

All About Dogs

Fido's Plea

Dear Fellow Kanines;

This is Fido, hear my plea—
Fellow dogs come join with me.
We'll call ourselves the Kanine Klan,
We'll devastate with subtle plan.
The finest gardens we'll trample through,
You chase me—I'll chase you;
We'll scatter refuse on our way—
In deep commitment (in seeming play)
We'll tear up flowers, shrubbery too—
We'll spray green bushes all night through.
We'll mess up every lawn in sight,
We'll bark and howl throughout the night.
Than when day comes peeping through
I'll tell you what we're gonna do:
We'll chase and bark at every car,
We'll wake all sleepers, near and far;
We'll bite the milkman, you know where;
We'll give the mailman quite a scare.

By the way Klan, did you hear
Someone has planned an ordinance here?
Some wise human has planned it in error!
Because of our nightly schemes and terror?
No, this cannot be, they can't comprehend
Our excessive freedom is now ours to spend!

Now I ask you Klan, in all our disguise—
Can man see the treachery in our doggie eyes?
"FIDO"

Reply to A Dog's Plea

Oh little dog, you've got it wrong,
You really aren't man — though strong,
For rarely does one find a man,
Who'll overturn a garbage can,
And scatter things so far and wide,
That mom can't get them back inside.

Oh little dog, you've got it wrong,
You really aren't one of us,
For we don't start our mornings off,
By harrying little kids at the bus.

Oh little dog, it's just not right,
To howl outside all through the night.
Men don't ruin hedges, it's absurd —
We beautify for Lady Bird!
We don't chase children up the street,
We don't steal neighbors cookout meat.

The privilege of running free,
(A fact that you find hard to see,)
Involves respecting others' rights:
No dirtied lawns, no little bites.
Accept your leash — wear it with pride.
Be man's best friend at home — inside!

WAKE UP DOG OWNERS

Rumor has it—the Town of Bethlehem is planning to enforce a law—to have all dogs leashed and fenced-in. Please get busy with those letters to Mr. Bertram E. Kohinke, Supervisor voting against the restriction. If all dogs are properly licensed, and have all necessary rabie shots, plus a name tag—there is not reason for such action.

I feel so sorry for people who have never known the love and protection of a good dog—so—Please start writing and let our pets enjoy the freedom they need and deserve.

On Tour

Six members of the Albany Business College faculty and administrative staff will leave Sunday, July 24, for a week-long comparative study-tour covering six cities in five states.

The group of local educators will visit leading higher business education institutions in Buffalo, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Wilmington, Delaware, and Washington, D. C.

Purpose of the study-tour will be to gain a greater insight into higher business education needs and plans in the various communities. A comparison survey will be made relative to the Capital District area.

Making the tour will be Prentiss Carnell III, secretary-treasurer of ABC; Richard Bogdan, dean of men; William R. Paju, director of the evening division; Harry Shave, director of public relations; James E. Sharp, chairman of the accounting department and Lloyd C. Purdy, assistant chairman of the secretarial department.

Visitor

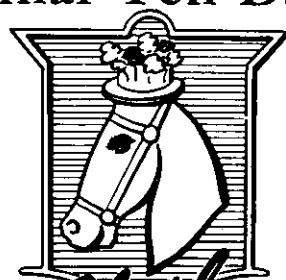

Delmar Kiwanian, Augard C. Carlson, visits the Mexico City Club, Mexico D. F. Mexico. Since the club was organized on March 15, 1963, Augie has visited them each year as Delmar's international relations committee member. During the most recent four month visit in Mexico, Augie spoke at two of their regular meetings.

Since his retirement from the New York Telephone Company in 1965, he and Mrs. Carlson have spent a part of each year managing a charity medical clinic in Taxco, Mexico as volunteers and in charge of public relations for the clinic. He will return to Taxco for another extended tour in September of 1966.

taking well earned vacations. Thus two young women have joined the staff for the summer months. Janet Lawrence, a senior at Cornell University in Ithaca, N. Y. and Susan Winn, a junior at Westminster College, in New Wilmington, Pa., are well qualified for their positions. Both have been connected with the Library for a number of years as pages and part-time employees.

Janet plans to continue after graduation and get her library science degree and Susan will go on into social service work.

Mrs. Barbara R. Rau, head librarian, is also delighted to announce that Priscilla Durocher, a recent graduate from Bethlehem Central High School, has joined the staff as a permanent member.

Mrs. Barbara R. Rau, head librarian at the Delmar Public Library, was in New York to attend the American Library Association convention during the first part of the week of July 11th. She attended meetings geared to the adult sections of the Library.

Prayer Booklets

Through the Committee That Cares in the Town of Bethlehem the Tri-Village Ministers' Association has sent "The Serviceman at Prayer" booklets to fourteen men from their town who are serving with the Armed Forces in Viet Nam.

With the booklet went this message: "With it (the booklet) go our prayers for cessation of the 'hit war' and your early return home. That cessation, we know, can only come with the assurance that the freedom for the country in which you are fighting can be sustained. Their freedom is our freedom. You know it and we want you to know we at home are backing you to our utmost."

CONGRATULATIONS to the owners of Eaton's Charcoal Water Filters

You have chosen the most effective water filter available... the Eaton Model F19. This water filter has been engineered and built to the highest quality standards and has a warranty of one year that comes with it.

This is how your Eaton Water Filter works: When the diverter button is pressed, water is channelled through the connection hose to the water filter. It passes through activated charcoal which removes the taste, odor and discoloration of chlorine, sulphur, rust, scale, metals and algae. The filter spout delivers clear, spring-fresh water and swivels out of the way when not in use.

Scene of Pagan Revelry in Hill Cumorah Pageant

Above is one of the reasons why the Hill Cumorah Pageant at Palmyra, New York, has become known as the most colorful outdoor religious spectacle in the nation. Shown here is the Court of the idolatrous King Lamoni engaged in pagan revelry. During the nighttime performances this scene is bathed in colored lights and accompanied by pulsating music. The 1966 Hill Cumorah Pageant will be presented at 9:15 p.m. July 26-30, with a dress rehearsal at 9:15 p.m. July 25 also open to the public. As in all previous years, the Pageant is entirely free of charge. This year there is a record-breaking cast of 430 players.

Pageant

This year's Pageant will be presented at 9:15 P. M. Tuesday through Saturday, July 26-30. In addition, there will be a full dress rehearsal on Monday night, July 25, to which the public is invited. Hill Cumorah is four miles south of Palmyra on Highway 21, two miles north of the Manchester Interchange, the New York Thruway, Exit 43.

"First of all," said the missionaries, "we want to extend a very cordial invitation to all residents of Delmar and vicinity to attend the Pageant. It is entirely free, with no charges of any kind, completely non-commercial.

The missionaries are Elder Tom Armstrong from Huntington Beach, California, and Elder Gary Fuhrman from Kuna, Idaho. These young men are working out of the Albany Branch of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, commonly known as the Mormon Church, which is located at 404 Partridge St., Albany. They hold services at 1:30 and 2:45 Sunday afternoons. The first service being Sacrament Meeting and the second Sunday School.

The missionaries said that there is a chartered bus going to the Pageant on Saturday, July 30.

Land Awards Increased

Original awards totaling $207,200, made by the Court of Claims for land taken by the state for arterial connection purposes south of the Menands end of the Troy-Mendands Bridge, have been increased to $227,920.

The Appellate Division made the $22,720 increase, sustaining appeals by WER Realty Inc. and Mrs. Grace K. McCully that the original awards were "inadequate."

The new decision rejects the state's cross appeal that the original verdicts were excessive."

Under the original award, WER Realty shared equally with Mrs. McCully, each getting $103,500.

Under today's decision WER's award is increased to $105,620 and Mrs. McCully's to $119,082.

Mrs. McCully of 449 Broadway, Menands, was the owner of the 21-acre tract which for many years was used for truck gardening by her family. WER Realty, 205 Delaware Ave., Elsmere, leased it from her in 1959 at an annual rental of $7,200 with option to purchase to $103,000 after 25 years.

WER in turn the next year negotiated a lease with the Grand Union grocery chain, to construct a supermarket for which Grand Union would pay $122,000 annually for 20 years, plus certain sales percentages.

Six weeks later the state stepped in and seized the site for arterial purposes, resulting in the two suits.

Warren A. Wilson of Delmar was Secretary of the Corporation in the negotiation of the Menands leases.

The law firms of DeGraff, Foy, Conway and Holt-Harris represented WER and Wood, Morris, Sanford and Hatt represented Mrs. McCully.

Welcome Back

Jack Leonardo, who recently returned home from St. Peter's Hospital, is back at the old stand in Delmar Bootery, serving his many Tri-Village customers and friends.

Mr. Leonardo wishes to thank all of those who sent gifts, flowers and cards while he was in the hospital.

IS OUR TRADITION

SELF-SERVICE, PRE-PACKAGED MEATS CAN BE A PROBLEM!

You can see the top side of the meat but not the bottom.
So you wonder.

The steak looks good, but is the bottom all bone and fat?

It's a problem... a problem we've given a lot of thought.

We think we have the answer.

We have a policy.

We put the best side down.

The side you don't see is guaranteed to be equal to or better than the side you can see.

Simple? as ABC.

Effective? No more gamble.

Fair and square? Sure because "We Care."

Is this a good reason for shopping A&P? It's one of many.

Dealer Award was presented to the dealership.

Anthony Metzner accepted the award from J. H. McCaffrey, Chrysler-Plymouth regional manager. The award is in recognition of outstanding achievement in service, sales performance, administration facilities and community relations.

Armory Garage has been selling automobiles since 1918. This is the tenth time they have received the Quality Dealer Award and they are one of only seven dealers chosen for this coveted award from a total of 153 dealers in the Chrysler Corporation's Syracuse Region.

Marshall C. Hallman, president of Marsh Hallman Chevrolet Inc., 781 Central Avenue, has received an award from L. H. Averill, general sales manager, Chevrolet Motor Division, General Motors Corporation.

Mr. Hallman's award was in recognition of his cooperation and endeavor as a member of the Dealer Planning Committee. The committee served its purpose well in assisting in the development of plans and programs directed toward the goal of more and better satisfied Chevrolet owners. Mr. Hallman lives at 159 Westchester Drive, Delmar.

At Arena

Arena Summer Theatre, a function of the Department of Speech and Dramatic Art at the State University of New York at Albany, opens its fifteenth consecutive season of fine drama Wednesday night with "Aphrodite 66: Three Plays in Three Styles," an exciting bill of original one-act plays by new American playwrights. Directed by James M. Leonard of the University's dramatic art faculty and a resident of Delmar, the plays, as yet unpublished and as yet not publicly performed in New York, premiere Wednesday through Saturday, July 20 through 23, at the Arena Summer Theatre, 135 Western Avenue, Albany.

The first play, "A Special Assignment in Enemy Territory," is a new work by Norman Kennelly whose "Undercover Man" was recently presented off-Broadway. A warm farce invested with Pop-Art nostalgia, the play takes place in a New York City movie house while images of a youthful Cary Grant and Irene Dunn flicker on the screen and a chance meeting of two lonely people leads them to examine their reasons for being there.

"The Regatta" by Milton E. Brener, a New Orleans lawyer, is a naturalistic drama which concerns a man's selfishness and the convolutions of rationalization he indulges in to preserve his pride in his struggle with his estranged wife over their son.

A darkly comic ritual of the inescapable irrational, "The Rape of Bunny Stuntz," by A. R. Gurney, Jr., deals with a superclubwoman who, after losing the key to the box which contains the agenda for the meeting over which she presides, roars away into the night with a mysterious

Tour of Asia and Africa

After a five-month world tour covering some 60,000 miles and much of Asia and Africa we returned in February, to our winter home in Clearwater, Florida.

Each spring our community club at "Twin Lakes Lodge" has a fine "Hobby Show" at which hundreds of people enjoy our handiwork of painting, weaving, needle work, carving and mechanics.

As usual Mrs. Bennett had several paintings and a fine display of the little things we had collected from many countries.

As for me, I spent several weeks in my little shop building a "one sixteenth scale model" of the water wheel used in much of Asia to raise water from wells, (usually from 12 to 40 feet deep) for the purpose of irrigating the rice paddies and other farm produce.

We have seen hundreds of these in operation and many thousands still are in daily use.

Model of ancient water-wheel.

It may be interesting to know that a camel will pump all day without any attention but a pair of bullocks, which are cheaper to buy and raise, must be followed by a driver, usually a child or woman with a short prod, because they will not make one trip around without stopping.

Then, one final observation, after traveling much of the world, enjoying everything and everybody, hoping to travel and see and learn more, still there is no place like home.

Iva and Dan Bennett.
