

Mack Baseball For Delmar?

Mr. Milton Prue, 373 Wellington Road, has informed the President of the Colonie Connie Mack Baseball league, that efforts to form a team in Delmar for the forthcoming season have not been successful and that it may be necessary to cancel any further plans.

Although a sufficient number of boys have expressed an interest in the program, Mr. Prue has been unable to obtain sponsorship through local businesses and fraternal groups. Also needed is an adult to aid in the organization of the team.

Connie Mack baseball is for boys from 16-18 years of age who are not competing in the American Legion league. It was hoped that Delmar could join South Colonie, North Colonie, Troy, and Schenectady during the 1966 season. Unless help is forthcoming, league president Richard Bult has announced that all efforts would be suspended.

Anyone interested in aiding Mr. Prue, may reach him at HE 9-9639.

Card Party

The Fashion Show Chairmen of the Annual Card Party and Fashion Show of the Women's Republican Club, Town of Bethlehem, Mrs. Thomas L. Spinosa and Mrs. Mary S. Conner, have announced the final plans for their showing of fall fashions from Suburban Gal. The Commentator for the evening is Mrs. Negley W. Norton; Make-up Director, Mrs. David Coughtry; Music, Mrs. William Sullivan.

The models will be Mrs. Mary Conner, Mrs. Arthur Sullivan, Mrs. David Mead, Mrs. Edwin Reed, Mrs. Louis Siy, Mrs. Robert Chandler, Mrs. Daniel Jones, and Mrs. Walter J. Marvin.

This event will be held Monday, October 25, at 8:00 P. M. at the Bethlehem Senior High School. There will be prizes for each table of cards, door prizes, and a special prize. Men and women are most welcome and Mrs. Robert H. Rice, General Chairman, has planned a real fun evening for the community.

The things for sale and the articles wanted . . . all can be found on Pages 25-27.

UNICEF

If past records mean anything over 400 children and young people from the Tri-Village will join with over three million other young Americans when they venture forth on Friday evening to collect coins for the World's Trick or Treat for UNICEF program. Their motto, "Share-Not Scare," has turned an evening of senseless pranks into one of gratifying rewards. Here in the Tri-Villages the committee has chosen Friday, October 29, as UNICEF night in order to free churches for their regular Sunday programs. Residents will be asked to donate coins only to those children and young people who carry proper identification. This year all new Orange and Black cartons bearing the symbol of the United Nations Children's Fund, a mother and a child.

As in previous years our drive will have the younger children going to the Delmar Reformed Church from 3:30 to 4:30 P. M. to obtain their cartons - so that they may go into their own neighborhoods before darkness for their collecting. A party will follow from 7 to 8 P. M. when they must return the cartons. Families should plan to have one parent accompany the children to the church for the party.

At 6:30 P. M. young people (Junior and Senior High age) will assemble at the Delmar Methodist Church to receive their cartons and assignment from Adult leaders. They will return to the church for a Donut and Cider party at 8:00 P. M.

Carl G. Clark, general chairman of the 1965 UNICEF has announced a tentative goal of

Clinic

The Bethlehem Lions Club has scheduled the second annual Claucoma Clinic for Thursday night, October 28, at the Senior High School gymnasium. The clinic will be free to all Bethlehem residents, as the ophthalmologists from the Albany Medical Center have offered to donate their services.

Since glaucoma is a disease of the eyes that more often afflicts persons above forty years of age, usually showing few symptoms, but causing blindness unless treated, it is important that a regular test for glaucoma be obtained by those in the above-forty age group. The glaucoma test itself is a speedy, painless one that readily indicates whether further examination is necessary.

Persons wishing to make an appointment at the free Glaucoma Clinic on October 28th may call one of the following telephone numbers: HE 9-1732 or HE 9-5268.

$1500.00 for the Tri-Village area which includes programs from Glenmont as well as Slingerlands. Children in these areas have been reminded that they should contact the Glenmont Reformed Church or the Slingerlands Community Methodist Church for proper identifying UNICEF cartons.

Thanks was expressed through Dr. Richard Moomaw, superintendent of the Bethlehem Central School District, for the cooperation given through the various schools in helping with this year's UNICEF Drive.

LETTER

School Bus Stop — A Child's Life?

Is there any comparison?

The school bus stops are spaced one/tenth of a mile apart. How costly can this one/tenth of a mile be?

Do we have to wait until a child is injured or killed before the school authorities realize that on heavily-traveled highways an exception should be made to this rule?

Would you want your child to be forced to walk along Route 144? We don't — but what can we do about it?

Human Rights

The fourth of six sessions of the Human Rights Program Series will be concerned with the disparity in job placement, via discrimination, and with the role of government placement agencies. "Employment — 'place' or placement" is the topic to be discussed by two area men having extensive familiarity with problems and progress in this area: Dorman Avery, Field Representative of the State Commission for Human Rights, and Leo J. Allard, Employment Security Manager, New York State Employment Service. The meeting is to take place on Monday, October 25, 1965, at 8:00 P. M., in the auditorium of the Bethlehem Central Junior High School, in Delmar.

Dorman Avery, a Field Representative of the State Commission for Human Rights, was for five years Associate Pastor of the Temple Baptist Church in Albany, one of the first churches in the area with an integrated pastorate. Mr. Avery also served for a brief period with the State Youth Commission, and, prior to coming to Albany, was a social worker for the Youth Conservation Services of Philadelphia.

Mr. Avery has a Bachelor of Science degree in Chemistry from Shaw University, Raleigh, North Carolina, and a Bachelor of Divinity degree from Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He is active in civic affairs, being a board member of the Albany YWCA, and of the Capitol District Travelers Aid Society.

Leo J. Allard, Employment Security Manager, New York State Employment Service, is in charge of both the Professional and Commercial Placement Center, and the Industrial, Service, Casual and Household Placement Office, in Albany. Mr. Allard graduated from Cohoes High School and received a degree in Engineering from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. Exposed to personnel work, by chance, in the 1930's abandoned engineering for this new career, entering Employment Security work in 1936 with the then Division of Placement and Unemployment Insur-

From his first position as Employment Interviewer, in Buffalo and, later the Capital District, Mr. Allard rose progressively through supervisory and management positions to his current rank and role in the two Albany placement offices, including the new Professional and Commercial Placement Center, where he took over management responsibility in 1962.

In 1960, he served for a while as Minority Group Consultant for Upstate Member of the Division's Commission for Non-Discrimination in Employment.

The Human Rights Program Series, an "adventure in understanding" features addresses and panel presentations, followed by discussion periods and small group dialogue. The Moderator for the October 25 session will be Mrs. Joseph Robinson, of Albany. All interested persons are invited to attend. Upcoming programs will concern Housing (Nov. 1) and Social Tensions (Nov. 8).

Dr. Margaret L. Hayes will speak on her research of the "Weaving of Tartans."

Program

The Student Theatre Committee of the Bethlehem Junior and Senior High Schools has arranged another outstanding series of three performances by professional groups. These presentations are selected to provide cultural enrichment as well as entertainment and offer educational values to each student. Our own Slingerlands Community Players will begin the series with a skillfully adapted stage reading of Edith Wharton's best known novel, "Ethan Frome," on November 23. The San Francisco Dance Theatre, consisting of 35 outstanding actors, dancers, and singers, including an orchestra assembled by Stan Kenton, will present a collection of stage spectaculars created especially for the company by such "greats" as Henry Mancini, Dave Brubeck, and James Thurber. The title "Pops Pourri" gives us an idea of the varied presentations in store on January 10. The last performance will be a lively program of pantomime by Tony Montanaro entitled "A Mimes's Eye View" on March 11.

The season ticket for students is $2.00. It is impossible to sell

Supper

Plans are being made by St. Matthew's Parish for their annual Holiday Fair and Spaghetti Supper to be held at the American Legion Hall in Voorheesville on Saturday, October 30. Booths offering a wide variety of merchandise, entertainment and refreshments for all ages will open at 10 A. M. The supper will be from 4:30 P. M. until all are served.

St. Thomas

Dr. Kimball L. Howes, principal of Bethlehem Central Senior High School, will be guest speaker at St. Thomas' Christ the King Communion Breakfast on October 31. The parish high school students will attend the 10 o'clock Mass. Breakfast will be served at Maryrose Academy, New Scotland Avenue, Albany.

The new slate of officers for St. Thomas' XPM Sodality are Susan Mulkerne, president; Kathy Holm, vice-president; Maureen Myers, secretary; Margaret Mitchell, treasurer.

Care Committe

The recently formed Committee That Cares to give attention to Town of Bethlehem Armed Forces residents serving in Viet Nam now has a list of seven who are in the war zone. Two mailings have been issued to the war zone Bethlehemites.

Seventh name added to the Committee's list is that of Marine Lance Corporal Roger Kibbey of Delmar.

Company for the third quarter of 1965 increased 10.07% over the comparable period last year, Lester W. Herzog, Jr., president, announced recently.

For the first nine months of 1965, net operating earnings were $2,744,212 or 19.23% higher than recorded last year.

Increased interest expense on Savings Accounts due to the new 4% rate, which became effective July 1, plus the normal additional expenses associated with the large merger consummated with the Citizens Trust Company of Schenectady in the latter part of June, will tend to restrict rapid growth of earnings for the balance of the year. President Herzog stated management does anticipate an increase of modest proportions in Bank earnings for the last quarter of 1965.

The Board of Directors has declared a Cash Dividend of 45 cents per share payable October 1, 1965.

Dinner and Bazaar

The First Reformed Church of Bethlehem in Selkirk will hold its Annual Turkey Dinner and Fall Fair on November 4.

General Chairman of the Turkey Dinner is Mrs. J. Edward Wagoner assisted by Mrs. Harold Williams, Chairman of the Fair.

Dinner will be served at 5:00, 6:00, and 7:00. The menu includes: tomato juice, turkey, dressing, mashed potatoes and gravy, cranberry relish, creamed onions, carrot surprise, french kraut, rolls and butter, coffee, and pumpkin pie. The price for the dinner is $2.00 for adults and $1.00 for children under twelve. For reservations call: Mrs. Ivan Luce, Mrs. Harold Williams, or Mrs. Marie Vadney.

The Fair will include booths selling candy, aprons, Christmas gifts, baked goods and vegetables.

Edward C. Keefe, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, President of Kiwanis International, presented a "Golden Heritage of Free Speech" certificate to William J. Oertel, Columbus, Ohio, on Thursday, September 9, as a Golden Anniversary gesture of tribute by Kiwanis to this representative of the newspapers of the western world. Oertel is General Chairman of the Newspaper Public Information Committee, Newspaper Association Managers, Inc., the annual sponsors of National Newspaper Week. The presentation took place at a special luncheon in Columbus.

News of the presentation was received today by Francis L. Barclay, President of the Kiwanis Club of Delmar.

As he presented the certificate, Keefe noted that "our organization — Kiwanis — could never have reached its fiftieth milestone were it not for our democratic government and the wonderful free press which is vital to its continuation. That is why, in gratitude to the newspapers of the free world, we offer this 'thank you' — this birthday gift in reverse — at the time of our Golden Anniversary. It is our commendation to our newspaper friends for their eternal efforts in behalf of freedom of speech and all it means."

In responding, Oertel quoted from President Lyndon B. Johnson's National Newspaper Week statement: "Newspapers," said the President, "and their readers are partners in freedom, and if we fail to defend the freedom of the press, we neglect our own."

Meeting

The Women's Classical Union of Albany, (R.C.A.) will have its Fall Conference on Tuesday, October 26, at Onesquethaw Reformed Church, in Onesquethaw, near Clarksville.

It will be an all day meeting starting at 10:30 A. M. Miss Charlotte B. Secor will preside. There will be a box luncheon at noon, and each lady is requested to bring her own lunch and to put her name on it. The host Church

The 1966 packets will be available.

Bridge

The Women's Organization of Normanside Country Club has started its fall bridge season with couples bridge being played every Friday evening at the Club House. No reservations are necessary for the bridge, but members who plan to go out for the buffet on Friday evening should make reservations in advance. Mrs. Andrew Sneddon and Mrs. Bernard Lynch are co-chairmen for the bridge program.

The first afternoon duplicate session will be on Thursday, October 21, at 1 P. M. Thereafter, duplicate will be played on the first and third Thursdays, with progressive bridge on the alternate Thursdays.

The first bridge luncheon of the fall season will be held on Thursday, November 11, with Mrs. Elmer Austin and Mrs. S. Lawson Curtis as hostesses. Reservations may be made with either for this event.

Parents Meet

Parents of eighth and ninth grade students at the Bethlehem Central Junior High School are invited to meet in the school on Thursday, October 21, at 8:00 P. M. After a brief meeting in the auditorium, where new teachers will be introduced, parents will follow their children's daily class schedule.

This event offers parents an opportunity to meet various subject matter teachers who

ABOUT DUTCH BULBS

TULIPS: There are many types of tulips. They are very beautiful and style-ful in small groups for borders or gardens.

CROCUS: Crocus are the little flowers that brave the winds and frosts of declining winter to herald the coming of Spring.

DAFFODILS: Daffodils and Narcissus are the spirit of Spring "par excellence." Planted in masses among shrubs or in separate gardens; they make a colorful display in the early Spring.

LILIES: Lilies are large plants (2 to 6 ft.) which produce many flowers. They are available in many colors and flower in the summer months.

These are a few of the several interesting bulbs available at the Garden Shoppe. See them soon! Then plant some in your garden.

Dance

Members of the Bethlehem Youth Center will be the guests of the adult Citizens Advisory Committee at a dance, Friday evening, October 22, from seven thirty to eleven in the Junior High Dining room. A new area, completed during the summer months, will officially be opened at this time. The Youth Center, organized several years ago by a group of interested parents, to provide a gathering place for high school group, has grown from one room to a full size Youth Center, complete with snack bar, juke box, T.V. and miscellaneous games.

A local five-piece combo, the "Warlocks" will provide the music for continuous dancing.

Now-more heat on less fuel with Texaco's New Jet Flame Booster

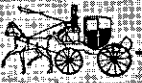

This great new flame-control development fits gun-type oil burners used in most homes. It scientifically mixes oil and air into a solid, compact flame that burns so cleanly and completely you get more heat from less oil. Tested in actual homes—proved it can increase oil-burner efficiency by as much as 42%. Give us a call. We'll analyze your burner's performance — tell you what the Texaco Jet Flame Booster can do for your home, big or small. No obligation, of course.

We're well into the football season now, and many local people are enjoying weekend trips to cheer on their favorite college teams.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan P. Bradley of 7 Furman Place in Delmar accompanied Dr. and Mrs. Marvin A. Rapp, formerly of Delmar and now residents of Garden City, New York, to the Colgate-Holy Cross game a week ago Saturday.

Paul Bradley and Andy Rapp are both juniors at Colgate. Paul, who was a star player on the Bethlehem Central squad a few years ago, has found his diminutive size a definite drawback in college grid competition, so is spending the fall playing baseball, in preparation for the spring season.

Three weeks ago, Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Klett of Orchard Road in Slingerlands went, with the Rapps, to the Yale-Colgate game at New Haven.

This coming weekend is Homecoming Weekend at Cornell, and among those planning to watch the Cornell-Harvard game on Saturday are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McConnell and Dr. and Mrs. William Mason Lawrence.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Schoonmaker and Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Boutelle attended the Syracuse-Navy game at Annapolis a month ago. And last weekend the Schoonmakers traveled to Syracuse (his alma mater) for the Penn State game, with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor, whose son, Fred, is now a freshman at Syracuse.

Planning to drive to West Point for the game there next weekend are Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Stimmel, Mr. and Mrs. William Crannell, and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Kimmey. Also next weekend, Mr. and Mrs. James Carter will go to cheer on Dartmouth, his alma mater, in its game against Yale.

Next month, among the fans at the Amherst-Williams game will be Dr. and Mrs. Maynard Guest, Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacHarg, (both men are Amherst grads) and Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Palmer (he's a Williams grad). I understand, too, that many Tri-Village families are already making plans to get down to Shea Stadium for the Syracuse-Pitt game next month.

The approach of autumn hasn't been welcomed whole-heartedly by a number of Tri-Villagers who are sailboat owners and racers. Many of them keep their boats at the Saratoga Lake Sailing Club, and have enjoyed Sunday afternoon races and regattas, followed by picnics, almost every week during the warm weather months.

Among the avid sailing buffs from our community who have participated in the weekly competitions at Saratoga Lake are Mr. Robert Kurzon and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kurzon; Mr. and Mrs. Randy Dilliot, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Zautner, Mr. and Mrs. George Zautner, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Howell, and Mr. and Mrs. William J. SOON . . . GUILDERLAND-WESTMERE OFFICE tioned earlier, has just published a book entitled, "Canal, Water and Whiskey," which is an historical account of the Erie Canal.

Until a few years ago, the Rapps lived at 17 Albin Road in Delmar, while he was with the State University. He is now Vice-President and executive dean of Nassau Community College. A native of Buffalo, Dr. Rapp taught history at the State University College at Buffalo for 10 years, before moving his family to Delmar.

The book is about the people who worked on the Erie Canal, people whom Dr. Rapp learned to know well while growing up at the western end of the canal. His book is described, in the flyleaf, as "a charming collection of stories, anectodes and songs . . . a 'bottoming out' of the flotsam of the canal era . . . of the laughter and sadness in the lives of the 'Canawlers' who took part in this revolution in internal commerce."

Dr. Rapp has explained that he drew the book's title from the fact that water made life possible for the "Canawlers" and whiskey, which kept them warm and put them to sleep, made life tolerable.

The book is published by Twayne Publications, and should be available now at area bookstores.

I'm proud to be able to announce the winners of this year's art competition for the Bizarre Bazaar, which is sponsored annually by the Delmar Library.

There were about 175 entries in the four divisions, and Mr. Herbert Steinke, formerly head of the art department for Albany Public Schools, did the judging last Friday morning.

The winners are:

Professional division - First, Margaret Foster, 13 Lansing Drive, Delmar, for a Lacquer; second, Alice Johnson, 15 Oldox Road, Delmar, for "Perfusion;" third, Margaret Foster, another lacquer; honorable mention, Florence Siegal, 28 Tierney Drive, Delmar, for "Improvisation;" and honorable mention, Sally Weinstein, 501 Stratton Place, Delmar, for a stilllife.

DU PONT
CORFAM
FOROMERIC UPPER

Bostonian-Student

Corfam can be described as a truly unique shoe upper substance. In addition to breathability and comfort, it is also noted for ease of care, scuff and abrasion resistance, indifference to weather, color fastness, lightness of weight and shape retention. You'll be amazed at the comfort and long wear they'll bring you. Try a pair!
