Library Notes

How many of you have ever heard of Joseph Henry? Don't be embarrassed — too few of us are even vaguely familiar with either the man or the contributions he made as probably America's greatest scientist or physicist of the nineteenth century. On Wednesday, February 15, at 12:15 at the Delmar Public Library, D.J. Christie will talk about Henry, high-lighting his life as an academic and scientific leader.

Mr. Christie and Mr. Henry met a few years ago via Thomas Coulson's biography of the great man. "Since then," Mr. Christie states, "I have tried to play a small part in bringing to whomever will listen, his story. It was astounding to me that I could have lived in and around Albany all my life and still not have heard of Henry except in the most general way. I believe him to have been the greatest Albanian."

The Encyclopedia Britannica devotes almost a page and a half to Joseph Henry and with very good reason. In 1826 he discovered the interchangeability of magnetism and electricity. In 1831 at the Albany Academy he constructed the first electromagnetic telegraph. His contribution of practically every commercial application of electricity: telegraph, telephone, motors, relays, transformers, and on to radio and television.

For those who can extend their lunch hour, Mr. Christie will show a twenty minute film concerned with the Smithsonian Institution. The tie-in with Mr. Henry comes from the fact that in 1846, he was elected by the

Mr. Christie, guest speaker of this Sandwich in a Book session, is Personnel and Safety Director of John A. Manning Paper Company.

A short biographical sketch concerning him elicited: "Many years ago I was sole Trustee (that was the term then used) of the Poestenkill School District. I do not brag about this very much because during one term all three teachers resigned and the janitor died."

How could a talk by this gentleman be anything but entertaining as well as informative? Bring your sandwich. Mrs. Mary Wasserbach, a member of the Library staff, will have lots of hot coffee ready and waiting.

GOP Dinner

Governor Nelson A Rocke-feller and Congressman Daniel E. Button (29th District) will share the same platform for the first time since their November upset victories, at the 69th Annual Lincoln Day Dinner, February 13, 7:00 P.M. in the Schine Ten Eyck Hotel, Albany.

Joseph C. Frangella, Chairman of the Albany County Republican Committee named Carl Walters, Supervisor of the Town of Guilderland, as General Chairman of the annual event. Walters will be assisted by John Tabner, Colonie and Mrs. Carl Warner of East Berne as Vice-Chairmen.

Robert D. Stone, Deputy Commissioner of the Office of General Services, who will assume new duties as Governor Rockefeller's appointment officer, will be Toastmaster of the dinner.

Mr. Frangella said the dinner will for the first time bring Albany, Schenectady and Rensselaer counties together in a celebration of the upset victory by Congressman Daniel Button, whose 29th District embraces Albany and parts of Schenectady and Rensselaer counties. The last Republican Congressman elected in the district was Roland B. Sanford in 1918. In the same year, Republican Governor Whitman carried Albany County, which was to be repeated in 1966 by Governor Rockefeller.

MS Meeting

Two of the three people who "invented" the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, 21 years ago in a New York restaurant, met again in Albany at a two-day workshop held for New York State regional campaign directors at the Sheraton Inne Towne Motor Inn on Broadway.

Sylvia Lawrey, executive director of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, and Dr. Albert H. Harris, 27 Southwood Drive, Slingerlands, the research scientist who is board chairman of the Captial District MS Chapter, recalled how they, together with William Breed, Dr. Harris's college roommate, drew up on a tablecloth the first plans for a national organization to fight an affliction that doctors now call America's No. 1 neurological disease.

Multiple sclerosis today afflicts some 500,000 people, but its cause, cure and treatment are still unknown. However, according to Dr. Harris, as quoted by Miss Lawry in her address to the workshop delegates, "All pieces of the puzzle have been laid out on the table and it remains only to identify the keystone and then put them all together properly."

Among the non-technical pieces of puzzle visible to scientists working under a new million-dollar grant from the National MS Society are the facts that MS is five to ten times as prevailent in cold or temperate climates as it is in warm or tropical ones; that it afflicts more women than men; that it usually strikes people between the ages of 20 and 40.

With whimsical pride, Miss Lawry noted that her organization is one of the very few private groups ever to come to the financial assistance of the United States Government.

It appears that Dr. Richard L. Masland, director of the National Institute of Neurological Diseases and Blindness found his researchers running short of funds in an investigation of certain virus antibodies believed to hold a clue to possible multiple sclerosis viruses. With no prospect of receiving additional funds from the government until the following year, Dr. Masland revealed his predicament to the Multiple Sclerosis Society.

He was at once presented with a check for $59,816, the amount needed to enable the U.S. Public Health Service scientists to continue their promising explorations.

March Lags

The first tabulation of collections for The Albany County 1967 March of Dimes Campaign from schools. government departments, Mothers March, special and sports events, and mailers, shows a total of $31,200, it was reported by Thomas J. McEnancy, Chapter Chairman.

Mailers sent out early in January to all homes, business firms, and organizations in the county, are not being returned as yet in quantity. "About 5,300 have been received at County Headquarters so far" said Mr. McEnaney, "but to attain the goal of $85,000 this year hundreds more of the mailers from all over the county, should be returned with a generous contribution."

why does the fish in Caph John's frozen fish din

It takes no longer than heating pre-cooked frozen fish...only 20 minutes.

You see, we're sort of fanatics about fresh fish flavor.

So we refuse to pre-cook the fish.

Here's what we do:

We dip the fillet in milk batter.

Bread it. Top it with butter.

We blanch the peas.

Partly cook the potatoes.

So everything's done at once (in only 20 minutes)

when you cook it.

The result.

A fish dinner that tastes like the fish is fresh-cooked.

It should. Because it is.

One important tip.

Be sure the oven is really pre-heated to 400° F.

LETTER

Editor:

After attending the meeting on January 24 in regard to a dog ordinance, we must conclude that those who profess anxiety for their dogs' freedom are really more concerned with their own freedom. Kennel owners and veterinarians who recommended restraint were ignored. No one had sympathy for those who had been molested.

Unfortunately, in our society, those among us who are good neighbors must sometimes suffer along with those who aren't, If the patience of many good people in this town had not been strained to the breaking point, the subject of a dog ordinance would never have been brought up. We live too close to each other these days not to try to put ourselves in our neighbors' shoes, rather than on his proper-

Biography

Born of Salvationist parents, Captain David A. Baxendale is a "son of the regiment," his parents have given over 40 years to Salvation Army field work and are now retired, living in Ocean Grove, New Jersey.

Typical of all Officers children, Captain Baxendale and his three brothers grew up in widely scattered parts of the Eastern United States, as his parents appointments led them. From Brooklyn to Western New York and then on to New England, the Captain attended the local schools and participated in the Army's youth program. In 1948 he was sent by the Salvation Army as a delegate to a world youth leaders' conference in England.

While in the New England area, he entered Springfield College, Springfield, Mass. and was graduated Cum Laude in 1952, having majored in group work and community organization. By this time it seemed clear to Captain Baxendale that his special field of endeavor was to be with the organization to which his parents had given their lives so devotedly, and which only now he was beginning to appreciate and understand. To prepare himself further for Officership, he entered Xenia Theological Seminary in Pittsburgh as a special student. During this time he married Miss Alice Chamberlain. daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Wm. Chamberlain, Chief Secretary (2nd in Command) for the Western Territory. Together they entered The Salvation Army School for Officers' Training in New York City and were commissioned as 2nd Lieutenants in Their first appointment was in charge of the Passaic-Clifton area where they served for four years, going to the Greater Paterson, N.J. area in July 1959.

Captain David A. Baxendale

In July of 1962, the Captain became the Education Officer at the School for Officers; Training in New York where his duties include Administration, teaching, program planning, curriculum and Library supervision, grading systems and coordination of program. While there the Captain completed his Master's Degree (M.A.) at Columbia University (Teacher's College) and was elected to Phi Delta Kappa, the National Honor Fraternity for men educators.

In June of 1966, Capt. and Mrs. Baxendale were appointed Divisional Youth Secretaries for the Eastern N.Y. Division, responsible for the S.A.'s youth program in the 24 communities, from Massena at the Canadian Border in the north to Middletown, N.Y. in the South, the New England State lines in the east and Oneida, N.Y. in the Western part of this region.

The Captain and his wife are also responsible for administration of the S.A.'s 280 acre Camp Saddle Lake located at the foot hills of the Adirondacks between Saratoga and Glens Falls where needy children are given 10 days to 2 weeks away from the congested cities.

The Captain is also a member of the Academy of Certified Social Workers.

The Captain has a brother, Paul, who is a Captain in the S.A. and is stationed in Penn Yan, N.Y. The Baxendale's have 3 children: Susan 9, Robin 7, and David 3.

Nuclear Plant

Niagara Mohawk Power Corporation announced recently that it has decided to exercise options it holds on the nearly 900-acre site in the Town of Easton, Washington County, where it proposes to build a 100 million dollar nuclear electric generating station.

Administrative Vice President R. H. Stratton said in Albany that after months of preliminary study the company now will go ahead with other extensive tests required before construction of the plant can get under way.

Actual construction, he pointed out, must await results of the tests and the granting of a license by the Atomic Energy Commission in Washington.

The company said early last November that it was considering as the location of its second huge nuclear electric generating plant a site in Washington County along the east side of the Hudson River in the Town of Easton about opposite Bemis Heights.

Decision on the site selection, the company pointed out at the time, had to wait preliminary test borings to satisfy engineering experts that the site could meet this first of a series of exacting standards established by the company and the A.E.C.

The site in question consists of three parcels, with a combined area of slightly less than 900 acres, owned by Thomas A. Joseph and Vincent Gorsky.

The proposed 750,000 kilowatti generating plant will be the second nuclear power-generating plant to be built by Niagara Mohawk in its upstate New York service area. The first, scheduled to go into operation in 1968, now is under construction on the shore of Lake Ontario near Oswego.

The new plant, under present plans, will be ready for commercial operation by late 1971 to meet the area's growing electrical requirements.

Vast amounts of data, including soil, weather and water information, will be required both by the company and various regulatory agencies, before the authority is granted to start plant construction. This will take about a year.

The new plant, like the Nine Mile Point plant near Oswego, will utilize as its source of heat energy a nuclear boiling water reactor. The plant will be designed and engineered by the company's engineering department. The nuclear system which will produce the steam to drive the 750,000 kilowatt electric generator, will be supplied by General Electric Company, with a large amount of the equipment being manufactured in Schenectady.

Niagara Mohawk pointed out that the new plant would not replace any of its existing coal-fired plants, such as that along the Hudson River south of Albany in the Town of Bethlehem. The company now has 4 steamelectric and 76 hydroelectric stations with a total capacity of nearly 3,000,000 kw. The two new nuclear plants will increase that capacity to 4,300,000 kw. In addition, the company has firm contracts for purchase of 1,400,000 kw.

It is estimated that construction of the new plant will need a labor force of up to 750 men over the four-year construction period. When it goes into operation, the plant will require a staff of about 65, a number of whom will have to obtain special operating licenses from the A. E.C.

PANELS...FOR BRIGHT NEW IDEAS IN DECORATIVE EXPRESSION

K-Lux panels look just like expensive decorative glass, but cost only a fraction as much. In the 20th Century medium of architectural plastics, they recapture the warmth and richness of old and hallowed handworked patterns, providing the beauty of the glazier's art, but without the breakability of glass.

Dramatic effects are achieved when K-Lux panels are backlighted with daylight or artificial light, as in walls, dividers, screens and window panes. Their soft, diffused light imparts a subtle color tone to the environment. Several patterns are "embellished," with designs opaquepainted to bring out their pattern more vividly.

Divider Screens (as shown) assembled $59.50

USE INDOORS OR OUTDOORS

K-Lux panels are made in two materials for indoor or outdoor use. Outdoor panels are unaffected by time, sun, weather and extremes of climatic conditions. Indoor panels are equal in strength, beauty and durability; without the need for sun and weather resistance, they cost less. They may also be used behind glass in doors and windows.

The facts of written history refute the theory that indefference and ignorance can replace patriotism.
