

The story of music in America is a fascinating one unparalleled in any other part of the world -- and area residents now have an unusual opportunity to enjoy and appreciate that story through the exhibit "American Musical Heritage" of Mr. Clifford A. Allanson of Delmar who is pictured at the display.

Announced by Mr. Frederick W. Stolz, bank president, the presentation is currently featured in the Community Exhibit Room at City and County Savings Bank and is part of a collection of more than 700 units -- some simple and crude -- some more elaborate and refined -- but all important in the development of American culture.

The instruments shown were not selected from the collection on the basis of beauty, value or playability, but in order to present a few vignettes from the past. The parlor organ -- the music boxes -- zithers -- the homemade primitives -- and the battered bass horn from a carnival band -- each were important to American life.

In value, the items vary from trivia to the choice music box. In age, from the french horn and the dulcimer - which came to this country during the 18th century - to the phonographs which were used during the earlier days of the current century.

Mr. Allanson, Executive Director of the New York State Council of Retail Merchants, Inc., has devoted time and effort for more than 30 years to assembling the story of music in America in terms of musical instruments and related items. His exhibit is presented with the hope that to some viewers, it will convey a bit of nostalgia -- to some, more knowledge of music and musical instruments -- and to all, an appreciation of our heritage and good fortune in living in the America of today.

"American Musical Heritage" can be seen at the bank's Downtown Office at 100 State Street, Albany, weekdays from 9:00 A. M. to 3:00 P. M. and, in addition, Thursdays until 8:00 P. M., through August 31 -- and everyone is invited.

German Shepherds Win Blue Ribbons at Albany Club Show

Dr. and Mrs. Howard Serling of New Scotland won seven ribbons with their German Shepherd Dogs at the Albany Kennel Club match last Sunday.

One of the outstanding winners use Gerda vom Helderhill, four month old female puppy owned and bred by the Serlings. She won her class and best puppy of breed. Gerda then went on to win first puppy in the working group.

Her father, Odin, won the open dog class and was best male adult, only to be defeated by Gerda's grandmother, Frigga, who was best of breed and first in the adult working group.

Bethlehem Residents Reap Benefits of Sound Investment Policies, Census

Counting heads in an off-year census and prudent investment of tax funds not immediately needed for expenditure for Town purposes are policies that are paying handsome dividends to residents of the Town of Bethlehem.

The investment program will net Town taxpayers an estimated $18,000 this year. Those earnings will be increased by from $9,050 in 1966 to $12,050 for each of the years 1967-1970 as the result of an interim-period population census ordered by the Town Board earlier this year.

Details of the two programs, Bethlehem Supervisor Bertram E. Kohinke said, will be given to the Board at its next meeting two weeks hence.

Bethlehem's investment program, undertaken by authorization of the State Comptroller, has returned nearly $47,000 since 1961, Mr. Kohinke said. In 1965 alone, the Town expects to receive interest of approximately $18,000 on the more than $1 million it has invested so far this year.

These are the amounts the Town has earned on its investment of tax monies during the aforementioned years:

1961	$3,468
1962	5,384
1963	7,656
1964	12,097
1965	18,000
	plus (estimate)

The special census was undertaken last March by the U. S. Department of Commerce with a contract entered into by Supervisor Kohinke at the behest of the Town Board. The census, which ordinarily would not have been repeated until 1970, showed that the population of Bethlehem had grown from 18,936 in 1960 -- according to the last Federal census -- to slightly more than 21,000.

As a result of this growth, the Town will receive, for the final three quarters of 1966 -- starting with next April 1 -- additional state per capita assistance payments totalling $9,067. Full-year payments thereafter up to and including 1970 will amount to $12,050 annually, for a total additional revenue of $57,000 in a four and three-quarter year period. Cost of the census was only $4,061.

Mr. Kohinke pointed out that in making investments with Town tax funds, "there is no risk to the Town."

"The law stipulates," he said, "the type of investment to be made, such as certificates of deposit, treasury notes and the like. Under the protection of this and other iron-clad guarantees, we have invested more than $1,000,000 so far in 1965. By continuing to study our needs and cash flow, additional investments will be made during this year. And investments maturing will be re-invested as circumstances permit."

Bake Sale

A bake sale will be held August 25 at the A & P store in Delmar. The sale will be sponsored by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormon Church) of Albany. Funds raised will be applied to the new chapel soon to be built in Loudonville. Supervising the sale will be Mrs. Bertha Pangburn of 15 Elm Avenue, Delmar, and Mrs. Hans A. Pohlsander of 14 Ridge Road, Elsmere. Food for the sale will be contributed by members of the church.

AMBASSADOR PROJECT TO PRESENT FILM PROGRAM

The Bethlehem Community Ambassador Project introduces an outstanding Italian film as it's initial feature of the first annual International Film Festival.

Sharing the program with this film will be the world premiere showing of a 20-minute short, CAUTION CHILDREN. Production of this film began in April as a project of the Bethlehem Central High School Dramatics Club, the Charlatans. Gerry Herman wrote and directed the movie, which stars Richard and Peggy Brewster. An original jazz score was written and played for the sound track by Don York.

The film is a "realistic fantasy" about two children who spend a night in the Slingerlands Players' wardrobe room.

Eight movies will be shown this year at the Bethlehem Senior High School. Tickets for the Fall Series of four are now on sale.

VILLAGE VOLUNTEERS TO SPONSOR ANCIENT MUSTER

On Saturday, August 21st, the Tri-Village will be the scene of one of the most unusual events in the Capitol District area. This is the date of the Delmar Ancient Muster, sponsored by the Village

Volunteers Fife and Drum Corps. Fifers and drummers from throughout the Northeast will gather to recall the musical spirit of the American Revolution and Civil War. Wearing colorful uniforms of those periods, the groups will present a spectacle to the eye as well as the ear. While such musters are common in Connecticut, this will be the only opportunity for area residents to attend such an event.

Muster activities will officially begin at noon on Saturday, but Delmar residents may well get a preview of the day's event as some corps will probably arrive early. At noon, the parade will

A PASTOR IS CURIOUS . . .

Curiosity is a strong emotion. The Rev. Paul H. Gassmann, Pastor of Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Delmar has found that out.

Mr. Gassmann has just come into our area from New Jersey and has been filling himself in on our local history. Little did he expect to find a grave in his back yard. Yet when the new Lutheran parsonage was being laid out in the heavily wooded section of the Church property, a lone tombstone was discovered.

The mystery: Whose grave is it? Time and weather have all but obliterated the inscription. Yet there is just enough left to stir up curiosity. You can read the words "Barbara, the wife of ---. The letters Van Re---can be made out. Was this a relative of the Patroon who once owned all of this area? The numeral "17" can also be deciphered. Does this grave date all the way back to the 1700 or perhaps 1817? No other gravestones keep this one company.

"It is not only curiosity that is bothering me," says Pastor Gassmann, "but in my travels around the countryside I have seen many graves stuck off in little patches of weeds and overgrown with brush. I have a feeling that our pioneer men and women and those who gave us this beautiful section of the country deserve better than this."

● A 1ST-GRADE BOY was asked to name the four seasons. "Pheasant, duck, deer, and rabbit," he readily replied.

Bethlehem to Appeal Decision

The Town of Bethlehem will appeal a court decision which ruled that a state law permitting annexation is constitutional.

The Town Board supported Attorney Arthur McCormick, who recommended an appeal. The court battle will now go to the seven-judge Court of Appeals.

If the law is found unconstitutional, by reversing the Appellate Division ruling, Bethlehem will keep two areas which seek annexation to Albany: Karlsruhe-Hurstville and Whitehall Road.

If the Court of Appeals upholds the law, Bethlehem will return to a three-man panel of judges appointed by the Appellate Division, and a court trial.

Mr. McCormick said he would file the town's notice of appeal in the near future. The Appellate Division, when it ruled the law constitutional, gave a 30-day period in which to appeal. That period began about three weeks ago.

In other action at last night's meeting, the Town Board unanimously approved an extension of the town water district to serve the Beaver Dam Road area and the Cedar Hill area along Route 144. Citizen reaction at the public hearing was unanimously in favor of the extension.

J. Kenneth Fraser, consulting engineer, explained that current assessed valuation in the region "in itself is not enough to see this project materialize," but said that if several proposed businesses -- including a national motel and a service station -- locate in the area after water is given, the cost per $1,000 in assessed valuation will be somewhere between $36.50 and $26.

It was standing room only in the upstairs Town Hall meeting room as about 70 persons crowded in to express their delight. After 52 persons spoke in favor or (another person wrote a letter), Supervisor Bertram E. Kohinke termed it "one of the finest public hearings" he'd ever presided at. He earlier assured the residents that the Town Board would approve the extension when they moved downstairs to readjourn their regular meeting. And the Town Board did.

Residents speaking in favor said that the lack of water had created a health hazard. One man said they already had some running water -- "You get a pailful and run with it." Another pointed out that water could lure commercial and residential development to the area.

At its regular session, the board approved another water extension -- the one which would service the Route 9W area in the southern part of town. Both extensions must now be approved by the State Department of Audit and Control and the State Water Resources Commission.

The board referred to the planning board a request by Louis Alteri Jr., operator of Alteri's Restaurant in Selkirk, for rezoning of land on the east side

The board also approved a resolution allowing sewer department officials to seek state aid for new sewer treatment operations, which will be performed under next year's budget. Cost of the project is $18,000 land if the application is approved by the state, the town would be reimbursed for a third of the price.

Juncos Open Golden Fox

The Golden Fox Steak House, recently opened at 1400 Central Avenue, Colonie, Albany, is a new and exciting venture for the "Junco's Four." Lou and Henry have enjoyed an excellent local and national reputation for their Stone Ends Restaurant in Glenmont. Anthony and Paul have been behind the Stone Ends

Bar, and have joined their brothers in operating the Golden Fox.

The Junco's desire to bring a restaurant unlike any other to this area led them in search of new ideas from distant points on two continents.

The new $250,000 building owes its basic direction to a golden fox door-knocker that Gwen and Lou Junco discovered in an antique shop in Washington, D. C. The restaurant bears its name, and the architecture and furnishings were suggested by its Spanish origin. So strongly suggested, in fact, that Lou and Henry travelled to Spain and Mexico to purchase the furniture, gates, murals, chandeliers and

Part of the color and tradition which have made Saratoga a must for racegoers for 102 years is the bugler summoning the thoroughbreds to the starting gate. Robert Shields Bruce, object of enthusiastic attention from feminine racing fans, has been doing the calling since 1963.

Speedy Scot at Raceway
Speedy Scot . . . Yes, Speedy Scot, perhaps the greatest trotter in the history of the sport, has accepted the invitation of Saratoga Raceway management to compete in the $15,000 Chris Spencer tomorrow night.
The fabulous Speedster stallion joins Big John, Duke Rodney, Express Rodney and the illustrious Su Mac Lad for this Big Event and there's no telling just how fast this race may go. There's one thing for sure, Darn Safe's world's record of 1:59 4/5 stands in great jeopardy. That terrific mark was established back in 1957, the only time a trotter has gone better than two minutes in a race. If it is ever eclipsed, it figures to be right here where it was established over the fastest nighttime half-mile oval in the world.

Standing over 16 hands high and weighing about 1,100 pounds, Speedy Scot is one of the biggest and most powerful standardbreds ever to set hoof on a racetrack. Trainer-driver Ralph Baldwin has guided the pride of Lexington's Castleton Farm to win every major event in harness racing. Speedy picked up 14 wins and $90,796 as a juvenile and then swept Trotting's Big Four, the Hambletonian, the Kentucky Futurity, the Dexter Cup and the Yonkers Futurity as a three-year-old. He entered his four-year-old campaign with a bankroll of $335,199 and promptly became the first winner of the $50,000 Founder's Plate. Right now Speedy is the second greatest money winning trotter of all the time with some $650,909 stashed away.

The Scot took his terrific mark of 1:56 4/5 over a mile course as a three-year-old.

This season figures to be the last for the champion as he will probably enter the sire's ranks next season. It's a sure thing that Baldwin won't be pulling any punches tomorrow night as he takes dead aim on Darn Safe's world record.

Certainly Chris Spender shapes up as perhaps the best contest ever at the "dollhouse of the trotting tracks."

area, and the Philippines. He succeeds Miami, Florida businessman, Edward B. Moylan, Jr., who has held the presidency during the year immediately preceding.

Prior to becoming president of Kiwanis International, Keefe served one year as president-elect, one year as treasurer, and four years as a member of the International Board of Trustees. Currently, he is serving as chairman of the International Board's Committee on Golden Anniversary. He has been a Kiwanis for 16 years.

Keefe is the Executive Vice-President of the Oklahoma Independent College foundation. He has served as Publicity Chairman for the Salvation Army and for the Black Beaver Council of the Boy Scouts of America. He has been a director of the American College Public Relations Association; he has served as chairman of the Grady County Chapter of the American Red Cross. In 1954 he was chairman of the State Governors Sports Day Committee, and he is currently a member of the executive committee of the Independent College Funds of America.

The president-designate has served as president of the Kiwanis Club of Oklahoma City, lieutenant governor and governor of the Texas-Oklahoma Kiwanis District, and a member of the Board's Executive Committee. He is also a former chairman of the Kiwanis International Committee on Key Clubs, and has been a member of the Kiwanis International Committee on Boys and Girls Work, and Public and Business Affairs for the United States.

Keefe is a graduate of Ohio University and completed advanced degree requirements at Indiana University and at Columbia Law School.

He and Mrs. Keefe have one teen-age daughter.

In addition to naming Keefe president, delegates to the Golden Anniversary Convention chose a president-elect, two vice-presidents, a treasurer and six International trustees. The latter will serve for two years, joining six holdover trustees.

New officers and trustees are: Dr. R. Glenn Reed, Jr., Marietta, Ga., President-Elect; Walter H. Howell, Q.C., Peterborough, Ontario and James M. Moler, Charles Town, West Virginia, International Vice-Presidents; Marshall E. Jetty, St. Marys, Pennsylvania, Treasurer; Phillip V. Stout, Hilltop, Columbus, Ohio; Claude L. Ryder, Brewer, Maine; James W. Putnam, Hinoon, Emporia, Kansas, (re-elected), and Steve A. Alford, Jr., Baton Rouge, Louisiana; Derrel L. Clark, Central Wauwatosa, Wisconsin, Harry F. Himmel, Englewood, Chicago, Illinois, International Trustees.

The Golden Anniversary Convention of Kiwanis International in New York City attracted over 20,000 Kiwanians and their families to famous Madison Square Garden. Convention highlights included: "Kiwanis International Day at the World's Fair," a slate of headline speakers including Edward B. Moylan, Jr., 1964-65 Kiwanis Pres.; Senator George Murphy of California, Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, Pastor of the Marble Collegiate Church of New York City, W.P. Gullander, President of the National Association of Manufacturers, and the Honourable Jean Lesage, Prime Minister of the Province of Quebec. Delegates to the 50th Convention adopted resolutions upon which Kiwanis' service programs for 1965-66 will be based, honored the "best all 'round Kiwanis clubs and districts for 1964", and developed new ideas in community service and club administration.

The 1966 Kiwanis International Convention will be held in Portland, Oregon.

An English couple visiting a local family will soon be witnessing first-hand how an American family goes about moving from one house to another.

The visitors are Mr. and Mrs. Alan Porter, and their hosts are Dr. and Mrs. Reno S. Knouse who now live at 10 N. Pine Ave. in Albany. On Sept. 1, the Knouse family will transfer all their belongings to a new home at 40 Thorndale Rd. in Slingerlands.

The Porters entertained the Knouse's daughter, Elizabeth, for a few weeks three years ago, when Elizabeth was in England as a participant in the Experiment in International Living. They have been eager, ever since, to repay the visit, and happily accepted the Knouse's invitation to come this summer.

There is a real international flavor about life in the Knouse household these days, because they also have as a house guest this summer a Greek girl who is a student at the State University of New York in Albany. She too is visiting the Knouse's as a result of Elizabeth's travels, for Elizabeth stayed with her family while in Greece last year.

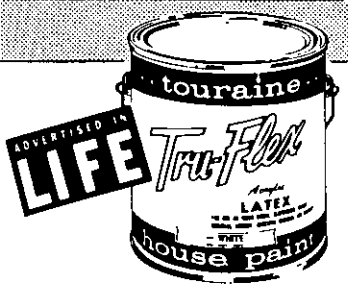

Elizabeth is a graduate of Wheaton College in Norton, Mass., and she spent most of last year traveling in Europe and doing graduate work in the history of art. She will begin studying for a master's degree in museum science this fall, at a school opened just last year in Cooperstown which is administered by the University of the State of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter arrived in New York City on August 9, and spent a week at the apartment of some friends of Dr. and Mrs. Knouse while seeing the sights of the city. They came to Albany last Friday, and plan to stay until Sept. 2.

"We didn't know we'd be moving when we invited the Porters to come," Mrs. Knouse told me, "but if they don't mind things being a little hectic, we figure it will give them a good chance to see a common American past-time—moving—from the inside.”

Dr. Knouse is a professor in the School of Business of the State University in Albany and distributive educator for the State of New York. Mrs. Knouse is a teacher, as is Mr. Porter who hopes to visit some local schools while here.

All I can say is—the Knouse family will be a welcome and natural addition to our community, for residents of our Town of Bethlehem certainly go in for trading visits and making fast friendships with people from other countries. Good show.

Dennis Emery is back home in Delmar and will re-enter the University of Rochester as a sophomore next month. This happy news was relayed to me by his mother, who also filled me in on the ups and downs of her son's recovery from a serious neck injury suffered earlier this year.

Denny hurt his neck diving into the surf in Miami, Florida, while on a brief vacation there in March. I reported here in June that he was recovering from two operations and out of traction, but just after that he had to have an emergency operation for a ruptured kidney.

Mrs. Emery, whose home is at 173 Adams St. in Delmar, returned to Miami for that unexpected turn of events and stayed there with Denny until they both came home to Delmar last month.

On arrival here, Denny had to spend a few days at the Albany Medical Center due to a flu condition contracted during the trip north. But now he's home, feeling fine although he still wears a neck brace, and having a great time visiting with his many Delmar friends and classmates.

Adding to their happiness at being home was a surprise visit two weekends ago from Mrs. Emery's older son, Brian, who is a civilian employee of the Defense Department at Laurel, Maryland.

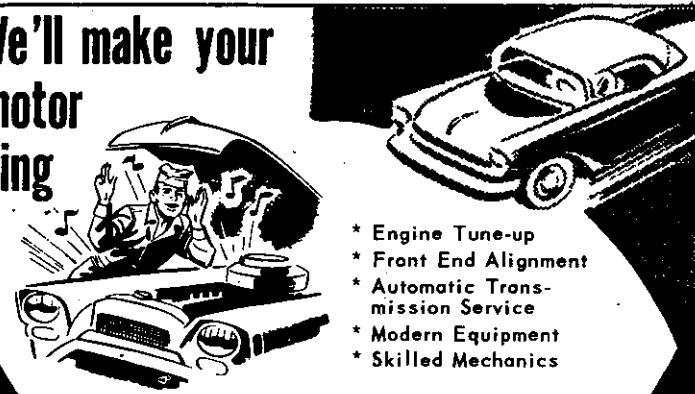

Denny didn't attend college last year, as he was working to earn the money to continue his education, and he's very eager to get back to the books this fall, which was his overriding goal ever since the accident. He'll have to pass up athletics for a while, which he's always excelled in and enjoyed, but he considers himself lucky. I consider him a spunk-young man.

Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Ogden of 175 Adams St. in Delmar are currently enjoying a motor trip throughout the southwest, accompanied by their son, Everett, a student at Clarkson College. Dr. Ogden is a state botanist, so is viewing the sights of different locales and climates with a professional interest.
