Fund March

On November 14, some 200 volunteers will march throughout the Tri-Village area on behalf of the Albany County Chapter of the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Included among the marchers will be members of the Key Club of BCHS. As in previous years, the Bethlehem Police Department will aid the drive by accepting and safeguarding the marchers' kits after they have completed their assignments. Mulens Pharmacy, Elsmere, and Ravida's IGA Store in Slingerlands also have indicated their willingness to aid the cause.

Governor Rockefeller has proclaimed November to be Muscular Dystrophy Month and many national figures, headed by comedian Jerry Lewis who is national chairman, have been unstinting in their contributions of time and money.

"MD" is a chronic, non-contagious, progressive disease. Its symptoms are weakness and wasting of the voluntary muscles. The patient becomes so that he first becomes confined to a wheelchair and then to his bed.

Over 200,000 people in the U.S. are suffering from muscular dystrophy. Its cause is unknown. Nearly two-thirds of the victims are children between the ages of

Dinner

The 6th Annual Republican Organization Dinner will be held at the Ten Eyck Hotel on Wednesday, December 1, with Carl Spad, Chairman of the New York State Republican Committee, as the principal speaker. Clifford J. Peters and Harold Williams are co-chairmen and urge all who plan to attend to secure tickets early as reservations are limited.

3 to 13. Unless a cure is found, most of them will die before reaching adulthood.

Their only hope lies in the massive scientific research program the Association supports. The only comfort for MD sufferers comes from the vital services the Association provides.

These include wheelchairs, lifts, corrective shoes, braces and other equipment which is made available at no cost to the patients or their families.

Neither the research nor the patient services can exist without all-out public support. That is why the Albany County Chapter of the MD Association asks Tri-Village residents to look into their hearts and give as generously as they can when the MD volunteer comes to their doors. "Your contribution" says the Association, "may help a child to live."

Election

With a record turn-out of 10,058 votes, which constituted an unprecedented 79% of the eligible voters in a so-called off-year election, all of the six Republican Candidates in the Town of Bethlehem were returned to office on Novmeber 2.

The 1965 winning margin was more than 3 1/2 to 1, once again indicating the overwhelming support for Bertram E. Kohinke and his running mates, and also for the forward-looking programs developed and sponsored by the Supervisor.

All 14 Republican candidates listed on this year's ballot received very substabtial pluralities in the Town: Nathan Proller defeated F. Warren Travers for the Senate seat in the 47th Senatorial District by a vote of 7780 (R) to 1817 (D) and Edward Rook who won over Harvey Lifset 7850 (R) to 1886 (D) in the race for the Assembly post in the 112th Assembly District.

Mr. Kohinke issued the following statement to the Spotlight: "I certainly want to express my appreciation to the voters in the Town of Bethlehem for their fine support, and especially to all of the Committeemen and workers of the Republican Party in our town who did such an outstanding job during the campaign and on Election Day.

"The unprecedented vote of 79% in an off-year election is certainly a tribute to the fine leadership of Arthur E. McCormick, president of the Republican Committee. He works tirelessly for the success of our Republican candidates and our party."

Mr. Kohinke continued, "We will go forward as a team, residents and employees together, to continue Good Government in Action!"

M. the booths will be open with Mrs. Leo Rook and Mrs. George Casey in charge of the Variety shop; Mrs. Frederick Morse at the Religious Articles Booth; Mrs. Charles Katz and Mrs. James Kennedy heading the Food Table; Mrs. Richard Gillette in charge of Candy; Mrs. James Hoppe heading Knitwear; and Mrs. Theodore Krantz at the Trash and Treasures Booth.

Mrs. Pasquale Pugliese and Mrs. Thurlow McWinnie will present their usual fine selection of jewelry. Mrs. Philip Champ has arrangements made for a new booth of Bonnets for Milady. Tots to Teens with Mrs. Nelson Williams in command and Next-to-New directed by Mrs. Norman Hulme are two other new features of this year's Fair. Mrs. Charles Fruscione will have Books and Records and Mrs. Frank Sterrett will run the Silent Auction. Mrs. Philip Le-Fevre will act as Treasurer.

Luncheon will be served both days from 11:30 to 1:00 by the Mesdames George Alford, Joseph Bruno, Garrett Roelfs, Walter Evans, Joseph Wells, William Eliot, Cuthbert Compton and P. Eugene Carpenter.

Mr. Raymond Blanchard is directing the Tuesday evening Smorgasbord from 5:30 to 7:00 and reservations must be made through the church office for this dinner.

Thank You

I deeply appreciate the Vote of Confidence that was given me.

No man owed so much to so many.

My deep appreciation to the leadership in Rensselaer and Washington Counties, and the Towns of Bethlehem and Coeymans in Albany County for their warm support since the primary and, of course, the leadership in Warren County, who have been with me from the start.

And most of all to the many dedicated people who made my campaign a personal crusade, both in the primary and the election, and to them I shall be forever grateful.

LETTERS

This letter was received by the Committee That Cares. It was sent by Lance Cpl. Roger Kibbey whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oren Kibbey, reside on Brothwick Avenue, Delmar.

"Thank you for your kind letter.

"The poem I'm sending I intend not for cutting anyone down but just a poem about Marines in Viet Nam. I'm not the best letter-writer but bless you all for thinking about your men overseas. The food is poor and only water to drink. It rains all the time and work is long and hard. This is war but we must do it. 'War is Hell' as all the vets' back home must have said over and over.

"Since I'm a Marine I feel this is a Marines' war but know the Army, Navy, Air Force and others are also in this fight. I'm sorry this paper, pen, and writing isn't the best but I learned when I first got here, 'to make do with what you get.' Would you know if Bethlehem has any female nurses here in Viet Nam? They are doing a wonderful job.

"I've seen death in New York, but here it is so heartless and savage.

"We kill many Viet-Cong and the next time we meet they have more than yesterday. I've sent my wife pictures of this place so when I go back home I don't have to ask myself 'is Viet-Nam real or was it a dream?'

"Good health to you all."

This is Corporal Kibbey's poem:

WHO IS HE?

"You're sipping a cool refreshing iced tea;

Then the news comes on and you don't hear

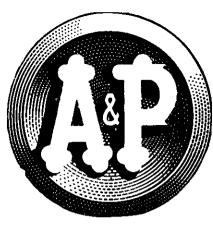

That the All-star game is drawing near,

But instead you see a far off land

Where men are dying in the sand.

A frown appears upon your face; You're tired of hearing about this place.

Who cares about Viet-Nam across the sea?

I wish to take this opportunity to thank all the voters of the Town of Bethlehem who voted for me on Election day. Although I was defeated I cannot count the experience as a loss when I was the recipient of so many acts of kindness during the campaign. The friends I made and the friendships which were further comented warm my heart even in the coldness of defeat.

I also wish to thank the Republican committeemen and workers who supported me. Those who did so showed a magnanamity of spirit and loftiness of purpose — demonstrating that they knew what politics is all about — that good government is the end of decent politics.

St. Thomas

Reverend Paul J. Bondi, director of junior activities in St. Thomas' parish, Delmar has announced the new officers of the parish Jr. CYO. They are Maureen Crowley, president; Patrick Laffrey, vice-president; Margaret Kois, secretary; Mark Foster, treasurer.

Jr. CYOers, having recovered from the excitement of their Hallowe'en Party, can look forward to a November 26 Skating Party at the RPI Field House. Mrs. Frank Crowley, assisted by youth chairmen Mary Eckhardt and Catherine Kiley, will plan the event.

At the Hallowe'en Party in St.

Thomas' auditorium, Mrs. John R. Hooper, Mrs. Paul D. Nelson and Mr. Thomas Preston supervised over 100 7th and 8th graders in a program of apple ducking, record dancing and cider and doughnuts.

"Carnival"

One of the highlights of the upcoming Bethlehem Central Senior Class presentation of "Carnival" falls upon Richard Gibbs.

Dick fills the role of Paul, a bitter ex-dancer, crippled for life during the war. Paul, unable to face the stiff realities of society, has retreated into the world of his four puppets, and has devoted his life entirely to his marionette side show.

While working for the carnival. Paul comes into contact with a young wanderer, Lilli, who promptly commands his romantic attention. Much to Paul's disappointment. however. is blindly in love with the carnival's great magician. To Lilli, only the puppets, not Paul, exist. Then, upon the brink of selfdestruction, she unconsciously allows the puppets to substitute for her real world, and it is through the medium of the puppets that Paul finally conveys his love to Lilli and restores her to reality.

What does the American serviceman in Viet Nam, New Foundland, the Azores, Germany, or anywhere else far from home, want for Christmas? Red Cross workers stationed with troops throughout the world have asked them for suggestions and found these answers:

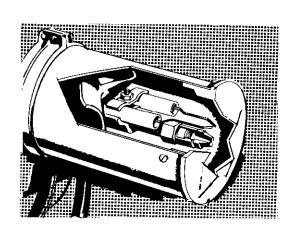

- 1. Homemade things like candies, cake, sweaters, and pictures of the family top every list.
- 2. Favorite brands of cigars, hometown papers, and "surprise me" gifts turned up in many of the replies.
- 3. Many of the younger men, including officers, are interested in gifts of clothing in the latest style trends to supplement the good but more conservative clothing available in the post exchanges.

The Montgomery Ward store in Menands is joining with other Ward stores in a nationwide program to make Ward's "The Friendliest Store in Town" with a "King and Queen of Courtesy" Contest.

The king and queen will be selected in Ward's store on the basis of their overall courtesy and friendliness in dealing with customers.

"When you need a little extra help placing a call —that's what I'm here for."

"Nowadays, you can dial most calls faster than I can place them for you. But there are times when you might need help—when you make a collect call... or have a question about how to make a call. Or you might need special help in an emergency. These are some of the reasons I'm here. I'm happy when I can help... because I've learned how much a customer appreciates my taking time to understand what he wants, and then doing something about it. Knowing people depend on me for help is what makes my job so satisfying."

William Toleman, Extension Poultry Agent, will be the guest. As many consumers are not aware of the important functions producers, suppliers, and retailers play and their contributions to the holiday turkey, Mr. Toleman will explain their roles. He will also illustrate what characteristics purchasers should look for in top quality birds and the meaning of federal inspection and the protection it offers consumers. A local turkey producer will also be a guest and will show how turkeys are grown.

The importance of proper handling once the turkey has been purchased will be discussed by the weekly hostess, Karen Hull. The advisability of stuffing a bird will be presented as stuff-

DOES YOUR SOIL HAVE ENOUGH AVAILABLE PHOSPHORUS?

by T. R. Cox, Chief Agronomist, Cyanamid Agricultural Research Center

Available is the key word and that means throughout the entire root zone of your soil. It's true, your soil may have as much as 1500 pounds of phosphorus per acre (most of it in the top soil) if you live in the Corn Belt, yet only 15 pounds of it could really be called available to your plant roots. So even though your 100 - bushel corn crop requires only 26 pounds of elemental phosphorus, you can see the importance of making more of this element available annual-

Agronomists say each year more phosphorus is removed from U.S. soils than is returned. Your best approach to your own soil's needs for phosphorus as well as potash and lime is through a soil test. In fact, to avoid the spring "rush", growers are urged to have soils tested this fall, taking soil from at least 15 spots for a sample representative of each area sampled.

If soil tests show extra phosphorus is needed, your next step is to decide which phosphate fertilizer to use and when

Adult ticket — $1.25 Child ticket (under 10) — 75¢ to apply. Whether you use mixed fertilizers or straight phosphate materials, my associates at American Cyanamid Company, Princeton, N J. agree that late summer or fall is an excellent time to apply either. More and more farmers are feeding the soil in the fall with both lime and fertilizer to avoid the spring rush, and they are finding it pays big dividends for both row and forage crops.

If you are applying straight phosphate fertilizers, choose the material on the basis of cost per pound of available phosphorus and the form which suits you best. More phosphate is being applied directly than ever before, with a mounting grower interest in two phosphate fertilizers — triple super-phosphate and diammonium phosphate.

Triple superphosphate contains 46 per cent available elemental phosphorus and is produced by treating rock phosphate with phosphoric acid. It is widely used in the manufacture of mixed fertilizers — especially high analysis grades — but it is also increasing in popularity for direct application.

Diammonium phosphate is a versatile fertilizer finding increased use for direct application as well as use in both granular mixed and blended fertilizers. It contains 18 per cent leach-resistant nitrogen and 46 per cent available elemental phosphorus.

U. S. farmers, generally, could benefit greatly from the use of more phosphorus in a balanced plant food program. Balance is a must. It requires an adequate amount of each nutrient the plant needs to get high yields. Get a head start on your soil's phosphours as well as nitrogen and potash needs for 1966. Have your soil tested, then fertilize this fall.

"Election aftermath" is the scheduled topic for a brief talk which the Rev. Nicholas Cardell will give at the Delmar Library next Wednesday, November 17, at lunch time. He will be the second in a series of monthly guest speakers for the library's "sandwich in a book" program.

Once a month, everyone in the community is invited to take a sandwich to the library lounge at 12:15, and enjoy a stimulating talk and discussion session which lasts for only a half-hour. Coffee is served by the library staff.

Mr. Cardell is expected to speak particularly about John Lindsay's election as mayor of New York City, and to refer to the book recently published,

"John Lindsay: Man of Tomorrow," which was written by Daniel Button, editor of the Albany Times-Union. Mr. Cardell is minister of the Unitarian Church in Albany.

Last month, on October 20, about 25 people lunched which listening to the Rev. Dorman Avery comment on the book, "Manchild in the Promised Land," by Claude Brown. Author Brown is a brilliant young law student who has written about his Harlem upbringing.

Both men and women are invited to attend the monthly sessions, and the library staff hopes expecially to attract some businessmen from local offices to the luncheon programs.

All officers of 4-H clubs in Albany County were invited to attend a training meeting last

What do these people mean to your children?

These are physical education teachers. They perform an important service in the education of your boy or girl.

They deliver dividends on America's investment in learning because they direct education activities that help your child develop sound health and physical fitness.

Each child needs to be healthy and fit to gain personal fulfillment to make full use of his intellectual powers to lead a productive, rewarding life. America must have young people who are sound of body and mind

- to maintain a vigorous, self-disciplined society
- · to preserve the national security.

The future belongs to the fit-to those vigorous enough to live it and shape it.

How About YOUR Schools? Do your children have the benefit of teachers who are well prepared in physical education? Do your schools provide for each child daily period of instruction and participation in vigorous activities? You can help see that they do. Write the President's Council on Physical Fitness, Washington, D. C., for information.

Look in on your children's physical education program when you visit your school during AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK, Nov. 7-13.
