the ship, Mr. Harry D. Yates, the bank's president, directed its removal to the interior, but not before it was completely renovated and History records that Henry Hudson, the English navigator, while sailing the "Half Moon" along the coast in 1609, discovered the mouth of a mighty river and cruised 150 miles of its length. The river now bears his name and his anchorage point was later to become Albany.

The replica, which is the particular pride of Mr. Yates and the bank trustees and personnel is six feet long and 6½ feet high. In its new location, art lovers, visitors and customers will have an opportunity to appraise its beauty at their leisure.

Mrs. Lang to Teach Course

Mrs. Rosalind Lang, Albany's well-known professional model, is conducting a 6-week "Charm Course" for high school girls of St. Thomas', Delmar. The program began February 7 and includes, posture correction, physical fitness, skin care and make-up magic, hair care and styling, wardrobe choice and social graces.

Reverend Paul J. Bondi, assistant pastor at St. Thomas' and director of Junior activities, has announced that St. Thomas' Jr. CYO basketball team is 8-0 in their 12 game diocesan schedule. The team's roster includes Charles Caminiti, Frank Comes, John Clyne, Daniel Dare, James Elze, Michael Kane, Patrick Laffey, James Moak, Kevin O'Brien, Chris Rutnik, Brian Shea, Tom Tipple and Alan Venus.

(Foreign Language in Elementary Schools). Mrs. Hopkins is the elementary foreign language instructor in French for the Delmar Area. A demonstration of selected fifth & sixth grade typical classes will be given illustrating methods of teaching, vocabulary improvement & audio-visual technique. Since the history of "FLES" is not "Ancient History" but rather a new method of teaching our youngsters a foreign language in grammar school, it is felt that this should prove to be a most interesting program.

Christmas Sale Report

The Christmas sale of articles made by blind workers and sponsored by the Delmar Progress Club, with Mrs. Robert Selkirk and Mrs. Josiah T. Phinney as co-chairman, has amounted to $2,498.92, according to headquarters of the Albany Association of the Blind.

Music Group to Meet

Mrs. Donald S. Dewire has announced plans for the Feb. 15 meeting of the music group of the Delmar Progress Club. The meeting, open to guests, will be at 8 p.m. in the Delmar Public Library. Mrs. Dewire, assisted by Mrs. Sydney L. Smith, in a program, "Tuneful Companionship" will also have members participating. Dr. Charles F. Stokes, head of the music department of the State Univ. of New York, Albany, and principal violist of the Albany Symphony Orchestra, will present a group of his students in a string quartet.

Fund Drive for Friends

The Albany Committee of American Friends Service is opening their drive for '65 funds this month with a meeting at which they will learn in what areas special emphasis is being placed this year.

The Friends programs stress racial equality and peaceful solutions to all problems.

Their aim is to relieve human suffering and seek non-violent answers to conflicts, personal, national, and international. Because they initiated a program similar to the Peace Corp, they were invited to Washington to give advise in setting up the government program. Since the Friends are able to go where government agencies are not allowed, they still maintain their own project which is called VISA.

Locally the Committee will start writing letters to about ten persons apiece, asking for donations for the continuance of the work. These women are Mesdames Burton A. Andrews, Werner Baum, Wm. G. Beadenkopf, Wm. G. Bowie, John Cogeshall, Evan Collins, Harold Deuel, Lewis Eldridge, Warren Kimmey, Elizabeth Kirkbride, Werner Liebich, Daniel McNamee, Edwin Millard, W. L. L. Peltz, Dan Peretz, B. J. Savage, Charles Stedman, Wellington Wales, and Kenneth Welles.

To the Editor:
 With the closing of the year 1964, we thought that the public would be interested in knowing that the Delmar Rescue Squad answered all ambulance calls, including 58 for the month of December. This is the highest number in the history of the Rescue Squad representing approximately 850 man hours. The Delmar Fire Department answered 79 fire calls in 1964 representing approximately 1600 man hours.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank the residents of Delmar Fire District for the thoughtfulness and consideration shown during the drought we had this fall. If the residents had not been so careful and displayed such safety with rubbish and leaf fires, our fire calls for that period may have been tripled. Other fire districts not having our co-operation had a rage of grass and wood fires.

At this time we would like to make one further request. In the event that we receive heavy snowstorms this winter, the people living near a fire hydrant would please dig it out for us. It is not that we are afraid of getting our feet wet but it does enable us to spot the fire hydrant more quickly when responding to a call.

The ambulance of the Delmar Rescue Squad is available to anyone feeling he needs this service. It is on call seven days a week, 24 hours a day, on a no charge basis as we are a volunteer unit rendering a service to the community in which we live.

Sincerely yours,
 Newell C. Cross
 Lieutenant, Rescue Squad

I think that this year our community has an added interest in the work of the American Friends Service Committee because of the timely exhibit in the Delmar Library, which demonstrates what the Committee has done, and continues to do in peace education, and in relief in War-stricken areas.

I understand that the exhibit will remain at the Library until Feb. 15th, and I hope that many will have an opportunity to see it.

Sincerely,
J. Augusta Beadenkopf

Dear Sir:

As Commander of Nathaniel Adams Blanchard Post of the American Legion I, and the members of our organization, would appreciate it if you would insert the following article in your publication issue of February 11.

"Nathaniel Adams Blanchard Post of the American Legion is again asking the citizens and merchants of this community to display the American flag on at least the two holidays of this month, the birthdays of Abraham Lincoln (Feb. 12), and of George Washington (Feb. 22).

Commander Charles J. O'Hara of Blanchard Post states that the Legion, as a veteran's and patriotic organization, has always been deeply concerned that our great American heritage is taught to our youth in our schools and homes, and that the celebration of holidays commemorating great events in our history include the display of the American Flag. Thus, the community-wide display of the flag on appropriate holidays has been, and will continue to be, a prime program objective of the American Legion.

Commander O'Hara goes on to say that if the American Flag is to be planted on the moon, we should first demonstrate here on our own beloved soil our reverence for that flag."

Very truly yours,
Charles J. O'Hara

SAINT ROSE PLANS $5 MILLION BUILDING PROGRAM

Sister Catherine Francis, C.S.J., president of The College of Saint Rose, today announced a $5,000,000 long range construction program for the expansion of the College. She outlined proposed construction in order of need as: a new residence hall, a wing to the present Science Hall, a fine arts building, an addition to the Library, combination auditorium and gymnasium, and a chapel.

The College has inaugurated "Project 70", a capital fund raising campaign, with a minimum goal of $1,250,000, the first such drive since the founding of Saint Rose in 1920. The significance of the title, "Project 70" is in the fact that by 1970, Saint Rose will be celebrating its Golden Anniversary and hopes to crown its fifty years of educational service to the greater Albany area by completing Phase I of its long range program, the addition of the new dormitory and the wing to the Science Hall.

The proposed new dormitory would approximately double the College's capacity to provide on-campus residence for undergraduate day students. The wing on the Science Hall will provide twelve new classrooms, fourteen suites of administrative offices and faculty offices, and other facilities. The present offices in the Science Hall will be converted to classrooms. Total cost of the new construction is estimated at $1,750,000.

Increasing college enrollment on a national level, and the current trend toward students residing on campus - even those within easy commuting distance - has put constant pressure on the institution to expand. Additions of a dormitory and science wing will allow Saint Rose to increase its full time undergraduate enrollment by thirty-three percent in 1970.

Heading the Saint Rose fund drive as honorary chairman will be the Most Rev. William A. Scully, D.D., Bishop of the Albany Roman Catholic Diocese. The Most Rev. Walter A. Foery, D.D., Bishop of Syracuse, will be associate honorary chairman.

Co-chairmen of the drive will be Joseph J. Carey, Albany attorney, partner in the

The first Catholic liberal arts college for women established in the northeastern portion of New York State, The College of Saint Rose opened in 1920 with one building, St. Rose of Lima Hall; a faculty of 8 and a student body of 17.

Today the College occupies 25 buildings on an 18 acre campus in the Pine Hills section of Albany. In addition, there is a Rosati branch of Saint Rose located in the Provincial House of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet in Latham.

Saint Rose now operates on a $2,000,000 annual budget. Though conducted in the Sisters of St. Joseph, the College is non-sectarian. Total student enrollment in all sessions is 2,538. Curriculum includes 14 major areas of study in the undergraduate level, and five fields on the graduate level. By a special inter-institutional arrangements with Siena College, graduate students may apply credits from either institution toward a Master of Arts degree.

The faculty now numbers 117 of whom 45% are laymen and women and priests with the remainder, members of the Sisters of Saint Joseph of Carondelet. The combined teaching faculty holds 38 doctorates from 20 universities. In addition, there are 50 with master's degrees and of this number, 7 are studying toward the doctorate.

Saint Rose has a total of 5,500 alumnae from its undergraduate and graduate schools with about 50% of the lay alumnae residing in the Tri-City area. Sixty-nine percent of the employed alumnae are currently engaged in teaching. Also, the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet, with its Albany provincial headquarters in Latham, is a teaching order with its Albany provincial headquarters in Latham, is a teaching order with 1,041 professed Sisters. The Sisters are teaching over 35,000 students in 77 schools, spanning kindergarten through college levels of education. Therefore, the combined lay alumnae and Sisters are playing a substantial role in education today. With the present shortage of teachers, this is especially significant.

'Space' on Curriculum Again
At Heldeberg Workshop in '65

The Heldeberg Workshop and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration recently renewed their commitment to one another and to Science in the Space Age.

NASA officials, Hiram R. Haggett, Educational Programs Officer and Bernard R. McColgan, Spacemobile Coordinator, met with members of the Workshop committee at the Slingerlands home of Mrs. Robert Pauley, Heldeberg Workshop director.

The Government space agency agreed to provide, for a second year, teachers of space science and instructional materials such as satellite models, films (including close-up shots of the moon etc.) The Workshop in turn plans to offer other courses in related fields and to give all the children who attend, no matter what course they may be taking, an opportunity to hear about the latest developments in the realm of space.

Mr. Haggett affirmed NASA's satisfaction with the result of last summer's space science class. He told Mrs. Pauley "The work you've been doing was so productive to us, we elected to come back." The youngsters who go to the classes (held at Vooheesville High School but open to all children from the Albany, Troy, Schenectady area) are the only students serviced by NASA during the summer. Most of its summer educational program is directed at teachers.

In its far-reaching and forward-looking educational effort NASA hopes to interest children in space science careers. "The man still is more important than the machine" Mr. Haggett said. "The spaceman has many scientific tools at his disposal. He alone can decide which ones to use."

the children present their teacher with gifts for the Nursery School. Each child brought a puzzle, a record, or a toy, presenting it himself to Mrs. Mary Caruso. These gifts were very welcome, as Mrs. Caruso gave several older toys away, after they had seen three years service. Another Christmas present to the School is the large piece of equipment recently purchased by the Board. It is a combination jungle-gym, tunnel, climbing apparatus - wonderful for indoor use. Mrs. Caruso said it is her favorite Christmas gift, as she knew how much the children needed it and would use it. The parents inspected the new equipment and watched the children enjoy it, (in spite of party clothes and shoes.) After seeing a movie about Santa's Workshop, cookies and punch were served, pictures were taken, gifts opened (each child brought a grab-bag gift for another child) and school was officially over for 1964.

Facts on Health Insurance

By the end of 1964, an estimated 149 million Americans were protected by some form of health insurance against the costs of ill health, the Health Insurance Institute reported today in a review of the past year.

This figure represents 78 per cent of the U.S. civilian population, the Institute said, and is an increase of 3.7 million persons over the number protected in 1963.

Benefits paid to insured persons last year were estimated at $8.6 billion or some $800 million more than in 1963. These benefits were paid by over 1,800 insuring organizations including 903 insurance companies, 77 Blue Cross and 72 Blue Shield plans, and nearly 800 other health care plans.

The Institute said that record highs were established in 1964, in both the number of persons protected and in the amount of benefits paid out.

Of the 149 million persons protected under hospital insurance in 1964, an estimated 139 million persons also had surgical expense insurance and 105 million also had regular medical coverage. The increases over the 1963 totals for surgical and regular medical insurance were 4.1 million and 3.3 million persons respectively.

Major medical expense insurance, provided by insurance companies, continued to be the fastest growing of all health insurance programs, the Institute said. In 1964, an estimated 45.5 million persons had major medical insurance protecting them against the costs of serious illness or injury, either in or out of the hospital. That's an increase of 8.3 per cent or 3.5 million persons over the number protected under major medical in 1963.

Loss-of-income insurance which helps to replace lost wages of insured persons when they are disabled due to illness or injury, protected an estimated 48 million persons in 1964, the Institute said. This is an increase of one million persons over the number protected in 1963.

Benefits paid to persons insured by loss-of-income policies totaled an estimated $977 million in 1964. In 1963, $936 million were paid out. (These figures exclude accidental death and dismemberment benefit payments.)

Falls Are Killers!!

FALLS ARE SECOND ACCIDENTAL KILLER - Falls are second only to motor vehicle accidents as the major cause of accidental deaths in the United States, Mr. Ray Albertini of the Albany Area Chapter of American Red Cross stated recently. In 1963, the National Safety Council reported 19,700 deaths from falls - 12,600 of which occurred in the home. In work accidents, Mr. Albertini said, more than one-fourth of all permanent injuries to arms and legs, back and trunk of the body are the result of falls. Although persons 65 years of age or older comprise only 9 percent of the population, they accounted for 74 percent of the total number of deaths from falls, he pointed out.

Mr. Albertini also reminded that falls cause some 35 percent of the injuries to children in primary grades, 25 percent of the injuries to children ages 10 to 14, and 15 percent of injuries each year to boys and girls of high school age.

This appalling number of deaths and injuries from falls can be prevented, Mr. Albertini stated, but awareness of the problem and proper preventive action must be called to the attention to all Americans, he said, adding that the fundamental rules of safety can reduce the incidence of falls.

To avoid falls, Mr. Albertini suggested the following:

1. Keep walking surfaces free of foods or liquids. Wipe up spilled substances immediately.
2. Fasten loose materials, such as throw rugs, to the floor or use a nonskid backing on them.
3. Repair or replace floor covering that causes uneven walking surfaces - worn carpeting that causes uneven walking surfaces.
4. Use extra care on slippery surfaces. Adjust your walking speed. Use salt or sand on icy steps and walks.

5. Keep walking surfaces clear of foreign objects, tools, toys, pencils. An unobstructed walking surface is of particular importance in poorly lighted passageways and stairs.

6. Use proper stepladders or stepstools of appropriate height to extend your reach. When using a stepladder, maintain a handhold at all times. Avoid using chairs, tables, and boxes as ladder substitutes.

7. Check all ladders for defects before using them. Lock and check the spreader of a stepladder before use. When using a leaning ladder, place it at a safe angle. The base of a ladder should be placed on a secure, even surface so that it will not slip or turn.

8. Provide for well lighted walking surfaces. If adequate lighting is not available, have proper lights installed. Switches should be provided at the top and bottom of stairs. When needed, use a flashlight.

9. Provide guards at the top and bottom of stairways to keep young children away from the steps.

10. Mark the bottom and top of stairways to indicate both the top and bottom steps.

This month's art exhibit at the Delmar Public Library includes 10 paintings and a sculpture that are the work of an 18-year-old Bethlehem Central senior. The talented and versatile young artist is John R.

John Schreck

Schreck, son of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Schreck of 43 Fernbank Ave. in Delmar.

John is planning a career in commercial art after graduating in June. He will study at Pratt Institute in Brooklyn. This is his first one-man show, but he's already won a total of 26 awards at various art contests and fairs.

When he was 11 years old, John had a still-life painting selected for exhibition at the Smithsonian Institute in Washington D.C. This painting later toured the Far East, under the Children's Exchange Program sponsored by the Institute.

John has also had his work displayed at the Roeliff Jansen Art Exhibit for high school pupils, in Hillsdale, N.Y., and at many local competitions, including the Eastern Regional Exposition at Altamont and the Delmar Library's Bizarre Bazaar.

In addition to his high school classes, he has taken a two-week advanced art course at Buffalo State and personal instruction from Harold Laynor who is an associate in art education for the State of New York and a member of the Village Four. John has also had the benefit of consultations with Clover Mikol, a charter member of the Village Four and one of his strongest boosters.

"John is one of the most versatile young artists I've ever known," Mrs. Mikol told me. "He can work with all media, including oil, pastels, water-color and sculpture."

This is only the second time the Delmar Library has displayed the art work of a youngster. Mrs. Mikol, who arranges for the monthly exhibits, believes John's work is worthy of the one-man show and hopes too that it may encourage other young people to develop a greater interest in good art.

About 70 women, members of the Legislative Women's Club, enjoyed luncheon one day last week at the home of Mrs. Charles E. (Tracy) Walsh Jr., 187 Rowland Ave. in Delmar. Special speaker for the event was another Delmarite, Dr. Fred J. Tickner, who lives with his wife at 322 Wellington Rd.

Dr. Tickner spent almost a year in Africa, in charge of a United Nations mission to the Congo. He spoke to the ladies about his experiences there, particularly in the Stanleyville area which is still very much in the news.

Both Dr. and Mrs. Tickner believe that it will be a long time before the situation gets much better in the Congo. The violence is basically a racial problem, Dr. Tickner pointed out, and the white people there have exploited the natives to such an extent that emotions run high and horrible massacres and other cruelties are the result.

Mrs. Tickner spent two months with her husband in a rented villa in Luluabourg, the capital of the Kasai Province, and told me her visit there was pleasant enough, but there was always tension in the air.

She said Luluabourg is a beautiful city, but is ghost-like today because the Belgians evacuated it when the uprisings began after the Congolese were granted independence. Their villa had all the modern conveniences, but they never knew when any of them might cease to function.

Dr. Tickner was employed by the United Nations for 10 years, and retired following his mission work in the Congo. He's now a professor of political science at the Graduate School of Public Affairs of the State University.

The Tickners are both British and like living in Delmar very much, although Mrs. Tickner admitted to me they miss their associations with people from all over the world that made life so exciting while he was with the U.N. They had a home in Bronxville before coming to Delmar.

They have a daughter, Ann, who is married to Heywood Alker, a professor of political science at Yale University, and a granddaughter, Joan, who was a year old last month.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Peck of Saratoga are the proud parents of a baby boy, David Edward, born Jan. 30. Mrs. Peck is the former Patricia Dunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Perry Dunn of 154 Adams Pl. in Delmar.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Peck are graduates of Cornell University. Pat has just received a master's degree in education from St. Rose College, and her sister, Kathleen, just finished up work for the same degree from Syracuse University.
