

THE VILLAGE VOLUNTEER FIFE AND DRUM CORPS is expanding corps for boys and girls between the ages of 10 to 15. Any child who will join this fine organization, will receive free: an instrument, music and weekly instruction from the finest teachers available. Classes will begin at the Slingerlands Fire Hall, September 11, 7 p.m. Further information and application blanks may be obtained by calling William Frueh, HE 9-1710.

Arranging the table decorations for the Chicken Barbecue Country Supper sponsored by the Altar-Rosary Society of St. Thomas Church to be held on Wednesday, September 21, at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium are left to right: Mes. James H. McQuire, Mrs. Seward J. Pittz, Hospitality Chairmen; Mrs. Glenn A. Portmann, Refreshment Chairman; Mrs. Clayton T. Bardwell, President; and Mrs. William J. Kraus.

Football Film

The official movies of the 1965 National Football League play-off game between the Green Bay Packers and the Cleveland Browns will be shown at the Senior High School auditorium Monday evening, September 19, at 8:00. The film, in color and with slow and super-slow shots of key action, is sponsored by the Bethlehem Central Men's Association.

Admission to the film showing is free to parents and children as another activity of the Men's Association to encourage parents' interest in their children's school sports activities.

Arthur Daley, sports columnist for the New York Times, calls the film "a fascinating package . . . The dream and heart-break of the Packers' 23-12 triumph over the Browns are captured in gripping style."

Great Books

Marylrose Academy, 1075 New Scotland Road, will sponsor a Junior Great Books Leader Training Course this fall in time to allow potential leaders in area schools and libraries to set up Junior Great Books discussion groups for the 1966-1967 school year. Robert Sandberg, Area Director of the Great Books Foundation, will conduct eight weekly two-hour sessions in the Marylrose cafeteria beginning Tuesday, September 13, at 7:30 p.m.

The Great Books Leader Training Course is designed to teach trainees how to conduct a discussion of a Great Book solely through the use of questions. All persons may enroll in the course without regard to their formal education or previous Great Books experience. The Great Books Foundation assumes the cost of Training leaders with the understanding that each trainee, upon successful completion of the course, will help organize and co-lead a Junior Great Books Discussion group this year. Each adult enrolled in the course will be expected, for educational reasons, to obtain the printed materials used in the course. The cost of these materials, assembled into the five-volume Source Book for the "Junior Great Books Leader Training Course," is $7.50.

Further information on the nature of Junior Great Books discussion groups and the scope of the leader training program may be obtained by contacting Sister M. Susan Margaret, chairman of the Marylrose Great Books Program, at IV 9-1993.

On the lookout for the easiest possible way to save money?

This is it. Start using National Commercial Bank's AUTOMATIC SAVING plan. People who do keep their savings on the grow without lifting a finger. They simply tell us to transfer a definite amount each month from their checking account to their savings account . . . and we do it, without fail and without charge. Deposits by the 10th of each month earn interest from the 1st. Interest is compounded and credited quarterly.

FULL SERVICE BANKING through more than 50 offices in Northeastern New York

Meeting

The Delmar Business Womens first meeting of the year will be September 14 at Schraffts. Mrs. William D. Bennett, Town Historian, will speak on "Historic Homes in the Bethlehem Area." Social Hour at 6:30, dinner at 7 o'clock.

New Service

President Lester W. Herzog, Jr., announced today that "On September 12th National Commercial Bank and Trust Company will introduce Bancardchek, a new and unique bank service combining the advantages of credit cards, travelers' checks and preferred loan privileges." This new service, exclusive with National Commercial Bank in northeastern New York, will be introduced simultaneously by a network of commercial banks across the nation.

Mr. Herzog stated that Bancardchek will provide the customer with "instant cash or credit on a nation-wide basis and, in the customer's community, the service will promote business for local merchants." He said that Bancardcheks will be readily acceptable everywhere because they have the same guarantee as cashier's or certified checks when presented with the Bancardchek identification card; that merchants, restaurants, hotels, and other businesses are particularly receptive to the service as they will receive the full amount, unlike ordinary credit card plans.

The customer will receive an identification card and $500 or more in Bancardcheks, each worth up to $25, $50 or $100, to be used with a regular account. Canceled Bancardcheks will be sent to the customer with, and itemized on, the monthly checking account statement. Whenever the customer draws a sum greater than the checking account balance, National Commercial Bank will automatically establish a loan for the amount borrowed at the bank rate and include this on the statement record. As loan advances are repaid in monthly instalments, this money will become available again for re-use by the customer.

According to Mr. Herzog, the Bancardchek service will simplify the keeping of expense records of corporate and small businesses and professional people. For companies whose executives and salesmen use Bancardchek the need to tie up capital in expense account advances will be eliminated.

BANCARDCHEK WELCOME signs will be supplied by National Commercial Bank to businesses throughout northeastern New York State.

Methodist News

On Sunday, September 11 at 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. the congregation at The First Methodist Church will celebrate "Homecoming Sunday." The Rev. do pennies make a difference in your food bill?

You bet they do.

And we should know.

We built our business by saving pennies for generations of folks like you.

For instance, take our policy on multiple-priced items.

If an item is priced 3 for 25¢, the price for one is obviously 9¢.

But what happens if you want two?

Do you pay 2 times 9¢ or 18¢?

Not at A&P.

We sell it at 2 for 17¢.

That's the fair way—the A&P way.

Yes, in the food business...

in food budgeting, pennies make a difference.

We watch them for you and for us.

Is this a good reason for shopping A&P? It's one of many.

FINANCING A COLLEGE EDUCATION...

By a
Low Cost,
Long Term,
Delayed Repayment
Loan from this Bank

For the serious-minded, determined high school graduate, loans are available at this Bank to finance a college education, even going on to graduate study, through our cooperation with the New York Higher Education Assistance Corporation.

Up to $7,500 may be borrowed over a 4 year period, and for subsequent years of graduate study.

The student pays no interest while in school. (This is assumed on the student's behalf by the New York Higher Education Assistance Corporation.) After graduation, or termination of study, the student pays only 3% interest (additional interest is assumed by the NYHEAC):

While the student may repay the loan at any time, arrangements for monthly repayment of capital must be made within 60 days after graduation or the termination of study. Payments may be spread over a period as long as six years.

Eligible students and their parents are cordially invited to consult our officers at any of our 3 conveniently located offices, or mail coupon at right for complete information —

Table Talk, presented by Extension Home Economics from eight Capitol Area counties, is shown Wednesday mornings, 7:30-8:00, on WAST-TV, Channel 13.

Meeting

"Inside Story of Baking," a narrative with slides on common causes for differences in baked products, especially cakes, will be presented at the first meeting of the fall of the Kenaware Park Home Demonstration Unit, Delmar. All homemakers of the Kenaware Park area are invited. The meeting will be held Monday, September 12, at 8 p.m. at Bethlehem Central Senior High School.

Other meetings and workshops during the year are scheduled for the second Monday evening of each month at the high school or in homes of members. In addition to these regular meetings, special homemaking projects will be taught by members who have received training through programs of the Cooperative Extension Service. Any member may gain the newest information in home economics by attending the project meetings.

Officers for this year are Mrs. Stefan B. Moses, chairman; Mrs. James J. Simeck, vice-chairman for program; Mrs. William A. Nostrand, Jr. vice-chairman for projects; Mrs. Robert Norton, secretary; Mrs. Ralph G. Schoefter, treasurer.

Meeting

A brand new season will be under way for the Tri-Village Welcome Wagon Newcomers Club when the members gather at noon on Tuesday, September 13, at the Petit Paris Restaurant. The members will view a special presentation called Wigs on Parade. Reservations are being taken by Mrs. Edwin Elmore through September 8. The chairman of this luncheon is Mrs. Henry Eckhardt.

COLONIAL ARCHITECTURE IN A PLANNED COMMUNITY - One of seven basic designs available in Colonial Acres in Glenmont, this model home offers a number of unique features, including stained wood and wrought iron door latches as well as a two car garage designed with growing families in mind.

Colonial Acres Wins Again!

Colonial Acres has been selected for the second consecutive year by House Beautiful as one of the most attractive living communities in the country.

The national magazine will feature the Glenmont development in its Fall issue.

Located off Route 32 (Feura Bush Road), the development features an adaptation of 17th and

Give yourself

An interview with Patrick J. Ryan, President

Q. "Mr. Ryan, how can I earn 5% on my savings?"

A. "By purchasing a Fidelity Savings Certificate, you earn 5% which is the highest rate available in this region."

Q. "May I purchase a Fidelity Savings Certificate by mail?"

A. "Yes, it's quite simple. Just send your check for any amount from $2500 to $10,000 (in multiple of $500) to Fidelity Bank of Colonie, together with your full name, address, and social security number. Our mailing address is Box 75, Latham, N. Y."

If your savings aren't earning as much as you think they should . . . give yourself a raise to 5%. Drop in soon; we're open 51 hours a week!

If a raise!

A bank president explains . . .
How to earn 5% on your savings.

Fidelity Bank of Colonie

Q. "How does it work?"

A. "You buy a Certificate for an amount from $2500 to $10,000 for a minimum of 12 months. At the end of that period, you receive the amount of the Certificate plus a big 5% interest from the day of deposit."

Q. "May I redeem the Certificate in less than 12 months?"

A. "Yes, if necessary. If you wish to do so, upon 90 days written notice we will redeem your Certificate plus earnings of 3.75% for the time you held the Certificate."

Q. "When will I receive my Certificate?"

A. "We normally mail your Certificate on the same day we receive your check. Your money begins earning the big 5% on the day we receive it."

Q. "Are Certificates renewable?"

A. "Yes, automatically. They will be renewed for similar periods at interest rates then determined by the Bank, unless you or the Bank give notice otherwise."

18th century architecture for the needs of 20th century living.

Seven basic designs are offered in the community—one and two-story colonial Cape Cod, garrison, gambrel, salt box farm house.

All houses feature wrought iron door latches, pegged wide plank flooring, flagstone entrances, huge fireplaces and rubbed wood cabinetry.

Homes are priced from $35,000 to $50,000. Residents will have exclusive use of a swimming pool in the community as well as a spacious 9-hole golf course.

Designed for growing families, the homes are enhanced by two-car garages and all electric kitchens.

The homes are customized for individual families, offering six cabinet styles alone, in a choice of three woods and nine hand rubbed finishes.

Untouched areas are graced with natural growth of pine, oak and birch trees, while wood roofed mailboxes stained to match the homes and street signs swinging from the wooden posts fit in with the natural motif in the community.

Most homes are stained, not painted, to Williamsburg hues, offering a double blessing since less maintenance is required.

Financing is available to prospective buyers for the nine home and 13 lots still available in the community.

Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Selkirk Fire Company #2 Ladies Auxiliary will be held in the Glenmont firehouse on Tuesday, September 13 at 8:00 p.m.

Preceding the meeting at 7:15

Red Cross. Fire Company members and their wives and auxiliary members husbands are invited.

Proclamation

WHEREAS the future of this Town and of the nation lies in the hands of the youth of today, and

WHEREAS these youth are best prepared for responsible citizenship and for careers by means of a conscientious and continued formal education, and

WHEREAS a full understanding of the need to stay in school is essential to achieve this purpose, and

WHEREAS many boys and girls who might otherwise not return to school in the fall, or continue in their classes after enrollment, NEED help and encouragement, and

WHEREAS many public and private organizations in this Town can contribute time and effort in encouraging and promoting continued education, now

THEREFORE, I, Bertram E. Kohinke, Supervisor of the Town of Bethlehem, do hereby name and declare the week of September 12, 1966 as Stay-in-School Week, and call upon all citizens of the Town of Bethlehem to join the Youth Opportunity Stay-in-School Week, and call upon all citizens of the Town of Bethlehem to join in the Youth Opportunity Stay-in-School Campaign, and actively participate in measures to accomplish the highest possible enrollment of students in school this Fall.

Two Appointments

On August 31, the Bethlehem Town Board made two appointments to fill the unexpired terms of deceased members.

Appointed to Councilman vacancy was Thomas V. Corrigan who has been a Republican Committeeman for the past three years and a Sewer Commissioner during 1963-64. He was born in Saginaw, Michigan, but received most of his education in this area at Christian Brothers Academy and the evening division of Siena and St. Rose Colleges. He is employed by the New York Telephone Company at the main office, 158 State has announced that the Post members will again distribute school book covers imprinted with a non-sectarian prayer.

Book Covers

Commander Joseph Cannizaro of Nathaniel Adams Blanchard Post, American Legion,

The prayer was composed by three clergymen: a Protestant minister, Jewish rabbi and a Catholic priest.

This is a state-wide program of the Legion which has been well-received. There is no charge for the covers which may be obtained at the Post rooms on Elsmere Avenue or at either local branch of the National Commercial Bank and Trust Company.

LETTERS

An Open Letter to
Mrs. Kathryn Stahl
Feura Bush, N.Y.

Your recent letter was welcome in this office because it brought home to the writer once again that human frailty being what it is, we should try harder not to offend any of the Spotlight readers.

Your brother's picture was received at our office during the time of year that an avalanche of pictures hits us from colleges all over this country. To keep the pictures in order and use them all in the order they are received is an almost impossible job. From the experience you had, we doubt that you will believe that we try to slight no one, and that we DO try to be careful. But, we DO try, and like all humans, we have our failures.

When Pvt. James Parker's picture arrived, we set the caption which said, in effect, that he would leave for Viet Nam within two weeks. By the time his turn came up, several weeks had gone by making the caption valueless. Therefore, the picture was held pending receipt of further information. The information didn't arrive and finally the original caption got separated from the picture and all the identity we had was his name written on the back.

We offer you our sincere apology for having been lax to the point of hurting you, your family, and not least, Private Parker.

We print his picture herewith. Private James Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Parker, of Glenmont, has long since departed for Viet Nam where he

The Editors

Dear Sir:

On behalf of the Board of Directors of the Albany, Schenectady and Greene County Agricultural Societies, Inc. and myself, I wish to thank you for the fine cooperation given the Al-tamont Fair this year.

Although our newspaper ad-
