Holiday Award

L'Auberge des Fougères was sole recipient in upper New York State of Holiday magazine's 1966 Award for Distinctive Dining. The certificate was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wells McCabe by the magazine's representative, Paul V. Reach, at the French restaurant recently. Only two restaurants outside of New York City received this award.

L'Auberge, which opened in Albany in 1961, had previously been established in Hillsdale for several years.

The McCabes recently added a new wing to the picturesque Hudson River Day Line Building, which houses the restaurant. A feature is the Beverwyck Room in which hangs a painting of "Bourke Cochran," famed steeplechase horse owned by Michael A. Nolan, Mayor of Albany from 1878 to 1883, who was also proprietor of the Beverwyck Brewery and Beverwyck Stables.

DAVID ALLEN MEAD DIES

David Allen Mead, Bethlehem's beloved Superintendent of Highways, is dead. He lived on the Jericho Road, Selkirk. A member of many fraternal and civic organizations, Mr. Mead died after a short illness.

Camera Club

The Delmar Camera Club recently held its annual banquet at the Center Inn. Guests of the Club were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warner and Mr. and Mrs. Werner Marx. Mr. Warner, chief photographer for Niagara Mohawk Power Corp., and Mr. Marx, operator of Northeast Color Laboratory, were the judges in the annual competition in which members entered what they considered their best work of the year. Receiving awards for outstanding entries in this competition were: Color slides: Mary Johnston, Sarah Whitcomb and Joseph Dell; Monochrome prints: Florence Becker, Alice Porter and Jerry Gaige.

The Club's program for 1966-1967 was presented, which called for the first fall meeting to be held on September 11, followed by a meeting on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. The Club is open to new members and anyone wishing further information may call Jerry Gaige.

He is survived by his wife, the former Marion Gossman, a sister, Mrs. Laura Vadney of Delmar, and his mother, Mrs. Allen Mead of Selkirk.

The funeral will be tomorrow, Friday, at 10 A.M. at the Tebbutt Chapel in Delmar.

A TRIBUTE

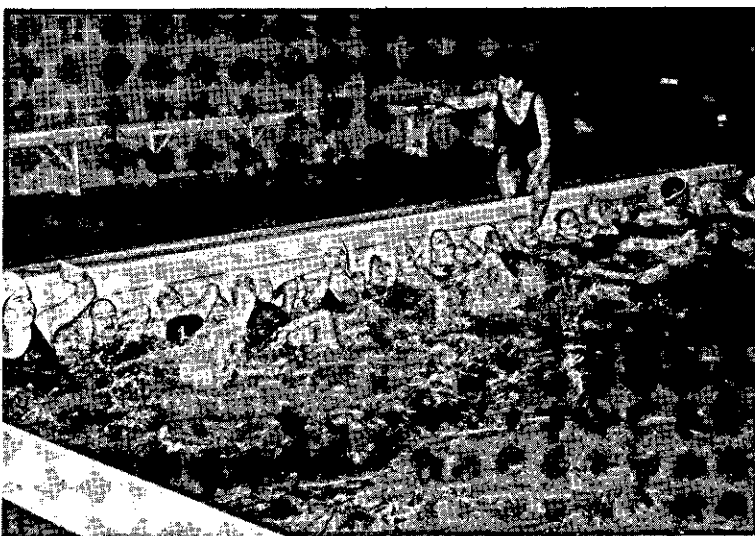

So great was David Allen Mead's devotion to his office that he reversed the old saying: "A prophet is not without honor . . ." Those who might well have been his severest critics, these men and women were the ones who said of this man: "He does a great job in one of the toughest offices in the Township!"

Swim Program

The Bethlehem Summer Swim Program for 1966 was launched on Sunday, June 26, with family swimming sessions at the Junior High School pool. Large classes in beginning swimming are held five days each week at the Kenwood Avenue site while instruction in junior life saving is being conducted mornings at the Senior High School pool.

Recreational swim sessions are well attended. These sessions are being held only at the Junior High School pool through July 8, while instruction in competitive swimming is scheduled during this same period of time. However, beginning July 11, recreational swimming will be held at both school sites for the remainder of the summer.

Meanwhile the Delmar Swim Club meets regularly during the noon recess and will continue throughout the summer. Their efforts will be rewarded with competitions against area swim clubs.

A talented staff has been employed to conduct all of the instruction programs and supervise recreational swim sessions. High School Staff: Raymond Sliter and John Rathjens, Instructor-Supervisors; Janet Kerr, Instructor Aid; Edward Monthie Instructor-Aid; Lifeguards: Carol Buttercase, Susan Starkweather, David Boehm and Robert Hall. Junior High Staff: Donald Farrell and John Rathjens, Instructor-Supervisors; Roberta MacFarland, Instructor-Aid; James Esmond, Instructor-Aid; Lifeguards: Martha Carey, Jennifer Howe, Roger Monthie and Richard Ruid.

New Officers

The new officers of the St. Thomas Altar-Rosary Society were installed at a recent meeting: Mrs. Clayton T. Bardwell, President, will be assisted by Mrs. James A. McCarroll, Jr. Vice-President; Mrs. Donald D. DeAngelis, Treasurer; Mrs. Joseph W. Doherty, Recording Secretary; and Mrs. Charles E. Boone, Corresponding Secretary.

Canoe Trip

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Carnahan, 10 Wiggand Drive, Glenmond, have completed plans for their annual wilderness canoe trip for boys and girls and have set the dates as August 15 through August 31. The wilderness trips will be taken on the Fulton Chain this year and plans have been completed for two groups. The first trip will start on August 14 and will go from Old Forge to Long Lake Village, this will be seven days. The second trip will start at Old Forge and will end at Saranac Lake. For 10 days the group will paddle and tote their canoes and food packs through the lakes and portages of the Fulton Chain, will swim, fish and sleep on the ground in the beautiful wilderness country of the Adirondacks.

For twenty years, the Carnahan's have directed wilderness canoe trips for youngsters as a vacation venture.

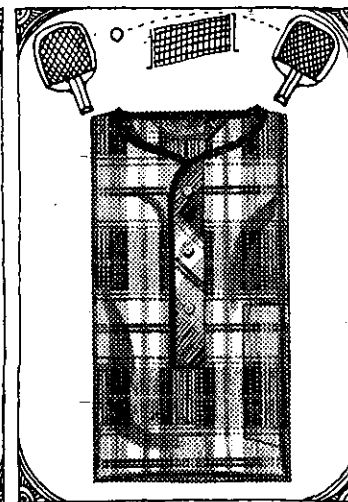

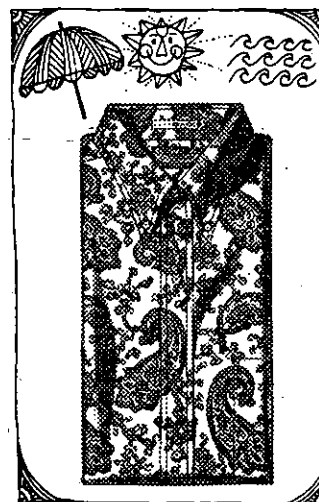

Mr. Carnahan, Director of Health and Safety Services of the Albany Area Chapter, American Red Cross, promotes these trips as a private venture during his vacation.

More than 550 boys and girls have taken canoe trips with the Carnahans and this year it is expected that the seven-day trip will be composed of some thirty people with the 10-day trip accommodating a like number.

Table Talk

Controlling Your Weight will be the topic of the July 6 Table Talk program at 8:00 A. M. on WAST, Channel 13. Mrs. Martha S. Brown Extension Home Economist with the Albany County Extension Service will present the program.

Periodically, a new fad diet attracts people's attention and is publicized as the solution to the problem. Mrs. Brown will talk about some of these fad diets, and will offer a bulletin which will help people judge

Moles

Moles and the tunnels made by moles can become quite a problem on lawns. They are unsightly, make walking somewhat hazardous, and do a lawn no good.

A mole is a persistent animal and if you want to eliminate him you have to understand him. A mole digs tunnels in search of food and his favorite food is grubs. Where there are no grubs there are rarely any moles. So instead of fighting moles directly, eliminate their favorite food.

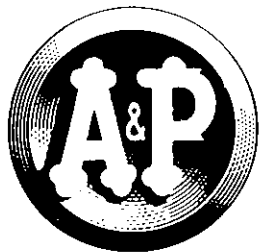

Grubs are mostly the larvae of various beetles including the Japanese beetle. They live in the soil and feed on the roots of plants. By getting rid of them you avoid grub damage and send moles (and skunks and raccoons) on their way to dig elsewhere.

The insecticide chlordane, when applied to the soil as directed, will grub-proof your lawn for about five years. Even some of the crab grass preventors help to grub-proof lawns. Both Bandane and Zytron will grub proof your lawn for one to two years.

If you are bothered by moles, your best bet is eliminate their favorite food and make them dive elsewhere.

Included in the itinerary are Badlands National Monument, Mount Rushmore, The Big Horn Mountains, Yellowstone National Park, Grand Teton National Park, Salt Lake City, Bryce Canyon, Lake Mead & Boulder Dam, Grand Canyon, Petrified Forest, Painted Desert, Cibola National Forest and many others. They will experience and visit such things as a swim in Great Salt Lake, a Pueblo Indian Village, a Koshare Indian Kiva, Dinosaur Park, Indianapolis Speedway, Lincoln's Home, Dodge City and many more. The group will experience mountain camping, canyon camping and desert camping.

The real highlight will come when we spend seven days at Philmont Scout Ranch. The Ranch, near Cimarron, New Mexico, is an outdoor camping empire, sprawling over 137,000 acres. This rugged western country is on the slopes of the Sangre de Cristo Range of the Rocky Mountains.

It is rich in history and the mark of the men who made it — ancient Indians and the writings they chiseled into the rocks — hard riding Conquistadors — early American trappers and pioneers, carving the frontier of America; the rugged breed of mountain men like Kit Carson and Lucien Maxwell laying trails across this land, building their great ranches along the Santa Fe Trail, are all monuments of Philmont's fabulous past.

The land is rich in wild game including antelope and buffalo, its hills and canyons teem with bird life, its streams abound with fish, its cool mountains harbor a wilderness of botany and are themselves a storehouse of living geology.

Philmont is rich in natural beauty and is an always remembered opportunity of adventure for every boy who makes this trip.

In order to attend a registered Scout or Explorer must be 14 years old by September 1, 1966 and in excellent physical condition. The contingent is almost filled to capacity. If any qualifying boy is interested he may

Tool Exhibit

A very fine and extensive collection of early tools has been on display at the Town of Bethlehem Museum in the Cedar Hill School building, Route 144. In order for as many people as possible to see this collection it has been decided to continue the same exhibit for the month of July. The museum is open to the public, free of charge, every Sunday afternoon from 2 to 5 P. M.

A corner of the museum has been set up with early blacksmithing equipment taken from the shop of John Martin of Glenmont. Mr. Martin is deceased, but the equipment is in the possession of his nephew, John Comstock, the present postmaster of Glenmont. The old blacksmith shop of Mr. Martin now houses the present Glenmont postoffice. On exhibit are the big anvil from the old forge, along with pony and horse shoes in varying sizes as well as "ice creepers" put on the horses' hooves to keep him from slipping on the ice-packed roads, as well as an infinite variety of smithing equipment. Also included in the display are the contents of a wheelwright's shop, for the old time blacksmith also made wheels in all sizes for wagons and buggies.

Household equipment and tools from several area families are also included, with familiar names like Baumes and Walley showing tinware, bellows, flatirons and fluting irons, as well as iron "peels" used in taking baked goods from the oven.

There are also several tables of early carpenters' tools on display, many of them also owned by Mr. Comstock, who was a prominent local home builder for many years. All types of planes, saws, hammers, and other tools of the carpenters' trade are carefully preserved and exhibited for the visitor to the museum.

RA•PID•GRO (The Original Liquid Plant Food)

Just What IS RA•PID•GRO?

RA-PID-GRO is a skillful blending of finest chemicals according to our exclusive formula. It is all plant food . . . there is no filler. You get it in clean, crystal form, which must be dissolved in water before use. RA-PID-GRO may get lumpy or hard, as sugar does, but it will not deteriorate or lose strength. It dissolves completely, leaving no residue to clog sprayers. No odor; pleasant to use. No dirt or mess.

USED BY EXPERTS SINCE 1932

RA-PID-GRO was first sold to nurserymen in its present form more than 25 years ago. It was then offered to the public in 1938. Since then, millions of pounds have been sold to home gardeners. It has been used successfully on practically any plant that you could possibly have in your garden with amazing results.

was given a surprise birthday party at her home on June 18. In attendance were several nieces and nephews and friends, including Paula and Denise Stickler, the youngest members of the family.

A Venture in Human Understanding

The children of the Glenmont School have carried out a year-long project which has involved them in learning about their world neighbors. Each class last fall selected one country about which they planned to make a thorough study and to become, really well acquainted with its people and customs. These countries were chosen: China, India, Nigeria, Korea, England, Denmark, Kenya, Chile, Israel, Iran and Brazil. During the year the geography and history have been discussed.

The children have learned about the work and industries of the people, their customs, the schools and homes, the ways in which we are alike in the things we do. They've read, talked, looked at pictures, and seen movies, but most important of all they have met people. Yes, at Glenmont, the children have played host to visitors from many parts of the world and they have brought a knowledge and understanding that could have been gained in no other way than personal contact. They've told stories about their families and the needs and desires they have.

These people have been visitors: Mrs. Kyan Khanna and Mrs. Shantha Shandra from India; Mr. and Mrs. Mohammed Yadegari from Iran; Mrs. Susanne Yokel from Israel; Mr. Abubakar Emile from Kenya; Miss Mari- anne Adolfsen from Sweden; Miss Abimboola Bolarinwa from Nigeria; Mr. Steven Hahn and Miss Youngfook Cho from Korea; Mr. Pedro Erber from Brazil; Miss Gabriella Lopez from Chile and Mrs. Morgan Chu from China.

Two young men from Delmar are enjoying similarly successful college careers, after having been friendly competitors at Bethlehem Central a few years ago. David Spence, son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Spence of 33 Wellington Rd., and Paul Bradley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan P. Bradley of 7 Furman Pl., have both just been elected to senior men's honorary societies - Dave at the University of Rochester and Paul at Colgate University.

Dave and Paul were outstanding baseball and basketball players while at Bethlehem Central, and both are now playing short-stop for their college baseball teams.

The two have been good friends since childhood, when their families lived in Buffalo, and they moved here to Delmar at about the same time.

Paul was also elected President of the Colgate honorary, the Konosioni Society, and so will be serving as a marshal at this year's graduation ceremony. He is married to the former Linda Vandenberg, whose parents recently moved to Arkansas after living in Delmar, and they have a daughter, Lisa, 14 months old.

Here's the sad news about two more families who will be soon moving from our community. Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Pfeiffer of 47 Brookview Avenue in Elsmere are currently looking for a home in the Washington D. C. area, where Mr. Pfeiffer has a new position with the Xerox Corporation.

The Pfeiffers moved here about two years ago, from Maryland, and they have two children, Kathryn, 8, and Paul, 4.

Mr. and Mrs. David R. Kerr of 44 Montrose Dr. will be moving next month to Hartford, Conn., where Mr. Kerr has been promoted to the position of national coordinator for the Hartford

Insurance Company.

The Kerr family has lived here for more than four years, and Mr. Kerr has been a Sunday School teacher at Delmar Methodist Church, a Little League coach, and a cubmaster. They have three children, David Jr., 13, Candace, 9, and Randall, 7.

The turnover of properties in this section of Elsmere has been very heavy in recent weeks, and moving vans will be a common sight in the neighborhood when this school year ends. Stay tuned for news on the newcomers.

Mrs. Robert S. (Beatrice) Herman of 9 Southwood Dr. in Slingerlands was recently elected president of the League of Women Voters of Albany County. She's been a member of the local league for about 16 years, and a vice president for the past six years.

Mr. Herman is assistant director of the budget for New York State, and the couple has two sons, Jerry, 18, now a student at New York University, and Arthur, 15, a ninth-grade pupil at Bethlehem Central.

It was Jerry Herman, incidentally, who wrote, filmed and edited the short movie, "Caution Children," which greatly impressed local audiences last year. The film took second place in the nation-wide Kodak Teenage Contest, and was recently named winner of a Golden Eagle Award by CINE, a movie organization which specializes in short subjects.

Jerry is taking a liberal arts course at NYU and expects to pursue his interest in the communicative arts.

Bea Herman is one of those soft-spoken women who hide their efficiency behind a leisurely manner. Besides her active membership in the League of Women Voters, she is a member of the Albany Citizens Against Poverty, (ACAP) the United Nations Association, the Student Theater Committee for the Bethlehem Central schools, and in the past has been on the board of the Child Guidance Center and the World Affairs Council.

Traveling is the main hobby of the Herman family and, compared to most of us, they've really been around. While Mr. Herman has served as a budget consultant on special assignments, they've lived for months

The Hermans have spent some vacations in Europe, and at other times have toured parts of our country. Young Arthur must be well-imbued with the travel bug by now, for he spent much of last summer on a youth hostel bicycling trip in and around Pennsylvania and Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman also enjoy gardening and share a great interest in the theater. They've lived in Slingerlands for the past seven years, and before that lived in Elsmere for eight years.
