Organ Program

The music department of the Delmar Progress Club will meet March 21, at 1:30 P. M. in the First Methodist Church of Delmar. Rachel Dean Worth will present a program of organ music. Beside works from Bach, she will play something from the romantic and modern schools as well as one of her own compositions.

Mrs. Worth has Bachelor and Master degrees in both piano and organ from DePauw University of Greencastle, Ind., and studied organ and liturgy with the famed organist, Pietro A. Yon, of St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York. She was formerly head of the music department of the Green Mountain Junior College and former Chairman of music for the Federated Women's Club of Vermont.

Mrs. Worth has written a concerto which has been performed throughout the Mid-West and Vermont. She is presently a member of the Monday Musical Club and of the American Guild of Organists.

Hostesses for the social hour are Mrs. Robert Selkirk and Mrs. Russell S. Miller.

Meeting Tonight

The March 17th meeting of the Town of Bethlehem Historical Association will be held at the headquarters of the Association, the Cedar Hill School building, Route #144, Cedar Hill, at eight P. M. There will be a coffee hour following the meeting.

Mrs. Donald Stahlman and Mrs. William Waldbillig will distribute membership lists and program booklets at this meeting and Mrs. William D. Bennett, Town Historian, will present a report on the future material plans for the building. J. Phillips Campbell, President, will appoint a Nominating Committee at this time, said committee to report to the group at the annual meeting of the Association in May.

The program of the evening will include a lecture by Vernon Haskins of East Durham. Mr. Haskins is Curator of the Durham Center Museum, East Durham, New York. He is a naturalist and a collector and houses his collections in an old school building where "the unusual is featured."

RUTH MINER HONORED: Last Tuesday, the Women's Republican Club of the Town of Bethlehem honored one of its most gracious and famous Senior Citizens with a luncheon at the First Methodist Church in Delmar. Ruth Miner, one of Bethlehem's most illustrious women, has a list of accomplishments which reads like an encyclopedia; the pinnacle of her political career was when she served as deputy Secretary of State from 1943 to 1954 during the term of office of Governor Thomas E. Dewey. After the luncheon our staff photographer took the above picture of Governor and Mrs. Nelson Rockefeller with Miss Miner, center, as they left the church. The Governor was the principal speaker at the luncheon.

TEACHER-AUTHOR HONORED: Edwin Piper, a long-time resident of the Tri-Villages, was among those great educators at Albany High who helped to bring the term "academic superiority" to the school; some of his partners in excellence were Chester Terrell, Cecil Carter, Glenn Davis, Frank Bailey, Phil Proper, Stanley Heason . . . but Mr. Piper did not stop at the teaching or Supervisory level. He went on to author some very fine books on Business Education. Last week, Mr. Piper was honored by educators and his publishers at a reception held at Schrafft's to celebrate the sale of the one millionth copy of his books, a tremendous honor for one of our most respected Senior Citizens. Mr. Piper was teacher and later Head of the Department of Business Education at Albany High School for 42 years. He is now retired. Before entering the teaching profession, he had a brilliant career in the business world, he was among the first 5,000 soldiers to land in England during World War I. Portrait by Alice Porter

SEPTIC TANK - CESSPOOL CLOGGING CAN NOW BE PREVENTED!

LIVINGSTON, N. J. — An amazing bacterial discovery that prevents clogging of septic tanks and cesspools with but a single, safe and easy-to-use yearly treatment, has been developed by the FX-Lab Co., Livingston, N. J.

Sluggish systems and drainfields also can be restored to normal by fast acting bacterial cultures. They are also recommended to new home owners who can use them as a "starter" to seed their septic tanks and cesspools.

These proven FX bacterial organisms, known as FX-4 for septic tanks, FX-7 for cesspools, and FX-11 for sluggish septic tanks and cesspools are available locally.

Masonic Bowlers Here Weekends until April 24

It is a thrill to see the population of the Tri-Villages swelled by some 2500 bowlers these weekends . . . especially when the entire group is made up of members of Masonic Orders throughout New York State.

The New York State Masonic Bowling Tournament, which started last weekend, is being held this year in Delmar. The Delmar Masons are host to these 2500 men for the coming five weekends. Team competition is at Sporthaven in Delmar, while the doubles and singles matches are being held at Del Lanes in Elsmere.

Area Masons who are active in the event are Tournament Directors Howard Engel and Ivan G. Hayne, with William Van Zandt, Harold Yeomans, Reginald Casper, Robert Peel and Harmon Clark as assistant directors.

Spring Sale

The Glenmont School P.T.A. will have its second annual "Next to-New" Sale in the school gym Thursday, March 24, starting at 9:30 A. M. to 5 P. M. Besides the used items of clothing, toys, books, and "white elephants," and new Spring hats will also be sold. Coffee will be served from 11:00 A. M. on.

Piper to Play

A Scottish bagpiper from Delmar, Rob Roy MacGregor, 134 Adams Place, has been enlisted to play at the International Dinner of the Delmar P-TA March 26 in the cafeteria of the Junior High School.

Mr. MacGregor, an insurance executive, has been playing the pipes for 10 years, and is a member of the Schenectady Pipe Band.

Tickets for the event, which will feature spaghetti, are being sold by room mothers at the Delmar School or may be obtained from Mrs. James Simeck, ticket chairman.

Kiwanis Program

The Honorable Tom C. Clark, Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, and President of the National Conference on Citizenship, has given a strong endorsement to the principles of the new Kiwanis-sponsored FREEDOM LEADERSHIP PROGRAM, it was learned by Arthur Fleahman, Jr. President of the Kiwanis Club of Delmar. Mr. Justice Clark received word of the new program from Kiwanis International President Edward C. Keefe of Oklahoma City when the latter visited the Supreme Court in Washington, D. C. in mid-January. Mr. Justice Clark, as president of the National Conference on Citizenship, has long been active in efforts to strengthen the American heritage of freedom through explaining and dramatizing it to the people of America. The FREEDOM LEADERSHIP PROGRAM, which will be undertaken during 1966, and afterwards, by many of the 5,400 Kiwanis Clubs, has substantially the same ends, Mr. Fleahman said.

"Basically, the FREEDOM LEADERSHIP PROGRAM will be an effort by Kiwanians to bring the freedoms guaranteed by the Bill of Rights and the American jurisprudence system to the attention of their fellow citizens of all ages, explaining and dramatizing them in the process," the Kiwanis president added.

The program has received favorable endorsements from individuals and organizations especially interested in government and in the welfare of the people.

The honorable Edward T. Breathitt, Governor of the State of Kentucky, in commenting on the FREEDOM LEADERSHIP plan, said, "We of the United States have derived our greatest strength and guidance from a steadfast reliance on spiritual values, and we are cognizant of the fact that religion is the source of our principles and freedom. We know that freedoms of this Associate Justice Tom C. Clark of the United States Supreme Court (left) accepts booklets outlining the new Kiwanis-sponsored FREEDOM LEADERSHIP PROGRAM from Edward C. Keefe, Oklahoma City, president of Kiwanis International. Justice Clark is president of the National Conference on Citizenship, an organization dedicated to "strengthening the efforts of the people in maintaining the blessings of Freedom and Justice"—aims similar to the new Kiwanis program now being undertaken by some 5400 of its clubs.

ment, Governor of the State of Tennessee, commended Kiwanis International on "this program of patriotic community service." "I believe it will be well received by the general public and of great benefit to both youth and adult groups," he added.

Support came from the American Bar Association, too, when its President, Edward W. Kuhn of Memphis, said, "It is very comforting to know that an organization such as Kiwanis is engaged in this work; and, on behalf of the American Bar Association, I welcome Kiwanis to the common interest."

Mrs. Stephen J. Nicholas, Executive Secretary of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, wrote, "You should be commended for the scope of your program, its worthy aims, and the contribution it should be able to make in its implementation."

Finally, the Los Angeles City school system, after turning the program over to its curriculum staff for review, said, "The Manual is very well organized and in an extremely detailed manner . . . the Freedom Leadership Program is an extremely worthwhile endeavor for such an organization as Kiwanis."

Montessori To Meet

A movie, "The Montessori Class in Action," will be shown at the meeting of the Albany Area Montessori Association at 8 P. M. tonight (Thursday, March 17) in the community room of the National Commercial Bank & Trust Co., Delmar. The film will show the activities of a typical day in a Montessori school.

Anyone interested in learning more about the Montessori method of education is invited to attend the meeting. The association is working to establish a Montessori nursery school in the Albany area in the near future.

Recently elected officers of the association are: President, James P. Walsh, 33 Center Lane, Delmar; first vice-president, Mrs. Robert Korngold, 130 Cherry Avenue, Delmar; second vice-president, Mrs. Lynn Moxham, 16 Fernbank Avenue, Delmar; secretary, Mrs. Stratton Rice, 66 S. Main Avenue, Albany, formerly of Delmar; treasurer, Joseph Swick, 3 Brookman Avenue, Elmsmere; directors at large, George Wiesner, 9 Gardner Ter., Delmar, and Lynn Maxham, 6 Fernbank Avenue, Delmar.

Summer School

The Bethlehem Central School District will again offer this summer a course in driver education, beginning July 6 and ending August 25. Any youth living in the Bethlehem School District and enrolled in grades 10-12 as of September, 1966, and of at least age 16 on or before July 10, 1966 is eligible to apply if he does not have a New York State junior or senior motor vehicle operator's license.

Application forms for the course are available in the Guidance Office of the Bethlehem Senior High School. Registration will open on Monday, March 21, and close on Friday, May 20.

41 State St.

The beginning of "a new era in major construction" and the revival of downtown Albany as a center of commerce were predicted by civic leaders gathered Monday at the unveiling of plans for a new office building.

"Downtown is going to come back," declared Norris MacFarland as he announced details for his 12-story office building, to rise on lower State Street and to be known as "41 State."

Mr. MacFarland said demolition at the L-shaped site (partly on Broadway) will begin "right after the first of the year, and construction will begin in March."

Speaking to some 40 civic and business leaders at luncheon at the Inn Towne Motel, the owner-builder said that 41 State "will be the most important building in downtown Albany in 36 years."

Parking space for some 200 cars below street level will be provided, with entry on the pedestrian access between the streets, through a lobby lined with shops.

The new building, to be erected by the MacFarland Construction Corp., will rise in space occupied by the former Albany Hardware and Iron Co. and the Mechanics Exchange Savings Bank. Heating, air-conditioning, and all other utilities and services will be electrically-powered. The facade will be brick and dark bronze.

James J. Drislane, president of the Greater Albany Chamber of Commerce, cited "excellent utilization of the site. My hope is to see the chamber located in the Number One office building in Albany," apparently referring to 41 State.

The project was called "the beginning of a new era in major construction," by Fred Merrell, a chamber director. Richard J. Conners, president of the city's Common Council, offered the observation that "New buildings are as exciting as new stars on the celestial scene."

Owner - builder MacFarland said that "41 State" will offer a combination of "prestige design, excellent construction and convenient location," with up to 13,000 square feet of rental area available on each of the 12 floors. He pointed out that the building will be on the same level as four commercial banks and one savings bank, and within a half-block of four other banking institutions, large shopping stores and restaurants.

Mr. MacFarland said that "as those businesses who have moved from the center of the city have sadly found out, office employee morale is enhanced if there is immediate access to stores, banks and restaurants."

"With the new arterial highway plan coming into being, quick travel from suburbia to downtown business will be a fact. In building and adjacent economical parking couples with access, makes a perfect combination," he added.

'66 Brides Choose Adams as Their Best Man!

In the latest poll of Bridal Preferences, unanimous approval was given to Frank H. Adams' Bridal Headquarters for diamonds, sterling, china and crystal. This well-known family of jewelers graciously offer their expert counsel to brides in the selection and coordination of patterns. This fine store, a veritable fair-land for brides, carries some of the largest selections in the area of famous name china, silver, stainless and stemware. Of the hundreds of young ladies interviewed more than 65% lovingly displayed their sparkling diamond rings, which had also been chosen at this jeweler and stated "naturally, my wedding ring will also come from Adams."

Frank H. Adams, Jewelers and Silversmiths for four decades, are located at the corner of North Pearl and Steuben Streets in Downtown Albany.

P-TA Meeting

Dr. Norman D. Kurland, director of the Center on Innovation in Education of the New York State Education Department will address the Slingerlands Parent-Teacher Association at 8 o'clock on Tuesday, March 22, in the elementary school auditorium.

Dr. Kurland came to the state education department in 1962 as a consultant in higher education and from 1962-1964 he directed the department's college proficiency examination program.

From 1959-62 Dr. Kurland was associate director of the Inter-University Committee on the Superior Student at Boulder College.

Kindergarten mothers are in charge of a coffee hour to follow the meeting.

Trip to Telco

Members of the DECA chapter at Bethlehem Central Senior High School, accompanied by their advisor, Mr. Robert Pierson, visited the offices of the New York Telephone Company on Wednesday, March 9.

The visit began with a tour through the building during which the main switchboard, various types of relays, operator training, the method of handling long distance calls, including the procedure which takes place during direct dialing, were observed. The new touch-tone dialing system and equipment was demonstrated and the students visited the bomb shelter area and saw the equipment installed there.

Following the tour the group met in the auditorium, where Joseph O'Shaughnessy, Business Office Manager, and Colin W. Getz, General Manager, talked with them about the general planning of the Telephone company and the job opportunities available, as well as the educational requirements necessary on the part of applicants.

Those who took the trip were: David Applyby, William Balfoort, Dean Barkman, Carolyn Bauhofer, Gerri Blanchard, Sharon Bogardus, Cynthia Boyer, Kenneth Brown, William Bruse, Robert Caswell, Susan Dalton, Ronald Deitz, Louis Dilille, Donna George, Douglas Getz, Charles Hotaling, Candice Hummel, Carole James, Benny Jensen, Richard Kositzka, Larry Lent, James Love, Lee Maiden, Judy Markley, David Martin, Bradford McDonald, Douglas McKie, Thomas McKie, Roger McMillen, Barbara Milton, Arthur Mosley, Ronald Murray, Harry Nelson, Leon Parker, Ralph Parry, Thomas Pratt, Charles Schrader, Steven Seymour, Carol Simpson, John Smith, Wesley Smith, William Stapleton, Joan Terwelp, Craig VanDecar, Robert Veltman, Michael Waldenmaier, Theodore Wilson.

start last Fall at Nathaniel Adams Blanchard American Legion Post 1040 in Delmar has expanded to include most of the Town's organizations. The purpose of the committee is to promote a program of letter-writing and gift packages to the Armed Forces members from Bethlehem serving in Viet Nam. Chairman for Operation Bolster is William J. O'Neil who represents the Bethlehem Lodge of Elks.

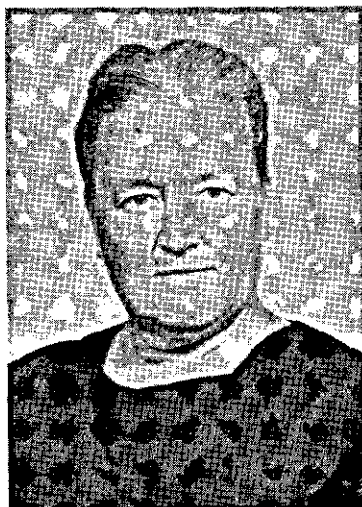

"We recognize," says Mr. O'Neil, "there is a large segment of the townspeople not associated with an organization. In Operation Bolster we seek to give those people a personal opportunity to participate in the work of the Committee That Cares. This we propose to do by distributing a bumper-strip on which is printed "We support Our Men in Viet Nam." The strips are available for any contribution that may be given. Our support for our men in Viet Nam is intended as a morale-builder. Prayerfully, we hope that the hot war ceases and a peaceful solution is achieved."

The bumper strips may be secured through these other co-operating organizations in the Committee That Cares: Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion Auxiliary of Blanchard Post, Delmar Progress Club, Bethlehem Lions, Bethlehem Kiwanis, Bethlehem Clergy, Bethlehem Business and Professional Women's Association; Elsmere Fire Auxiliary; Keyettes of Bethlehem Central.

Missionary

The Russian and Ukrainian Evangelical Baptist Union sent Mildred Dunbar as missionary to the Displaced Persons in Belgium after World War II, then to Austria in 1953. She plans to return there in August.

Sunday, March 27, at 4 P. M. at the Albany Bible Institute,

Miss Mildred Dunbar

281 State Street, Albany, Miss Dunbar will present her work in Europe. The public is invited.

Miss Dunbar's home church is in Auburn, N.Y. She is a graduate of Northwestern Bible School, Minneapolis.

Swim Program

The Albany Area Chapter, American Red Cross is sponsoring a swimming program for all physically handicapped persons in the Area, as announced today by Carl E. Gardner, Water Safety Chairman.

The program, beginning at Bethlehem Central Senior High School, Saturday, March 19, is designed to provide instruction necessary to make swimming a recreational outlet for people of all ages who have physical handicaps. "We begin where you are and help you go further," states Rose Joyce, American Red Cross volunteer Water Safety Instructor and Co-Chairman of the program, when urging individuals to enroll. "The program in the past has developed successful swimming for people with such handicaps as mental retardation, cerebral palsy, amputees, blindness, and polio."

Handicapped persons wishing to enroll in this program should contact Mr. James Carnahan, Director, Health & Safety Services, at the Albany Area Chapter House, by calling HO 5-7301.

Those Clothes!

Many of the clothing fads popular with school age children are often difficult to accept by parents or older members of society. Albany County, Home Economics Division, has planned a program which will not attempt to justify these fads; rather, it will explain the "whys" of clothing.

"Why does your child demand that he dress like his friends?"

"Why do you select the type of clothes you do?"

"Why does society seem to dictate trends in dressing?"

This program will be presented on Wednesday, March 23, from 1:00 to 3:00 P. M. at 179 North Main Avenue, Albany. Mrs. Frances McFadden, from Cornell University, will be the guest speaker. Everyone wishing to learn more about the voice of clothing is invited.

Legion Breakfast

Nathaniel Adams Blanchard Post #1040, American Legion, will hold a "Go to Church Breakfast" on Sunday, March 27, from 8 to 9 A. M.

Legionnaires are urged to bring their sons.

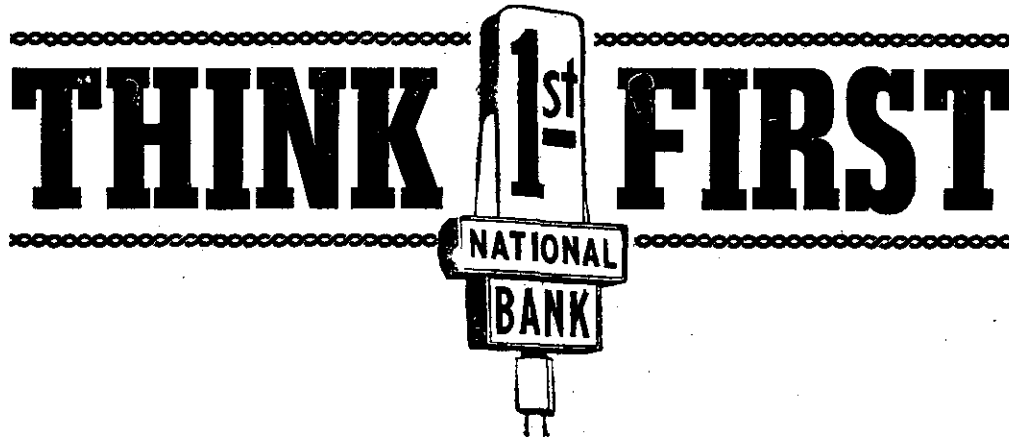

Albany Symphony

On Wednesday, March 16, the Delmar Public Library presented a talk concerning the Albany Symphony Orchestra. This year marks the 35th anniversary of the orchestra and many sweeping changes are in the offing.

Two especially important ones have already taken place. Julius Hegyi has assumed the all-important role of conductor. And for the first time the Symphony has a full time business manager, Mrs. Helen Roberts. In other words, the Albany Symphony has come of age and expects to go forward assuming a more important role in the national as well as the local world of music.

Short and long range plans are in the process of being formulated by a break down of committees. The Albany Symphony is small, comparatively speaking, but it is expanding. An increase in the budget will be necessary and greater support from the whole area is expected.

Presently the Orchestra has to the wise wives of Delmar:

Behind every successful man is a wife who makes sure his office is a little more comfortable than his home

Who gets ahead? The man who's on the job. And the man who has an office at total-electric 41 State is going to wake up every morning raring to go, go, go!

41 State is the first new major office building in downtown Albany in the last 35 years. It is modern, gracefully designed and combines the best of everything to help your husband work at his best. Oversized windows that allow plenty of natural light. Individual temperature control in each office. Automatic high-speed elevators. Ideal location with a prestige address. Parking in the basement. And it will be a "24-hour" building.

Best of all, your husband can have his office—or all 13,000 square feet of a floor—planned and tailored especially for him. So come in. Check it out. Then add that special touch to make sure his office is a little more comfortable than home.

NOW LEASING

Total-electric 41 State is leasing now. And a detailed 16-page brochure telling you all about it is available, free of charge. For the brochure and more information, contact Erwin Sorkin, P.O. Box 1241, Albany, N.Y., telephone 785-0931.

Seniors Honored

Bethlehem Lutheran Church of Delmar recently held a special Church Service honoring the Senior Citizens of the Church and the Community.

34 men and women who had celebrated 70 or more Birthdays were the "Guests of Honor." 11 couples who have celebrated 40 or more Wedding Anniversaries were introduced to the Congregation in a special ceremony.

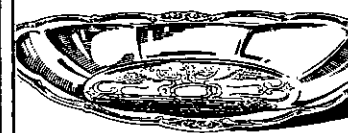

In addressing the Senior Citizens, Pastor Gassmann said: "Age is a blessing of God. In the Old Testament such people were known as Patriarchs. Wherever they went the Nation of Israel honored them. 222 DELAWARE AVE., DELMAR, N.Y. OPEN MON. THRU FRI. 9:30-8:30, SAT TO 5:30

Spring will be here officially next Monday — and I sure hope the weatherman has his eye on the calendar. This most lovely season of the year usually inspires new bursts of energy and enthusiasm, and most of us housewives take advantage of the feeling by giving our homes a thorough housecleaning.

A number of women from the Tri-Village work throughout the year as volunteers for the Clinton Square Neighborhood House, and they've asked me to remind all area housewives that the "Country Store" at the Neighborhood House needs replenishing. This is a thrift shop to which many of the most poverty-stricken families in Albany come to purchase items for their homes.

We suggest that, in the course of your housecleaning, you may come across articles of clothing, furniture, bedding, bric-a-brac, or just about anything else that you have no further use for and would just as soon be rid of. These "usable discards" of yours might include a pair of grown-out-of shoes that would keep a child's feet protected from the hard sidewalks of the city, or a small table that might give another child a better place than the floor for doing his homework.

All you need to do is put aside such items while you're putting your home ship-shape for spring, and then call to have them picked up for delivery to the thrift shop. You may call Mrs. Conrad Spuck at HE 9-4232, or Mrs. Arthur Cornelius at HE 9-9953, or the Neighborhood House itself which is located at 224 N. Pearl St.

Marge Spuck and Betty Cornelius have been tireless workers at the Neighborhood House for years, trying to make life a little easier for the less fortun-

with a song
in your heart!

Right now every homemaker is confronted with the prospect of Spring house cleaning. So many things to take down—so many things to put away for the summer!

Don't attempt to perform all these arduous tasks yourself. Let Killip be your "girl Friday".

We have a whole staff of gal Fridays at your disposal—women who have the professional skills for cleaning and refinishing those hard-to-do things like curtains, draperies, fancy bedspreads, downy quilts and woolen blankets. Charges are always most reasonable.

Killip also has the answer to over-stuffed closets. Have all your winter suits, overcoats and dresses stored in our modern "Polarized" storage vaults. We'll return them to you in the Fall, every garment beautifully dry cleaned, shaped and pressed.

ate city dwellers. Together with nine other of your suburban neighbors, they spend many hours each week sorting, organizing, pricing and selling the stock of the thrift shop.

Last Christmas, they also filled and gave away baskets of food to 20 families, including 85 children.

The thrift shop items are sold for pennies, but they are sold rather than being handed out, and this policy is important to the morale of those who come to buy. They are not accepting outright charity.

Among the women volunteers at the Neighborhood House are Mrs. E. A. Simpson, Miss Lauretta Thompson, and Mrs. William Lenhardt, all from Slingerlands; and Mrs. G. Perry Dunn, Mrs. Philip Cline, Mrs. John Knighton, Mrs. G. Howard Goold, Mrs. Eugene Larcher, and Mrs. S. J. Andorn, all from Delmar.

I might mention, too, that if you find yourself with some extra time on your hands, and if you've been looking for a way in which you can really contribute to the War on Poverty — why not call one of these women and discover how you can become a volunteer? It's hard work but extremely rewarding, as I'm sure they'll tell you.

Here's some more news about those ladies in our community who are active members of the Legislative Women's Club. Six of them will serve as models at next week's meeting when the program will be a hat fashion show presented by Anne's Hat Box, the popular hat shop operated here in Delmar by Mrs. Anne McGooley.

The meeting will be held Tuesday, March 22, at the East Acres, Troy, home of Mrs. J. Burch (Ruth) McMorran. Mrs. Charles (Tracy) Walsh is in charge of organizing the models and the show.

The lucky women who get to try on and show off all sorts of hats for this pre-Easter fashion show are: Mrs. James Frost, Mrs. Paul D. (Grace) McGinnis, Mrs. Alton (Mary Lee) Marshall, Mrs. Arthur (Betty) Cornelius, Mrs. A. G. (Edith) Dappert, and Mrs. Edward (Sonny) Rook.

Have you bought a box of Girl Scout cookies yet this year? The girls are out selling them this week, and they hope to set new sales records. The Girl Scout troops keep ten cents from each 50-cent box sold, and use the money for troop activities and community service projects not covered by their dues.

Neighborhood Cookie Chairmen from our area include: Mrs. Lawrence J. Pauly Jr., Mrs. Irvin O. Sutter, Mrs. Ward L. Vaughn, Mrs. Clarence E. Shepard, Mrs. Frank W. Conley, and Mrs. David Goodman, all from Delmar.

Also, Mrs. Peter Clouse, Coeymany; Mrs. George E. Klopfer, Voorheesville; Mrs. James W. Hurley, Altamont; Mrs. William Lawrence, Glenmont; Mrs. Alice Johnson, Selkirk; and Mrs. John G. Favreau, Berne.
