Republicans Have Outing at Picard's Grove Saturday

Mr. Edward S. Conway, Chairman, has announced the appointment of Mr. Salvatore R. Sgroi as general chairman of the Albany County Republican Committee's annual outing which is to be held at Picard's Grove, Town of New Salem, on September 11, at 1:00 P. M.

Mr. Sgroi announced the following committees will serve with him: Tickets: Mrs. Robert J. Deitz, Mrs. Dennis M. Toomey; Prizes: Jacob Millett, Mario Macri; Publicity: Mrs. Thomas F. Thornton; Special Booth: Mrs. Robert Cunningham, Mrs. Charles Moore; Game Committee: Ronald Casin, Mrs. Edward Loughlin; Reception Committee: William C. Marron, Edward Ray, John Meader, Mrs. Nancy Lyden; Transportation: Ralph Bryant, Donald Goldstein.

Buses will be leaving County Committee Headquarters, 81 Chapel Street for the Grove at 1:00 P. M.

PUBLIC IS INVITED TO 'SEE HOW A PLAY IS PUT TOGETHER' ON SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 18

An opportunity to see firsthand how a play is put together will be offered the public by the Slingerlands Community Players at an open house on Saturday, September 18, from 6 to 9 P. M.

All interested residents of the Capital District are invited to see working demonstrations of the various phases of theatre craft during the open house at the Players' headquarters, over Ravid's Market on New Scotland Road (Route 85) near the underpass in Slingerlands.

John L. Moore, Players President, announced that the event will be part of the Players' annual season ticket campaign, but emphasized that no solicitation for tickets will be made at the open house. For those interested, tickets will be available.

Comedy is emphasized in the Slingerlands Players' 1965-1966 Season, beginning with "The Thurber Carnival" to be presented October 22 and 23. This play features vignettes based upon James Thurber's whacky and rollicking stories. The season also will end with a comedy, George Bernard Shaw's wry and witty "Arctocles and the Lion", on April 29 and 30, a modern classic of sophisticated humor. Offsetting these antic offerings will be a mid-season drama, "Inherit the Wind", on January 21 and 22. This play dramatizes the courtroom confrontation of William Jennings Bryan and Clarence Darrow during the famous Scopes "monkey" trial of the 1920's, when the teaching of Darwin's Theory of Evolution in the public schools became a national controversy.

How these plays will be assembled and staged will be shown in "living color" at the Players' open house September 18. Guests will witness play tryouts, when actors read for roles in a show and the director casts his play. Visitors will be welcome to take part in these tryouts if they wish, or simply watch them.

An exhibit of set preparation will show how the stage evolves from a design to the wood and canvas structures the actors inhabit during the play. SCP technicians will give a display of stage lighting techniques, showing how the various types of lights create and enhance the mood of a show.

Makeup, which helps transform an actor into the character he is portraying, will be demonstrated with members of the Players being made up for various roles. Here, too, the visitor can participate if he wishes, being made up as an actor would be before a play. Costumes also will be displayed, with demonstrations of how garments are specially adapted for theatre roles.

Refreshments will be served to guests at the open house and members of the Players will be hosts, explaining various phases of community theatre activities to visitors.

"We hope the public will respond to our invitation to take open house," Mr. Moore said. "We feel that it will help strengthen the fine bond that already exists between the Players and the community, and is our way of saying 'Thank you' to the public for its continuing and heartening support of our offerings. We hope it will give added insight into and enjoyment of our plays, and we extend to you a most warm invitation to attend."

The SCP President also announced that the first Players' meeting of the season will be held Sunday September 10, at 8 P. M. at the rooms. A special program will be presented by Martin Margulies following the business meeting.

STATEMENT BY:

ARTHUR E. McCORMICK

Chairman of the Republican Committee, Town of Bethlehem

A great deal has been said about the withdrawal of Mr. Robert Rice as a candidate for the Assembly and the substitution of Mr. Skuse in his place, and I would like to set the record straight. At the time petitions were circulated for Mr. Rice, he had every intention of remaining in the race and the Republican Committee of the Town of Bethlehem and its workers, and the leaders of the Albany County Republican Committee, supported him with the expectation that he would be our candidate. I would like to give my personal assurance that there was no "deal", as has been maliciously suggested, that he would withdraw and Mr. Skuse substituted. Such a maneuver would have been stupid and entirely unnecessary, if nothing else. Certainly no one would suggest that our organization could not have obtained at least 250 signatures for Mr. Skuse to put him on the ballot. It seems unfortunate that

Mr. Rice's health should be used to impugn his integrity and that of his backers.

Bethlehem Incumbents to Stand on Achievements

Tuesday, September 14, is Primary Day; polling places will be open for voting from 12 Noon to 9 P. M. This is the day when you will vote for the candidate of your choice, the ones whom you feel are best qualified to serve you, and your town, from within your own party.

Bertram E. Kohinke, Donald H. Burton, Harold L. Williams are men with the qualifications, ability and experience. They are running on their record and reputation. The record of accomplishments in our town, under their guidance, has been outstanding.

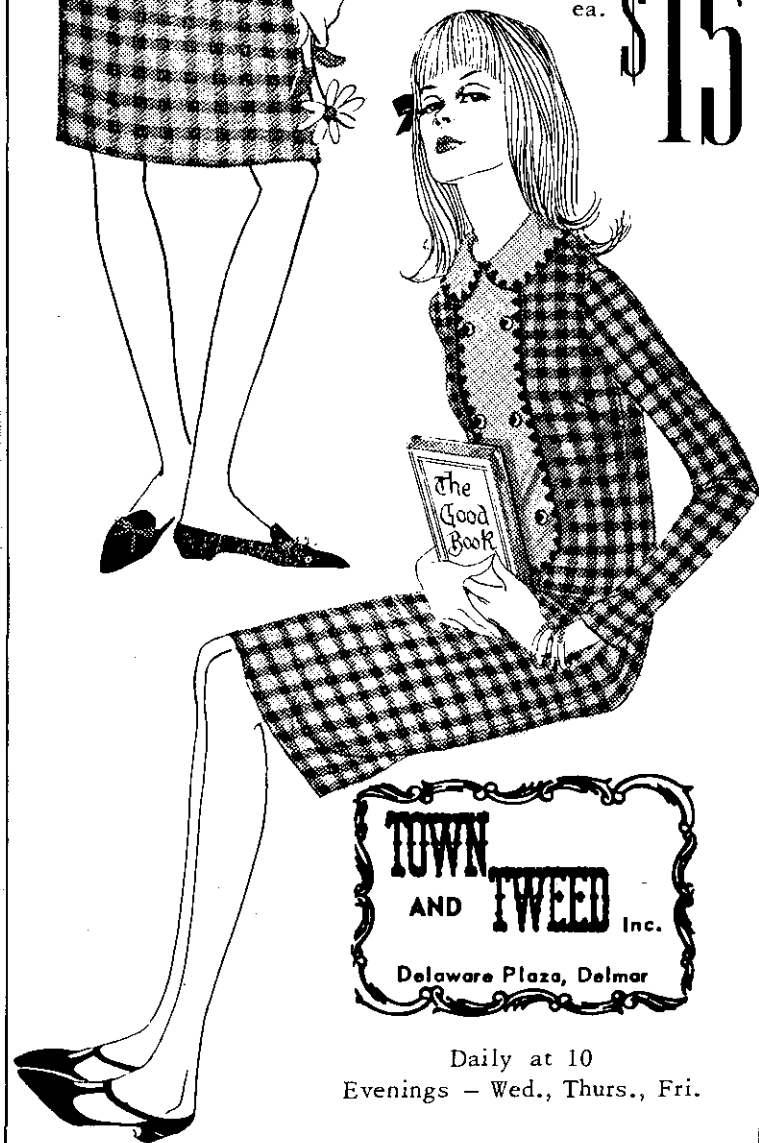

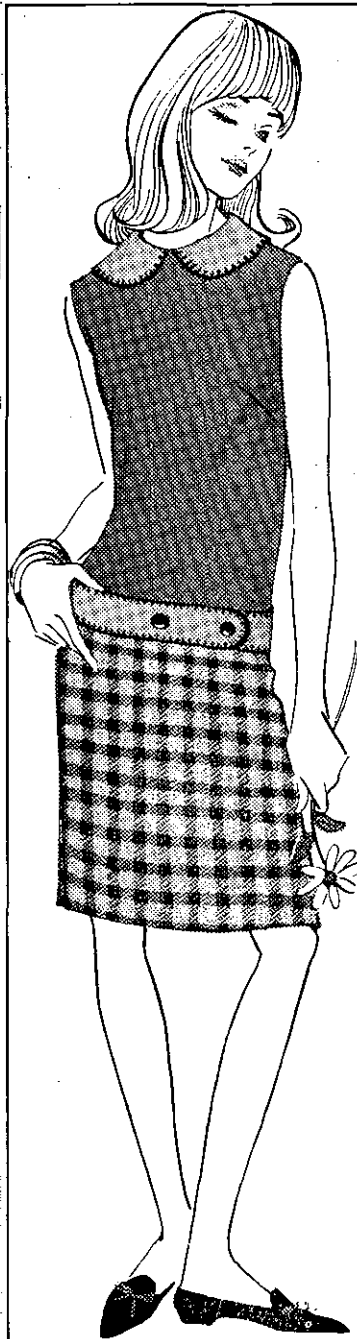

Bethlehem's pre-eminence among communities is no accident. It is the attainment of a goal, mutually sought and reached by a public insistent upon the best in government and services, consistent always with a sound fiscal policy.

Bethlehem is a leader among communities because your administration planned it that way. They have anticipated the future and met its challenges. They have proved that vision and honesty in government are what the public wants.

Bethlehem is a town of progress — a town of the future. This, of course, is because residents and your town officials, together, have insisted upon and supported what we pridefully call "Good Government in Action."

"Metooism" Charged by Candidates for Councilmen

Two Republican organization candidates for re-election as councilmen in the Town of Bethlehem today charged their primary opponents with being victims of "attacks of virulent metooism", and challenged them to state where the present administration has "materially failed to serve our people and serve them well".

In a joint statement, Donald C. Burton of Elsmere and Harold L. Williams of Selkirk, the Republican incumbents, accused their primary opponents of having "no greater an issue than their own unproven claim that, 'we can do things better than you can'".

"We would respectfully ask our opposition," the Burton-Williams statement questioned, "to state publicly how and what they plan to accomplish so much better than our present Republican organization has for the people of the Town of Bethlehem.

"Will they provide better streets, improved maintenance and snow removal? Can they improve on our garbage and leaf-and-trash collections? Do they question our water supply and sewage system programs — either existing ones, or those on the planning board?"

"Will law enforcement improve under guidance of their inexperienced hands? Can health services now so well-managed in the town be bettered because they profess, without proof, that they have more know-how in matters of every kind?"

"The answer appears to be in the type of campaign they and other insurgent town office-seekers have been carrying on — campaigns of vituperation and vilification, broad innuendo and self-praise."

It is the Republican policy in Bethlehem, the two councilmen stated, to have each section of the town represented on the town board. They accused their opposition of attempting to seek added representation for the Delmar and Slingerlands sections, to the exclusion of the Elsmere and Selkirk areas.

Mr. McWilliams lives in Delmar and Mr. Clayton in Slingerlands. Mr. Burton resides in Elsmere and Mr. Williams in Selkirk.

The Slingerlands section now is represented by Edward C. Tallmudge and the Delmar area by George Butman, neither of whose board memberships is involved in the present elections.

"Does our opposition suggest", the Burton-Williams statement said, "that Delmar and Slingerlands should each have two seats on the Town Board, and that Elsmere and Selkirk should be without representation at all?"

"We do not believe the people of the Town of Bethlehem are going to be influenced by men whose sole claim to political fame seems to be their contention that a primary is sort of fun, and that those who have helped to provide good government for all our people should be turned out of office because of a personal grudge or to further their self-seeking cause."

"It is certainly true that politics can make strange bedfellows. The present coalition, as an example, of once-bitter political enemies in a common attack on good, honest government will not, we believe, fool anyone, especially the type of person that makes up the citizenry of our Town of Bethlehem."

"As for us", they concluded, "we are willing — in fact proud — to run to our record with the other loyal Republicans on the organization ticket."

Willard Drumm Statement

Assemblyman Willard C. Drumm of Niverville, issued the following statement today, urging Republican voters to support his candidacy in the forthcoming 111th Assembly District Republican Primary on Tuesday, September 14 from noon until 9 p.m.

September 9, 1965

Dear Fellow Republican,

This personal letter is written for three purposes.

(1) to tell you I am a candidate for re-election to the New York State Assembly because I enjoy public service.

(2) Because I would welcome the challenge of problems needing solution in the new 111th Assembly District and

(3) Because I believe I have the leadership and experience needed to insure progressive development of the Empire State while maintaining financial stability in government.

Although a lifelong resident of Columbia County, I am eager to serve residents of Greene County, the Towns of Berne, Coeymans, Knox, New Scotland, Rensselaerville, and New Scotland in Albany County, as well as my native Columbia. My concern would not be confined to one segment of population nor one geographical area. The mutual problems of all would receive my full time and energy.

I have served 19 years in the Assembly where I was chairman of the Joint Legislative Committee on Labor and Industry and the Joint Legislative Committee on Imitation Food Products. My record reflects a keen desire for, and the ability to secure the finest legislation possible, plus a genuine concern for my constituents.

I am a firm believer in fiscal integrity. Earlier this year, I contended that no new tax burdens should be placed upon New York State residents without further study plus a sincere effort to reduce state spending. When neither action was taken, I cast my vote AGAINST the sales tax.

It is my firm hope to produce a better future for everyone,

- Good Government
- Less Taxes
- Fair Play for ALL!

THIS MAN IS . . .

RAYMOND C. SKUSE

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE for ASSEMBLY in the 112th District

Re-Apportionment: On the County Level, I am in favor of a fair and equitable re-apportionment so as to give each citizen equal representation on the Board of Supervisors through his elected Supervisor, but the identity of the towns must not be submerged into the city through gerrymandering which would include large parts of the city in conjunction with to units.

Industrial and Job Development: I am in favor of the selective introduction of new industrial and commercial ventures into the city and town areas of the county, so as to add the tax base, and create hundreds of new jobs for people who will in turn become property owners and tax payers, thus helping to shoulder the cost of good city and town government.

Planning: In addition to the necessary local planning units, I am in favor of County wide, and indeed several County Regional Planning Commissions, which would continuously work to produce correlated plans for the local and area needs for both the present and the projected future.

Water Resources: It is necessary for this county to start immediately (all units cooperating), to research, plan, and then produce a suitable supply of pure water adequate for the needs of this area, not just for the present but for the future, allowing for projected expansion of industry and population.

Education: In the city of Albany, I favor the election of the members of the Board of Education, a complete overhaul of the present physical school plant, and a study of the "Educational Park" type of school concentration as a suggested answer to Albany's need for many more schools, and segregation within these schools.

Slum Clearance: In the City of Albany, I favor the use of all available state and federal programs of aid and co-operation which can apply to our slum problem, a strict enforcement of the Housing Code of the City of Albany, but more importantly the involvement of the people in a personal program of education to the needs of the slum dweller.

Sale Tax: I am opposed to the Sales Tax, and will work for its abolition.

Rich New Book

On September 15, Twayne Publishers will publish a new book by a former resident of Delmar, Marvin A. Rapp. Mr. Rapp has written a charming book with the locale of the Mohawk Valley.

Canal Water and Whiskey is a notable new addition to the rough-hewn shelves of American folklore and history. A charming collection of Erie Canal stories, tall tales, anecdotes, newspaper squibs, and folksongs, most of them Irish in flavor, it is a kind of "bottoming out" of the flotsam and jetsam of the canal era. Inevitably some of the best stories have long since vanished unrecorded — dying with the dead — but these are certainly not the worst, for the worst couldn't even be told!

These legacies from the Canawlers (as the Irish called those who worked the canal) evoke the laughter and sadness, wit and wisdom of an era when the Erie Canal joined the lakes and the ocean and created a revolution in the internal commerce of the United States. These waters met at the Niagara Frontier, and so did the men who sailed them. The water floated their boats, the whiskey their spirits; and they believed that if water made life possible, whiskey and other spirits made it tolerable. So from the shores of the canal, especially from the Niagara country washed by the waters of the river,

A young lady from Slingerlands is seeing many parts of the world these days in the course of her job — she's a stewardess for Capital Airways.

Miss Jeanne Reynolds, 22 daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph

Reynolds of 19 Maple Ave., took instruction at the Airways school in Wilmington, Delaware, last spring, and has been flying high ever since.

Capital Airways runs chartered flights, most of them intercontinental, and Jeanne has so far worked on flights to Iceland, Germany, Canada, and the Caribbean seas, and Florida, where she is at present.

Her teacher, Miss Middlebrooks, is helping too, of course, as she shows Gretchen the right way to make a hospital bed. Gretchen is attending Hudson Valley Community College and is seen above at Seton Hall, St. Mary's Hospital of Troy.

If you or someone in your family needs money to continue education after high school, why not stop at National Savings Bank this week for complete information on how to get a Student Loan? No interest is paid while attending school, only 3% interest after graduation or termination of study, and repayment of the loan can be spread over a period as long as six years.

Jeanne was graduated from Bethlehem Central in 1961, attended four colleges until she was six months of getting a degree and then took to the skies. She's also done some modeling; and last summer was named "Miss

Mrs. David DePorte of 17 Maple Ave. in Slingerlands, was named to the dean's list at Cornell University last semester. He has been employed in the public relations office of the Albany Medical Center for the summer, and will enter his sophomore year at Cornell this month.

Mrs. Edgar W. (Doris) Flinton, who has been reading consultant for elementary schools in the Bethlehem Central School District for the past 11 years, is taking a leave of absence this year to do further research in reading and "cognitive learning" at the State University in Albany.

Mrs. Flinton introduced the "Language for Learning" program in 1958 on an experimental basis, and it was adopted by the school district six years later. "The first group of pupils with whom we used the program are now in junior high school," Mrs. Flinton said recently, "and we are seeing good results."

The materials for the Language for Learning program were prepared by I. A. Richards and Christine Gibson of the Harvard Language Research Department. It has been used in the first three grades of the district elementary schools.

Mrs. Flinton is a graduate of Radcliffe, earned her master's degree at the State University in Albany, and has also studied at the Harvard Graduate School of Education. Her title this year will be research associate in education (reading), and she will be working with Dr. Morris Eson, head of the State University in Albany psychology department, who has been a consultant with her on the local reading program.

During her leave of absence, Mrs. Ann Reardon will serve as reading consultant to the elementary schools.

The Flintons live at 23 Albin Road in Delmar, and Dr. Flinton is dean of the Graduate School of the State University in Albany. They have three children: Mrs. Sue Kibbe, who is public relations director for the New York State Council on the Arts in New York City; John, who is a junior at the University of Rhode Is-

Mrs. Flinton remained at home while her children were young, but she studied off and on whenever she could, to keep abreast of educational developments in her field. For three summers, from 1961 to 1963, she taught English teachers in Israel, a job she thoroughly enjoyed. And back in 1937, she and her husband established a private school in Williamstown, Mass., named the Pine Cobble School, which is flourishing today.
