

BUSINESSMEN ASK TOWN BOARD TO DELAY VOTE ON ZONING AMENDMENT

A committee representing Bethlehem businessmen were less than completely convinced that the Town Board made a firm commitment to hold in abeyance their approval of proposed amendments to the zoning ordinance at a Town Board meeting held on February 24th.

The confrontation was the aftermath of a spirited meeting of over 150 businessmen on February 16, at which time it was unanimously voted to seek a halt to action on the proposed amendments until specific resolutions could be drafted and presented to the Town Board. These resolutions would deal with certain requirements proposed by the Town Board which would cause possible hardships and financial and economic difficulties.

It was the impression of several of the businessmen present at the Town Board meeting that Harold Williams, one of the four Town councilmen, was the only member of the Town Board who gave his unqualified word that action would be deferred. He said, "This is too important for us to come to any quick decision." Councilman George Butman said he was in accord with Mr. Williams "but of course someone has to get hurt."

Verbal bombardment was directed at Councilman Edward Tallmadge when he stated that he opposed any delaying of approval of the proposed amendments by the Town Board and continued, "It seems to me that it would not serve any good purpose in prolonging the time to put these zoning changes in effect." At the conclusion of his statement, Mr. Louis Dempf, Jr., a member of the 5 man committee appointed to represent the businessmen, leaped to his feet and said he was shocked and distressed that a councilman would make such a statement. . . "that there's no sense in holding this." Councilman Donald H. Burton, who presided in the absence of Supervisor Bertram E. Kohinke, who is vacationing in Florida, tried to get Mr. Tallmadge off the "hook" by saying he thought Mr. Tallmadge meant an "unusually long delay." "We don't want to pigeonhole this for a year," he explained. He was immediately assured by the committee that this would not be the case.

The meeting was spiced by a verbal exchange between members of the businessmen's committee and Mr. Martin Barr of the Delaware Avenue Improvement Association and a resident of Euclid Ave., Elsmere, who urged immediate adoption of the proposed amendments. He explained that the proposed amendments for the first time provided for "buffer zones" for residents living on side streets of Delaware Ave. He was immediately reminded that the only buffer zone provided was at the end of the street where he lives. Mr. Barr is one of the leaders of a vocal and militant group who in the past few years have been successful in their court proceedings to stall off the erection of a car wash at Euclid and Delaware Avenues, a lot now zoned business.

A statement by A. Scott Rowe, another member of the businessmen's committee, that of the two committees working with the Planning Board (The Delaware Avenue Improvement Association and a Kohinke-appointed citizens committee) "not a man on either could be construed as a businessman in the area" drew a hot-tempered reply by Mr. Barr that Chester L. Hawley, president of Main Bros. Oil Co., is chairman of the citizens advisory committee. It must be remembered that Mr. Hawley spoke in favor of the proposed amendments at the Official Hearing held at the Town Hall on February 3rd, and is presently chairman of the Kohinke-appointed Citizens Committee on Planning and Zoning.

Mr. Fred Stimmel, 1st District Committeeman and member of the Citizens Committee on Planning and Zoning, suggested the businessmen be given a deadline of 10 days or 2 weeks for filing their resolutions. Raymond Brownell, another member of the Businessmen's committee cautioned Mr. Stimmel that it wouldn't be reasonable to expect the businessmen to do in two weeks what took them two years to do but that the committee will keep in communication with the Town and Planning Boards. He also pleaded with the Town Board to immediately rezone a parcel of land adjacent to the Glenmont school from residential to business to allow Farm Family Insurance to commence construction of an office building.

Proclamation

WHEREAS, The American Legion was founded in 1919, shortly after the cessation of hostilities of World War I, as an organization of wartime veterans dedicated to continuing service to God and Country; and

WHEREAS, its leadership and guidance in all movements seeking the strengthening of our freedom and the perpetuation of our free institutions have identified The American Legion as one of the great bulwarks of the American way of life; and

WHEREAS, The American Legion has achieved its position of high esteem through its continuous pursuit of programs of service designed for the benefit of community, state, and nation; and

WHEREAS, such programs of service of The American Legion have become an integral part of this community, and the local Post a civic asset; and

WHEREAS, The American Legion will observe its 46th anniversary, March 15-17, 1965; now

THEREFORE, I, Bertram E. Kohinke, Supervisor of the Town of Bethlehem do hereby proclaim the week of March 13 to 19, 1965, as AMERICAN LEGION BIRTHDAY WEEK, and do call upon all citizens, business houses, and organizations to join in paying tribute to the good works of this organization, composed of the veterans of the three wars of the Twentieth Century, as an expression of our appreciation of both the wartime and peacetime services of our own Legionnaires.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the official seal of the Town of Bethlehem on this 24th day of February, in the year of our Lord, 1965.

AHH!

At Last

It is done.

The last nail is hammered into place.

The Painter has put his brushes away and the Electrician has tendered his bill.

The New Dress Department is now Open. It is White, with Gold ceiling and carpeting. It is much more spacious than the old, and for the first time, all the dresses are together - making available in one large department, a greater variety than we have ever had.

As time goes on and the orders we have placed with manufacturers are completed, we will offer an even more exciting array of dresses than ever, including many dressy items.

The Rest of the Store is also improved: Coats and Suits are handsomely shown and the Lingerie department has been moved into the main part of the store.

It's a big move and we think, a great improvement. The Character and Style of Town and Tweed remains unchanged, but we have tried to find a way to broaden our stock so that we would be able to offer more to choose from without clutter.

To make room for new merchandise, we are, this week, taking our FINAL markdown on our Winter Stock. There's still a lot to choose from, but at these prices, (55% to 75% off) they won't last long.

Come in soon, won't you?

It's been a long Winter and our new store has the air of Spring.

Project Lifeguard

The Community Service Project of the Albany Rotary Club and the Albany Association of Life Underwriters this year is Project Lifeguard. Main purpose is to encourage the people of Albany County to wear on their person an identification bracelet of the Medical Alert Foundation, telling of any special medical problem, and to be sure all people recognize the importance of the insignia. This is of special importance to police, firemen and first aid people.

This program is endorsed by the Medical Association and many civic minded leaders of our community. Project Lifeguard is destined to become well known to thousands of local people within the next month. It is planned to place the application blanks for the Medical Alert bracelets in doctors' offices, pharmacists and opticians, as well as in bank lobbies and first aid offices of industrial plants.

Chesbro on Poverty

An unprecedented number of Americans are taking an active part in the crusade to eliminate poverty and related social problems, George W. Chesbro, deputy commissioner in the State Department of Social Welfare, told the Bethlehem Lions Club last night.

He said the press and other American news media have helped bring this about by creating better understanding of the causes of poverty in today's industrial society.

"The personal involvement of so many citizens in the problems of the poor is one more indication that the American people can be counted on to act, once they know and understand what has to be done," he said.

Speaking at the American Legion Post in Elsmere, Mr. Chesbro said this stepped-up participation by private citizens and various groups in the community could be the vital key to success in America's war on poverty.

"To survive today, the poor need more than a subsistence check," he said. "We can stamp out poverty at its roots only if we pitch in with every community tool and resource to make the needy self-supporting: better education through the schools; better health and medical care through health facilities; better job opportunities; a wide variety of public and private welfare services; and voluntary help from private citizens, church groups and other community organizations."

He said "community action" programs under the War on Poverty legislation are providing the machinery for this team-work approach. Basic education programs for welfare recipients represent another step in the right direction. He also cited recent State legislation to promote the use of volunteers by local public welfare departments. Such citizen volunteers can not only provide a number of useful services for welfare clients, but the volunteers themselves can gain a better understanding of the job that faces public welfare and the nation.

GLAMOUR INVADES THE BATH

Dear Cece: We've just purchased an old house which we plan to modernize and redecorate, but budget problems keep us from starting right away. The bathroom is a horror—dead white tile all the way and a prehistoric claw-foot bath tub. Can you give me some suggestions on how to brighten it up without spending a fortune?

Mrs. C.P.

Dear Mrs. C.P.: Introducing dramatic color is probably the easiest and most inexpensive way to achieve glamour in the bath.

To spice up your white background, plan a combination of towels in bright reds and pinks. If possible, add red or pink striped washable wall paper on one wall. A budget item which looks luxurious is the added accent of the new Lady Scott Prints in facial and bathroom tissues in a clean pink design on a snowy white background. Apothecary jars for decorative soaps and bath salts or powders are available in vivid reds and pinks to use as decorating accents and imaginative soap dishes in clear reds carry small change prices in stores.

Dear Cece: My husband claims that his mother always kept green plants in the bathroom, and is pestering me to put some in our new apartment. I think they'd look peculiar and that the steam would kill them.

New Bride

Dear New Bride: Hate to say it, but you're wrong on two counts. Top decorators are suggesting green plants for the bath in attractive hanging arrangements. And the right type of plant will thrive.

Please your husband and flatter your mother-in-law by asking her to suggest a variety that gets along with steam. Then add a decorator touch of your own by carrying out the green theme with Lady Scott Prints in both facial and bathroom tissues in a smart moss green print design on a white background. These soft, fresh-scented matchmate prints in facial and bathroom tissue are planned to harmonize or contrast with other bath accessories and are available in blue, yellow and pink in addition to green. Green and yellow towels will add the perfect highlight color to your arrangement.

Dear Readers: Are you looking for ways to add glamour to your dressing room or bath? Send for our free Accent Decor Tip Sheet. It contains many easy and inexpensive ideas for dressing up the dressing room and bath.

Questions and comments should be addressed to Mrs. Cecelia Allison Room 1440, 420 Lexington Ave., New York 17, N. Y.

The lecturer, Dr. Alfred J. Bailey, will present the film, "Ecuador's Enchanted Isles." These pictures were taken by Dr. Bailey on an expedition which he led to the Galapagos Islands off the coast of Ecuador. ## Choral Program

Two 18th Century choral works will be presented by the Capitol Hill Choral Society at its next concert at the Albany High School auditorium on Tuesday, March 9, at 8:30 P.M. nificat." Guest soloists for the concert, all from New York City, are: Lee Dougherty, soprano; Rosemary Anoe, alto; David Dodds, tenor; and Charles Kellis, bass. Instrumental portion of the works will be performed by an oratorio orchestra, and by the organ played by John Baldwin.

The concert was originally scheduled for performance at the Emmanuel Baptist Church, but the addition of an orchestra to the program made it necessary to transfer to a location where more space would be available for the performance.

Handel's "Dettingen Te Deum" is a rarely performed work in the United States. It was written to celebrate the victory of the city of Dettingen during the wars of the Austrian Succession. It was first performed in 1743. The text is based upon the Matins of the English Book of Common Prayer.

Bach's "Magnificat" is one of the most popular of his shorter choral works. The first version of the work was written in e flat, and was performed at St. Thomas Church at Leipzig in 1723. A few years later, Bach revised the work, deleting some of the original text, and changing the key to D major. The text is Mary's Hymn as recorded in Luke 1:47-56.

MAIN DISH FOR LENT HAS A DANISH FLAIR

Add new flavor and interest to Lenten meals with a trick learned from great Danish cooks — use the wonder-working flavor of Danish Blue Cheese to give your meatless meals inimitable flair, Danish style.

The ingredients in this colorful Supper Pie are all shelf or refrigerator staples, quick to combine and heat. The results are memorable — this casserole has a very special flavor, and the delicious difference is Danish Blue Cheese.

Lenten Supper Pie, Danish Style

- |  |  |
| 1 package (½ pound) green noodles (or regular noodles) | 1 can (10½ oz.) condensed cream of celery soup |
| 1 can (6½ oz.) crab meat                               | Basil, curry powder, minced onion, thyme       |
| 1 can (9 oz.) tuna, chunk style                        | 3 hard-cooked eggs, deviled or halved          |
| 1 can (4 oz.) sliced mushrooms, drained                | 4 ounces Danish Blue Cheese                    |
| 1 tablespoon oil                                       |  |

Cook noodles in boiling salted water until tender. Pick over crab meat and flake. Drain tuna. Combine crab and tuna with mushrooms, soup, and seasonings to taste. Heat gently. Drain noodles, toss with oil, and arrange in a ring in a shallow round baking dish or deep pie plate, making a well in the center. Put the hot fish mixture into the well. Arrange the eggs around the edge and sprinkle all with Danish Blue Cheese. Bake briefly in a hot oven (400° F.) until cheese melts and begins to brown, or brown under the broiler. Serve in pie-shaped wedges. Makes 6 main-dish servings.

Nobody knows more about the problems of Cuba today than a couple that moved to Delmar the first of this year. They are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cabrera, both natives of Havana, who are living at 302 Kenwood Ave.

The Cabrerases left Cuba in 1959, when Fidel Castro took over the small country. "We had to leave," is Maria Cabrera's succinct explanation. She was able to take with her only a few clothes, and she hid her jewelry on her person. At that time the authorities didn't search people leaving Cuba, as they do now.

They went to Washington, D.C., where Mr. Cabrera enrolled in the Lewis Training School to study hotel and motel management. In his home country he had been the Cuban representative of the Cunard Line. At present, he is manager of the Schrafft's Motel on Route 9-W.

Ray and Maria Cabrera are both avid readers, and they are interested in keeping abreast of politics and world affairs. Maria speaks sadly about her homeland, where her grandmother and some aunts and uncles still live. "We write

She doesn't hold out much hope for the future of Cuba, because the children there are now being educated by Communists and, as she says, the young people there can't remember much of what life was like before Castro.

Maria was a teacher of Spanish while she lived in Havana. She taught both Cuban children and American children at the American Embassy there. She expressed an interest in continuing her teaching in this country, but is a little discouraged about how much time and study it might take her to qualify.

She likes everything about Delmar except, naturally enough, the cold weather. She speaks English fluently, is a charming person to talk to, and I hope you have the chance to meet her and her husband and make them feel welcome.
